2011 VIRGINIA FECH SPRING FOOTBALL

2011 SPRING FOOTBALL GUIDE

MEDIA INFORMATION

Itinerary: Spring practice is scheduled to run from March 30 through April 23. The annual Spring Game is scheduled for Saturday, April 23, at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field, beginning at 2 p.m. Media accommodations for the game are in the fifth level press box on the west side of the stadium.

Practice coverage: Tech will practice each Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, except April 16. A practice will be held on Thursday, April 14 that week. On Mondays and Fridays, practices are closed to all. On Wednesdays, the stretching session and the first two periods are open to media. Two scrimmages are open to media and fans, but media are asked to stand on the East/visitor sideline, behind the end zones or sit in the stands. All practices, except for scrimmages on April 9 and 15, and the Spring Game, are closed to the general public. The Hokies will work out at the football practice fields behind the Merryman Center or, in the event of inclement weather, in Rector Field House. Scrimmages are scheduled to be held at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field. Dates and times, listed on this page, are subject to change. Please note that the schedule does not include meeting and conditioning assignments. No tweeting is allowed during scrimmages or the open portion of practices.

Interviews: Interviews with coaches, players and staff will be held in a 15-minute session after each Wednesday practice, and then four players requested by media, plus coaches, will be available after the two open scrimmages.

Photographers: Videographers and photographers may go into the stretching area but must film only from the sidelines once the team goes into the first two periods. Please refrain from edging onto the playing field to avoid any injury to players and/or photographers.

OFFENSIVE LINE

LEFT TACKLE

Andrew Lanier (r-Sr.) – Entered 2010 as the No. 2 left tackle but took over the starting job when Nick Becton developed turf toe ... Started every game ... Showed steady improvement throughout the season ... Needs to keep weight on after finishing 2010 at 270 pounds.

Nick Becton (r-Jr.) – Suffered a setback last fall when he developed turf toe ... Was slated to start but was limited to a few series per game ... Will get a chance to get back in the thick of things this spring ... Is athletic and very talented ... Needs to show he is ready to play.

Mark Shuman (r-Fr.) – An outstanding prospect who will likely get a ton of reps during the spring ... Is big, tough, athletic and can really move his feet ... Coaches would like to get him ready to play as fast as possible.

LEFT GUARD

Greg Nosal (r-Sr.) – Started all 14 games last fall, playing over 800 snaps ... Won't get any reps during the spring after undergoing shoulder surgery in January ... Will work on getting bigger and be ready to go in August.

David Wang (r-So.) – Will move into the top spot for spring practice ... Has a lot of power and pop ... Got better throughout the 2010 season ... Hokies need him to play ... Coaches are excited to see what he can do.

Courtney Prince (r-Jr.) – Fliped back and forth at the guard positions last year ... Needs to show he can help the Hokies up front ... Didn't get enough reps during the season but should make up for that this spring.

Matt Arkema (r-Fr.) – A newcomer with promise ... Is going to get reps at guard and center this spring, which will enhance his chances of getting on the field ... Coaches feel he has the ability to help the team at both positions.

CENTER

Andrew Miller (r-So.) – A tough, hardnosed player with ability ... Served as a backup at center and right guard in the fall ... Slowed by a shoulder injury early on but saw action in 12 games ... Will get a shot at the starting duties.

Michael Via (r-Jr.) – Another versatile lineman who has been limited by injuries ... Got three starts at center as a redshirt freshman in 2009 ... Came back fast from a sprained ACL surgery and played some offensive tackle last fall ...Will get reps at both center and right tackle.

Bo Gentry (r-Jr.) – Provides depth at the center spot ... As hard a worker as the Hokies have on the line ... Son of strength and conditioning coach Mike Gentry.

RIGHT GUARD

Jaymes Brooks (r-Sr.) – A two-year regular with 28 consecutive starts ... Earned second-team All-ACC honors in 2010 ... Has a lot of power and explosiveness ... Will work on some areas of protection this spring ... Coaches are expecting big things from him as a senior.

Laurence Gibson (r-Fr.) – Has moved from tackle to guard ... Is the type of physical player who can have success inside ... Entering school during January last year has been a big plus ... This will be a big spring for him ... Coaches expect to see a lot of improvement.

HEADLINES

Key Loss: center Beau Warren

Key Returnees: tackle Blake DeChristopher; tackle Andrew Lanier; guard Jaymes Brooks; guard Greg Nosal

All four returnees started every game last season, with DeChristopher and Brooks both earning second-team All-ACC honors.

Battle to Watch: Last year, Nick Becton was slated to start at left tackle before turf toe wiped out much of his season. Becton is completely back this spring and ready to battle Andrew Lanier, who stepped in and started every game in 2010.

Breakout Candidate: With center the only position along the offensive line that doesn't return a starter, the coaches are hoping that talented Andrew Miller can fill the void. He has the toughness, the temperament and the mentality for the job but will need to show that he can do it in the heat of battle.

Caleb Farris (Fr.) – Entered school in January ... Made strides in the off-season program ... Shows athleticism ... Will get some reps to see where he stands.

RIGHT TACKLE

Blake DeChristopher (r-Sr.) – Takes over the role of veteran on the O-line ... A three-year regular with 37 starts under his belt ... Has been very solid for the Hokies ... Second-team All-ACC in 2010 ... Will be pulled out at times to get some first-team reps for Michael Via.

Vinston Painter (r-Jr.) – Is moving outside to tackle, which might better fit his skill set ... Showed big improvement late in the season last fall ... A weight room standout who appears more confident ... Coaches are hoping it all comes together for him this spring.

Coach Newsome on the offensive line: "I think the No.1 thing this spring is to get as many people ready to play as possible. I think we are going to be able to play the most people up front that we have ever been able to play the most people got four starters returning, and of course you want to get them work, but they are an older group. I really want to concentrate on getting the other guys reps and finding out if they are ready to play. We could end up with a really good situation. I thought overall we were pretty productive a year ago and I feel this group can be even better because I think we can take some people off the field without having a big dropoff."

RECEIVERS & TIGHT ENDS

SPLIT END

Jarrett Boykin (Sr.) – Is poised to become Tech's all-time leader in pass receptions and receiving yards ... Hauled in 53 passes for 847 yards and six touchdowns in 2010 ... Continues working to be the best ... Is big and physical ... Can bring the ball down in a crowd ... Coaches are looking for him to have a really good spring.

D.J. Coles (Jr.) – Has a lot of tools, including size and speed ... Worked hard during winter workouts ... Needs to be an every-down guy on a consistent basis ... Has the desire to accomplish that.

E.L. Smiling (r-Fr.) – A young talent whom the coaches plan to take a good look at ... Another bigbodied player with speed ... Still needs to get stronger and be more physical in the run game ... Will get thrown in the mix this spring.

FLANKER

Danny Coale (r-Sr.) – An extremely hard worker who is hard to get off the field ... Averaged a team-leading 18.8 yards a catch during the fall ... Enters his final year already ranked in the top 10 at Tech in receptions and receiving yards ... Works at the little things that help make him so valuable ... Coaches want him to be a leader, not only for the receivers, but for the team as well.

Marcus Davis (r-Jr.) – A great athlete who has bought into the weight room and done some explosive things during the off-season ... Needs to transfer what he is doing in the weight room to the field ... Really stepped in and did some good things when Dyrell Roberts got hurt last fall ... Coaches want him to take another step and become a big-time contributor.

Dyrell Roberts (Sr.) – A big-play threat as a receiver and return man ... Caught 21 balls last fall before he was sidelined for the final five games by a thigh injury ... Is trying to get his weight back up ... Is not likely to see contact work this spring ... Summer will be key to him heading into preseason camp.

Willie Byrn (r-Fr.) – Showed some good things in preseason camp and scrimmages ... Will get some reps to see if he can contribute ... Has the intangibles.

Coach Sherman on the wide receivers: "I like the whole group. I like what they

"I like the whole group, I like what they are all about. They all have different roles and I think they each understand that. But, to be the group I think they want to be, they have to go out there this spring and master the craft ... get better at the little things. If they do that, the big things will come. The big thing about them is that their work ethic has changed. Since the bowl game, there is something about them. They're hungry right now. They want to be the best that they can be, and more importantly, they want to continue to win and carry on the tradition here at Virginia Tech."

TIGHT END

Chris Drager (r-Sr.) – Moves to the top of the depth chart after spending the last two seasons at defensive end, including last fall as a starter ... Began his Tech career at tight end, playing in 11 games during the 2008 season, including one start ... Caught three passes for 37 yards ... Won the Coaches' Award for

HEADLINES

Key Loss: tight end Andre Smith

Key Returnees: split end Jarrett Boykin; flanker Danny Coale; flanker Dyrell Roberts

Boykin, Coale and Roberts were Tech's top three receivers for the second consecutive season, combining for 113 catches for 1,882 yards and 11 TDs in 2010.

Battle to Watch: Chris Drager's move to tight end will solidify the starting job but for the second straight year the No. 2 spot is up for grabs, and the cast of contenders is the same. Eric Martin may have an edge after holding the role during the fall, but Randall Dunn has the ability to stretch the field and redshirt Jerome Lewis could have the most potential.

Breakout Candidate: Big-bodied receivers Marcus Davis and D.J. Coles are both candidates. The Tech coaches would like to see these two players step up and be big contributors, which would allow Jarrett Boykin and Danny Coale to get off the field a little more. The ability to do that could make Tech a stronger team at the end of the year.

the offensive player who had an exceptional spring in 2009 prior to moving to DE that fall.

Eric Martin (r-So.) – Was the second tight end in 2010 when the Hokies used two tight end sets ... Played in 11 games, starting one ... Blocks well, but needs to play a little bit better in space ... Is working to improve his speed and quickness ... A solid, dependable performer.

Randall Dunn (r-Jr.) – Saw limited action at TE during the fall ... A positive in the passing game who can run and stretch the field ... Must improve as a blocker and continue to learn the offense ... Will get a good look this spring.

Jerome Lewis (r-Fr.) – Needs to have a maturing spring ... Can do the job physically, but must improve on the mental aspect of the game ... Has made some strides, but still has to earn the coaches' trust.

George George (r-Jr.) – Saw brief reserve time at TE in two games ... A hard worker who is consistent at what he does ... Understands the game but must continue to work at playing a little quicker.

Coach Stinespring on the tight ends:

"This spring will be about what each individual at this position has to do. Everybody within this group of tight ends needs to improve on something different from the others in order to improve their cause and ours. Some players have to get a little faster, some a little stronger, while others are going to have to block better or run better routes. We really have a wide array of things that we have to get done this spring."

RUNNING BACKS & QBS

HEADLINES

Key Losses: quarterback Tyrod Taylor; tailback Ryan Williams; tailback Darren Evans

Key Returnees: tailback David Wilson; fullback Josh Oglesby

With backfield mates Williams and Evans opting to leave early for the NFL Draft, Oglesby will return to his original position and join Wilson at tailback. Wilson averaged 5.5 yards a carry last season when he ran for 619 yards and five TDs. He also caught 15 passes for 234 yards and four scores.

Battle to Watch: There is going to be daily competition at the fullback position, where the top spot is wide open. Joey Phillips, Martin Scales and Riley Beiro are all capable of filling the job and are eager to show what they can do.

Breakout Candidate: Redshirt sophomore Logan Thomas heads into the spring as the leading candidate to replace record-setting quarterback Tyrod Taylor. There has been a lot of anticipation surrounding the 6-foot-6 signal-caller and he will get a chance to finally seize the spot after two years of preparation.

TAILBACK

David Wilson (Jr.) – Was third on the team in rushing during the fall with 619 yards on 113 attempts, an average of 5.5 yards a carry ... Scored five touchdowns rushing, four receiving and two on kickoffs ... Athletically, is among the best tailbacks the Hokies have had ... Will also be allowed to participate in track during the spring.

Josh Oglesby (r-Sr.) – Will move back to tailback after sharing time at fullback last season ... Is a more complete player ... Has really become a good blocker ... Possesses a great deal of ability ... Will get a lot of reps in the spring.

Tony Gregory (r-So.) – Showed promise in the fall but suffered a setback when he tore his ACL on punt coverage during the UNC game ... Stayed around Blacksburg to rehab every day when everybody else went home after the Orange Bowl ... Will miss spring work but should be ready for fall.

James Hopper (r-So.) – Will move over from defense where he was a rover ... Was a tailback in high school ... Has some toughness and excellent speed ... Will get a chance to show what he can do.

Daniel Dyer (r-Fr.) – A hard worker ... Did a good job in the scout team's Monday scrimmages ... Coaches will see what he can do.

FULLBACK

Joey Phillips (r-Jr.) – Has some experience after becoming a starter on the team's goal-line offense during the fall ... Works hard both on and off the field ... A Super Iron Hokie in the weight room ... Will be in the thick of the battle for the top spot this spring.

Martin Scales (r-Jr.) - A standout on special teams during the fall ...Will get a shot at fullback this spring ... Has a lot of promise ... Possesses ability as a runner after playing some tailback in high school ... Is very physical ... Coaches feel he can be good ... Will get a lot of reps.

Riley Beiro (r-Fr.) – Is set to move to fullback after working at tailback during the fall ... A physical player with toughness ... The only freshman to earn Super Iron Hokie honors during scout team testing in the fall ... Has a chance to help the Hokies.

Coach Shane Beamer on the running backs: "First, from a personal standpoint, I want to familiarize myself with the personnel. Then,

I want to figure out what each guy can do and how they can help us. Obviously, we have to replace two real good ones in Ryan Williams and Darren Evans, so that is a big challenge.Ryan and Darren played a lot last year along with David Wilson. We've got some guys who will be limited in the spring because of injury, but we've got to develop some depth at both the tailback and fullback positions."

QUARTERBACK

Logan Thomas (r-So.) – Served as the top backup to Tyrod Taylor during the fall ... Saw brief action in seven games ... Is big, tall, athletic and smart ... Became a more accurate passer during the fall ... Has made big strides mentally as well ... Will work on footwork, balance in the pocket and timing during the spring ... Is scheduled to get a lot of similated game action.

Ju-Ju Clayton (r-Jr.) – Didn't get a lot of work last fall, but understood his role and did a great job with it ... Has become a more precise and accurate passer ... Has performed well when called upon in practice ...

Knows the offense and understands what is happening on the other side of the ball ... Spring practice will determine where he fits in.

Ricardo Young (r-Fr.) – A young player who has shown a knack for making things happen ... Has tremendous quickness, but hasn't thrown the ball quite as well as hoped in drill situations ... Is working to improve his arm strength ... Will get the chance to compete for the top spots.

Mark Leal (r-Fr.) – Worked on the scout team during the fall while redshirting ... Hasn't seen much work, but will be given an opportunity to show what he can do ... Has a quick release and a very strong arm ... May need some work on his delivery.

Trey Gresh (r-Fr.) – Heading into his second spring after entering school in January 2010 ... Coaches haven't seen much of him, but liked how he performed in the 2010 spring game ... Has ability, just needs to get some reps.

Coach O'Cain on the quarterbacks: "The top goal every year, and particularly this year, is to come out of spring with a No. 1 guy, a guy we can hang our hat on and go into guy, a guy we can hang our nation and go into August knowing he is our quarterback. Obviously, the frontrunner right now is Logan Thomas, but our other candidates are going to get every opportunity to compete with him for the job this spring. We know a little bit about Logan and we know a good bit about Ju-Ju. The thing we don't know about is the other three guys. It is going to be important this spring to give them enough work so we can see where they are going to fit in the pecking order and give them an opportunity to show what they can do. We are going to have to make some hard decisions in terms of who gets work when."

HEADLINES

Key Losses: tackle John Graves; end Steven Friday; end Chris Drager

Key Returnee: tackle Antoine Hopkins

With returning starter Drager moving to offense, Antoine Hopkins becomes the only returning starter up front. Hopkins started the last 12 games of 2010 and will play an important role this spring.

Battle to Watch: Practically the entire defensive line will be a battle every practice with Antoine Hopkins the only starter returning. J.R. Collins and James Gayle appear solid for the starting end spots, but everything else on the depth chart is wide open.

Breakout Candidate: J.R. Collins is slated to start at one of the defensive end spots but will also get some work at tackle this spring. That move is more about Collins' ability than the Hokies' needs, but Coach Charley Wiles wants the tackle positions to be more productive and active. Wiles knows what Collins brings to the table, so count on the redshirt sophomore being on the field somewhere.

END

J.R. Collins (r-So.) – Is slated to start at one of the end positions, but is also scheduled to get some reps at tackle ... Played in 13 games last fall, including one start ... Third on the team in sacks with five ... An active player who chases the football and runs people down ... Is hard to block one-on-one and plays extremely hard ... Loves the game.

James Gayle (r-So.) – Will open the spring as a starter ... Played in every game and started two during the fall with four sacks and 12 QB hurries ... Excelled in the weight room during the winter, earning the elite Excaliber Award ... Is strong and explosive ... Has gained a better understanding of the position.

Zack McCray (r-Fr.) – A smooth athlete who has excited the coaches with his ability ... Very intelligent, will learn from each rep and improve ... Must continue to improve strength-wise and be more aggressive ... Is going to make some plays ... Will get a lot of reps this spring.

Duan Perez-Means (r-Fr.) – Had a great spring a year ago, but leveled out some during the fall ... Coaches are counting on him picking up where he left off last spring ... Is trying to improve his strength following a shoulder injury ... Will get a close look.

Tyrel Wilson (r-So.) – Saw most of his action on special teams during the fall ... Is not overly big, but is put together well ... Will beat people with his speed and quickness.

Quillie Odom (r-Jr.) – Moves over from linebacker after redshirting in the fall ... Coaches think it will be a good move for him ... Will need to be a little more physical.

Justin Taylor (Fr.) – Entered school in January ... Has been working hard in the off-season program ... Has a lot of room to grow ... Is going to get an opportunity to beat out someone for a depth chart spot.

TACKLE

Antoine Hopkins (r-Jr.) – Started 12 of 14 games last season, posting 45 tackles, including 6.5 for losses ... Has a lot of ability ... Is working to take his practice habits and work ethic to another level ... Coaches want to see how much better he can get.

Kwamaine Battle (r-Sr.) – Moved into a starting tackle spot in the fall only to see his season end with a knee injury early in game two against JMU ... Can play either tackle position ... Is cleared for spring practice, but has some conditioning work to do ... Is explosive and can become a disrupter when healthy.

Derrick Hopkins (So.) – Was one of only two true freshmen to see playing time during the fall ... Shows real promise ... Has a chance to put himself in the thick of the battle for a starting job this spring ... Can run and flatten out to make plays away from the point of attack.

Dwight Tucker (r-Jr.) – An effort player who can run ... Has gained some experience, but must continue to improve to stay in the mix ... Gives something at the point of attack but needs to stay on his feet.

Isaiah Hamlette (r-Jr.) – A player the coaches would like to see step up this spring ... Can run and rush the passer, but has to be stronger at the point of attack ... Has to improve if he wants to play ... Will get a lot of work against 1s and 2s to find out where he stands.

Nick Acree (r-Fr.) – Is getting a brand new start after redshirting in the fall ... Has lost weight to improve his mobility ... Needs to bring his weight room productivity and strength to the field ... Has the work ethic necessary to succeed.

Coach Wiles on the defensive line: "At end, we're excited about James Gayle, we're writed about J. Colling and Task Machine excited about J.R. Collins and Zack McCray. Tyrel Wilson is showing some things, but this is youth, a group that has three starts between them. So can you win with them on a regular basis? We also need to find out what combination is going to make us the best at tackle. We have to get better and make more plays in there at defensive tackle. We need guys on the field that can run. We've got to go out there this spring and really take advantage of every day and work to improve. When we get 15 practices in, then we will have a pretty good idea who the first four are and who the second four are. It's all about looking to see how we can make our football team better."

LINEBACKERS

MIKE

Bruce Taylor (r-Jr.) – Moved into the top spot at mike last spring following the injury to Barquell Rivers ... Had an outstanding season, leading the team in tackles with 91 ... Also had six sacks, 15.5 tackles for loss and 12 QB hurries ... Was second-team All-ACC ... Started at backer in the Orange Bowl game ... Big and mobile ... Is turning into a complete football player.

Jack Tyler (r-So.) – Really came along at the end of last season ... Played well in the ACC title game and started in the Orange Bowl ... A playmaker with good vision ... Coaches are looking for him to take another step forward this spring.

Barquell Rivers (r-Sr.) – Started every game at mike and was second on the team in tackles in 2009 ... Is still working to return to form after rupturing his left quadriceps tendon during 2010 off-season workouts ... Returned to practice during the fall but not to the lineup ... Coaches are hoping he can compete again this spring.

Brian Laiti (r-Fr.) – A young player who is still developing ... Has a good frame but needs to get bigger, faster and stronger to compete for a depth chart position.

BACKER

Tariq Edwards (r-So.) – Will start the spring off in the top spot after picking up some valuable reps late in the season ... Has all the tools you look for ... Plays fast and shows playmaking ability ... Just needs to be more consistent in his performance.

Chase Williams (r-Fr.) - Was slated to play last fall but suffered a pulled hamstring that bothered him all season ... Leaned his body up during the off-season ... Has shown promise.

Telvion Clark (r-So.) – A player with a lot of potential and upside ... Needs to show more consistency ... Has all the tools, just has to take that next step ... Coaches are hoping it happens this spring.

Jonathan Halfhide (r-Fr.) – A good, heady player who has the ability to help the Hokies ... Will get a look this spring ... May start out on special teams.

Coach Foster on the inside linebackers: "I'm excited about this group. It's going to be the first time in a couple of years that I've had the depth that I forsee us potentially having. Obviously at mike linebacker, Bruce Taylor had a breakout season. Jack Tyler really came along at the end of last season, and I'm hoping we've got Barquell Rivers coming back. So you've got a senior, a junior and a sophomore right now that are creating some depth and all have played significant roles in our success. The backer position is wide open. There is going to be good competion. I trust Chase Williams and think Tariq Edwards is a guy who can become a very good football player. Telvion Clark is the kind of guy that if he can take that next step can make a difference. I think our backer spot is going to come along."

Jeron Gouveia-Winslow (r-Jr.) – Had an up-and-down year while starting seven games in 2010 ... Stayed positive throughout the season and picked up some valuable experience ... Understands the game and has

HEADLINES

Key Loss: backer Lyndell Gibson

Key Returnees: mike linebacker Bruce Taylor; whip linebacker Jeron Gouveia-Winslow

Taylor came on strong in the starting role at the mike position. He started every game and led the team in tackles (91) and tackles for loss (15.5) on the way to second-team All-ACC honors. Gouveia-Winslow started seven games, contributing 41 tackles and a pair of pass interceptions.

Battle to Watch: New coach Cornell Brown says the battle for the starting duties at whip linebacker is going to be an open tryout. With youngsters Dominique Patterson and Nick Dew being thrown into the mix with juniors Jeron Gouveia-Winslow and Alonzo Tweedy, the competition could get very interesting.

Breakout Candidate: The departure of Lyndell Gibson at the backer postion, opens the door for redshirt sophomore Tariq Edwards to show what he can do. Edwards has all the tools needed for the job, but is expected to get some stiff competition.

shown the ability to make plays ... Must continue to build his strength and confidence.

Alonzo Tweedy (r-Jr.) – Has been one of the Hokies' top players on special teams the past two seasons ... Coaches are hoping he can make a mark on defense this spring ... Has the most physical ability at the whip position ... Can really run and hit, but must develop a better feel for the position ... Will get a chance to show what he can do.

Dominique Patterson (r-Fr.) – Is moving over from the backer position ... Played outside in high school and should be more comfortable at the position ... Has athletic ability and can hold up in the run game ... Should be a good fit.

Nick Dew (r-Fr.) – Spent a redshirt year at rover in 2010 ... Coaches feel he may have a better chance to play by moving closer to the ball ... Played the whip position in high school ... Shows a confidence about himself ... Will get a good look.

Derek DiNardo (r-Fr.) – Will get an opportunity to compete for a spot in the spring ... Has a chance to provide added depth.

Coach Brown on the whip linebackers: "I'm looking at the spring as an opportunity to put my mark on the position. I want to show that it is a big-time energy position. I want to get across to the young guys that size doesn't matter, that we're looking for the guys with heart who are going to put out the effort to go out an excel. It comes down to confidence. Once you feel the confidence, the game really becomes a lot easier, you're able to go out and have fun. It's going to be an open tryout, everybody will get a new start."

DEFENSIVE SECONDARY

CORNERBACK

Jayron Hosley (Jr.) – Led the nation in pass interceptions and won first-team All-America honors in 2010 as a sophomore ... Has great ball skills and is good at playing the ball in the air ... Coaches are challenging him to be in the defense talking and focused play-in, play-out.

Cris Hill (r-Sr.) – A tough, hardworking player who has gotten reps at both cornerback positions ... Showed improvement last spring and during the fall, but must transfer it to the field ... Has the ability to handle a starting job if he plays with confidence.

Kyle Fuller (So.) – A talented young player who started five games last fall as a true freshman ... Made some freshman mistakes, but has a huge upside ... Can play either corner spot ... Is physical and loves the game of football ... Will battle for a starting job this spring.

Detrick Bonner (r-Fr.) – Showed real promise while redshirting in the fall ... Has toughness and is willing to come up and tackle ... Coaches want to see where his skill set takes him – corner or safety ... They are excited to see what he can do.

Adeboye Aromire (Fr.) – Entered Tech in January after finishing up his senior season at H.D. Woodson High in Washington, D.C. ... Played both safety and corner during his prep career ... Is a big kid who is conscientious and wants to learn ... The kind of corner who is very physical ... Will get a chance to show what he can do. Germond Oatneal (Sr.) – Did not play football in high school but has proven to be a steady performer who has added depth ... An effort player with an outstanding work ethic.

FREE SAFETY

Eddie Whitley (Sr.) – Took over the starting free safety job after a good showing last spring ... Can play any of the secondary positions ... Possesses good ability and the mindset that coaches love ... Gives you everything he's got and can be a great leader ... Will concentrate on becoming more of a playmaker during spring drills.

Theron Norman (r-Fr.) – Entered school in January 2010 and went through a spring practice before redshirting in the fall ... A tall, athletic player whose strong point is making plays on the football ... Must gain strength and confidence ... The coaches are excited to see how he progresses during the spring ... Will get his share of reps.

Carl Jackson (r-Fr.) – Will move to safety after working as a corner during the fall ... Did a good job in the weight room over the winter ... A heady guy who will get a look this spring.

ROVER

Antone Exum (r-So.) – Moves to the top spot at rover after serving as the No. 2 free safety during the fall ... Played in every game, with five starts when Tech went to its nickel defense ... Showed outstanding potential ... Still needs to understand his position a

HEADLINES

Key Losses: cornerback Rashad Carmichael; rover Davon Morgan

Key Returnees: cornerback Jayron Hosley; free safety Eddie Whitley

Hosley had a breakout season in 2010, leading the nation with nine interceptions and earning first-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation. Whitley started 13 games and finished third on the team in tackles (80), while adding six pass breakups and a pair of interceptions.

Battle to Watch: Jayron Hosley will hold down the starting duties at one cornerback position, but the other is going to be up for grabs this spring. Veteran Cris Hill and young talent Kyle Fuller are the leading candidates, but the field could expand as practice progresses.

Breakout Candidate: There is no doubt among the Tech coaches that Antone Exum is an extremely talented player, and they are hoping his move to rover will help unleash that ability. With a little more consistency and improved communication this spring, Exum could help solidify the Hokies' secondary.

little better and communicate more during the game ... Has as much talent as anyone the Hokies have had at the safety position.

Lorenzo Williams (r-Jr.) – Is slated to switch to rover this spring but is unlikely to take part in contact work ... Missed the entire 2010 season after suffering a foot injury during a scrimmage ... Played some at free safety as a true freshman in 2008 ... Was redshirted in 2009 after moving to whip linebacker ... Has a lot of skills to go with good height and a good football mind ... Should be ready to go before August.

Wiley Brown (r-Jr.) – A great effort guy who excelled on special teams in the fall ... Runs well and hits hard ... Will see if he can carry that over to the position this spring ... Still has some things to learn ... Coaches want to see if he can get better and where it goes.

Coach Gray on the secondary: "I really want us to be able to know our position just from as simple as knowing our alignment and assignment ... just really being thorough with that. Then, that will allow us to communicate and execute. I like the talent, I think we have a good talent level. We made a lot of plays last season. Twenty-three interceptions are a lot, the most since I've been here, but we gave up more long plays than any of my seasons here. So, the thing I really want us to do is just communicate and be efficient, be sound in our technique and fundamentals. If we do that, I know I'll feel good about this group."

SPECIAL TEAMS

HEADLINES

Key Losses: punter/holder Brian Saunders; place-kicker Chris Hazley

Key Returnees: kickoff man Justin Myer; snapper Collin Carroll; punt returner Jayron Hosley; kickoff returner David Wilson

Myer was the Hokies' top kickoff man for the third straight year, while Carroll handled all the long and short snapping duties after giving up the long snapping duties for much of the 2009 season. Hosley and Wilson were among the top return men in the ACC during the fall and combined for three touchdowns on returns during the season.

Battle to Watch: For the fifth consecutive season, the Hokies enter spring practice looking for a new place-kicker, and like last year, they also need to find a punter. Both positions are wide open and the competition could last into the preseason.

Breakout Candidate: If he can hit the middle of the goal posts consistently, it could finally be a breakout year for senior Justin Myer as a place-kicker.

PLACE-KICKER

Cody Journell (r-So.) – Joined in the kicking competitions during the 2010 season ... Has the potential but must show he can be consistent ... Was a prep All-America kicker at nearby Giles High School ... Is looking forward to this spring after battling some injuries in the past.

Conor Goulding (r-Fr.) – Joined the team as a walkon in the fall ... Competed in all of the kicking and punting competitions while redshirting ... Appears ready to challenge for the job ... Fundamentally is very good ... Gets the ball up, but needs to get a more consistent flight.

Justin Myer (Sr.) – Could be a dynamic place-kicker if he could ever be consistent ... Will get another chance to win the job ... Has talent and a big leg ... Gets the ball up with great distance ... Has handled the Hokies' kickoff duties the past three seasons and will be the top candidate again in 2011.

Tyler Weiss (r-Sr.) – Is a right-down-the-middle type but doesn't have a big leg ... Having previous college experience, however, is a real plus ... Started for Murray State as a freshman in 2007 ... Made seven of 10 fieldgoal attempts and all 32 of his PATs.

PUNTER

Scott Demler (r-Jr.) – Was part of the punting competition last fall ... Dressed for several games while sharing the backup punting duties ... Gets good height

... Is working on getting the ball off quicker ... When he does, and does it consistently, he could be the starter.

Ethan Keyserling (r-Fr.) – Joined the team as a walk-on last fall and redshirted ... Worked on his punting and also got a look on kickoffs ... Dressed for several games while sharing the backup punting duties ... Has the potential to be really good ... Takes quick steps and gets height on his kicks ... Consistency will be the key.

Conor Goulding (r-Fr.) – Stopped punting for awhile to concentrate on place-kicking ... The coaches would like for him to try both ... Gets the ball out quickly with height.

Grant Bowden (r-So.) – Is still working to get the consistency needed for the job ... Will get another shot this spring ... Brother of former Tech punter Brent Bowden.

SNAPPER

Collin Carroll (r-Sr.) – Handled all the snapping duties last season and as a freshman in 2008 ... Started the 2009 season doing the same before concentrating on just the short snaps after the Miami game ... Has worked hard on his technique and ranks as a very dependable performer.

Joe St. Germain (r-Fr.) – Redshirted last season after joining the team as a walk-on ... Has good skills and coverage ability ... Needs to show he can be consistent.

Lukas Stump (r-Fr.) - Another candidate with promise

... Was an Iron Hokie in the weight room during the off-season ... Coverage ability is a plus, but consistency will be the key.

HOLDER

Scott Demler (r-Jr.), Danny Coale (r-Sr.), Ju-Ju Clayton (r-Jr.) and Trey Gresh (r-Fr.) are among the possible candidates, but others could arise. This position will be a priority for the Hokies once spring practice gets underway.

RETURN MEN

David Wilson (Jr.), Dyrell Roberts (Sr.), Jayron Hosley (Jr.) and Danny Coale (r-Sr.) – Wilson led the ACC in kickoff returns in 2010, while Roberts was second in the league and fourth in the nation during the 2009 season ... Wilson tied school season and career marks for kickoff returns for touchdowns with two ... Hosley ranked second in the ACC and 19th nationally in punt returns last fall ... Coale was the backup for Hosley on punts ... Another player who will likely get a look on punt returns is Willie Byrn (r-Fr.).

Coach Frank Beamer on the special teams: "All our kickers and snappers are good enough, it's going to be whenever is consistent enough it's going to be whoever is consistent enough. I think there is going to be some great competition for all the spots. I think the fact that now it's these guys' turn that the concentration is going to be better for all of them."

QUOTING THE COACHES

COACH FRANK BEAMER ON SPRING PRACTICE:

"I think overall, we certainly have work to do, but how our quarterback plays and at what level he plays, will be critical for this football team. It all starts with the quarterback position. Another big thing is for our offensive line to be more consistent in its play. To beat the good football teams, we've got to be more consistent there. On defense, you hope experience helps the situation. We gave up more long plays than we've given up in a long time, and that generally comes from assignment breakdowns. We're a complex defense and when the formation changes, it changes us, so communicating and making sure everybody is on the same page is a real criteria for us this spring. I think experience certainly should help that. Overall, we have good players. Now, we've just got to play together and play well. We've got enough to keep us busy this spring."

COACH BRYAN STINESPRING ON THE OFFENSE:

"This spring, the primary aspect is the quarterback spot. You want to get a direction at that position. Who is number one and, just as importantly, who is number two. One thing we've learned, it's important to be settled at positions going into the fall. The second part is tight end. Chris Drager has moved back over and that is certainly beneficial to us, but I think getting an order and who you're going to work with at that position is important. The same at tailback where moving Josh Oglesby back is a start. Finally, I think it is time for Vinston Painter, Michael Via, David Wang and Courtney Prince to step up. We've been able to re-tool our offensive line, but now we need to take another step. It's to develop depth, additional starter depth. Not just a replacement at the number two spot, an additional starter, a guy who can come in and challenge for the starting job. That is the level we need to reach this spring. We've got some critical issues. A lot of points and a lot of yardage are gone from last year, but it's not up to one or two individuals to make up the difference; all of us have to step up. If all of us just do our part, then I think we will be fine."

COACH BUD FOSTER ON THE DEFENSE:

"We need to make big strides. Looking back at last year, we were an OK defense. We were good enough, but we weren't the type of defense we've been known for ... that stifling, smothering kind of defense. We are still a very young group, but I think we are as athletic as we have been. Between our D-line and probably our rover and whip positions, we just need to find players who are going to play good technique and fundamentals and be consistent in their performance. My goal is for our young guys to take that next step to where they feel confident and comfortable at their position and have confidence and trust in their teammates. Then, they can go out and play loose. If we do that, play consistent and develop some quality depth, it will be a big step toward returning to the type of defense we are accustomed to around here."

HEAD COACH FRANK BEAMER

COACH HAS LED HOKIES TO 18 CONSECUTIVE BOWL APPEARANCES

When Frank Beamer accepted the job as head football coach at his alma mater in 1987, his goal was for the Virginia Tech football program to reach a consistent level of excellence. The Hokies have come a long way since then, and, along the way, Beamer has become one of the most respected and successful coaches on the college football scene.

That respect was shown in December when Beamer was named the first recipient of the Joseph V. Paterno Coach of the Year Award, which honors a coach based on his team's performance on the field, in the classroom and within the community.

Under Beamer, Tech football has enjoyed unprecedented success with 18 consecutive bowl appearances, seven straight 10-win seasons, four ACC titles, four ACC Coastal Division crowns, three BIG EAST Conference titles, five BCS bowl appearances and a trip to the national championship game. Since the beginning of the 1995 season, only Ohio State and Florida have posted more wins than Virginia Tech, and the Hokies have finished in the Top 20 in 16 of the previous 19 seasons, including six top-10 finishes during the last 13 years. Tech's run of 10 wins or more in seven straight seasons is the longest current streak in the FBS.

This past season, after starting with a disappointing 0-2 mark, Beamer rallied the troops and led the Hokies to 11 straight wins and an 11-3 overall mark, including a win over Florida State in the ACC Championship Game and a trip to the Orange Bowl. Tech became the first FBS team ever to win 11 consecutive games after starting a season 0-2.

The Hokies couldn't have asked for anyone better to guide their football program into the ACC. In 2004 – Tech's first season in the league – Beamer and his staff led a young team picked to finish sixth in the league to an ACC title and a BCS Bowl. That team also won the league's 2004 Fall Sportsmanship Award for football, yet another tribute to the program Beamer and his staff have built. A year later, the Hokies produced an 11-2 record, won the ACC Coastal Division title, earned a spot in the inaugural league championship contest and appeared in a bowl game. Beamer was named the ACC Coach of the Year both seasons.

Beamer, who was the consensus National Coach of the Year in 1999, is tied for second among active Division I FBS coaches in victories with 240 over 30 seasons as a head coach. After wrapping up his 24th year at the Tech helm, his overall record as the headman of the Hokies stands at 198-95-2. He became Tech's winningest football coach during the 1997 campaign. Counting six years as head coach at Murray State prior to joining the Hokies, Beamer's overall record is 240-118-4.

Coach Frank Beamer reads to youngsters from Margaret Beeks Elementary School through Herma's Readers, a non-profit organization he formed as a tribute to his late mother, Herma Beamer.

A spot in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to play topranked Florida State for the national championship focused widespread attention on Virginia Tech and its football program following the 1999 season. Although the Hokies fell short in their bid for the national title, they proved that they belong among the top teams in the college ranks.

For his part in the Hokies' magical 1999 season, Beamer earned eight national coach of the year awards. He was named the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year, the GTE Coach of the Year, the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, the Paul 'Bear' Bryant Coach of the Year, The Associated Press Coach of the Year, the Walter Camp Football Foundation/Street & Smith's Coach of the Year, the Maxwell Football Club Coach of the Year and the Woody Hayes Coach of the Year.

Tech won the BIG EAST title in 1995 and 1999 and shared it in '96. Beamer was voted BIG EAST Coach of the Year by the league's coaches each of those seasons.

During his undergraduate days at Tech, Beamer started three years as a cornerback and played on the Hokies' 1966 and 1968 Liberty Bowl teams. He received a B.S. in distributive education from Tech in 1969 and a master's in guidance from Radford in 1972. Then came the start of the Beamer coaching career.

He began as an assistant at Radford High School from 1969 through 1971. Then, after one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Maryland, he went to The Citadel where he worked five seasons under Bobby Ross and one year under Art Baker. His last two years at The Citadel, Beamer was the defensive coordinator.

In 1979, Beamer went to Murray State as the defensive coordinator under Mike Gottfried. He was named head coach at Murray State in 1981 and went on to compile a six-year record of 42 wins, 23 losses and two ties. Beamer, the first alumnus to guide the Hokies since the 1940s, took over the Tech reins from Bill Dooley in January 1987.

The Tech coach was born in Mt. Airy, N.C., and grew up in Hillsville, Va. At Hillsville High, he earned 11 varsity letters as a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball.

of Richmond, Va. They have two children, Shane, a former member of his dad's football team at Tech and a recent addition to the Hokie coaching staff; and daughter Casey, a 2003 graduate of Virginia Tech who works for the Carolina Panthers of the NFL. Shane and his wife, Emily, have two daughters, Sutton and Olivia.

2010 GAME-BY-GAME THE BOISE STATE GAME: BRONCOS SPOIL TECH PARTY AT FEDEXFIELD, 33-30

FedExField • Landover, Md.

Sept. 6, 2010 • Attendance: 86,587

No. 3 Boise State scored in the final 70 seconds to hand Virginia Tech a disappointing 33-30 season-opening loss before a sell-out crowd of 86,587 at FedExField on Labor Day evening.

The Hokies put themselves in an early 17-0 hole with a series of miscues, but managed to battle back to capture the lead in the third quarter.

Tech was up 30-26 before Boise quarterback Kellen Moore connected on his third touchdown pass of the game with 1:09 remaining. The lead changed hands four times during the final 22 minutes of the game.

Tailback Ryan Williams scored three touchdowns, and quarterback Tyrod Taylor accounted for 259 of Tech's 314 yards of offense. The Hokies blocked a pair of kicks for the 22nd time under Frank Beamer.

GAME NOTES

• Six true freshmen dressed for the game, with two – Kyle Fuller (special teams) and Derrick Hopkins (defensive line) – seeing action.

• The last time Virginia Tech trailed 17-0 after one quarter was in 1992 when Miami led 17-0 after the first stanza. UM went on to win that game 43-23.

• There were three blocked kicks in the game. Both teams blocked a punt, and Tech added a blocked extra-point attempt.

• It marked the third straight season the Hokies opened the season with a loss at a neutral site.

THE JAMES MADISON GAME: DUKES PULL THE UPSET AT LANE STADIUM, 21-16

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va. Sept. 11, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

Quarterback Drew Dudzik ran for two touchdowns and passed for another as James Madison University stunned No. 13 Virginia Tech, 21-16, on a rainy afternoon at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field. The loss was Tech's first in a home opener since the 1995 season and the first to a non-conference team in Blacksburg since the final game of the 1998 season.

With the Dukes trailing 16-7 late in the third quarter, Dudzik engineered a pair of scoring drives to put the visitors ahead. Then, following a Tech fumble, the JMU signal-caller sealed the Hokies' fate with a five-minute-plus drive that ran out the clock. He had help from running back Jamal Sullivan, whose catch and run with a Dudzik pass produced a 77-yard touchdown that lit a fire under the Dukes late in the second quarter.

Tech never punted in the game but suffered three turnovers and had to settle for Chris Hazley field goals on three of its five trips inside the JMU 25-yard line. The Hokies' only TD came on a 17-play, 94-yard drive in the opening quarter.

GAME NOTES

• The loss snapped a 32-game home winning streak against nonconference opponents spanning back to the final game of the 1998 season when the Hokies, then in the BIG EAST Conference, lost at home to Virginia, 36-32.

• Tech's 17-play touchdown drive against the Dukes was its longest since a 17-play TD drive at NC State in 2005.

• The last time the Hokies allowed a pass of 77 yards or longer was in 2003 when quarterback Rasheed Marshall of West Virginia completed a 93-yard pass to Travis Garvin.

• JMU's second-quarter touchdown marked the first time the Dukes had scored against the Hokies in 10 quarters of play going back to 1992. The Dukes were shut out on their last two visits to Lane Stadium.

Jarrett Boykin (above) opened the scoring against JMU with a 9-yard TD reception. Chris Hazley (right) made all three of his field-goal attempts against the Dukes and went on to connect on 20 consecutive attempts during a 12-game span.

THE EAST CAROLINA GAME: BIG SECOND HALF LIFTS HOKIES TO WIN OVER PIRATES, 49-27

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va. Sept. 18, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

Virginia Tech scored 28 unanswered points in the second half on the way to posting its first victory of the season, a much-needed 49-27 decision over the East Carolina University Pirates at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Tailback David Wilson and cornerback Rashad Carmichael played big roles in rallying the Hokies from a 27-21 third-quarter deficit. Wilson ran for two touchdowns in less than five minutes to stake Tech to a 35-27 advantage in the waning seconds of the third quarter. Then Carmichael took over, delivering the big blow with a 68-yard interception return for a touchdown at the start of the fourth quarter. A second interception by Carmichael on the Pirates' very next drive preceded a 69-yard touchdown pass from Tech quarterback Tyrod Taylor to receiver Jarrett Boykin that capped the scoring.

Tech held East Carolina to 83 total yards in the second half after allowing 278 yards over the first two quarters of play.

GAME NOTES

• Sophomore running back David Wilson scored two touchdowns for the first time in his Tech career with runs of 3 and 8 yards against ECU.

• Defensive end James Gayle, defensive tackle Antoine Hopkins, true freshman cornerback Kyle Fuller and safety Antone Exum made their first collegiate starts in the win.

• Tech's 49 points were the most for the Hokies in a game against East Carolina. Tech scored 45 points during a 2000 victory at ECU.

• Five Tech backs had rushing carries of 10 yards or more during the game. The Hokies had 12 running plays of 10 yards or more, including a 24-yard run by redshirt freshman Tony Gregory on his first collegiate carry.

David Wilson (above) ran for two scores in the third quarter against ECU and Rashad Carmichael (right) returned an interception 68 yards for a touchdown in the Hokies' 49-27 victory over the Pirates.

THE BOSTON COLLEGE GAME: DEFENSE PITCHES SHUTOUT AS HOKIES PICK UP ROAD WIN, 19-0

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, Mass. Sept. 25, 2010 • Attendance: 42,317

Virginia Tech used four second-half field goals by Chris Hazley and stout defensive play over the final 30 minutes to open ACC play with a 19-0 shutout victory at Boston College. The win kept the Hokies perfect (7-0) in conference openers since joining the league in 2004.

Tech gained just 164 yards of offense during the first 30 minutes, but still managed to cling to a 7-0 lead at the intermission thanks to a nine-play, 80yard scoring drive midway through the half. A 30-yard pass from quarterback Tyrod Taylor to tailback Darren Evans was the key play, and Evans put the finishing touches on it with a 3-yard run for the touchdown.

Boston College piled up 211 yards in the first half but failed to score on two trips inside the red zone. The Eagles ran just two plays on the Hokies' side of the field during the second half while being held to just 39 total yards. Tech's defense posted six sacks, 11 tackles for loss and a pair of pass interceptions during the victory.

Hazley booted field goals on each of Tech's first three possessions of the third quarter. He added a fourth with 3:48 remaining in the game.

Taylor connected on 16 of 21 passes for 237 yards, while David Wilson picked up 67 yards rushing on 16 carries.

John Graves (above) batted down a pass to help the defense ground the Eagles during Virginia Tech's 19-0 win at Boston College. Eddie Whitley, Jayron Hosley and Rashad Carmichael (below) celebrated an interception that helped preserve the shutout victory.

GAME NOTES

• The shutout was the first for Virginia Tech since a 17-0 win over Virginia in Blacksburg in the final regular-season game of the 2006 season. The Hokies' last shutout in a road game was a 45-0 decision at Duke in 2005. The game marked the first time Boston College had been shut out since 1998 when Tech took a 17-0 decision at Alumni Stadium.

• Receiver Dyrell Roberts and tight end Andre Smith both set personal bests for receptions during the win over the Eagles. Roberts had five catches for 49 yards in the game, while Smith posted four for 44 yards.

• The touchdown by Darren Evans was the first offensive touchdown scored by the Hokies at Alumni Stadium since Lee Suggs ran for a fourth quarter TD in the 2002 game at BC. Tech failed to score on offense during losses at Chestnut Hill in 2006 and 2008.

THE NC STATE GAME: HISTORIC COMEBACK LIFTS HOKIES PAST PACK, 41-30

Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, N.C. Oct. 2, 2010 • Attendance: 58,083

Virginia Tech came from behind twice in the fourth quarter and completed the biggest comeback victory of the Frank Beamer era with a 41-30 road victory over No. 23 NC State at Carter-Finley Stadium in front of the thirdlargest crowd ever at the stadium.

The Wolfpack stormed to a 17-0 lead in the first 16 minutes of the game and led 17-7 at the half. David Wilson gave the Hokies a big lift when he returned the second-half kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown. Tech went on to outscore the Pack, 34-13, over the final two quarters but didn't take the lead for good until the 1:27 mark when Jarrett Boykin took a Tyrod Taylor pass and weaved 39 yards for a touchdown.

GAME NOTES

• Redshirt sophomore receiver Marcus Davis made his first collegiate start in the game as the Hokies opened with a four receiver set. Another sophomore receiver, D.J. Coles, caught his first collegiate passes during the victory.

• Tech's comeback from 17 points down surpassed a comeback from 15 points down at Virginia in 1995 and now marks the biggest come-from-behind win in Coach Frank Beamer's 23-plus seasons in Blacksburg.

• Quarterback Tyrod Taylor's three touchdown passes tied a personal best for the Tech senior, who also threw for three scores at Maryland in 2009.

• Andre Smith became the first Tech tight end to catch two touchdown passes in a game since Keith Willis did it against Cal in the 2003 Insight Bowl.

THE CENTRAL MICHIGAN GAME: TAYLOR LEADS HOKIES PAST CHIPPEWAS WITH BIG GAME, 45-21

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va. Oct. 9, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

Quarterback Tyrod Taylor ran for two scores and passed for another to pace Virginia Tech to a 45-21 victory over Central Michigan University at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

After CMU opened the game with an 80-yard touchdown drive, Taylor answered with a 72-yard scamper for a TD on Tech's second play of the game and the Hokies never looked back, scoring 38 unanswered points. Taylor added a 7-yard touchdown pass to Andre Smith in the second quarter and chipped in a 15-yard scoring run in the third period. He finished the game with 161 yards passing and 127 on the ground.

Tech won despite running 31 fewer offensive plays than its visitors, going 0 for 8 on third-down conversions and being out-gained. The Hokies offset those numbers with big plays, including a 68-yard TD run by tailback David Wilson and an 80-yard punt return for a touchdown by Jayron Hosley.

GAME NOTES

• Davon Morgan recorded his first career pass interception during the second quarter. His pick led to a 30-yard field goal by Chris Hazley.

• The Hokies opened in a four-receiver set for the second straight week. It marked the first time during the 2010 season that the same 22 starters on offense and defense started in back-to-back weeks.

• David Wilson's 68-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter was the longest run of his Tech career, surpassing a 51-yard run against Marshall last season. Meanwhile, fellow tailback Darren Evans scored a touchdown for the fourth consecutive game.

• Tyrod Taylor posted a run of 70 yards or longer for the second straight week, and his third career run of 70 yards or longer.

Tyrod Taylor (above) celebrated after one of his two rushing touchdowns against Central Michigan. Davon Morgan (right) had an interception to go along with his tough defensive play in helping the Hokies to a 45-21 win.

THE WAKE FOREST GAME: HUGE FIRST HALF LIFTS HOKIES TO HOMECOMING WIN, 52-21

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va. Oct. 16, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

Virginia Tech amassed over 600 yards of offense on the way to its fifth consecutive win, a 52-21 Homecoming pounding of Wake Forest at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Quarterback Tyrod Taylor enjoyed a record-setting day, throwing for 292 yards and tying a career high with three touchdown passes. He hit back-up quarterback Logan Thomas – who was split out as a receiver – for a 2-yard score on the Hokies' opening possession to give the Hokies a 7-0 lead and began the onslaught.

Taylor later threw touchdown strikes of 25 yards to Danny Coale and 10 yards to Jarrett Boykin. He also scored a touchdown rushing, getting in the end zone on a 1-yard sneak midway through the second quarter. Darren Evans accounted for the rest of the scoring.

The Hokies gained 314 yards through the air and 291 on the ground on the way to 35 first downs.

Virginia Tech scored touchdowns on eight of its first nine possessions and piled up 49 first-half points while controlling the football for over 41 minutes.

GAME NOTES

• Receiver Dyrell Roberts had career highs in catches (6) and receiving yards (134) during the win. Danny Coale also finished with over 100 yards receiving (103), giving Tech two 100-yard receivers in the same game for the first time since 2006 when Eddie Royal and Justin Harper did it against Georgia Tech.

• Tech converted 12 of 17 third-down situations in the game after going 0 for 8 on third downs a week earlier against Central Michigan.

• Wake tailback Josh Harris rushed for 241 yards on 20 carries and scored two touchdowns on runs of 33 and 87 yards. His rushing total was the most by a running back ever against a Tech defense.

THE DUKE GAME: TECH GETS COMPLETE EFFORT IN WIN OVER BLUE DEVILS, 44-7

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va. Oct. 23, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

Quarterback Tyrod Taylor turned in another stellar performance as Virginia Tech continued its steady improvement with a 44-7 victory over the visiting Duke Blue Devils.

Taylor completed 13 of 17 passes for 280 yards and tied his career high for touchdown passes in a game for the second week in a row with three. He also was the Hokies' top rusher with 47 yards on six carries. Tech scored on seven of its eight possessions when Taylor was at the helm.

The Tech defense held the Blue Devils to 208 total yards and seven points. Interceptions by cornerbacks Jayron Hosley and Rashad Carmichael led to 10 Tech points.

Special teams also played an important role in the victory as kicker Chris Hazley booted three field goals and punter Brian Saunders averaged 49.7 yards on three kicks. The Hokies also got a 61-yard punt return from Hosley to set up their second touchdown of the game.

GAME NOTES

• Tech scored 40 points or more in a game for the fourth consecutive week for the first time since the 2000 season when it had 52 vs. Akron, 45 vs. ECU, 49 against Rutgers and 48 vs. Boston College.

• Tech won its sixth game in a row for their longest winning streak since 2006 when it posted wins in its last six games of the regular season.

• Tailback Ryan Williams returned to action for the first time since game three against ECU on Sept. 18 when he left the game in the second quarter with a hamstring injury. He scored a touchdown on a 1-yard plunge against the Blue Devils.

Punter Brian Saunders (above) had a great day, averaging 49.7 yards on three punts, and the Hokie defense (right) played tough as Virginia Tech defeated Duke, 44-7, in Blacksburg.

THE GEORGIA TECH GAME: WILSON LIFTS HOKIES TO WILD WIN OVER JACKETS, 28-21

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va. Nov. 4, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

David Wilson scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and Rashad Carmichael made a game-ending interception in the end zone as Virginia Tech battled from behind in a wild 28-21 ACC Coastal Division win over Georgia Tech.

The Hokies fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter and didn't catch up until a 15-yard TD run by Wilson early in the fourth period, which pulled them even at 14-all. A scoring pass from Tyrod Taylor to tight end Andre Smith gave Tech its first lead, but Georgia Tech, which lost starting quarterback Joshua Nesbitt to injury late in the first half, marched 80 yards in nine plays to knot the score again at the 2:34 mark.

Wilson delivered the crushing blow when he took the ensuing kickoff and raced 90 yards for his second touchdown of the quarter. The victory wasn't sealed, however, until Carmichael's interception in the end zone with eight seconds left.

The Yellow Jackets out-gained the Hokies 426 yards to 335, with Nesbitt accounting for their first two scores on runs of 1 and 71 yards.

GAME NOTES

• Linebacker Bruce Taylor posted a career-high 14 tackles in the game, while defensive end Steven Friday recorded a personal-best 12 stops.

• David Wilson became the first Tech player in the modern era to return two kickoff returns for a touchdown in one season. Wilson also tied a school mark for career kickoff returns for a TD with two, equaling Terry Strock (1959-61).

• Bud Foster coached his 200th game as Virginia Tech's defensive coordinator/co-coordinator. Foster was the co-coordinator in 1995 and took over as the sole defensive coordinator in 1996, a position he has held ever since.

• Quarterback Tyrod Taylor became the Hokies' all-time total offense leader on an 11-yard run during the second quarter. Taylor had 194 yards of offense in the game to up his career total to 8,134 yards, surpassing previous record-holder Bryan Randall (8,034).

David Wilson (above) returned a kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Bruce Taylor (51, right) and the defense got the job done, as the Hokies won a huge ACC Coastal Division showdown, 28-21, over Georgia Tech.

THE NORTH CAROLINA GAME: BIG SECOND HALF LIFTS HOKIES TO WIN OVER UNC, 26-10

Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C. Nov. 13, 2010 • Attendance: 60,000

Tyrod Taylor tossed two third-quarter touchdown passes, and Virginia Tech forced six turnovers as the Hokies extended their winning streak to eight games with a big 26-10 ACC Coastal Division road win against North Carolina.

As has been the case most of the season, Tech fell behind early as the Tar Heels marched 80 yards on eight plays to start the game with a 7-0 lead. Kicker Chris Hazley kept the Hokies in the game during the first half with three field goals, including a career-long 52-yarder.

UNC's 10-9 advantage disappeared in the third quarter when Taylor and the Tech defense both went to work. Taylor hit receiver Marcus Davis with touchdown throws of 11 and 13 yards, while Hazley added another threepointer for 17 unanswered third-period points. Meanwhile, Tech's defense shut the Tar Heels down over the final 30 minutes, allowing them just 97 total yards of offense. The Hokies posted four pass interceptions, forced a fumble at the goal line and also came up with a fumble recovery on special teams.

Tech, which played error-free ball, piled up 418 yards of offense, including 249 through the air. Tailbacks Darren Evans and Ryan Williams added 90 and 83 yards, respectively, on the ground.

GAME NOTES

• Senior place-kicker Chris Hazley extended his string of consecutive field goals made to 17, after making kicks of 52, 38, 26 and 23 yards against North Carolina. Hazley's 17 consecutive field goals tied a Virginia Tech single-season mark set by Chris Kinzer in 1986 and equaled by Brandon Pace during the 2006 season.

• Hazley's 52-yard field goal tied a Tech mark for the longest field goal in an ACC game. Jud Dunlevy booted a 52-yarder in Blacksburg against UNC in 2007.

• Junior safety Eddie Whitley recorded his first collegiate pass interception, and it was a big one for the Hokies. Whitley wrestled a potential TD pass away from a UNC receiver in the end zone with the Tar Heels leading 10-6 in the second quarter.

THE MIAMI GAME: TECH DOWNS 'CANES, CLINCHES COASTAL DIVISION, 31-17

Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla. Nov. 20, 2010 • Attendance: 40,101

Virginia Tech captured its fourth ACC Coastal Division title in the past six seasons with a strong fourth-quarter performance that produced a 31-17 victory over No. 24 Miami at Sun Life Stadium.

The two teams were deadlocked at 17 heading into the final 15 minutes of play, and that is when the Hokies took charge on both sides of the ball. Tech broke the tie at the 13:24 mark when tailback Ryan Williams sliced through the line and bolted 84 yards for a touchdown. Cornerback Jayron Hosley's eighth interception of the season set up an 18-yard TD run by quarterback Tyrod Taylor to give the Hokies some breathing room with 6:25 remaining.

Tech added interceptions on the Hurricanes' final two possessions. The Hokies also forced three fumbles in the game to help offset being outgained 464 yards to 369.

Miami completed just 3 of 16 passes for 34 yards in the second half.

Williams rushed 14 times for 142 yards for the Hokies, while Taylor threw a 43-yard touchdown pass to Danny Coale to go with his rushing touchdown.

GAME NOTES

• Chris Hazley booted a 49-yard field goal into the wind to extend his streak of consecutive field goals made to 18, a new school singleseason record. Chris Kinzer made 17 consecutive field goals during the 1986 season. Brandon Pace equaled the mark with 17 straight in 2006. Pace, who connected on his last five field goals in 2005 before starting his senior season with 17 in a row, holds the career mark for consecutive field goals with 22.

• Tyrod Taylor's rushing touchdown was the 22nd of his career, setting a new career mark for Tech quarterbacks. Bob Schweickert (1962-64) held the previous school record of 21.

• Linebacker Tariq Edwards picked up his first collegiate pass interception.

• Ryan Williams' 84-yard run was the fifth-longest run from scrimmage in school history.

THE VIRGINIA GAME: TECH ROLLS PAST IN-STATE RIVAL ON SENIOR DAY, 37-7

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va. Nov. 27, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

Virginia Tech's trio of tailbacks combined for all five touchdowns as the Hokies beat in-state rival Virginia 37-7 at a packed Lane Stadium/Worsham Field to become the first ACC football team since 2000 to finish regularseason play with an unblemished league record.

After a scoreless first quarter, tailback Ryan Williams followed an Eddie Whitley interception with a 5-yard touchdown run to get Tech started. Running mate David Wilson followed with a 20-yard TD reception from Tyrod Taylor less than five minutes later as the Hokies built a 17-0 halftime advantage.

Williams and Darren Evans posted third-quarter touchdown runs and then Wilson ran 2 yards for a score in the fourth quarter as Tech put the finishing touches on an 8-0 record in ACC play.

Defensively, the Hokies held the Cavaliers on fourth-and-1 at the Tech 14, collected a sack on another fourth-down try at the Tech 30 and foiled a fake punt on a fourth-and-2 play in Virginia territory. The Cavs finished with 70 yards on the ground and 291 overall, while converting just 1 of 12 third-down opportunities.

GAME NOTES

- The Hokies scored on all six of their trips into the red zone, including five touchdowns.
- Chris Hazley extended his season record streak of consecutive field goals made to 19 with a 40-yarder against Virginia.

• Tyrod Taylor became the school's all-time leader in passing yards on a 25-yard toss to Jarrett Boykin in the third quarter. Taylor also tossed his 20th touchdown pass of the season to become just the third quarterback in school history to throw 20 or more TD passes in a season, joining Maurice DeShazo (22 in 1993) and Bryan Randall (21 in 2004).

• Tech's 8-0 record in ACC play makes them the first team to finish undefeated in conference play since Florida State in 2000.

Steven Friday (above) and the Tech defense got after in-state rival Virginia as Tech beat the Cavaliers, 37-7, allowing Coach Frank Beamer and his Hokies to retain the Commonwealth Cup for the eighth straight season.

THE ACC CHAMPIONSHIP: TAYLOR LEADS HOKIES TO ACC CROWN, 44-33

Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, N.C. Dec. 4, 2010 • Attendance: 72,379

Virginia Tech earned its third ACC football championship in a fourseason span, as Tyrod Taylor passed for three touchdowns and ran for another in the Hokies' convincing 44-33 victory over No. 20 Florida State in the Dr. Pepper ACC Championship Game.

A 24-yard interception return for a touchdown by Jeron Gouveia-Winslow put Tech in front 7-3 midway through the first quarter and the Hokies never relinquished the lead. Tech converted 13 of 18 third downs and did not have a turnover on the way to 442 yards of total offense.

Taylor passed for 263 yards and added 24 yards on the ground, while receiver Danny Coale hauled in six passes for 143 yards. Taylor was named the game's MVP for the second time in his career.

The Tech defense contributed a pair of interceptions and held the Seminoles to 53 yards on the ground.

Danny Coale (below) burned the Seminoles with six catches for 143 yards and a touchdown, as Virginia Tech beat Florida State 44-33 in Charlotte.

GAME NOTES

• Tech's six touchdowns in the game were each scored by a different player.

• Quarterback Tyrod Taylor set a new school mark for touchdown passes in a season when he connected for three TDs against Florida State, giving him 23 touchdown passes on the season. Maurice DeShazo set the previous school mark of 22 in 1993.

• Danny Coale equaled a personal best with six catches against FSU and set a new career high for receiving yards with 143 against the Seminoles.

THE DISCOVER ORANGE BOWL: HOKIES FALL TO STANFORD CARDINAL, 40-12

Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla. Jan. 4, 2011 • Attendance: 65,453

Stanford scored touchdowns on its first four possessions of the second half to break open a close game and down the Hokies, 40-12, in the Orange Bowl played in front of 65,453 fans at Sun Life Stadium.

The loss snapped the Hokies' 11-game winning streak, leaving Tech with an 11-3 overall record. The loss also snapped Tech's two-game bowl winning streak.

"I think you give Stanford all the credit," Tech head coach Frank Beamer said. "They played better offensively than we did, they played better defensively than we did, and they played better on special teams.

"It was right there, and then we had a couple of long plays against our defense and it got away from us a little bit. We had them backed up, and if you feel like you could hold them, then you could get right back in it. But then they got two scores and it got away from us a little bit."

The Hokies went three-and-out on the first possession of the second half, and then Stanford went to work. The Cardinal drove 59 yards in nine plays, finishing the drive when fullback Owen Marecic scored on a 1-yard run with 8:47 left in the third quarter. Nate Whitaker missed the extra point, but Stanford took a 19-12 lead.

Tech drove to the Stanford 35 on the ensuing possession. But on secondand-5, Tech quarterback Tyrod Taylor threw just his fifth interception of the season. Delano Howell intercepted the pass that was intended for Jarrett Boykin at the Stanford 3, thus killing the Hokies' drive.

The Cardinal capitalized. On the next play, Stepfan Taylor went up the middle for a 56-yard run to the Tech 42. Following that, Stanford quarterback Andrew Luck fired a 41-yard touchdown pass to tight end Coby Fleener with 5:49 left in the third quarter. Whitaker's extra point made the score 26-12.

"It was frustrating," Tyrod Taylor said. "We kind of helped them with some of the big plays that happened. The turnover was something that wasn't needed and wasn't good for the team."

Luck hit Fleener for a 58-yard touchdown pass on the Cardinal's third possession of the second half and then found Fleener again on the Cardinal's fourth possession for a 38-yard touchdown.

Luck, a Heisman Trophy finalist, played great, completing 18 of 23 for 287 yards and four touchdowns. Fleener caught six passes for 173 yards and three touchdowns. Stepfan Taylor rushed for 114 yards, and Jeremy Stewart rushed for 99.

As a team, Stanford finished with 534 yards of total offense.

"They were very physical at the point of attack, and we knew that coming in," starting mike linebacker Jack Tyler said. "We knew they were going to try to run the ball, and we were prepared for that. Stanford just comes right at you and they're physical."

Tech's lone touchdown came early in the second quarter. Trailing 7-2 at the time, the Hokies went 75 yards in 10 plays in a drive that ended with a miraculous play by Taylor. The senior from Hampton, Va., scrambled to his left, avoided Marecic – who also doubles as a linebacker – made a pirouette, and fired an 11-yard touchdown pass to tailback David Wilson, who managed to get a foot down before falling out of bounds.

Taylor – Tech's all-time winningest quarterback – completed 16 of 31 for 222 yards, with a touchdown and interception. He was sacked eight times. Tech's offense finished with 288 yards of total offense, but just 66 rushing.

"We had some great effort and we had a lot of great plays," Beamer said. "I really believe we were right in there, but it got away from us in the second half. That's disappointing, but it's not a lack of effort. I think it's a lack of execution on our part.

"But I don't think you can take away from all the great things that Tyrod and these guys did."

Tech's other scores came on a safety and a field goal by Chris Hazley right before halftime.

Stanford closed out its season with a 12-1 record.
