THE SERIES

• Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech will be meeting on the gridiron for the eighth time in a series that dates back to 1990. The Hokies lead the series 4-3 after the Yellow Jackets downed the Hokies last year at home, 28-23. In 2008, Virginia Tech held on at home to win 20-17.

• The two met in Atlanta in 2007 with the Hokies beating the Jackets 27-3. In 2006, Georgia Tech beat the Hokies 38-27 at Blacksburg. In 2005, Virginia Tech won 51-7 at Blacksburg, returning two interceptions for touchdowns.

• In 2004, Virginia Tech rallied to beat Georgia Tech, 34-20, at Atlanta on a Thursday night. Bryan Randall hit Eddie Royal on an 80-yard touchdown pass and later hit Josh Morgan for a score in Tech's third-largest comeback win under head coach Frank Beamer.

• The first meeting came in 1990 at Bobby Dodd Stadium where the Yellow Jackets escaped with a 6-3 win en route to a co-national championship.

• It's been an interesting series, to say the least. The two Techs were scheduled to meet at Blacksburg in the 2000 BCA Bowl. With the ball on the tee and just seconds before the referee was to blow the whistle, a bolt of lightning struck just a few hundred yards from the field. A torrential downpour and lightning storm ensued, flooding the field. After a lengthy delay, the game was called and never made up. One of the first bolts to strike hit the

THE CHECKLIST

- ✓ This will be the eighth meeting in a series that dates back to 1990 with Virginia Tech leading the overall series 4-3.
- ✓ This will be a Battle of the Techs. Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech are two of the four "Tech" schools in the FBS, as are Texas Tech and Louisiana Tech.
- ✓ The winner of this game has represented the Coastal Division in every ACC Championship Game.
- ✓ Virginia Tech has posted a 20-2 record in November games (18-2 in ACC games) since joining the league in 2004.

rental car of ESPN analyst Lee Corso, who had to find alternate means of transportation.

• The 2007 game might top it all as four Hokie jerseys went missing before the game, including the one of quarterback Sean Glennon. While three of the jerseys eventually arrived on a private plane, Glennon didn't have a spare because his original jersey was ruined by paint from Clemson's field a few weeks before and therefore he had to play in a Georgia Tech jersey. He went on to throw for 296 yards and two scores in the big win.

WINNER TAKE ALL?

• The ACC divided up the 12 member teams into two divisions for the 2005 season, which is how it remains to this day. In each of the five meetings between the two Techs, the winner went on to represent the Coastal Division in the ACC Championship Game.

• In 2005, 2007 and 2008, Virginia Tech beat Georgia Tech and went on to win the division while in 2006 and 2009, Georgia Tech beat the Hokies and went on to win the division.

• One of the two Techs has been in every ACC Championship Game, winning three of the five title games.

NIGHT GAMES

• Since 1946, Virginia Tech football teams have an 82-67-1 record in night games, including a 49-34-1 record under coach Frank Beamer.

COUNTDOWN TO KICKOFF

- 10 Punter Brian Saunders has had 10 punts of 50 yards or more this season.
- 9 Nine different Virginia Tech players caught passes during the Duke game.
- 8 Virginia Tech is averaging 8.8 yards per pass attempt.
- 7 The Hokies are trying to post seven straight wins for the first time since 2005.
- 6 Redshirt sophomore Marcus Davis had a career-best six pass receptions during the Duke game.
- 5 Cornerback Jayron Hosley has intercepted five passes over Tech's first eight games.
- 4 Tight end Andre Smith's four touchdown catches this season came on consecutive receptions against NC State (2), Central Michigan and Duke.
- 3 Quarterback Tyrod Taylor has thrown for three touchdowns in three of Virginia Tech's last four games.
- 2 Two Tech players – Austin Fuller and Prince Parker – picked up their first collegiate pass receptions during the Duke game.
- 1 Tailback David Wilson made his first career start in the Duke game and caught a 65-yard touchdown pass, his first career TD reception.

COACH FRANK BEAMER

Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech '69), whose Virginia Tech teams have posted a 169-55 record over the past 17 seasons and have appeared in bowl games each year in that span, is in his 24th year as the head football coach at Tech and 30th overall. Beamer has guided the Hokies to a 193-94-2 record and sits with an overall record of 235-117-4.

Under Beamer, Tech football has enjoyed unprecedented success with 17 consecutive bowl appearances, three ACC titles, three ACC Coastal Division crowns, three BIG EAST Conference titles, two "major" bowl victories and a trip to the national championship game.

Tech won the BIG EAST title in 1995 and 1999 and shared it in '96. Beamer was voted BIG EAST Coach of the Year by the league's coaches each of those seasons and was tabbed the ACC Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005.

taken from 2010 NCAA Football Record Book

In 1997, he was inducted into the Virginia Tech Sports Hall of Fame and following the 1999 season, he earned eight national coach of the year honors.

Beamer returned to his alma mater in December of 1986 after a six-year stint as the head coach at Murray State University, where he compiled a 42-23-2 mark.

During his undergraduate days at Tech, Beamer started three years as a cornerback and played on the Hokies' 1966 and 1968 Liberty Bowl teams.

The 64-year-old Hillsville, Va., native began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Maryland in 1972. He held assistant coaching positions at The Citadel and Murray State before being named MSU's head coach in 1981.

He is married to the former Cheryl Oakley of Richmond, Va. They have two children, Shane, a former member of his dad's football team at Tech and now an assistant coach at the University of South Carolina; and daughter Casey, a 2003 graduate of Tech who now works for the Carolina Panthers. He has two grandchildren, Sutton and Olivia, daughters of Shane and his wife, Emily.

Beamer was born in Mt. Airy, N.C., and grew up in Hillsville, Va. At Hillsville High, he earned 11 varsity letters as a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball.

Beamer, who is the third-winningest active coach in the Football Bowl Subdivision with 235 victories, had his No. 25 jersey retired by Tech in a pregame ceremony before the Marshall game in 2002. He is 10th all-time among FBS coaches (min. 10 seasons at FBS school) in terms of all time victories.

STABILITY AT THE TOP

• Frank Beamer, the first Tech alumnus to guide Virginia Tech's football program since the 1940s, has coached and won more football games at Tech than any other head coach.

• Only one of the 120 active Division I-A head football coaches has been at his current school consecutively longer than Beamer: Joe Paterno (45th yr., Penn State).

WHAT'S A HOKIE?

That's the most often-asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

Following is the "Old Hokie" yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

HOUSE OF HORRORS

- ♦ Lane Stadium has always been a difficult place for opponents to play and has been dubbed one of the best game-day environments in college football. Tech has a 49-8-1 record versus non-conference teams at home since 1991.
- ♦ Virginia Tech has posted a 189-68-6 overall record at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.
- ♦ Tech is 115-31-1 at home under the direction of Frank Beamer.
- ♦ Tech football teams are 349-99-13 all time in Blacksburg, including a 45-7 record since the start of the 2003 season.
- ♦ A large part of that impressive record is the home-field environment created by the fans as Lane Stadium has been sold out for 79 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against Virginia.
- ♦ The Hokies went unbeaten and untied in 2008 (6-0), 2000 (6-0), 1999 (6-0), 1996 (7-0), 1993 (6-0) 1980 (6-0), 1975 (5-0) and 1965 (3-0) at Lane Stadium. They went 4-0-1 in 1972 and 2-0-1 in 1966.

SEVENTEEN BOWLS IN A ROW

• With its Chick-fil-A Bowl appearance last year, Tech is now one of only three teams to go to 17 bowls in the past 17 seasons. The other two are Florida State and Florida.

Active Consecutive Bowl Appearances

1.	Florida State	28
2.	Florida	19
3.	Virginia Tech	17
4.	Georgia, Georgia Tech	13
5.	Texas, Oklahoma	12

CONSISTENCY IS THE KEY

• Tech has been a consistent winner since the mid-90s, winning an average of 9.6 games per year during the current streak of 17 straight seasons capped by bowl appearances.

• Since the beginning of the 1995 season, only Ohio State (159) and Florida (158) have won more games than Tech (152).

SCORING STREAK

• Tech has scored in a school record 197 straight football games, beginning with a win over Miami on Sept. 23, 1995. The streak began after a 16-0 loss to Cincinnati in 1995.

• The previous school record was 66 straight games (1970-76).

• During its current streak, Tech has scored 13 or more points in all but seven games.

A STAFF WITH STAYING POWER

♦ Head coach Frank Beamer, in his 24th year at Tech, has had the top four men on his staff in Blacksburg since 1996.

♦ Associate head coach Billy Hite has been at Tech since 1978, well before Beamer arrived. His 33 consecutive years on the same staff make him the "Dean" of assistant coaches at the FBS level. In fact, Joe Paterno, the head coach at Penn State (45th year), is the only coach of any title who has been at the same school for more consecutive years than Hite.

♦ Defensive coordinator Bud Foster came with Beamer from Murray State in 1987 and took over the defense in 1995.

♦ Bryan Stinespring joined the staff as a full-time assistant in 1993 and took over as offensive coordinator in 2002.

♦ Recruiting coordinator Jim Cavanaugh has been on the staff since 1996.

♦ Additionally, defensive line coach Charley Wiles is in his 15th year in Blacksburg.

♦ The entire 10-man staff has been at Virginia Tech alone a combined 148 years. Beamer has had this staff intact since the start of the 2007 season as this staff is in its fourth year together.

BETTER WITH TIME

♦ Tech played its first varsity football game on Oct. 21, 1892, 118 years ago on a small field behind a dorm on campus. Since that time, the Hokies have won 674 games and have improved each decade since the 1970s.

THE STORIED LUNCH PAIL

♦ Taken with the Hokies wherever they go is the storied lunch pail. The Pail served as the inspiration for Tech's record-setting 1995 defense, symbolizing Tech's blue collar approach to defensive football. Every year since, a member of the defense has been responsible for toting a new Pail.

♦ Coach Rod Sharpless, then the co-defensive coordinator along with Bud Foster, brought a lunch pail back from New Jersey and they decided that it would become the symbol of the 1995 defense.

♦ Sharpless' mother-in-law found the now famous original lunch pail in Mercerville, N.J., where it had belonged to a coal miner.

♦ The players put the unit goals, weekly goals, the keys to success for the week and a signed a mission statement before the season in the Pail ... plus the turf from road wins.

♦ Senior defensive tackle John Graves is the carrier of the Pail this season.

DEFENSIVE TRADITION

♦ Virginia Tech defensive coordinator Bud Foster is the architect of some of the nation's best defenses on an annual basis.

♦ Tech is the only FBS school to have a defense finish in the top 12 in total defense each of the past six years (4th in 2004; 1st in 2005 and 2006; 4th in 2007; 7th in 2008 and 12th in 2009). Check out these numbers Foster's crew has put up:

PLAYING THE BEST

♦ Since 1999 Virginia Tech has gone up against some of the best teams in the country each year, whether it's scheduled regular-season games, or bowl contests. In that 11-year span, Tech has faced a team that finished in the final AP Top 5 in nine of those seasons and in 10 games total. Five of those 10 teams went on to win the national championship that season.

Last Meeting: Jackets Run Past Hokies in Atlanta

	No. 4	Virginia Tech	23
	No. 19	Georgia Tech	28

Bobby Dodd Stadium/Grant Field • Atlanta, Ga.
Oct. 17, 2009 • Attendance: 54,405

ATLANTA, Ga. - Georgia Tech controlled the football for more than 22 minutes of the second half in grinding out a methodical 28-23 victory over the No. 4 Virginia Tech Hokies at Bobby Dodd Stadium. The loss snapped a five-game Hokie winning streak.

The Yellow Jackets attempted just two passes among their 44 second-half offensive plays, overwhelming the Hokies with 272 rushing yards. Georgia Tech quarterback Josh Nesbitt scored three touchdowns and led his team to 360 total yards, 309 on the ground.

Virginia Tech, which managed just 19 offensive plays in the second half, missed out on some early chances and never managed to catch up. Tailback Ryan Williams contributed a 100-yard rushing game and two TDs, highlighted by a 66-yard run, despite missing some time during the week.

The Yellow Jackets, who ran the ball on 33 of their final 34 plays, ran for 309 yards, the most against the Hokies since allowing 308 yards to Clemson - head coach Frank Beamer's first game - in 1987. Georgia Tech also completed just one pass, a new record low for a Tech opponent under Beamer.

Game Notes

- Offensive guard Greg Nosal made his first career start in place of regular starting left guard Sergio Render, who had a tender shoulder. Nosal and Render ended up splitting time during the game.

- Linebacker Barquell Rivers posted a career-best 16 tackles against the Jackets. Rivers was credited with four solo tackles and 12 assists. He had one tackle behind the line.

- Ryan Williams rushed for 100 yards in the game. It was Williams' fifth 100-yard rushing performance of the season, which set a new school record for a freshman.

- Georgia Tech's 38:22 time of possession marked the fourth-most by an opponent under head coach Frank Beamer.

Game 1: Broncos Spoil Tech Party At FedExField

	No. 3	Boise State	33
	No. 10	Virginia Tech	30

FedExField • Landover, Md.
Sept. 6, 2010 • Attendance: 86,587

LANDOVER, Md. — No. 3

Boise State scored in the final 70 seconds to hand Virginia Tech a disappointing 33-30 season-opening loss before a sell out crowd of 86,587 at FedExField on Labor Day evening.

The Hokies put themselves in an early 17-0 hole with a series of miscues, but managed to battle back to capture the lead in the third quarter.

Tech was up 30-26 before Boise quarterback Kellen Moore connected on his third touchdown pass of the game with 1:09 remaining. The lead changed hands four times during the final 22 minutes of the game.

Tailback Ryan Williams scored three touchdowns and quarterback Tyrod Taylor accounted for 259 of Tech's 314 yards of offense. The Hokies blocked a pair of kicks for the 22nd time under Frank Beamer.

Game Notes

- Six true freshmen dressed for the game, with two – Kyle Fuller (special teams) and Derrick Hopkins (defensive line) – seeing action.

- The last time Virginia Tech trailed 17-0 after one quarter was in 1992 when Miami led 17-0 after the first stanza. UM went on to win that game 43-23.

- There were three blocked kicks in the game. Both teams blocked a punt, and Tech added a blocked extra point attempt.

- It marked the third straight season the Hokies opened the season with a loss at a neutral site.

Game 2: Dukes Pull the Upset at Lane Stadium

James Madison

21

No. 13 Virginia Tech

16

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.
Sept. 11, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG – Quarterback Drew Dudzik ran for two touchdowns and passed for another as James Madison University stunned No. 13 Virginia Tech 21-16, on a rainy afternoon at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field. The loss was Tech's first in a home opener since the 1995 season and the first to a non-conference team in Blacksburg since the final game of the 1998 season.

With the Dukes trailing 16-7 late in the third quarter, Dudzik engineered a pair of scoring drives to put the visitors ahead. Then, following a Tech fumble, the JMU signal-caller sealed the Hokies' fate with a five-minute-plus drive that ran out the clock. He had help from running back Jamal Sullivan, whose catch and run with a Dudzik pass produced a 77-yard touchdown that lit a fire under the Dukes late in the second quarter.

Tech never punted in the game, but suffered three turnovers and had to settle for Chris Hazley field goals on three of its five trips inside the JMU 25-yard line. The Hokies' only TD came on a 17-play, 94-yard drive in the opening quarter.

Game Notes

- The loss snapped a 32-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents spanning back to the final game of the 1998 season when the Hokies, then in the Big East Conference, lost at home to Virginia 36-32.

- Tech's 17-play touchdown drive against the Dukes was its longest since a 17-play TD drive at NC State in 2005.

- The last time the Hokies allowed a pass of 77 yards or longer was in 2003 when quarterback Rasheed Marshall of West Virginia completed a 93-yard pass to Travis Garvin.

- JMU's second quarter touchdown marked the first time the Dukes had scored against the Hokies in 10 quarters of play going back to 1992. The Dukes were shut out on their last two visits to Lane Stadium.

Game 3: Big Second Half Lifts Hokies To Win Over Pirates

East Carolina

27

Virginia Tech

49

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.
Sept. 18, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG - Virginia Tech scored 28 unanswered points in the second half on the way to posting its first victory of the season, a much-needed 49-27 decision over the East Carolina University Pirates at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Tailback David Wilson and cornerback Rashad Carmichael played big roles in rallying the Hokies from a 27-21 third-quarter deficit. Wilson ran for two touchdowns in less than five minutes to stake Tech to a 35-27 advantage in the waning seconds of the third quarter. Then Carmichael took over, delivering the big blow with a 68-yard interception return for a touchdown at the start of the fourth quarter. A second interception by Carmichael on the Pirates' very next drive preceded a 69-yard touchdown pass from Tech quarterback Tyrod Taylor to receiver Jarrett Boykin that capped the scoring.

Tech held East Carolina to 83 total yards in the second half after allowing 278 yards over the first two quarters of play.

Game Notes

- Sophomore running back David Wilson scored two touchdowns for the first time in his Tech career with runs of 3 and 8 yards against ECU.

- Defensive end James Gayle, defensive tackle Antoine Hopkins, true freshman cornerback Kyle Fuller and safety Antoine Exum made their first collegiate starts in the win.

- Tech's 49 points were the most for the Hokies in a game against East Carolina. Tech scored 45 points during a 2000 victory at ECU.

- Five Tech backs had rushing carries of 10 yards or more during the game. The Hokies had 12 running plays of 10 yards or more, including a 24-yard run by redshirt freshman Tony Gregory on his first collegiate carry.

Game 4: Defense Pitches Shutout As Hokies Pick Up Road Win

Virginia Tech

19

Boston College

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, Mass.
Sept. 25, 2010 • Attendance: 42,317

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. - Virginia Tech used four second-half field goals by Chris Hazley and stout defensive play over the final 30 minutes to open ACC play with a 19-0 shutout victory at Boston College. The win kept the Hokies perfect (7-0) in conference openers since joining the league in 2004.

Tech gained just 164 yards of offense during the first 30 minutes, but still managed to cling to a 7-0 lead at the intermission thanks to a nine-play, 80-yard scoring drive midway through the half. A 30-yard pass from quarterback Tyrod Taylor to tailback Darren Evans was the key play and Evans put the finishing touches on it with a 3-yard run for the touchdown.

Boston College piled up 211 yards in the first half, but failed to score on two trips inside the red zone. The Eagles ran just two plays on the Hokies' side of the field during the second half, while being held to just 39 total yards. Tech's defense posted six sacks, 11 tackles for loss and a pair of pass interceptions during the victory.

Hazley booted field goals on each of Tech's first three possessions of the third quarter. He added a fourth with 3:48 remaining in the game.

Taylor connected on 16 of 21 passes for 237 yards, while David Wilson picked up 67 yards rushing on 16 carries.

Game Notes

- The shutout was the first for Virginia Tech since a 17-0 win over Virginia in Blacksburg in the final regular-season game of the 2006 season. The Hokies' last shutout in a road game was a 45-0 decision at Duke in 2005. The game marked the first time Boston College had been shut out since 1998 when Tech took a 17-0 decision at Alumni Stadium.

- Receiver Dyrrell Roberts and tight end Andre Smith both set personal-bests for receptions during the win over the Eagles. Roberts had five catches for 49 yards in the game, while Smith posted four for 44 yards.

- The touchdown by Darren Evans was the first offensive touchdown scored by the Hokies at Alumni Stadium since Lee Suggs ran for a fourth quarter TD in the 2002 game at BC. Tech failed to score on offense during losses at Chestnut Hill in 2006 and 2008.

Game 5: Historic Comeback Lifts Hokies Past Pack

Virginia Tech

No. 23 NC State

Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, N.C.
Oct. 2, 2010 • Attendance: 58,083

RALEIGH, N.C. - Virginia Tech came from behind twice in the fourth quarter and completed the biggest come-back victory of the Frank Beamer era with a 41-30 road victory over No. 23 NC State at Carter-Finley Stadium in front of the third-largest crowd ever at the stadium.

The Wolfpack stormed to a 17-0 lead in the first 16 minutes of the game and led 17-7 at the half. David Wilson gave the Hokies a big lift when he returned the second half kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown. Tech went on to outscore the Pack 34-13 over the final two quarters, but didn't take the lead for good until the 1:27 mark when Jarrett Boykin took a Tyrod Taylor pass and weaved 39 yards for a touchdown.

Game Notes

- Redshirt sophomore receiver Marcus Davis made his first collegiate start in the game as the Hokies opened with a four receiver set. Another sophomore receiver, D.J. Coles, caught his first collegiate passes during the victory.

- Tech's comeback from 17-points down surpassed a comeback from 15 points down at Virginia in 1995 as the biggest come-from-behind win in Coach Frank Beamer's 23-plus seasons in Blacksburg.

- Quarterback Tyrod Taylor's three touchdown passes tied a personal best for the Tech senior who also threw for three scores at Maryland in 2009.

- Andre Smith became the first Tech tight end to catch two touchdown passes in a game since Keith Willis did it against Cal in the 2003 Insight Bowl.

Game 6: Taylor Leads Hokies Past Chippewas With Big Game*Central Michigan 21Virginia Tech 45

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.

Oct. 9, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG - Quarterback Tyrod Taylor ran for two scores and passed for another to pace Virginia Tech to a 45-21 victory over Central Michigan University at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

After CMU opened the game with an 80-yard touchdown drive, Taylor answered with a 72-yard scamper for a TD on Tech's second play of the game and the Hokies never looked back, scoring 38 unanswered points. Taylor added a 7-yard touchdown pass to Andre Smith in the second quarter and chipped in a 15-yard scoring run in the third period. He finished the game with 161 yards passing and 127 on the ground.

Tech won despite running 31 fewer offensive plays than its visitors, going 0-for-8 on third down conversions and being out-gained. The Hokies off-set those numbers with big plays, including a 68-yard TD run by tailback David Wilson and an 80-yard punt return for a touchdown by Jayron Hosley.

Game Notes

- Davon Morgan recorded his first career pass interception during the second quarter. His pick led to a 30-yard field goal by Chris Hazley.

- The Hokies opened in a four-receiver set for the second-straight week. It marked the first time during the 2010 season that the same 22 starters on offense and defense started in back-to-back weeks.

- David Wilson's 68-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter was the longest run of his Tech career, surpassing a 51-yard run against Marshall last season. Meanwhile, fellow tailback Darren Evans scored a touchdown for the fourth-consecutive game.

- Tyrod Taylor posted a run of 70 yards or longer for the second straight week, and his third career run of 70 yards or longer.

Game 7: Huge First Half Lifts Hokies To Homecoming WinWake Forest 21Virginia Tech 52

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.

Oct. 16, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG - Virginia Tech amassed over 600 yards of offense on the way to its fifth consecutive win, a 52-21 Homecoming pounding of Wake Forest at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Quarterback Tyrod Taylor enjoyed a record-setting day, throwing for 292 yards and tying a career high with three touchdown passes. He hit back-up quarterback Logan Thomas — who was split out as a receiver — for a 3-yard score on the Hokies' opening possession to give the Hokies a 7-0 lead and get the onslaught started.

Taylor later threw touchdown strikes of 25 yards to Danny Coale and 11 yards to Jarrett Boykin. He also scored a touchdown rushing, getting in the end zone on a 1-yard sneak midway through the second quarter. Darren Evans accounted for the rest of the scoring.

The Hokies gained 314 yards through the air and 291 on the ground on the way to 35 first downs.

Virginia Tech scored touchdowns on eight of its first nine possessions and piled up 49 first half points while controlling the football for over 41 minutes.

Game Notes

- Receiver Dyrrell Roberts had career highs in catches (6) and receiving yards (134) during the win. Danny Coale also finished with over 100 yards receiving (103), giving Tech two 100-yard receivers in the same game for the first time since 2006 when Eddie Royal and Justin Harper did it against Georgia Tech.

- Tech converted 12 of 17 third-down situations in the game after going 0-for-8 on third downs a week earlier against Central Michigan.

- Wake tailback Josh Harris rushed for 241 yards on 20 carries and scored two touchdowns on runs of 33 and 87 yards. His rushing total was the most by a running back ever against a Tech defense.

No. 23 Virginia Tech

44

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.
Oct. 23, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG - Quarterback Tyrod Taylor turned in another stellar performance as Virginia Tech continued its steady improvement with a 44-7 victory over the visiting Duke Blue Devils.

Taylor completed 13 of 17 passes for 280 yards and tied his career-high for touchdown passes in a game for the second week in a row with three. He also was the Hokies' top rusher with 47 yards on six carries. Tech scored on seven of its eight possessions when Taylor was at the helm.

The Tech defense held the Blue Devils to 208 total yards and seven points. Interceptions by cornerbacks Jayron Hosley and Rashad Carmichael led to 10 Tech points.

Special teams also played an important role in the victory as kicker Chris Hazley booted three field goals and punter Brian Saunders averaged 49.7 yards on three kicks. The Hokies also got a 61-yard punt return from Hosley to set up their second touchdown of the game.

Game Notes

- Tech scored 40 points or more in a game for the fourth consecutive week for the first time since the 2000 season when it had 52 vs. Akron, 45 vs. ECU, 49 against Rutgers and 48 vs. Boston College.

- Tech won its sixth game in a row for their longest winning streak since 2006 when it posted wins in its last six games of the regular season.

- Tailback Ryan Williams returned to action for the first time since game three against ECU on Sept. 18 when he left the game in the second quarter with a hamstring injury. He scored a touchdown on a 1-yard plunge against the Blue Devils.

- Austin Fuller and Prince Parker both caught their first collegiate passes in the game.

FOUR IN A ROW

• Thursday night's game will be the Hokies' fourth straight home contest. The last time this happened was in 2003 to open the season (UCF, JMU, Texas A&M, UConn). It also happened in 1991 and 1996 under head coach Frank Beamer.

OVERALL ON THURSDAYS

- Playing on Thursday used to be routine for Virginia Tech grid teams. Tech and VMI clashed in Roanoke, Va., every Thanksgiving afternoon except for two from 1913 through 1969 in what once was known as "The Military Classic of the South."
- Overall, Tech has a 60-32-5 record in games played on Thursday.
- Virginia Tech is no stranger to Thursday night ESPN games as this will be the Hokies' 22nd appearance.
- In 21 previous appearances, Virginia Tech is 16-5 (.762) with three of its losses coming to Boston College, one to Miami in 2008 and to UNC last year.
- The Hokies at one point won 11 straight games played on ESPN's Thursday Night Football from 1999-2005.
- Virginia Tech is 9-3 all-time on Thursday night ESPN broadcasts at Lane Stadium and 7-2 on the road.

SIX WINS IN A ROW

• After dropping their first two ballgames of the season, the Hokies have reeled off six straight wins. The last time Tech won six straight games was in 2006 to end the regular season. With a win Thursday night, it would be seven in a row for Tech, which hasn't happened since 2005 when Tech won eight in a row to start the season.

FINDING ITS GROOVE

• The Tech offense has found its groove the last four games, averaging 482.5 yards per game over that span and scoring over 40 points in each of those wins. The last time Tech scored 40 points or more in four straight games was to open the 2000 season (52 vs. Akron; 45 vs. ECU; 49 vs. Rutgers; 48 vs. BC). Tech has never scored 40 or more points in five straight games.

IN ELITE COMPANY

• Virginia Tech quarterback Tyrod Taylor is one of just two active FBS quarterbacks in the career 2,000 rushing/5,000 passing yard club. Taylor has rushed for 2,064 yards and passed for 5,876. He is joined by Nevada's Colin Kaepernick, who has rushed for 3,575 yards and passed for 8,556 yards. Taylor is fourth nationally in passing efficiency, third nationally in yards per attempt passing and has thrown 10 touchdowns since his last interception.

• Taylor is one of seven active quarterbacks in the 1,000/5,000 club.

ONE LAST GO

♦ Tyrod Taylor is the man under center one last season for the Hokies this year. The senior has started 36 games and has won 29 of them, the most wins for a starting quarterback in school history. That includes a loss at Florida State in 2008 when he was injured on the first play of the game and didn't return.

♦ Taylor is the latest in a growing line of standout signal callers from the Peninsula area of Virginia. The Hampton product joins Allen Iverson and Ronald Curry from the same city, Bryan Randall from Williamsburg and both Michael and Marcus Vick from Newport News to go on to success from that area.

♦ He led the nation last year in yards per passing attempt with 9.51 and has had six career 100-yard rushing games, tying him with Bob Schweickert for the most 100-yard rushing games in a career by a quarterback. He also has 21 rushing touchdowns, tying Schweickert for the school record for rushing scores by a quarterback.

♦ Taylor, who is the first senior starting quarterback under Beamer since Bryan Randall in 2004, engineered two of the biggest plays in recent history last season when he led Tech on an 88-yard touchdown drive in the last two minutes to lift the Hokies to a 16-15 win over No. 19 Nebraska.

♦ First, he hit Danny Coale for an 81-yard pass down the right sideline and then scrambled for close to 10 seconds and hit Dyrell Roberts in the back of the end zone for the game-winning touchdown.

♦ For his career, Taylor - who doesn't eat any red meat - has 5,876 yards passing, 2,064 yards rushing and has accumulated 7,940 yards of total offense.

♦ All three are among the best in school history. For a complete list of where Taylor ranks in the school annals in several categories, see page 5.

A STABLE OF STALLIONS

♦ Virginia Tech should boast one of the top backfields in the country this year as the Hokies will feature a stable of "Stallions" that runs four deep.

♦ Ryan Williams was a third-team Sporting News All-American last year after setting several school and conference records.

♦ Darren Evans, the starter in 2008, returns after suffering a season-ending knee injury last preseason. The 2009 Orange Bowl MVP rushed for over 1,200 yards that season.

♦ David Wilson saw plenty of action last year as a true freshman, and will be in the mix again this year. Tony Gregory is perhaps the fastest of all the backs and had an impressive spring, giving notice that he is ready to see the field somewhere this fall.

MR. ELECTRIC

♦ Williams, who played for former Tech star Loren Johnson at Stonewall Jackson High, is a self-described fashionisto, owning nearly 100 different pairs of Nike shoes, including old-school Air Jordans and Air Force Ones. He also has a tattoo on his right forearm that reads "#34 Lil' Sweetness" in honor of the late Walter

A FEW NOTES ON WILLIAMS

- ♦ Williams had a play of 40 yards or longer in seven games last year, with 19 rushes of 20 yards or more (see chart below).
- ♦ He ran for 1,655 yards last year, breaking the school's single-season rushing record of 1,647 yards set by Kevin Jones in 2003.
- ♦ He set new ACC single-season records for total touchdowns with 22 and for rushing touchdowns with 21 scores.
- ♦ His 1,655 rushing yards were the third-most in ACC single-season history.
- ♦ His 10 100-yard rushing games tied the ACC's single-season mark and set a new Virginia Tech single-season record (the career record is 16 times).
- ♦ He finished fifth in the country in rushing yards per game, fifth in total rushing yards and tied for third in rushing touchdowns.
- ♦ His rushing total of 1,655 yards was the sixth highest by a freshman in NCAA history, surpassing Tony Dorsett of Pittsburgh (1,586 in 1973) and Herschel Walker of Georgia (1,616 in 1980), among others, on that list.
- ♦ His 21 rushing touchdowns tied an NCAA record (Marshal Faulk, San Diego State, 1991) for most rushing touchdowns in a season by a freshman.

EVANS BACK ON THE FIELD

- ♦ After suffering a torn ACL in preseason camp last fall, junior tailback Darren Evans returns to the field hungry to return to the form of 2008.
- ♦ After redshirting in 2007, he made a quick impact on the Tech offense, rushing for 1,265 yards and 11 scores. He had a huge game when he rushed for a school-record 253 yards (with runs of 50 and 45 yards) on 32 carries with 12 broken tackles and a score in Tech's 23-13 win over No. 23 Maryland and earned second-team All-ACC honors.
- ♦ Evans is the first Tech player on record to score a touchdown in each of the first six games he played in. The previous high belonged to Cyrus Lawrence, who scored in his first four games played.
- ♦ The Indianapolis native was the 2006 EA SPORTS National Player of the Year and a PARADE All-American as a running back his senior season after rushing for 2,806 yards and a state-record 61 touchdowns, the No. 4 total in U.S. prep football history.
- ♦ He returned to action full time this past spring and in July, he broke the school's running back record for the bench press, putting up 405 pounds. He has 447 yards rushing this year and nine touchdowns.
- ♦ Evans and his wife, Tanisha, are raising their son James in Blacksburg.

ROCK SOLID

- ♦ Senior cornerback Rashad Carmichael waited his time and stepped in and up last season. With blazing speed, he possesses the skills necessary to be another great corner in the Tech backfield. His 4.26 40-yard dash is the fifth fastest in program history.
- ♦ While his given name is Rashad, no one calls him that, not even his family, friends or even position coach Torrian Gray. He goes simply by "Rock," a nickname he's had since a child. When Carmichael was younger, people called him Ra or Ra-Ra. But his father Bernard heard those nicknames and thought they made his son sound soft. From that point on, his father said Carmichael would be known as Rock.
- ♦ Carmichael and former Tech defensive end Jason Worilds have been friends for years as Carmichael's father and Worilds' brother served in the Air Force together. Bernard Carmichael passed away in the summer of 2008 from a heart attack, just weeks before his son made his first career start, coming against East Carolina in the season opener.
- ♦ This past spring, while practicing and taking classes, Carmichael worked 35 hours per week as an intern at the Head Start Program in Christiansburg. He graduated with a degree in human services and is working on a second undergraduate degree.
- ♦ Carmichael, an honorable mention All-ACC selection last year, had 55 tackles in 2009, including four for loss and a sack, and six interceptions, including one that he returned 22 yards for a score against Boston College.

GIVING THEM HIS FINGER

- ♦ No one can accuse offensive guard Greg Nosal of being soft after his performance against CMU. The junior got his pinkie finger stuck in the facemask of a defender, ripping the fleshy tip of the finger off. After the trainers fished it out of his glove, they put the digit on ice and wrapped up Nosal so he could finish the game. Finally, he went into the training room late in the game after the pain medicine wore off to get the tip sewn back on, but he played two quarters with 9 ¹/₂ fingers.

- ♦ Nosal's father was recently promoted to Admiral in the U.S. Navy and works at the Pentagon.

THE GRAVE DIGGER

- ♦ John Graves is being called upon to be the senior leader on an inexperienced defensive line this year. The senior is the lone returning starter among the front four and anchors the defensive tackle spot for the Hokies this year.
- ♦ He made a big impact on special teams as a sophomore, blocking a PAT against ECU, a field goal against Furman and a PAT against Georgia Tech. He became the first Tech player to block a kick in three consecutive games under Frank Beamer.

- He had just 15 tackles last year as he was limited by an ankle injury he suffered in the Georgia Tech game. Graves showed what he's capable of when healthy when he dominated in the Chick-fil-A Bowl against Tennessee, recording three solo stops, including two for loss and a sack.

- Graves, who already graduated with a pair of degrees in psychology and sociology, has a future desire to be an FBI special agent if the NFL doesn't work out.

- He has 17 tackles, including 3.5 for loss, and 14 quarterback hurries this season.

- He's part of an elite group now, one that includes the likes of Darryl Tapp, Xavier Adibi, Orion Martin and most recently Kam Chancellor last year, to carry the lunch pail as the leader of the Hokies' defense.

ATHLETICS RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- Danny Coale comes from quite the athletic family. His brother, Kevin, played midfield for the University of Virginia men's lacrosse team. Their father, Jimmy, is the head strength and conditioning coach at Virginia Military Institute (VMI).

- Danny, who was a first-team all-state lacrosse player in high school, led the team with 36 receptions for 408 yards as a freshman in 2008. He set the school's freshman reception record with 36 and has caught at least two passes in 25 of 35 career games played.

- He had his longest, and most important, catch in the final minutes of the Nebraska game, breaking free down the sideline for an 81-yard catch to set up the game-winning touchdown pass with 21 seconds left.

- He had a career day at Virginia last year, when he had six catches for 135 yards. The junior has 81 receptions for 1,341 yards and three touchdowns for his career.

BIG-PLAY BOYKIN

- Junior Jarrett Boykin became a big-play receiver for the Hokies last year and uses his big hands to help with snagging passes. Boykin's hands are so large that he has to wear size-3X receiver's gloves. His thick fingers bust the seams of the gloves, sending him back to equipment manager Lester Karlin often for a replacement pair.

- Last season, he had a team-leading 40 receptions for 835 yards and six total scores. He caught six passes for a career-high 164 yards and a score at Maryland and was credited with a rushing touchdown when he pounced on a fumble in the end zone against Virginia.

- He is climbing the charts for career receiving yards at Tech, sitting in sixth place with 1,793 yards and has 12 touchdowns.

DUAL-THREAT DYRELL

- Another junior receiver, Dyrell Roberts, contributes on both offense and special teams. The former high school tailback has found a niche as a kickoff return man, averaging 26.6 yards on 49 career returns with a 98-yard return for a touchdown - the fifth-longest return in school history - against eventual national champion Alabama last year.

- Roberts has 60 career receptions for 920 yards and five touchdowns. He is second all-time at Tech in kick returns yards, needing 51 yards to pass Jon Jeffries for a new record.

- He is on the watch list for the Paul Hornung Award, given to the nation's most versatile player.

A REWARD FOR GOOD GRADES

- The Tech football team eats its meals in order of grade-point average. Those players who have graduated, as well as those players who maintain the highest grade-point average, eat all team meals first. Coach Beamer invites each player to eat, calling out his name and his grade-point average, starting with the highest.

ATHLETIC OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

- This year's offensive line is another athletic one as three players in the two-deep started their collegiate careers at tight end. Starters Beau Warren (center), Greg Nosal (left guard) and co-starter Andrew Lanier (left tackle) all came to Blacksburg as tight ends before making the move to the interior line.

- Duane Brown made the same move early in his career and was a first-round draft pick of the Houston Texans in 2008 and is in his third year as a starter. Brandon Frye did the same and has started at tackle for the Seattle Seahawks before getting injured last year. Ed Wang also came in as a tight end and moved to tackle early on in his career. He was drafted by Buffalo last April.

WHERE'S WHITLEY?

- True junior Eddie Whitley is the master of all trades in the defensive backfield for the Hokies, as he's spent time at cornerback, outside linebacker, rover and now takes over the starting job at free safety. He takes the reigns from three-year starter Kam Chancellor, who was drafted by the Seattle Seahawks last April.

BY THE NUMBERS

2,064 ... career rushing yards by Tyrod Taylor make him the only quarterback in Tech history to run for over 2,000 yards.

198 ... pass interceptions by Virginia Tech since 2000 are the most among FBS teams.

127 ... touchdowns scored by Tech's defense and special teams since Frank Beamer arrived in 1987, including 110 in Tech's past 212 games.

106-34 ... the Hokies' scoring margin against opponents during the second quarter of play.

101 ... career catches by Jarrett Boykin currently rank him eighth in career pass receptions at Virginia Tech. He needs three more to move past André Davis (103) and Mike Giacalone (103) for sixth place.

51 ... kickoff return yards needed by Dyrrell Roberts (1,397) to move by Jon Jeffries (1,447) for first place in career kickoff return yards at Virginia Tech.

35 ... career passing touchdowns by Tyrod Taylor rank him fourth all-time at Virginia Tech behind Bryan Randall (48), Maurice DeShazo (47) and Will Furrer (43).

34 ... total passes broken up by Tech during its last four games. This year's total of 45 already equals its total for all last season.

27 ... total touchdowns for redshirt sophomore running back Ryan Williams in 17 games as a Hokie.

25 ... Virginia Tech players have seen their first collegiate action this season.

21 ... touchbacks for kickoff man Justin Myer so far this season.

16 ... total passes attempted by Georgia Tech during its last two meetings with Tech.

15 ... players have caught passes for the Hokies over their eight games.

13 ... consecutive field goals made by place-kicker Chris Hazley.

9 ... Tech's national ranking in both pass efficiency defense and punt returns.

6 ... consecutive games in which tailback Darren Evans scored at least one touchdown.

4 ... touchdown catches for Andre Smith are the most for a Virginia Tech tight end in a season since 2005 when Jeff King caught six.

• Against East Carolina, he played most of the game at the whip linebacker spot as the Hokies played a nickel package most of the game.

• The North Carolina native is an avid chess player, who's been playing since he was 4 years old. He plays online, in the locker room, on his computer and even on his iPhone.

A FAMILY ATMOSPHERE

• Starting center Beau Warren is just one of several Hokies on the roster to have family ties to the Tech football program. Warren is following two brothers who played for the Hokies. Blake played linebacker for Tech and Brett was a starting linebacker in 2008.

• Redshirt sophomore Antoine Hopkins and true freshman Derrick Hopkins are brothers.

• Redshirt sophomores Vinston Painter and Randall Dunn are cousins.

• So are redshirt freshman Logan Thomas and freshman Zack McCray, as are redshirt junior Jaymes Brooks and redshirt freshman Telvis Clark.

• Linebacker Tariq Edwards is the son of former Hokie football player Bo Campbell, who lettered from 1989-92.

• George George III is a walk-on whose father, George, was on the Tech team in the 1970s.

• Back-up center Bo Gentry is the son of Tech's Assistant A.D. for Athletic Performance, Dr. Mike Gentry.

• Wiley Brown is the younger brother of former defensive end Nekos Brown and David Wang is the younger brother of former offensive tackle Ed Wang.

• Freshman lineman Mark Shuman is the younger brother of former starting center Ryan Shuman.

• Martin Scales is the cousin of former Hokies Orion and Cam Martin.

• Kyle Fuller is a freshman defensive back who signed with the Hokies last February. He is joined on the team by his brother, Corey Fuller, who ran track at Kansas the past two seasons before transferring for this year. Both are younger brothers of former Hokie Vincent Fuller, who is in his sixth season with the Tennessee Titans.

ANOTHER ONE-YEAR KICKER

• For the fourth year in a row, Tech is relying on a senior walk-on for the kicking duties. In 2007, it was Jud Dunlevy, who went 21-for-26 on the season.

• In 2008, Dustin Keys set a school record with 23 field goals. Last year, it was Matt Waldron's turn and he responded by scoring 108 points en route to first-team All-ACC honors. All three were one-year wonders, combining to make 64 of 78 field-goal attempts (82 percent) and produce 317 points with several earning All-ACC honors.

• This year, it's Chris Hazley's time to shine. He came to Tech as a regular student and then to a tryout because "I was bored during my first semester here. I just wanted to find some things to do." He was rewarded with a scholarship this preseason.

• Hazley attended Henderson High in West Chester, Pa., playing football his senior year only after playing just soccer growing up. He kicked one field goal in his senior season and is 13-for-14 this year as the Hokies' kicker.

REPLACING BOWDEN

• Senior walk-on Brian Saunders steps into the role of starting punter this year after serving as Brent Bowden's back-up the past three years. While Bowden is now punting on Sunday's for Tampa Bay, Saunders is looking to make the most of his one year as a starter.

• Saunders graduated last spring with a degree in horticulture with a concentration in landscape contracting, and eventually wants to own his own landscaping company. He is averaging 45.1 yards per punt this season with seven punts downed inside the 20-yard line. He has 10 punts of 50 yards or longer, including a long of 66 yards at Boston College.

• Saunders was an invited walk-on back in 2006 and spent his first season as the scout team quarterback. Heading into this season, he had yet to appear in a game at Tech, but was rewarded with a scholarship this preseason.

HOSLEY TO THE HOUSE

• Sophomore Jayron Hosley was the last player to verbal to Tech before signing day in 2009 after getting a late offer from the Hokies. He quickly made a name for himself on the college level last year as a true freshman, mainly as a punt returner with an average of 11.2 yards per return. He had a 64-yard return for a score against Marshall, becoming the first freshman under head coach Frank Beamer to return a punt for a score.

♦ This year, he's making his impact on defense. He has five interceptions - including three at NC State. His effort at State earned him three different National Defensive Player of the Week honors. Against Central Michigan he broke free on a punt return, taking it back 80 yards for his second punt return touchdown.

♦ The speedy Hosley is from Delray Beach, Fla., where he attended Atlantic High School, the same high school as two former Hokies who play in the NFL - Brandon Flowers (Chiefs) and David Clowney (Jets).

SMITH'S TIME TO STEP UP

♦ Tight end Andre Smith has bided his time behind Greg Boone for three years, but it's his time to step up now. The redshirt senior is the clear starter at the position and is having a big year. He has 10 catches for 98 yards and four touchdowns and is quickly becoming a favorite target of Tyrod Taylor in the red zone.

♦ Before he was born, Smith's mother, Julida Kilafwakun, had moved to America from Micronesia. She taught herself to read and how to drive, then put herself through college. Afterward, she worked as an administrative aide at Montgomery College, raising Smith by herself.

♦ She died of leukemia when Smith was 16 years old and he honors her with a tattoo stretched across his back that says "Momma's Boy."

♦ The Germantown, Md., native has 29 receptions for 341 yards and six touchdowns for his career, including one last season at Maryland, less than 30 miles from his old home. He has four this year.

FROM THE BEACH TO THE MOUNTAINS

♦ Sophomore linebacker Bruce Taylor was thrust into the starting lineup after last year's starter, Barquell Rivers, tore a quad muscle while lifting this spring.

♦ The Myrtle Beach, S.C., native was the first commitment in the Hokies' 2008 class and has adjusted nicely in his time in the mountains. This season, he leads the team with 55 tackles, including 11.5 for loss, which is fourth in the ACC in total TFLs.

LEARNING ON THE FLY

♦ For defensive end Chris Drager, he's finally comfortable at his semi-new position after learning on the fly last fall. The redshirt junior, who tore his ACL in 2007, moved to defensive end after spring practice ended and didn't get a chance to take a snap there before the first day of practice in August of 2009.

♦ The Pennsylvania native, who has already graduated from Tech, was a standout defensive end in high school, but played his first two years in college at tight end.

♦ Now, he takes over as a starter with a year under his belt. Last season, he had 22 tackles, including 6.5 for loss and 2.5 sacks. He has 14 tackles this year.

DID YOU KNOW?

Long-time equipment manager Lester Karlin (33rd year) gives every Virginia Tech coach and player a pack of chewing gum (usually Wrigley's Doublemint) before every game, leaving it in their left shoe.

"Everyone gets one pack except for Coach Beamer," Karlin said. "He gets two packs."

FROM THE GOPHER STATE TO BLACKSBURG

♦ Long snapper Collin Carroll is the first player under Frank Beamer from Minnesota. His father, Jay, played tight end for the University of Minnesota in the early '80s and played in the NFL for the Minnesota Vikings and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

♦ Carroll sent out around 70 tapes to different colleges in hopes of catching someone's eye. Upon seeing the video, Tech coach Frank Beamer asked him to come down for a visit and eventually offered him a scholarship - a rarity for long snappers coming out of high school.

♦ Carroll, who has four younger brothers and two younger sisters, handles the field goal and extra-point snaps for the Hokies.

BUSTIN' LOOSE

♦ Walk-on rover Wiley Brown is the son of Chuck Brown, who is known as the godfather of Go-Go music, and is a famous songwriter and performer. The elder Brown had the No. 1 national R&B hit in "Bustin' Loose" in 1978. The hook from that song was used by Nelly in the 2002 No. 1 hit "Hot in Herre."

♦ The elder Brown turned 74 in August, and in 2009, to honor him, the city of Washington, D.C. designated the portion of Seventh Street NW from T Street to Florida Avenue as Chuck Brown Way.

♦ Wiley is the younger brother of Nekos, who started at defensive end last year. He played at Duquesne before transferring in and sitting out last year. He has eight tackles on special teams this year.

CONSTANTS ON THE SIDELINES

♦ Billy Hite, who has helped develop 24 running backs who have gone on to sign with

NFL teams, and equipment manager Lester Karlin are both in their 33rd season on the Tech staff.

♦ Hite came to Blacksburg as a member of Bill Dooley's football staff in 1978 and remained at Tech when Frank Beamer took over in 1987.

♦ He was elevated to the position of assistant head coach by Beamer the following year and was promoted to the new position of associate head coach in December 2000.

♦ In 1989, Hite filled in as the acting head coach when Beamer was sidelined following coronary angioplasty surgery and had to miss a home game versus Tulane. Hite didn't let the Tech faithful down as he led the Hokies to an emotional 30-13 victory.

♦ Both Hite and Karlin have been on the sideline for 392 consecutive Tech games.

TAKING CARE OF WALK-ONS

♦ Former walk-on John Engelberger was a starter for the San Francisco 49ers and Denver Broncos, and John Burke played in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1987. Cody Grimm went from a walk-on, to a starter, to an All-American, and finally to an NFL Draft pick of Tampa Bay last April. He has started several games for the Bucs this year.

♦ Current Tech walk-ons who have earned scholarships include Jack Tyler, Justin Myer, Chris Hazley and Brian Saunders.

GIVE IT TO BROOKS

♦ Offensive guard Jaymes Brooks is making his living as a second-year starter at offensive guard, but the junior also is proud that he scored a touchdown on a run from the fullback position in his last high school game.

HOKIES WITH NFL TIES

Current Player(s)	Tie
KYLE AND COREY FULLER	brother, Vincent Fuller , is in his sixth season as a defensive back for the Tennessee Titans
DAVID WANG	brother, Ed Wang , was drafted by the Buffalo Bills last April as an offensive tackle
BEAU WARREN	father, Donnie Warren , starred for the Washington Redskins for 14 seasons (1979-92) as a tight end;
CHASE WILLIAMS	father, Gregg Williams , is the defensive coordinator of the World Champion New Orleans Saints
JERON GOUVEIA-WINSLOW	biological father, Kurt Gouveia , played 13 seasons in the NFL for the Washington Redskins, Philadelphia Eagles and San Diego Chargers as a linebacker

♦ The junior also excelled in another sport, winning the Virginia Group AAA state indoor track & field shot put title as a sophomore and finishing second in both the shot put and discus at the State Outdoor Track & Field Championship meet his senior year.

♦ Brooks was thrust into the limelight for the Orange Bowl two seasons ago when the starter was ruled ineligible. He responded with a solid game in the win and started all 13 games last year for the Hokies. He has started 22 straight games at guard for Tech.

OGLESBY MAKES THE MOVE

♦ Redshirt junior Josh Oglesby made the move to "fullback" this spring in order to get on the field more in a crowded backfield. While he's listed as a fullback and will put his hand in the dirt on occasion, he's quick to point out he's going to do more than block. The plan is for him to line up in numerous formations and in numerous places, utilizing his athleticism and strength.

♦ Oglesby and his family have a long time connection with running backs coach Billy Hite as Josh's father, Ike, was a running back for North Carolina in the early 1970s, when he was a teammate with Hite while at UNC. Ike Oglesby ranks 14th on UNC's all-time rushing list with 1,773 yards.

♦ The younger Oglesby had a great offseason in the weight room, earning Super Iron Hokie honors once again.

♦ He posted a 420-pound front squat in July max testing, along with a 316-pound power clean, both personal bests, and has improved his vertical jump three inches since coming to Virginia Tech, reaching 35 inches this summer.

♦ Playing in his home state against Duke last season, Oglesby scored two big touchdowns - the first two of his career - late to help seal the tight win. He had four carries for 44 yards this year against Wake Forest.

BOOK END TACKLES

♦ Tech offensive tackles Nick Becton and Blake DeChristopher have taken different paths to their spots on the offensive line. DeChristopher is entering his third year as the starting right tackle while Becton will be seeing his first significant action on the line at left tackle. He and Andrew Lanier take over for NFL Draftee Ed Wang, who was taken by the Buffalo Bills in the fifth round.

♦ DeChristopher (6-5, 320 pounds) bench pressed 450 pounds in July max testing to tie for the team high, while Becton (6-6, 311 pounds) is still learning lifting and the game of football, as the redshirt sophomore didn't take up the sport until his junior year of high school. Becton was a powerful force on the basketball court - he shattered three backboards back in the Wilmington area with thunderous dunks - until he took to the gridiron and has improved steadily in his short time playing the game.

♦ Becton battled turf toe for much of the preseason camp and returned late.

♦ Lanier has started the first eight games, but the coaches are continuing to rotate Becton into the game on the offensive line and field goal/PATs so he can continue to progress.

GETTIN' IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

♦ There are eight Hokie graduates on the 2010 roster — seniors Rashad Carmichael, Steven Friday, John Graves, Chris Hazley, Zach Luckett, Brian Saunders, Beau Warren and junior Chris Drager.

♦ Drager graduated in three years and is already working on his Master's degree. Warren already has undergraduate degrees in both sociology and psychology and is enrolled in German, his third undergraduate program. Graves also has a pair of undergraduate degrees, in psychology and sociology.

♦ In seven of the past nine years, Tech has graduated 70 percent or higher of its class.

HOKIE PRIDE

♦ Virginia Tech football has always prided itself on taking care of its players before, during and after their time in Blacksburg. A testament to the family atmosphere created is the roster of former Hokie players serving in some sort of capacity with the football team in the athletic department.

IMPRESSIVE GENES

♦ Offensive guard David Wang comes from athletic parents, both of whom were members of the Chinese Olympic team.

♦ David had surgery on his shoulder during preseason and redshirted last year. He is the brother of former Hokie Ed Wang, who made history last April by becoming the first Chinese American to be drafted by an NFL team when Buffalo took him in the fourth round. Ed and David were featured on NFL China last fall as a crew came over from Beijing to do a story on American football.

♦ He is widely considered the best video game player amongst the offensive linemen, taking over the crown from his brother.

♦ Virginia Tech also holds the distinction of having the first Korean American drafted by an NFL team as Eugene Chung was taken by the New England Patriots in the first round of the 1992 Draft.

NEW LOCKER ROOM FOR THE HOKIES

♦ A new, state-of-the-art building featuring a football locker room and lounge has been completed, allowing the team to have one of the nicest facilities in the county.

♦ The three-story building features a spacious locker room for players and coaches, as well as a lounge on the second floor and a wrestling facility on the third floor. The lockers on the first floor are among the largest in college football, measuring 42 inches across. Eventually, a new equipment room and loading dock will also be added.

♦ The second floor - which features six 65-inch flat-screen televisions - is a lounge, but can also be converted into a banquet room and will overlook the practice fields. A deck has an outdoor fire pit and a barbecue grill, giving it a first-class look.

HOP AND SKIP

♦ Defensive tackles Antoine Hopkins and Derrick Hopkins will line up beside each other on the defensive line this year.

♦ Antoine, known as "Hop", switched from No. 98 to No. 56 this year, a number he wore in high school. Derrick, the true freshman known as "Skip", has impressed the coaches in preseason camp and will play this year wearing Antoine's old No. 98.

♦ The two have a younger brother nicknamed "Jump" to complete the trio.

♦ The last brothers to play side-by-side for the Hokies were Blake and Brett Warren at linebacker in the mid 2000s. Other notable brother combinations playing together on the same side of the ball were Orion and Cam Martin (DE and OLB, respectively) in the late 2000s; Kevin and Jonathan Lewis, starting defensive tackles in the mid 2000s and offensive linemen T.J. and Todd Washington in the mid 1990s.

THE FREAK

♦ Sophomore wide receiver Marcus Davis is poised to have a major impact on the offense this year after finally settling in at the position.

♦ At 6-foot-4 and 230 pounds, the freakishly athletic Davis runs a 4.49-second 40-yard dash and set a Tech position record with a 43-inch vertical jump last year, making him a big target for Tyrod Taylor to find anywhere, but particularly on jump ball situations in the end zone.

♦ This past summer, Davis worked on his catching skills by catching 100 balls a day. Many of those balls were caught with tennis balls taped to the palms of his hands to make him catch the ball with his fingertips.

♦ Davis came to Tech as a quarterback, but quickly switched to wide receiver. But he hurt his right shoulder just four practices into the 2008 preseason camp and underwent surgery. After taking a redshirt year, he was moved back to quarterback the next spring, but was moved back out wide with just a week left in the spring and has been a permanent resident of receiving corps since.

♦ His first college reception was an 80-yard touchdown catch last year against Boston College and he finished the season with five catches for 125 yards.

BACK AND BETTER THAN EVER

♦ In these days of modern medicine, an ACL tear isn't the disastrous injury it used to be. Tech has several players on its current roster - including quite a few starters - who suffered an injury to their knee in college, but with hard work and the strong support staff around them, they are back on the field and contributing to the team. Those players are: Darren Evans, Michael Via, Zach Lockett, Chris Drager, Davon Morgan, Kenny Younger and Courtney Prince.

♦ Additionally, Tony Gregory, Eddie Whitley, Nick Acree, Joe Jones and Drager (his other knee) all suffered the injury in high school.

WILSON ALSO IN THE MIX

♦ Electrifying sophomore David Wilson, from nearby Danville, Va., is seeing the field this year both in the backfield and on kickoff returns. Wilson was clocked at a blistering 4.29 in the 40-yard dash in this past spring in testing and on media day he did eight consecutive standing back flips in 2009.

LONGEST PLAYS IN ACC GAMES

Rush - 73 yards; Tyrod Taylor vs. Virginia, 2008
Pass - 80 yards; Bryan Randall to Eddie Royal at Georgia Tech, 2004 AND Ju-Ju Clayton to Marcus Davis vs. BC, 2009
Field Goal - 52 yards; Jud Dunlevy vs. North Carolina, 2007
Punt - 66 yards; Brian Saunders at Boston College, 2010
INT Return - 69 yards; Brenden Hill vs. North Carolina, 2006
Fumble Return - 35 yards; Xavier Adibi at Wake Forest, 2006
Kickoff Return - 100 yards; Victor "Macho" Harris at Clemson, 2007
Punt Return - 82 yards; Eddie Royal at Clemson, 2007

♦ This year, he topped himself with 10 consecutive standing backflips. He told reporters he taught himself the flips when he was just 4 years old after watching gymnastics on television. Wilson wore a shirt and tie to school every day his senior year of high school and continues to do so for classes at Tech.

♦ He busted loose for a game-high 165 yards and his first score against Marshall last year. He broke off a 92-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at NC State and a 68-yard touchdown run against Central Michigan. He has rushed for 423 yards this season.

COACHES AT THEIR ALMA MATERS

♦ Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer is one of 16 head coaches working at their alma maters this season.

HISTORY OF VIRGINIA TECH FOOTBALL

- Virginia Tech is in its 117th football season and has compiled a 674-430-46 (.606) all-time record in 1,150 games.
- Tech won its 650th game on Sept. 3, 2008, with a 20-17 win over Georgia Tech.
- The Hokies played their first football game on Oct. 21, 1892, with a 14-10 win over St. Albans in a game played on Tech's campus.
- Virginia Tech is 17th among Division I schools in terms of all-time wins (see page 6).
- The Hokies have compiled 12 10-win seasons, including six in a row and nine in the last 11 seasons.
- Tech has won conference football titles in the Southern Conference, the Big East Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

HISTORY OF LANE STADIUM/WORSHAM FIELD

- Virginia Tech's on-campus home since 1965, Lane Stadium/Worsham Field (66,233) is one of college football's most hostile venues.
- The Hokies have compiled an all-time record of 189-68-6 (.730) in 263 games at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field. The Hokies are 115-31-1 (.786) at home under Frank Beamer and 97-17 (.851) at home since the start of the 1996 season.
- The stadium is named for the late Edward H. Lane, a graduate of the university and a former member of the Board of Visitors. Lane headed an educational foundation project which raised more than $3 million for the original construction. Lane's personal donation was the first received by the fund.
- The field was officially dedicated on Sept. 5, 1992 in honor of Wes and Janet Worsham, longtime Hokie supporters from Kilmarnock, Va. The Worshams pledged $1 million to the university's Second Century Campaign. The Campaign raised over $18.6 million, almost $1.7 million more than the original goal.
- Lane Stadium has been sold out for 79 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against Virginia.
- The original cost of the stadium was $3.5 million with an original capacity of 40,000.
- The first game played in the new stadium was a freshman game on Sept. 24, 1965, an 8-8 tie between Tech and Maryland. The first varsity game was played a week later, on Oct. 2 with the Hokies beating William & Mary 9-7.

ALL-TIME BLACKSBURG RECORD

- In addition to its impressive record at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field (1965-present), Virginia Tech has made Blacksburg a very difficult place to play for opposing football teams.
- Tech has compiled a 349-99-13 (.771) record in 461 games in Blacksburg.
- Virginia Tech's first game on campus was its first game ever played, a 14-10 win over St. Albans on Oct. 21, 1892. The game was played on an open field behind the Barracks No. 1 (Lane Hall) on the northeast side of campus.
- A small, ungraded area near the present Memorial Chapel was assigned for both athletic and military drill use in 1894 and was known as Sheib Field, where Tech went 13-1 (.929). The area was enlarged in 1902 and became known as Gibboney Field, where the Hokies posted a 19-2 (.905) record.
- In 1909 the area was graded and leveled, the grandstand enlarged, and the name changed to Miles Field, where the Hokies went 60-3-3 (.932). Miles Field was used for football, baseball, and track until Miles Stadium was completed in 1926. Tech called Miles Stadium home from 1926-64, posting a 67-25-4 (.719) record.
- Miles Stadium was razed following the 1964 football season and was superseded by the present Lane Stadium.

THE GAME ON RADIO

• Tech's games can be heard throughout Virginia and much of the mid-Atlantic region on the Virginia Tech ISP Sports Network.

• Some of the region's most powerful radio stations combine to give Virginia Tech tremendous exposure throughout Virginia, Maryland, and Washington, D.C., and in parts of Tennessee, West Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Delaware, and Pennsylvania.

• Eight-time Virginia Sportscenter of the Year Bill Roth (play-by-play), Hokies Hall of Famer Mike Burnop (analyst) and Adam Witten (scoreboard anchor) comprise Virginia Tech football's on-air broadcast crew.

• The 2010 season marks Roth and Burnop's 23rd season together in the Virginia Tech radio booth.

• Coverage begins 90 minutes prior to kickoff with the NTELOS Pre-Game Report. The Kroger Point After is a 90-minute post-game scoreboard and interview program. Every game will be broadcast live on XM Satellite with the home team radio feed.

BEAMERBALL

• During the Frank Beamer era at Tech, putting points on the scoreboard has always been a team effort — the offense, the defense and the special teams. It's called BeamerBall, and what sets it apart are the contributions of the defense and special teams.

• Seven of Tech's last 10 teams are ranked among the school's top 10 highest scoring teams. During that time, a player at every position on the defensive unit has produced at least one touchdown, and 34 different players have scored touchdowns while playing on Tech's special teams. Altogether, the defense and special teams have combined for 127 TDs since Beamer arrived in 1987, including 110 in Tech's past 212 games.

• Under Beamer, Tech's defense has scored 81 TDs, with 53 coming on pass interceptions, 26 on fumble returns and two on fumble recoveries. The special teams have added 46 TDs, including 16 on blocked punts, 18 on punt returns, seven on kickoff returns, four on blocked field goals and one on a fumble recovery.

• Fittingly, the trend started in Beamer's first game as Tech's head coach when true freshman Jon Jeffries returned a kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown against Clemson. It was the Hokies' first TD under Beamer, and it was the first of many scored by the special teams.

• Under Beamer, 79 different players on defense and special teams have scored TDs. Twenty-two of those players scored twice while Eddie Royal,

Xavier Adibi, Jason Lallis, Ike Charlton and Ricky Hall each had three scores, André Davis had four, Victor Harris had five and DeAngelo Hall had seven.

• Since the start of the 1993 season, Tech is 72-13 in games it scores at least one TD on defense or special teams. Tech is 76-23 under Beamer when scoring a non-offensive touchdown.

BEAMERBALL II

• Tech's tradition for blocking kicks is another part of BeamerBall. It was carried to new heights in 1998 with 10 blocks during the regular season and two more in the Hokies' Music City Bowl game against Alabama.

• Tech now has 126 blocks in Frank Beamer's 289 games as the head coach. The Hokies have blocked 62 punts (16 returned or recovered for TDs), 38 field goals and 26 extra points.

• The most prolific kick blockers under Beamer have been defensive lineman Bernard Basham (7 kicks) and safety Keion Carpenter (6 kicks). Basham blocked three field goals and four PATs, while Carpenter blocked six punts.

• During the Beamer era, Tech has blocked two kicks in a game 22 times, winning 16 of those games. Tech blocked two kicks against four different teams in 1998.
