ELEVEN WINS IN A ROW

• After dropping their first two ballgames of the season, the Hokies have reeled off 11 straight wins, becoming the first team in the history of the FBS to accomplish such a feat. The last time Tech won 11 in a row was in 1999 when it won 11 straight en route to an appearance in the national championship game against Florida State.

• Only three times in school history has Tech had a winning streak of 10 games or more: the current streak, the 1999 streak (11) and a 13-game streak that started in 1995 and carried over to 1996.

• Virginia Tech's 11-game winning streak is the fourth-longest current streak in the FBS behind Auburn (14), Oregon (12) and TCU (12).

• Tech is one of only four teams in the FBS to go undefeated in conference play this year, joining Auburn, Oregon and TCU.

TEN WINS ... ONCE AGAIN

• With the win over Virginia, the Hokies picked up their 10th win of the season.

• It marked the seventh straight season Tech has won 10 games or more, the longest active streak in the FBS and ties for the fourth-longest in modern NCAA history.

WHAT'S A HOKIE?

That's the most often asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

Following is the "Old Hokie" yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

CONSISTENCY IS THE KEY

Tech has been a consistent winner since the mid-90s, winning an average of 9.6 games per year during the current streak of 18 straight seasons capped by bowl appearances.

Since the beginning of the 1995 season, only Ohio State (162) and Florida (160) have won more games than Tech (157).

SCORING STREAK

Tech has scored in a school record 202 straight football games, beginning with a win over Miami on Sept. 23, 1995. The streak began after a 16-0 loss to Cincinnati in 1995.

The previous school record was 66 straight games (1970-76). During its current streak, Tech has scored 13 or more in all but seven games.

A STAFF WITH STAYING POWER

♦ Head coach Frank Beamer, in his 24th year at Tech, has had the top four men on his staff in Blacksburg since 1996.

♦ Associate head coach Billy Hite has been at Tech since 1978, well before Beamer arrived. His 33 consecutive years on the same staff make him the "Dean" of assistant coaches at the FBS level. In fact, Joe Paterno, the head coach at Penn State (45th year), is the only coach of any title who has been at the same school for more consecutive years than Hite.

♦ Defensive coordinator Bud Foster came with Beamer from Murray State in 1987 and took over the defense in 1995.

♦ Bryan Stinespring joined the staff as a full-time assistant in 1993 and took over as offensive coordinator in 2002.

♦ Recruiting coordinator Jim Cavanaugh has been on the staff since 1996.

♦ Additionally, defensive line coach Charley Wiles is in his 15th year in Blacksburg.

♦ The entire 10-man staff has been at Virginia Tech alone a combined 148 years. Beamer has had this staff intact since the start of the 2007 season as this staff is in its fourth year together.

THE STORIED LUNCH PAIL

♦ Taken with the Hokies wherever they go is the storied lunch pail. The Pail served as the inspiration for Tech's record-setting 1995 defense, symbolizing Tech's blue collar approach to defensive football. Every year since, a member of the defense has been responsible for toting a new Pail.

♦ Coach Rod Sharpless, then the co-defensive coordinator along with Bud Foster, brought a lunch pail back from New Jersey and they decided that it would become the symbol of the 1995 defense. Sharpless' mother-in-law found the now famous original lunch pail in Mercerville, N.J., where it had belonged to a coal miner.

♦ The players put the unit goals, weekly goals, the keys to success for the week and a signed a mission statement before the season in the Pail ... plus the turf from road wins.

♦ Senior defensive tackle John Graves is the carrier of the Pail this season.

BETTER WITH TIME

♦ Tech played its first varsity football game on Oct. 21, 1892, 118 years ago on a small field behind a dorm on campus. Since that time, the Hokies have won 679 games and have improved each decade since the 1970s.

DEFENSIVE TRADITION

♦ Virginia Tech defensive coordinator Bud Foster is the architect of some of the nation's best defenses on an annual basis.

♦ Tech is the only FBS school to have a defense finish in the top 12 in total defense each of the past six years (4th in 2004; 1st in 2005 and 2006; 4th in 2007; 7th in 2008 and 12th in 2009). Check out these numbers Foster's crew has put up:

IN ELITE COMPANY

♦ Virginia Tech quarterback Tyrod Taylor is one of just two active FBS quarterbacks in the career 2,000 rushing/6,000 passing yard club. Taylor has rushed for 2,174 yards and passed for 6,795. He is joined by Nevada's Colin Kaepernick, who has rushed for 4,090 yards and passed for 9,906 yards.

♦ Taylor is one of nine active quarterbacks in the 1,000/5,000 club.

QB	SCHOOL	RUSH YDS	PASS YDS
Colin Kaepernick	Nevada	4,090	9,906
Andy Dalton	TCU	1,583	10,095
Russell Wilson	NC State	1,048	8,270
Jake Locker	Washington	1,827	7,357
Tyrod Taylor	Virginia Tech	2,174	6,795
Austen Arnaud	Iowa State	1,267	6,777
Terrelle Pryor	Ohio State	2,090	5,956
Diondre Borel	Utah State	1,388	6,657
Dwight Dasher	Middle Tennessee	2,210	5,068

♦ Taylor is also one of just four quarterbacks in the country to rush for 600 or more yards and throw for 20 or more touchdowns (Cameron Newton, Terrelle Pryor, Colin Kaepernick) this season.

WHAT A TURNAROUND!

♦ The last time Virginia Tech started the season 0-2 was in 1995. That team went on to win its final nine regular season games and then beat Texas in the Sugar Bowl to finish 10-2. This year's team started 0-2 and is now 11-2 heading into the Discover Orange Bowl.

♦ When Virginia Tech defeated Georgia Tech on Nov. 4, it became the first team in ACC history to follow an 0-2 start to a season with seven straight wins. They've kept going and have now won 11 straight.

♦ Tech's current winning streak is the longest by an ACC team since Florida State won 17 straight in 1999 and 2000. The Seminoles were 12-0 in '99 and started the following season with five victories.

When the Hokies won the ACC championship:

♦ They became the fourth team to do it after starting a season 0-2. The others are the 1984 and 1974 Maryland Terrapins and the 1970 Wake Forest Demon Deacons.

♦ They became the first team in FBS history to drop its first two contests and win 11 games thereafter in the same season. Maryland, 0-2 but ultimately 10-3 in 2003, is the only ACC team with 10 or more victories in a season that began 0-2.

If the Hokies win the Discover Orange Bowl to finish 12-2:

♦ They'll be the first ACC team to drop its first two contests and win all the rest.

♦ They'll be the fourth team in ACC history to win 12 games in a season. They'll match three national championship squads, the 1981 Clemson Tigers (12-0) and the Florida State Seminoles of 1993 (12-1) and 1999 (12-0).

♦ A 12-game winning streak would be the longest single-season winning streak in school history and the second-longest winning streak in school history.

♦ The 12 wins would be the most in school history for a single season.

♦ The senior class will finish as the winningest four-year class in school history, finishing with a 43-12 mark. The 2007 and 2008 classes both finished with 42 wins while the 2009 class finished with 41 wins.

♦ The Hokies would have won bowl games in three consecutive seasons for the first time in school history.

♦ The Tech seniors would have won three ACC titles and played in three BCS games, winning two.

♦ The Hokies would finish as the highest-ranked ACC team in the final AP Poll for the sixth time in the seven years it has been in the league.

♦ The Hokies will finish in the top 20 for the seventh-consecutive year - and for the 11th of the last 12 - in the final AP Poll. The Hokies would also have a chance to finish in the top 10 for the fifth time in the past seven final AP Polls.

BOWL BITS

♦ Fourteen players who started against Tennessee last season in the Chick-fil-A Bowl are on this year's roster with 11 of them projected to start against Stanford.

♦ There are nine players still on this year's team who started against Cincinnati two seasons ago in the Orange Bowl. They are: offensive linemen Jaymes Brooks and Blake DeChristopher, quarterback Tyrod Taylor, tight end Andre Smith, receivers Danny Coale and Dyrell Roberts, tailback Darren Evans, defensive tackle John Graves and linebacker Barquell Rivers. Seven of those nine are scheduled to start against Stanford with Roberts and Rivers out for the season with injuries.

♦ Coale, Brooks, DeChristopher, Taylor and Graves are slated to make their third bowl starts when the Hokies face Stanford in Miami.

♦ Tech assistant coach Billy Hite has been to more bowl games with the Hokies than any other coach in school history. The 2011 Discover Orange Bowl game will be Hite's 21st bowl game since joining the Tech staff in 1978 under Coach Bill Dooley. This will be recruiting coordinator/strong safety and outside linebackers coach Jim Cavanaugh's 27th postseason game.

FACING GREAT QUARTERBACKS IN BOWLS

♦ When Virginia Tech faces Stanford quarterback Andrew Luck - a projected first-round NFL Draft pick - in the Discover Orange Bowl, it will be just the latest tough test for the Hokies in a bowl game as they have faced some top-notch talent in postseason over the years.

Player	Team	Bowl	Drafted
Archie Manning	Ole Miss	1968 Liberty Bowl	1st Rd
Jim Kelly	Miami	1981 Peach Bowl	1st Rd
Peyton Manning	Tennessee	1994 Gator Bowl	1st Rd

Tony Pike	Cincinnati	2009 Orange Bowl	6th Rd
Andrew Luck	Stanford	2011 Orange Bowl	???

* - drafted as a defensive back

STANFORD TIES

♦ Stanford's strength and conditioning coordinator for football is Shannon Turley, who earned his bachelor's degree in science of human nutrition, foods and exercise from Virginia Tech in 2000. While with the Hokies, Turley served as President of the Exercise Science Student Organization and began his career in strength and conditioning as a student assistant coach working for Dr. Mike Gentry at Tech from 1999-2000.

♦ Stanford quarterback Andrew Luck is the son of Oliver Luck, former West Virginia quarterback and current WVU Athletic Director. The elder Luck went 2-1 as a starting quarterback against the Hokies, tossing six touchdown passes and running for another, but throwing four interceptions in four games against Tech (he didn't start against the Hokies in 1978).

ONE LAST GO

♦ Tyrod Taylor is the man under center one last season for the Hokies this year. The senior has started 41 games and has won 34 of them, the most wins for a starting quarterback in school history. That includes a loss at Florida State in 2008 when he was injured on the first play of the game and didn't return.

♦ Taylor is the latest in a growing line of standout signal callers from the Peninsula area of Virginia. The Hampton product joins Allen Iverson and Ronald Curry from the same city, Bryan Randall from Williamsburg and both Michael and Marcus Vick from Newport News to go on to success from that area.

♦ He led the nation last year in yards per passing attempt with 9.51 and has had six career 100-yard rushing games, tying him with Bob Schweickert for the most 100-yard rushing games in a career by a quarterback. He also has 22 rushing touchdowns, a new school record for rushing scores by a quarterback.

♦ Taylor, who is the first senior starting quarterback under Beamer since Bryan Randall in 2004, engineered two of the biggest plays in recent history last season when he led Tech on an 88-yard touchdown drive in the last two minutes to lift the Hokies to a 16-15 win over No. 19 Nebraska.

♦ First, he hit Danny Coale for an 81-yard pass down the right sideline and then scrambled for close to 10 seconds and hit Dyrell Roberts in the back of the end zone for the game-winning touchdown.

♦ For his career, Taylor - who doesn't eat any red meat - has school records with 6,795 yards passing and 8,969 yards of total offense. The two-time ACC Championship Game MVP also has 2,174 yards rushing, a school record for quarterback.

♦ The ACC Player of the Year could also break several other career and season records.

♦ For a complete list of where Taylor ranks in the school annals in several categories, see page 5 of the game notes.

A STABLE OF STALLIONS

♦ Tech boasts one of the top backfields in the country this year as the Hokies feature a stable of "Stallions" that runs three deep.

♦ Ryan Williams was a third-team Sporting News All-American last year after setting several school and conference records and even tying an NCAA mark.

♦ Darren Evans, the starter in 2008, returned after suffering a season-ending knee injury last preseason. The 2009 Orange Bowl MVP rushed for over 1,200 yards that season and has returned to his form of two years ago.

♦ David Wilson saw plenty of action last year as a true freshman, and is part of the mix again this year, both on offense and special teams.

♦ Tony Gregory is perhaps the fastest of all the backs and had an impressive spring. He was contributing on special teams until tearing his ACL against North Carolina.

MR. ELECTRIC

♦ Williams, who played for former Tech star Loren Johnson at Stonewall Jackson High, is a self-described fashionisto, owning nearly 100 different pairs of Nike shoes, including old-school Air Jordans and Air Force Ones. He also has a tattoo on his right forearm that reads "#34 Lil' Sweetness" in honor of the late Walter Payton, whom he idolized growing up and for whom he wears No. 34.

♦ This year, he was slowed by a pulled hamstring that forced him to miss four games in the middle of the season. But he is back and has still rushed for 473 yards and nine touchdowns this year. He has scored 32 touchdowns in 22 games played at Tech. His 32 touchdowns are the fourth-most in school history for a career, trailing Lee Suggs (56), Kevin Jones (35) and Branden Ore (33).

A FEW NOTES ON WILLIAMS

- ♦ He ran for 1,655 yards last year, breaking the school's single-season rushing record of 1,647 yards set by Kevin Jones in 2003.
- ♦ He set new ACC single-season records for total touchdowns with 22 and for rushing touchdowns with 21 scores.
- ♦ His 1,655 rushing yards were the third-most in ACC single-season history.
- ♦ His 10 100-yard rushing games tied the ACC's single-season mark and set a new Virginia Tech single-season record (the career record is 16 times).
- ♦ He finished fifth in the country in rushing yards per game, fifth in total rushing yards and tied for third in rushing touchdowns.
- ♦ His rushing total of 1,655 yards was the sixth highest by a freshman in NCAA history, surpassing Tony Dorsett of Pittsburgh (1,586 in 1973) and Herschel Walker of Georgia (1,616 in 1980), among others, on that list.
- ♦ His 21 rushing touchdowns tied an NCAA record (Marshal Faulk, San Diego State, 1991) for most rushing touchdowns in a season by a freshman.

EVANS BACK ON THE FIELD

- ♦ After suffering a torn ACL in preseason camp last fall, junior tailback Darren Evans is back and has returned to the form of 2008.
- ♦ He made a quick impact on the Tech offense, rushing for 1,265 yards and 11 scores. He had a huge game when he rushed for a school-record 253 yards on 32 carries with 12 broken tackles against Maryland and was named second-team All-ACC.
- ♦ Evans is the first Tech player on record to score a touchdown in each of the first six games he played in. The previous high belonged to Cyrus Lawrence, who scored in his first four games played.
- ♦ The Indianapolis native was the 2006 EA SPORTS National Player of the Year and a PARADE All-American as a running back his senior season after rushing for 2,806 yards and a state-record 61 touchdowns, the No. 4 total in U.S. prep football history.
- ♦ He returned to action full time this past spring and in July, he broke the school's running back record for the bench press, putting up 405 pounds.
- ♦ He has a team-leading 817 yards rushing this year and 11 touchdowns.
- ♦ Evans and his wife, Tanisha, are raising their son James in Blacksburg.

ROCK SOLID

- ♦ Senior cornerback Rashad Carmichael waited his time and stepped in and up last season. With blazing speed, he possesses the skills necessary to be another great corner in the Tech backfield. His 4.26 40-yard dash is the fifth fastest in program history.
- ♦ While his given name is Rashad, no one calls him that, not even his family, friends or even position coach Torrian Gray. He goes simply by "Rock," a nickname he's had since a child. When Carmichael was younger, people called him Ra or Ra-Ra. But his father Bernard heard those nicknames and thought they made his son sound soft. From that point on, his father said Carmichael would be known as Rock.
- ♦ Carmichael and former Tech defensive end Jason Worilds have been friends for years as Carmichael's father and Worilds' brother served in the Air Force together. Bernard Carmichael passed away in the summer of 2008 from a heart attack, just weeks before his son made his first career start, coming against East Carolina in the season opener.
- ♦ This past spring, while practicing and taking classes, Carmichael worked 35 hours per week as an intern at the Head Start Program in Christiansburg. He graduated with a degree in human services and is working on a second undergraduate degree.
- ♦ Carmichael, an honorable mention All-ACC selection last year, had 55 tackles in 2009, including four for loss and a sack, and six interceptions, including one that he returned 22 yards for a score against Boston College.
- ♦ He has four interceptions this season, giving him 10 for his career. His biggest came when he picked off a Georgia Tech pass in the end zone with 8 seconds left to preserve Tech's 28-21 win over the Yellow Jackets.

GIVING THEM HIS FINGER

- ♦ No one can accuse offensive guard Greg Nosal of being soft after his performance against CMU. The junior got his pinkie finger stuck in the face mask of a defender, ripping the fleshy tip of the finger off. After the trainers fished it out of his glove, they put the digit on ice and wrapped up Nosal so he could finish the game. Finally, he went into the training room late in the game after the pain medicine wore off to get the tip sewn back on, but he played two quarters with 9 1/2 fingers.
- ♦ Nosal's father was recently promoted to Admiral in the U.S. Navy and works at the Pentagon.

THE GRAVE DIGGER

- ♦ John Graves is being called upon to be the senior leader on an inexperienced defensive line this year. The senior is the lone returning starter among the front four and anchors the defensive tackle spot for the Hokies this year.

- He made a big impact on special teams as a sophomore, blocking a PAT against ECU, a field goal against Furman and a PAT against Georgia Tech. He became the first Tech player to block a kick in three consecutive games under Frank Beamer.

- He had just 15 tackles last year as he was limited by an ankle injury he suffered in the Georgia Tech game. Graves showed what he's capable of when healthy when he dominated in the Chick-fil-A Bowl against Tennessee, recording three solo stops, including two for loss and a sack.

- Graves, who already graduated with a pair of degrees in psychology and sociology, has a future desire to be an FBI special agent if the NFL doesn't work out.

- He has 35 tackles, including four for loss, and a career-high 16 quarterback hurries this season.

- He's part of an elite group now, one that includes the likes of Darryl Tapp, Xavier Adibi, Orion Martin and most recently Kam Chancellor last year, to carry the lunch pail as the leader of the Hokies' defense.

ATHLETICS RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- Danny Coale comes from quite the athletic family. His brother, Kevin, played midfield for the University of Virginia men's lacrosse team. Their father, Jimmy, is the head strength and conditioning coach at Virginia Military Institute (VMI).

- Danny, who was a first-team all-state lacrosse player in high school, led the team with 36 receptions for 408 yards as a freshman in 2008. He set the school's freshman reception record with 36 and has caught at least two passes in 30 of 40 career games played.

- He had his longest, and most important, catch in the final minutes of the Nebraska game, breaking free down the sideline for an 81-yard catch to set up the game-winning touchdown pass with 21 seconds left.

- He had a career day against Florida State in the ACC Championship Game when he had six catches for a career-high 143 yards. The junior has 98 receptions for 1,662 yards and five touchdowns for his career.

BIG-PLAY BOYKIN

- Junior Jarrett Boykin became a big-play receiver for the Hokies last year and uses his big hands to help with snagging passes. Boykin's hands are so large that he has to wear size-3X receiver's gloves. His thick fingers bust the seams of the gloves, sending him back to equipment manager Lester Karlin often for a replacement pair.

- This season, he has a team-leading 48 receptions for 763 yards and six touchdown receptions. He has 14 career total touchdowns, including a rushing touchdown when he pounced on a fumble in the end zone against Virginia last year. He is climbing the charts for career receiving yards at Tech, sitting in fourth place with 2,039 yards and has 13 touchdowns. He is also fifth in career receptions with 118.

A REWARD FOR GOOD GRADES

- The Tech football team eats its meals in order of grade-point average. Those players who have graduated, as well as those players who maintain the highest grade-point average, eat all team meals first. Coach Beamer invites each player to eat, calling out his name and his grade-point average, starting with the highest.

ATHLETIC OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

- This year's offensive line is another athletic one as three players in the two-deep started their collegiate careers at tight end. Starters Beau Warren (center), Greg Nosal (left guard) and co-starter Andrew Lanier (left tackle) all came to Blacksburg as tight ends before making the move to the interior line.

- Duane Brown made the same move early in his career and was a first-round draft pick of the Houston Texans in 2008 and is in his third year as a starter. Brandon Frye did the same and has started at tackle for the Seattle Seahawks before getting injured last year. Ed Wang also came in as a tight end and moved to tackle early on in his career. He was drafted by Buffalo last April.

WHERE'S WHITLEY?

- True junior Eddie Whitley is the master of all trades in the defensive backfield for the Hokies, as he's spent time at cornerback, outside linebacker, rover and now takes over the starting job at free safety. He takes the reigns from three-year starter Kam Chancellor, who was drafted by the Seattle Seahawks last April.

- Against East Carolina, he played most of the game at the whip linebacker spot as the Hokies played a nickel package most of the game.

- The North Carolina native is an avid chess player, who's been playing since he was 4 years old. He plays online, in the locker room, on his computer and even on his iPhone.

12 ... Tech has never won more than 11 games in a season.

5 ... total turnovers for Tech over its last eight games.

1 ... sophomore cornerback Jayron Hosley leads the nation in pass interceptions with eight, which is just one shy of the Tech single-season record of nine set by Ron Davidson in 1967.

A FAMILY ATMOSPHERE

♦ Starting center Beau Warren is just one of several Hokies on the roster to have family ties to the Tech football program. Warren is following two brothers who played for the Hokies. Blake played linebacker for Tech and Brett was a starting linebacker in 2008.

♦ Redshirt sophomore Antoine Hopkins and true freshman Derrick Hopkins are brothers.

♦ Redshirt sophomores Vinston Painter and Randall Dunn are cousins.

♦ So are redshirt freshman Logan Thomas and freshman Zack McCray, as are redshirt junior Jaymes Brooks and redshirt freshman Telvon Clark.

♦ Linebacker Tariq Edwards is the son of former Hokie football player Bo Campbell, who lettered from 1989-92.

♦ George George III is a walk-on whose father, George, was on the Tech team in the 1970s.

♦ Back-up center Bo Gentry is the son of Tech's Assistant A.D. for Athletic Performance, Dr. Mike Gentry.

♦ Wiley Brown is the younger brother of former defensive end Nekos Brown and David Wang is the younger brother of former offensive tackle Ed Wang.

♦ Kyle Fuller is a freshman defensive back who signed with the Hokies last February. He is joined on the team by his brother, Corey Fuller, who ran track at Kansas the past two seasons before transferring for this year. Both are younger brothers of former Hokie Vincent Fuller, who is in his sixth season with the Tennessee Titans.

ANOTHER ONE-YEAR KICKER

♦ For the fourth year in a row, Tech is relying on a senior walk-on for the kicking duties. In 2007, it was Jud Dunlevy, who went 21-for-26 on the season.

♦ In 2008, Dustin Keys set a school record with 23 field goals. Last year, it was Matt Waldron's turn and he responded by scoring 108 points en route to first-team All-ACC honors. All three were one-year wonders, combining to make 64 of 78 field-goal attempts (82 percent) and produce 317 points with several earning All-ACC honors.

♦ This year, it's Chris Hazley's time to shine. He came to Tech as a regular student and then to a tryout because "I was bored during my first semester here. I just wanted to find some things to do."

♦ He was rewarded with a scholarship this preseason and went on to earn first-team

All-ACC honors as well. Hazley attended Henderson High in West Chester, Pa., playing football his senior year only after playing just soccer growing up. He kicked one field goal in his senior season and is 20-for-21 this year as the Hokies' kicker. He has made his last 20 field goal attempts, setting a new school record for consecutive field goals made in a season.

REPLACING BOWDEN

♦ Senior walk-on Brian Saunders steps into the role of starting punter this year after serving as Brent Bowden's back-up the past three years. While Bowden is now punting on Sunday's for Tampa Bay, Saunders is looking to make the most of his one year as a starter.

♦ Saunders graduated last spring with a degree in horticulture with a concentration in landscape contracting, and eventually wants to own his own landscaping company. He is averaging 44.4 yards per punt this season with 13 punts downed inside the 20-yard line. He has 15 punts of 50 yards or longer, including a long of 66 yards at Boston College.

♦ Saunders was an invited walk-on back in 2006 and spent his first season as the scout team quarterback. Heading into this season, he had yet to appear in a game at Tech, but was rewarded with a scholarship this preseason.

HOSLEY TO THE HOUSE

♦ Sophomore Jayron Hosley was the last player to verbal to Tech before signing day in 2009 after getting a late offer from the Hokies. He quickly made a name for himself on the college level last year as a true freshman, mainly as a punt returner with an average of 11.2 yards per return. He had a 64-yard return for a score against Marshall, becoming the first freshman under head coach Frank Beamer to return a punt for a score.

♦ This year, he's making his impact on defense and was named first-team All-ACC.

He has a nation-leading eight interceptions - including three at NC State. His effort at NC State earned him three different National Defensive Player of the Week honors.

♦ Against Central Michigan he broke free on a punt return, taking it back 80 yards for his second punt return touchdown.

♦ The speedy Hosley is from Delray Beach, Fla., where he attended Atlantic High School, the same high school as two former Hokies who play in the NFL - Brandon Flowers (Chiefs) and David Clowney (Panthers).

SMITH'S TIME TO STEP UP

♦ Tight end Andre Smith has bided his time behind Greg Boone for three years, but it's his time to step up now. The redshirt senior is the clear starter at the position and is having a big year. He has 19 catches for 187 yards and five touchdowns and is a favorite target of Tyrod Taylor in the red zone.

♦ Before he was born, Smith's mother, Julida Kilafwakun, had moved to America from Micronesia. She taught herself to read and how to drive, then put herself through college. Afterward, she worked as an administrative aide at Montgomery College, raising Smith by herself.

♦ She died of leukemia when Smith was 16 years old and he honors her with a tattoo stretched across his back that says "Momma's Boy."

♦ The Germantown, Md., native has 38 receptions for 430 yards and seven touchdowns for his career, including one last season at Maryland, less than 30 miles from his old home. He has five touchdowns this year, which the most by a Tech tight end since Jeff King - who still plays for the Carolina Panthers - caught six in 2005.

FROM THE BEACH TO THE MOUNTAINS

♦ Sophomore linebacker Bruce Taylor was thrust into the starting lineup after last year's starter, Barquell Rivers, tore a quad muscle while lifting this spring.

♦ The Myrtle Beach, S.C., native was the first commitment in the Hokies' 2008 class and has adjusted nicely in his time in the mountains. This season, he leads the team with 84 tackles, including 15.5 for loss, which is fifth in the ACC in total TFLs.

LEARNING ON THE FLY

♦ For defensive end Chris Drager, he's finally comfortable at his semi-new position

DID YOU KNOW?

Long-time equipment manager Lester Karlin (33rd year) gives every Virginia Tech coach and player a pack of chewing gum (usually Wrigley's Doublemint) before every game, leaving it in their left shoe.

"Everyone gets one pack except for Coach Beamer," Karlin said. "He gets two packs."

as a starter with a year under his belt. Last season, he had 22 tackles, including 6.5 for loss and 2.5 sacks. He has 31 tackles this year.

FROM THE GOPHER STATE TO BLACKSBURG

♦ Long snapper Collin Carroll is the first player under Frank Beamer from Minnesota. His father, Jay, played tight end for the University of Minnesota in the early '80s and played in the NFL for the Minnesota Vikings and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

♦ Carroll sent out around 70 tapes to different colleges in hopes of catching someone's eye. Upon seeing the video, Tech coach Frank Beamer asked him to come down for a visit and eventually offered him a scholarship - a rarity for long snappers coming out of high school.

♦ Carroll, who has four younger brothers and two younger sisters, handles the field goal and extra-point snaps for the Hokies.

IT'S WILEY BROWN TIME

♦ Walk-on rover Wiley Brown is the son of Chuck Brown, who is known as the godfather of Go-Go music, and is a famous songwriter and performer. The elder Brown had the No. 1 national R&B hit in "Bustin' Loose" in 1978. The hook from that song was used by Nelly in the 2002 No. 1 hit "Hot in Herre."

♦ The elder Brown turned 74 in August, and in 2009, to honor him, the city of Washington, D.C. designated the portion of Seventh Street NW from T Street to Florida Avenue as Chuck Brown Way.

♦ Wiley is the younger brother of Nekos, who started at defensive end last year. He played at Duquesne before transferring in and sitting out last year. He has 11 tackles on special teams this year.

CONSTANTS ON THE SIDELINES

♦ Billy Hite, who has helped develop 24 running backs who have gone on to sign with NFL teams, and equipment manager Lester Karlin are both in their 33rd season on the Tech staff.

♦ Hite came to Blacksburg as a member of Bill Dooley's football staff in 1978 and remained at Tech when Frank Beamer took over in 1987.

♦ He was elevated to the position of assistant head coach by Beamer the following year and was promoted to the new position of associate head coach in December 2000.

♦ In 1989, Hite filled in as the acting head coach when Beamer was sidelined following coronary angioplasty surgery and had to miss a home game versus Tulane. Hite didn't let the Tech faithful down as he led the Hokies to an emotional 30-13 victory.

♦ Both Hite and Karlin have been on the sideline for 397 consecutive Tech games.

TAKING CARE OF WALK-ONS

♦ Former walk-on John Engelberger was a starter for the San Francisco 49ers and Denver Broncos, and John Burke played in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1987. Cody Grimm went from a walk-on, to a starter, to an All-American, and finally to an NFL Draft pick of Tampa Bay last April. He has started several games for the Bucs this year.

♦ Current Tech walk-ons who have earned scholarships include Jack Tyler, Justin Myer, Chris Hazley and Brian Saunders.

GIVE IT TO BROOKS

♦ Offensive guard Jaymes Brooks is making his living as a second-year starter at offensive

HOKIES WITH NFL TIES

Current Player(s)	Tie
KYLE AND COREY FULLER	brother, Vincent Fuller , is in his sixth season as a defensive back for the Tennessee Titans
DAVID WANG	brother, Ed Wang , was drafted by the Buffalo Bills last April as an offensive tackle
BEAU WARREN	father, Donnie Warren , starred for the Washington Redskins for 14 seasons (1979-92) as a tight end;
CHASE WILLIAMS	father, Gregg Williams , is the defensive coordinator of the World Champion New Orleans Saints
JERON GOUVEIA-WINSLOW	biological father, Kurt Gouveia , played 13 seasons in the NFL for the Washington Redskins, Philadelphia Eagles and San Diego Chargers as a linebacker guard, but the junior also is proud that he scored a touchdown on a run from the fullback position in his last high school game.

♦ The junior also excelled in another sport, winning the Virginia Group AAA state indoor track & field shot put title as a sophomore and finishing second in both the shot put and discus at the State Outdoor Track & Field Championship meet his senior year.

♦ Brooks was thrust into the limelight for the Orange Bowl two seasons ago when the starter was ruled ineligible. He responded with a solid game in the win and started all 13 games last year for the Hokies. He has started 27 straight games at guard for Tech.

BOOK END TACKLES

♦ Tech offensive tackles Nick Becton and Blake DeChristopher have taken different paths to their spots on the offensive line. DeChristopher is entering his third year as the starting right tackle while Becton will be seeing his first significant action on the line at left tackle. He and Andrew Lanier take over for NFL Drafted Ed Wang, who was taken by the Buffalo Bills in the fifth round.

♦ DeChristopher (6-5, 320 pounds) bench pressed 450 pounds in July max testing to tie for the team high, while Becton (6-6, 311 pounds) is still learning lifting and the game of football, as the redshirt sophomore didn't take up the sport until his junior year of high school. Becton was a powerful force on the basketball court - he shattered three backboards back in the Wilmington area with thunderous dunks - until he took to the gridiron and has improved steadily in his short time playing the game.

♦ Becton battled turf toe for much of the preseason camp, missing valuable time. Lanier took the job and has started all 13 games, but the coaches are continuing to rotate Becton into the game on the offensive line and field goal/PATs so he can continue to progress.

GETTIN' IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

♦ There are eight Hokie graduates on the 2010 roster — seniors Rashad Carmichael, Steven Friday, John Graves, Chris Hazley, Zach Luckett, Brian Saunders, Beau Warren and junior Chris Drager.

♦ Drager graduated in three years and is already working on his Master's degree. Warren already has undergraduate degrees in both sociology and psychology and is enrolled in German, his third undergraduate program. Graves also has a pair of undergraduate degrees, in psychology and sociology.

♦ In seven of the past nine years, Tech has graduated 70 percent or higher of its class.

HOKIE PRIDE

♦ Virginia Tech football has always prided itself on taking care of its players before, during and after their time in Blacksburg. A testament to the family atmosphere created is the roster of former Hokie players serving in some sort of capacity with the football team in the athletic department.

Frank Beamer (head coach)
 Torrian Gray (asst. coach)
 Jarrett Ferguson (strength & conditioning coach)
 Keith Short (strength & conditioning coach)
 Jermaine Holmes (director, SAASS)
 John Moody (Hokie Club)
 David Everett (Hokie Club)
 Zac Lowe (G.A. coach)
 Orion Martin (G.A. coach)
 Carlton Weatherford (G.A.; weight room)
 Ryan Shuman (G.A.; weight room)
 John Candelas (G.A.; video)
 Jimmy Martin (G.A.; video)
 Mike Burnop (radio color commentator)

IMPRESSIVE GENES

♦ Offensive guard David Wang comes from athletic parents, both of whom were members of the Chinese Olympic team.

♦ David had surgery on his shoulder during preseason and redshirted last year. He is the brother of former Hokie Ed Wang, who made history last April by becoming the first Chinese American to be drafted by an NFL team when Buffalo took him in the fourth round. Ed and David were featured on NFL China last fall as a crew came over from Beijing to do a story on American football.

♦ He is widely considered the best video game player amongst the offensive linemen, taking over the crown from his brother.

♦ Virginia Tech also holds the distinction of having the first Korean American drafted by an NFL team as Eugene Chung was taken by the New England Patriots in the first round of the 1992 Draft.

HOP AND SKIP

♦ Defensive tackles Antoine Hopkins and Derrick Hopkins will line up beside each other on the defensive line this year.

♦ Antoine, known as "Hop", switched from No. 98 to No. 56 this year, a number he wore in high school. Derrick, the true freshman known as "Skip", has impressed the coaches in preseason camp and will play this year wearing Antoine's old No. 98. The two have a younger brother nicknamed "Jump" to complete the trio.

♦ Antoine has 41 tackles, including six for loss and two sacks, while Derrick has nine tackles, including 1.5 sacks, and a fumble recovery.

♦ The last brothers to play side-by-side for the Hokies were Blake and Brett Warren at linebacker in the mid 2000s. Other notable brother combinations playing together on the same side of the ball were Orion and Cam Martin (DE and OLB, respectively) in the late 2000s; Kevin and Jonathan Lewis, starting defensive tackles in the mid 2000s and offensive linemen T.J. and Todd Washington in the mid 1990s.

THE FREAK

♦ Sophomore wide receiver Marcus Davis is poised to have a major impact on the offense this year after finally settling in at the position.

♦ At 6-foot-4 and 230 pounds, the freakishly athletic Davis runs a 4.49-second 40-yard dash and set a Tech position record with a 43-inch vertical jump last year, making him a big target for Tyrod Taylor to find anywhere, but particularly on jump ball situations in the end zone.

♦ This past summer, Davis worked on his catching skills by catching 100 balls a day. Many of those balls were caught with tennis balls taped to the palms of his hands to make him catch the ball with his fingertips.

♦ Davis came to Tech as a quarterback, but quickly switched to wide receiver. But he hurt his right shoulder just four practices into the 2008 preseason camp and underwent surgery. After taking a redshirt year, he was moved back to quarterback the next spring, but was moved back out wide with just a week left in the spring and has been a permanent resident of receiving corps since.

♦ His first college reception was an 80-yard touchdown catch last year against Boston College. Against North Carolina, he hauled in four passes for 81 yards and two touchdowns.

WILSON ALSO IN THE MIX

♦ Electrifying sophomore David Wilson, from nearby Danville, Va., is seeing the field this year both in the backfield and on kickoff returns. Wilson was clocked at a blistering 4.29 in the 40-yard dash in this past spring in testing and on media day he did eight consecutive standing back flips in 2009.

♦ This year, he topped himself with 10 consecutive standing back flips. He told reporters he taught himself the flips when he was just 4 years old after watching gymnastics on television. Wilson wore a shirt and tie to school every day his senior year of high school and continues to do so for classes at Tech.

♦ This year, he opened up the second half with a 92-yard kickoff return for a score at NC State, had a 68-yard TD run against Central Michigan and had a 65-yard touchdown catch and run against Duke. He gave Tech the lead for good against Georgia Tech with a 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

♦ He has rushed for 616 yards and five touchdowns this season and has caught three touchdown passes, as well.

♦ Wilson is by far the leading yard man on the Virginia Tech team in terms of all-purpose yards, recording 1,53 yards and 10 touchdowns.

COACHES AT THEIR ALMA MATERS

HISTORY OF VIRGINIA TECH FOOTBALL

- Virginia Tech is in its 117th football season and has compiled a 679-430-46 (.608) all-time record in 1,155 games.
- Tech won its 650th game on Sept. 3, 2008, with a 20-17 win over Georgia Tech.
- The Hokies played their first football game on Oct. 21, 1892, with a 14-10 win over St. Albans in a game played on Tech's campus.
- Virginia Tech is tied for 16th among Division I schools in terms of all-time wins (see page 6).
- The Hokies have compiled 13 10-win seasons, including seven in a row and 10 in the last 12 seasons.
- Tech has won conference football titles in the Southern Conference, the Big East Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

HISTORY OF LANE STADIUM/WORSHAM FIELD

- Virginia Tech's on-campus home since 1965, Lane Stadium/Worsham Field (66,233) is one of college football's most hostile venues.
- The Hokies have compiled an all-time record of 191-68-6 (.732) in 265 games at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field. The Hokies are 117-31-1 (.789) at home under Frank Beamer and 99-17 (.853) at home since the start of the 1996 season.
- The stadium is named for the late Edward H. Lane, a graduate of the university and a former member of the Board of Visitors. Lane headed an educational foundation project which raised more than $3 million for the original construction. Lane's personal donation was the first received by the fund.
- The field was officially dedicated on Sept. 5, 1992 in honor of Wes and Janet Worsham, longtime Hokie supporters from Kilmarnock, Va. The Worshams pledged $1 million to the university's Second Century Campaign. The Campaign raised over $18.6 million, almost $1.7 million more than the original goal.
- Lane Stadium has been sold out for 81 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against Virginia.
- The original cost of the stadium was $3.5 million with an original capacity of 40,000.
- The first game played in the new stadium was a freshman game on Sept. 24, 1965, an 8-8 tie between Tech and Maryland. The first varsity game was played a week later, on Oct. 2 with the Hokies beating William & Mary 9-7.

ALL-TIME BLACKSBURG RECORD

- In addition to its impressive record at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field (1965-present), Virginia Tech has made Blacksburg a very difficult place to play for opposing football teams.
- Tech has compiled a 351-99-13 (.772) record in 463 games in Blacksburg.
- Virginia Tech's first game on campus was its first game ever played, a 14-10 win over St. Albans on Oct. 21, 1892. The game was played on an open field behind the Barracks No. 1 (Lane Hall) on the northeast side of campus.
- A small, ungraded area near the present Memorial Chapel was assigned for both athletic and military drill use in 1894 and was known as Sheib Field, where Tech went 13-1 (.929). The area was enlarged in 1902 and became known as Gibboney Field, where the Hokies posted a 19-2 (.905) record.
- In 1909 the area was graded and leveled, the grandstand enlarged, and the name changed to Miles Field, where the Hokies went 60-3-3 (.932). Miles Field was used for football, baseball, and track until Miles Stadium was completed in 1926. Tech called Miles Stadium home from 1926-64, posting a 67-25-4 (.719) record.
- Miles Stadium was razed following the 1964 football season and was superseded by the present Lane Stadium.

BEAMERBALL

• During the Frank Beamer era at Tech, putting points on the scoreboard has always been a team effort — the offense, the defense and the special teams. It's called BeamerBall, and what sets it apart are the contributions of the defense and special teams.

• Seven of Tech's last 10 teams are ranked among the school's top 10 highest scoring teams. During that time, a player at every position on the defensive unit has produced at least one touchdown, and 34 different players have scored touchdowns while playing on Tech's special teams. Altogether, the defense and special teams have combined for 129 TDs since Beamer arrived in 1987, including 112 in Tech's past 217 games.

• Under Beamer, Tech's defense has scored 82 TDs, with 54 coming on pass interceptions, 26 on fumble returns and two on fumble recoveries. The special teams have added 47 TDs, including 16 on blocked punts, 18 on punt returns, eight on kickoff returns, four on blocked field goals and one on a fumble recovery.

• Fittingly, the trend started in Beamer's first game as Tech's head coach when true freshman Jon Jeffries returned a kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown against Clemson. It was the Hokies' first TD under Beamer, and it was the first of many scored by the special teams.

• Under Beamer, 80 different players on defense and special teams have scored TDs. Twenty-three of those players scored twice while Eddie Royal,

Xavier Adibi, Jason Lallis, Ike Charlton and Ricky Hall each had three scores, André Davis had four, Victor Harris had five and DeAngelo Hall had seven.

• Since the start of the 1993 season, Tech is 74-13 in games it scores at least one TD on defense or special teams. Tech is 78-23 under Beamer when scoring a non-offensive touchdown.

BEAMERBALL II

• Tech's tradition for blocking kicks is another part of BeamerBall. It was carried to new heights in 1998 with 10 blocks during the regular season and two more in the Hokies' Music City Bowl game against Alabama.

• Tech now has 126 blocks in Frank Beamer's 294 games as the head coach. The Hokies have blocked 62 punts (16 returned or recovered for TDs), 38 field goals and 26 extra points.

• The most prolific kick blockers under Beamer have been defensive lineman Bernard Basham (7 kicks) and safety Keion Carpenter (6 kicks). Basham blocked three field goals and four PATs, while Carpenter blocked six punts.

• During the Beamer era, Tech has blocked two kicks in a game 22 times, winning 16 of those games. Tech blocked two kicks against four different teams in 1998.
