DEMON DEACONS

THE SERIES

• Virginia Tech and Wake Forest University will be meeting on the gridiron for the 36th time in a series that dates back to 1916. Tech leads the series 23-11-1 after beating Wake Forest 52-21 at Lane Stadium last season.

• Tech will visit Winston-Salem for the first time since Wake Forest's ACC Championship season in 2006. The Hokies beat the Demon Deacons that year, 27-6. Since the Hokies entered the ACC, they have played Wake Forest just three times, in 2004, 2006 and 2010. Tech holds a 7-2 edge in games played at BB&T Field, not having lost their since 1970.

• The Hokies won the first five games in the series (1916-19 & 1952) by a combined score of 201-0. The first four games in the series were played at Blacksburg, while the 1954 game was played at Richmond, Va. The two met every year from 1954-66, a span of 13 games in which Tech went 7-5-1 against the Demon Deacons.

#19/17 Virginia Tech (5-1, 1-1 ACC)

HOKIES

• Wake Forest and Virginia Tech played each year from 1968-1972 with the Demon Deacons winning three of those five contests.

• Twenty-eight meetings occurred in a span of 31 years (1954-1984). The two schools did not meet in 1967, 1973 or 1974.

TAR HEEL STATE DOMINANCE

The Hokies are 12-0 if you count the ACC title game win over Florida State last year in Charlotte, even though it doesn't go down as a league contest.

THE STORIED LUNCH PAIL

♦ Taken with the Hokies wherever they go is the storied lunch pail. The Pail served as the inspiration for Tech's record-setting 1995 defense, symbolizing Tech's blue collar approach to defensive football. Every year since, a member of the defense has been responsible for toting a new Pail.

♦ Coach Rod Sharpless, then the co-defensive coordinator along with Bud Foster, brought a lunch pail back from New Jersey and they decided that it would become the symbol of the 1995 defense. Sharpless' mother-in-law found the now famous original lunch pail in Mercerville, N.J., where it had belonged to a coal miner.

♦ The players put the unit goals, weekly goals, the keys to success for the week and a signed mission statement before the season in the Pail ... plus the turf from road wins.

HONORED WITH THE PATERNO AWARD

♦ Virginia Tech head coach Frank Beamer won the inaugural Joseph V. Paterno Coach of the Year Award last season.

♦ The award, the first of its kind, is designed to honor the spirit of Penn State head coach Joe Paterno, whose long-time success on the field has been matched only by his impact away from it.

♦ Through a nomination process, each current head coach was evaluated based on his school's performance on Saturdays, in the classroom and within the community.

WHAT'S A HOKIE?

That's the most frequently asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

Following is the "Old Hokie" yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-ah!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

HOUSE OF HORRORS

- ♦ Lane Stadium has always been a difficult place for opponents to play and has been dubbed one of the best game-day environments in college football. Tech has a 51-8-1 record versus non-conference teams at home since 1991.
- ♦ Virginia Tech has posted a 194-69-6 overall record at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.
- ♦ Tech is 120-32-1 at home under the direction of Frank Beamer.
- ♦ Tech football teams are 354-100-13 all time in Blacksburg, including a 50-8 record since the start of the 2003 season.
- ♦ A large part of that impressive record is the home-field environment created by the fans as Lane Stadium has been sold out for 85 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against Virginia.
- ♦ The Hokies went unbeaten and untied in 2008 (6-0), 2000 (6-0), 1999 (6-0), 1996 (7-0), 1993 (6-0) 1980 (6-0), 1975 (5-0) and 1965 (3-0) at Lane Stadium. They went 4-0-1 in 1972 and 2-0-1 in 1966.

Last Meeting: Huge First Half Lifts Tech To Win

Wake Forest

21

Virginia Tech

52

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.

Oct. 16, 2010 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG - Virginia Tech amassed over 600 yards of offense on the way to its fifth consecutive win, a 52-21 Homecoming pounding of Wake Forest at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Quarterback Tyrod Taylor enjoyed a record-setting day, throwing for 292 yards and tying a career high with three touchdown passes. He hit back-up quarterback Logan Thomas — who was split out as a receiver — for a 3-yard score on the Hokies' opening possession to give the Hokies a 7-0 lead and get the onslaught started.

Taylor later threw touchdown strikes of 25 yards to Danny Coale and 11 yards to Jarrett Boykin. He also scored a touchdown rushing, getting in the end zone on a 1-yard sneak midway through the second quarter. Darren Evans accounted for the rest of the scoring.

The Hokies gained 314 yards through the air and 291 on the ground on the way to 35 first downs.

Virginia Tech scored touchdowns on eight of its first nine possessions and piled up 49 first half points while controlling the football for over 41 minutes.

Game Notes

• Receiver Dyrrell Roberts had career highs in catches (6) and receiving yards (134) during the win. Danny Coale also finished with over 100 yards receiving (103), giving Tech two 100-yard receivers in the same game for the first time since 2006 when Eddie Royal and Justin Harper did it against Georgia Tech.

• Tech converted 12 of 17 third-down situations in the game after going 0-for-8 on third downs a week earlier against Central Michigan.

• Wake tailback Josh Harris rushed for 241 yards on 20 carries and scored two touchdowns on runs of 33 and 87 yards. His rushing total was the most by a running back ever against a Tech defense.

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.

Sept. 3, 2011 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG — Virginia Tech scored on its first offensive play to set the tone for an impressive 66-13 season-opening victory over Appalachian State before a sold out crowd at Lane Stadium-Worsham Field to start head coach Frank Beamer's 25th season off with a bang.

The Hokies scored 38 first-half points on the way to their most points in an opening game since scoring 86 points against Roanoke College in 1905. Tailback David Wilson rushed for 162 yards and three touchdowns, while receiver Marcus Davis hauled in three passes for 140 yards and two scores. Quarterbacks Logan Thomas and Mark Leal both tossed a pair of touchdown passes as Tech piled up 518 yards of offense.

Tech's defense picked off three passes, while the special teams blocked a punt for a touchdown and averaged over 30 yards a return on both kickoffs and punts.

Game Notes

• The win snapped a three-game Virginia Tech losing streak in season openers.

• Tech's 66 points were the most in a game for the Hokies since posting 77 points in a 1995 game against Akron and the most in a season opener since 1905.

• Seven players made their first career starts: Scott Demler (P), Tariq Edwards (LB), Derrick Hopkins (DT), Cody Journell (PK), Andrew Miller (C), Joey Phillips (FB) and Logan Thomas (QB).

• Kyle Fuller became the 81st different player under head coach Frank Beamer to score a touchdown on defense or special teams with his blocked punt recovery in the end zone.

Game 2: Hokies Grind Out Road Win Over East Carolina

No. 11 Virginia Tech

Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium • Greenville, N.C.
Sept. 10, 2011 • Attendance: 49,404

GREENVILLE, N.C. - Virginia Tech engineered a 13-play, 89-yard touchdown drive in the final quarter to post a hard-earned 17-10 road win at East Carolina University. The win gave Coach Frank Beamer his 200th victory at Tech.

The gritty performance included a sterling outing by the Hokies' defensive unit, which held the offensive-minded Pirates to minus-15 yards rushing and just 127 yards through the air. Tech limited ECU to just 18 total yards during the decisive fourth quarter.

The Hokies had to weather 12 penalties during the contest, including two that erased Tech interceptions. ECU led 7-3 at the half before a 1-yard plunge by senior tailback Josh Oglesby put the Hokies up 10-7 in the third quarter. The Pirates knotted the score on Mike Barbour's 48-yard field goal at the 5:40 mark of the quarter.

Tech rode the legs of Oglesby and starting tailback David Wilson in the fourth quarter. Wilson, who finished with 138 yards on 26 carries, accounted for 53 yards on the final drive, while Oglesby provided 18 yards, including the last 10 for the deciding touchdown. The Hokies finished the game with 241 yards on the ground.

The Hokies registered nine tackles for loss in the win, including five sacks. ECU managed to convert just three of 12 third-down plays into first downs.

Game Notes

• The win was Tech's eighth in its last nine meetings with East Carolina. The victory also gave the Hokies their first 2-0 start since 2006.

• Sophomore cornerback Kyle Fuller posted his first collegiate pass interception in the game. Fuller also contributed four tackles, two of which were for losses, and broke up a pass in the win.

• Senior split end Jarrett Boykin caught four passes in the game, becoming the Hokies' all-time pass receptions leader in the process. The four grabs gave Boykin 129 career catches, surpassing former leader Ernest Wilford, who had 126.

• Senior cornerback Cris Hill led the Tech defense with a career-high seven tackles, including one for a loss.

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.
Sept. 17, 2011 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG - Virginia Tech secured its first 3-0 start since 2006 with a hard-earned 26-7 victory over Arkansas State at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

The Red Wolves stunned the Hokies early with a 51-yard pass to the Tech 18 on their opening offensive snap. Two plays later, the visitors were sitting on a 7-0 lead barely four minutes into the game. Tech responded by marching from its 16 to the ASU 7 on three plays only to be stopped in its tracks on two snaps from the 1.

The Red Wolves' momentum disappeared in a flash, however, when cornerback Kyle Fuller sacked ASU quarterback Ryan Aplin in the end zone giving the Hokies a safety. After Arkansas State kicked the ball back to Tech, it took just five plays for the Hokies to take the lead on a 49-yard scoring pass from Logan Thomas to D.J. Coles.

Tech built a 23-7 halftime margin and held ASU to just 104 total yards over the final two quarters of play. The Hokies finished the game with 427 yards of offense with Thomas accounting for 320 yards, including 292 through the air. Receiver Danny Coale, who caught five passes for 112 yards during the first quarter, ended the day with a career-best seven receptions good for 128 yards and one touchdown.

Jayron Hosley contributed seven tackles, two interceptions and broke up two more passes, while linebacker Tariq Edwards led the team in tackles with 10, including 2.5 for losses.

Game Notes

• Senior receiver Dyrrell Roberts broke his left arm on the opening kickoff. Roberts would be eligible for a medical redshirt if he chooses to return.

• D.J. Coles recorded his first collegiate touchdown with a 49-yard TD catch in the game. Coles had a career-high 61 yards receiving in the game.

• Jayron Hosley picked up his 10th and 11th career interceptions against the Red Wolves, moving into a tie for ninth in all-time picks by a Tech player.

• Jarrett Boykin moved into second place in all-time receiving yards at Tech during the game. Boykin's 29 yards gave him 2,216, surpassing Antonio Freeman's 2,207 yards. Ricky Scales currently owns the top spot with 2,272 yards.

• Linebacker Tariq Edwards posted a career-high 10 tackles, including 2.5 for loss.

Joan C. Edwards Stadium • Huntington, W.Va.
Sept. 24, 2011 • Attendance: 34,424

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. - A

balanced offensive attack combined with another solid defensive performance lifted Virginia Tech to a 30-10 road win at Marshall University as the Hokies improved to 4-0 on the season. The game marked Tech's first visit to Huntington since 1940.

Offensively, Tech posted 215 yards and four touchdowns on the ground, while accumulating 229 yards on a 22-for-33 day passing from quarterback Logan Thomas. Thomas also contributed the first rushing touchdown of the day, a 5-yarder that started the visitors to a 23-10 halftime advantage. Tailbacks David Wilson and Josh Oglesby played big roles in the win with Wilson contributing 132 yards and a TD and Oglesby chipping in 75 yards and TD runs of 4 and 5 yards.

Tech out-gained the Thundering Herd 444 yards to 251 and allowed the home team to capitalize on just 3 of 15 third-down conversion attempts. The Hokies' defense chalked up five sacks and nine total tackles behind the line resulting in 43 yards lost on the way to limiting Marshall to just 6 yards rushing. Ends James Gayle (7 tackles, 3 TFL) and J.R. Collins (5 tackles, 2.5 sacks) were among the leaders for Tech.

Game Notes

• Tech head coach Frank Beamer, making his first trip to Huntington as a player or coach, visited the Marshall University Memorial at Spring Hill Cemetery prior to the game to honor former Tech players Frank Loria and Rick Tolley and the 75 people who perished in the Marshall plane crash on Nov. 14 1970. Beamer started along side of Loria in the Virginia Tech secondary during the 1966 and 1967 seasons.

• D.J. Coles and Danny Coale combined for 15 of Tech's 22 pass receptions during the game. Coles had a career-high eight grabs, while Coale tied a personal-best with seven.

• Tailback David Wilson posted his third 100 yard-plus rushing game of the season, picking up 132 yards on 26 carries. Running mate Josh Oglesby had his second two-touchdown outing of the year.

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.

BLACKSBURG - The 13th-ranked Clemson Tigers snapped Virginia Tech's 14-game winning streak in regular season games and handed the Hokies their worst home loss since 2005 with a 23-3 decision at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field on a cold and windy night in Blacksburg.

The Tigers took advantage of a 34-yard kickoff return by Jaron Brown coupled with a 15-yard personal foul penalty by the Hokies to break a 3-3 tie in the waning minutes of the first half. Starting their drive at the Tech 48, the Tigers drove for a touchdown that gave them the lead for good, converting two key third-down plays along the way.

Tech failed to capitalize on some early opportunities, and once Clemson built a lead the Tigers wouldn't let the Hokies back in the game. The visitors closed the game out with pair of second-half touchdowns.

The Hokies got 123 yards rushing from tailback David Wilson on the way to out-rushing Clemson 133-119, but Tech was out-gained in overall yards 323-258.

Tech's three points were the fewest in a game since 2006 when the Hokies lost at Boston College 22-3.

The last time Tech had lost by 20 points or more at home was in a 27-7 loss to No. 5 Miami in 2005.

Game Notes

• When Clemson scored a field goal after recovering a David Wilson fumble, it marked the first points given up this season by Tech's defense after a turnover. It came on the eighth turnover of the season by the Hokies' offense.

• The loss was the first in an ACC opener for the Hokies. Tech had won their opening league game in each of the previous seven seasons since joining the league in 2004.

• The game was the 300th game at Virginia Tech for head coach Frank Beamer.

• In Tech's 208-game scoring streak dating back to 1995, the Hokies' have failed to score 14 points or more points just nine times following the loss to CU.

• The last time Tech failed to score a touchdown at home was in 1995, a 16-0 loss to Cincinnati.

BLACKSBURG - Quarterback Logan Thomas passed for three touchdowns and ran for two more as Virginia Tech rallied in the final minutes to post a dramatic 38-35 victory over Miami at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Tech held the lead the majority of the game before the Hurricanes scored three fourth-quarter touchdowns to slip ahead 35-31 with just 2:51 left on the clock. Thomas answered by guiding the Hokies 77 yards in just under two minutes for what proved to be the winning touchdown. The redshirt sophomore did the honors with a 19-yard touchdown run on a fourth-and-one play. He finished the game by completing 23 of 25 passes for 310 yards.

Miami finished with 519 yards of offense but the Hokies were able to hold them off over the final 47 seconds. The Hokies, who compiled 482 yards, got 128 yards rushing from junior David Wilson, his fifth 100-yard game in six games.

Game Notes

- With seven catches for 120 yards, Jarrett Boykin became the Hokies' all-time leader in receiving yards with 2,356. He move past former record holder Ricky Scales (2,272). Boykin was already Tech's career record holder in receptions with 143.
- Logan Thomas hit 23 of 25 for a 92 percent completion percentage, the highest of any quarterback under head coach Frank Beamer (minimum 20 attempts).
- True freshman defensive tackle Corey Marshall made his first collegiate start in the game. He became the first true freshman to start at defensive tackle since Jonathan Lewis started the last three games of the 2002 season.
- Tech failed to intercept a pass, snapping its streak of 12 consecutive games with a pick.

ROAD WARRIORS

• Virginia Tech has posted a 47-11 record in ACC games since joining the conference in 2004, but more impressively, Tech has a road record in league contests of 21-5 since 2004.

A JOINT EFFORT

• Biomedical engineering integrates engineering, life sciences and medicine with the result that engineering principles can be applied to human medicine. The Virginia Tech-Wake Forest University School of Biomedical Engineering & Sciences (SBES) combines the resources of two universities to create an ideal venue for this activity.

• SBES is a fully joint venture between Wake Forest University and Virginia Tech, which initially integrates the capabilities of the Virginia Tech College of Engineering, the Wake Forest University School of Medicine, and the Virginia-Maryland Regional College of Veterinary Medicine (VMRCVM).

• The SBES graduate programs allow students to earn M.S. and Ph.D. degree programs in Biomedical Engineering, a joint M.D./Ph.D. program through the WFU School of Medicine, and a joint DVM/Ph.D. program through the VMRCVM.

• Students may take classes on either campus or via distance learning while residing on their home campus in either Blacksburg or Winston-Salem.

THE NEW GUY

♦ New quarterback Logan Thomas may be the tallest starting QB in school history, but he certainly has some shoes to fill in replacing four-year starter and 2010 ACC Player of the Year Tyrod Taylor. All Taylor did in four years was lead Tech to three ACC titles, set a school record for wins by a quarterback (34), as well as marks in total offense, passing yards and many more.

♦ But after a breakout spring, the 6-6, 254-pounder who wears a size 17 or 18 shoe depending on the make (17 cleat; 18 regular shoe), is poised to pick up where Taylor left off.

♦ Thomas saw sparse action on the field last year, but did haul in a 2-yard touchdown pass against Wake Forest and delivered a key 24-yard completion on a third-and-16 play to Danny Coale on a touchdown drive in the 31-17 win at Miami.

♦ The redshirt sophomore was recruited as a tight end, but quickly was moved to quarterback and began the process of being groomed for this season. He's had plenty of hype around him already, appearing as one of the "10 Things We Learned This Spring" in Stewart Mandel's column on SI.com, saying Thomas is "a physical specimen with all the tools to be a big-time college quarterback."

♦ Thomas was a standout basketball player at Brookville High and received scholarship offers to play basketball at JMU, Duquesne, Liberty, Akron, Richmond and Tulane but he decided to focus on football. He's also an avid golfer who likes to hit the links whenever he has free time.

♦ Thomas already has two fourth-quarter, game-winning touchdown drives (East Carolina, Miami). He completed 23 of 25 passes for 310 yards and three scores along with two rushing scores to lead the Hokies back to the win over Miami. His completion percentage of 92 percent in that game is a single-game record under head coach Frank Beamer (min. 20 attempts).

♦ For the year, he has thrown for 1,196 yards and seven touchdowns, completing 62.4 percent of his pass, and has rushed for two more touchdowns.

BACKFIELD BLAZERS

♦ While the Tech offense lost Ryan Williams and Darren Evans to the NFL, the Hokies will still boast a talented arsenal under new running backs coach Shane Beamer.

♦ Blazer David Wilson saw plenty of action the past two seasons on offense and special teams, and takes over the job as the top back.

♦ Josh Oglesby is a talented back who moves back to tailback from fullback this year, and Tony Gregory is perhaps the fastest of all the backs. He is back after tearing his ACL in the North Carolina game last year. Dominique Patterson was a star in high school and makes the move to the offense after working at linebacker, while freshman Michael Holmes is considered a bright star of the future for Tech.

WILSON TAKES OVER

♦ Electrifying junior David Wilson, from nearby Danville, Va., takes over as the No. 1 tailback, while also holding down the kickoff return duties. Wilson has been clocked at a blistering 4.29 in the 40-yard dash and his flair for the outrageous has made him a media favorite. He did eight consecutive standing back flips at the 2009 Media Day and topped himself in 2010 with 10 consecutive standing back flips. He told reporters he taught himself the flips when he was just 4 years old after watching gymnastics on television. Wilson wore a shirt and tie to school every day his senior year of high school and continues to dress up for classes at Tech.

♦ Last year, he opened up the second half with a 92-yard kickoff return for a score at NC State, had a 68-yard touchdown run against Central Michigan and had a 65-yard touchdown catch and run against Duke. He gave Tech the lead for good against Georgia Tech with a 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

♦ He rushed for 619 yards and five touchdowns last season, returned two kickoffs for touchdowns and caught four touchdown passes, as well. He opened 2011 with 162 yards rushing and three touchdowns with 15 broken tackles against Appalachian State.

♦ Wilson says he wears No. 4 in honor of his mother, Shelia, who was born on April 4 (4/4) and because it's her favorite number.

♦ He also contributes on the Virginia Tech track & field team, finishing second at the ACC indoor meet in the triple jump this past February in contributing to Tech's team

RUSHING = OUTCOME?

♦ Under head coach Frank Beamer (301 games), the Hokies are 178-33-2 when outrushing their opponents, 24-63 when being outrushed and 1-0 when the rushing total is even.

♦ In Tech's current 18-year bowl run (since 1993), Tech is 158-18 when outrushing its opponents, 20-38 when being outrushed and 1-0 when the rushing total is even.

♦ In its current 18-year bowl run (since 1993), Tech is 105-7 when rushing for 200 yards or more, including 7-0 in 2005.

♦ Since the start of the 1999 season, Tech is 113-11 when outrushing its opponent and 13-26 when being outrushed.

conference title (his second ring of the year when you count football).

♦ Wilson won the triple jump at the prestigious Penn Relays and earned All-America honors at the 2011 NCAA Outdoor National Championships in the triple jump by placing sixth. He became just the third Tech football player to earn All-America honors in track. Dennis Scott (lettered in football from 1976-78) finished fifth in the 60-yard dash at the 1978 NCAA indoor meet and Kenny Lewis (lettered in football from 1976-79) finished third in the 60-yard hurdles at the 1980 NCAA indoor meet.

♦ Wilson is the first Tech football player to qualify for NCAA Nationals with the Hokie track team since André Davis, who was a wide receiver, qualified in 1999 in the 100- and 200-meter dashes for the outdoor meet and in the 2000 indoor 60- and 200-meter dashes.

♦ Wilson's car matches his demeanor: flashy and stylish. While at home last winter, he spotted a 1978 Ford Thunderbird sitting in a backyard and decided to go knock on the stranger's front door. He left with the car after negotiating a deal to buy it for $2,000. Wilson then proceeded to add around $7,000 in enhancements, including ostrich skin vinyl interior, a new paint job to make it burnt orange, 24-inch rims, new tires and a customized stereo system.

♦ This season, he leads the team with 767 yards rushing and five touchdowns, an average of 127.8 yards per game, which is seventh in the nation.

ATHLETICS RUNS IN THE FAMILY

♦ Danny Coale comes from quite the athletic family. His brother, Kevin, played midfield for the University of Virginia men's lacrosse team. Their father, Jimmy, is the head strength and conditioning coach at Virginia Military Institute (VMI).

♦ Danny, who was a first-team all-state lacrosse player in high school, set Tech's freshman reception record with 36 catches and has caught at least two passes in 37 of 47 career games played, and caught at least one pass in 43 of 47 contests.

♦ He had his longest, and most important, catch in the final minutes of the Nebraska game in 2009, breaking free down the sideline for an 81-yard catch to set up the game-winning touchdown pass with 21 seconds left.

♦ He had a career day against Florida State in the 2010 ACC Championship Game when he had six catches for a career-high 143 yards in the win.

♦ Coale averaged 18.8 yards per catch last season, 11th-best in the FBS, and has a career average of 16.3 yards per catch. The senior enters this week's game with 133 career receptions for 2,171 yards and seven touchdowns. His 133 receptions rank second all-time at Tech and his 2,171 yards are the fourth-most in school history.

♦ This past spring, he surged unexpectedly to the top of the punter depth charge and could be called on this year as the backup. He punted in high school, but hadn't since then until he punted twice at Marshall and this year, he could contribute as a receiver, punter and punt return man.

BIG-PLAY BOYKIN

♦ Senior Jarrett Boykin became a big-play receiver for the Hokies last year and uses his big hands to help with snagging passes. Boykin's hands are so large that he has to wear size-3X receiver's gloves.

♦ Last season, he had a team-leading 53 receptions for 847 yards and six touchdown receptions. He has 16 career total touchdowns, including a rushing touchdown when he pounced on a fumble in the end zone against Virginia in 2009. He is one of only five Tech players ever to register 2,000 yards or more receiving and has 15 touchdown receptions. He is the school's leader in career receptions with 143 and career receiving yards with 2,346.

HOSLEY TO THE HOUSE

♦ Junior Jayron Hosley was the last player to verbal to Tech before signing day in 2009 after getting a late offer from the Hokies. He quickly made a name for himself on the college level as a true freshman, mainly as a punt returner with an average of 11.2 yards per return. He had a 64-yard return for a score against Marshall, becoming the first freshman under head coach Frank Beamer to return a punt for a score.

♦ Last year, he made his impact on defense and was named first-team All-ACC, as well as a first-team All-American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation and a second-teamer by the Associated Press. He had a nation-leading nine interceptions - including three at NC State - to tie the school record for picks in a season.

♦ Against Central Michigan, he broke free on a punt return, taking it back 80 yards for his second career punt return touchdown.

♦ Hosley was named a preseason All-American by Playboy, SI.com and Sporting News prior to this season and flew to California in July to film a segment for ESPN Sport Science. This year he has three interceptions and has 12 for his career, tied for seventh-most in school history.

♦ The speedy Hosley is from Delray Beach, Fla., where he attended Atlantic High School, the same high school as two former Hokies who play(ed) in the NFL - Brandon Flowers (Chiefs) and David Clowney (Panthers).

A REWARD FOR GOOD GRADES

♦ The Tech football team eats its meals in order of grade-point average range. Those players who have graduated, as well as those players who maintain the highest grade-point average, eat all team meals first. Coach Beamer invites each player to eat, calling out his name and his GPS range, starting with the highest.

ATHLETIC OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

♦ This year's offensive line is another athletic one as two starters began their collegiate careers at tight end. Starters Greg Nosal (left guard) and Andrew Lanier (left tackle) came to Blacksburg as tight ends before making the move to the interior line.

♦ Duane Brown made the same move early in his career and was a first-round draft pick of the Houston Texans in 2008 and is in his third year as a starter. Brandon Frye did the same and started at tackle for the Seattle Seahawks before getting injured in 2009. Ed Wang also came in as a tight end and moved to tackle early on in his career. He was drafted by Buffalo in 2010 and played for the Bills last season.

♦ Sophomore Andrew Miller has taken over as the center and while he didn't start as a tight end, he's athletic in his own right. The Bassett, Va., native was a standout wrestler in high school and has competed for the Hokies' nationally ranked wrestling squad. Miller was a two-time Virginia Group AA state champion and was the No. 3-ranked heavyweight by W.I.N. Magazine following his senior year. He was also a first-team all-state selection in football.

THE DEFENSIVE QUARTERBACK

♦ Senior Eddie Whitley is the master of all trades in the defensive backfield for the Hokies, as he's spent time at cornerback, outside linebacker, rover and took over the starting job at free safety last year. He took the reigns from three-year starter Kam Chancellor, who was drafted by Seattle in 2010 and is now starting for the Seahawks. In preseason, he switched up

BY THE NUMBERS

767 ... rushing yards for David Wilson through six games are already a season best for the Tech junior. Wilson ran for 619 yards in 13 games last year.

241 ... rushing yards by Wake Forest's Josh Harris against the Hokies last season is the most ever by an opposing player versus Tech.

192 ... average rushing yards per game by Tech is second-best in the ACC.

165 ... yards of Wake Forest's 346 total yards against Tech last season (48 percent) came on two plays, an 87-yard run by Josh Harris and a 78-yard pass from Tanner Price to Chris Givens.

111-41 ... Tech's scoring advantage in the first half so far this season.

49 ... first half points by Tech in its game with Wake Forest last season. The Hokies scored just three points in the second half on the way to a 52-21 win.

47.6 ... average pass completion percentage by opponents against Tech is the lowest in the ACC. The next closest is UNC at 50.9, while every other team is above 55 percent.

41:26 ... Tech's time of possession against Wake Forest last season is the highest in a game during Frank Beamer's tenure as head coach (301 games).

37 ... receiving yards needed by Danny Coale (2,171) to pass Antonio Freeman (2,207) for third place on Tech's all-time pass receiving yards list.

23 ... pass interceptions for Virginia Tech during its last 13 games.

17 ... sacks for Tech over its last five games.

12 ... third down conversions in 17 attempts last season against the Demon Deacons.

8.4 ... average yards gained by David Wilson every time he has touched the football at Virginia Tech (379 touches; 3,187 yds.).

1-2 ... current Hokie receivers Jarrett Boykin and Danny Coale rank first and second, respectively, in all-time pass receptions at Virginia Tech. Boykin has 143 catches, while Coale has 133.

0 ... interceptions against Miami broke a string of 12 consecutive games in which the Hokies had registered at least one pick.

to the rover spot and Antone Exum moved to free safety, but both can play either position.

♦ Whitley, a North Carolina native, is an avid chess player, who's been playing since he was 4 years old. He plays online, in the locker room, on his computer and even on his iPhone.

A FAMILY ATMOSPHERE

♦ Defensive tackles Antoine and Derrick Hopkins are just one of several Hokies on the roster to have family ties to the Tech football program.

♦ Redshirt juniors Vinston Painter and Randall Dunn are cousins.

♦ So are redshirt sophomore Logan Thomas and redshirt freshman Zack McCray, as are redshirt senior Jaymes Brooks and redshirt sophomore Telvion Clark.

♦ Linebacker Tariq Edwards is the son of former Hokie football player Bo Campbell, who lettered from 1989-92. George George III is a walk-on whose father, George, was on the Tech team in the 1970s.

♦ Back-up center Bo Gentry is the son of Tech's Assistant A.D. for Athletic Performance, Dr. Mike Gentry. Martin Scales is the cousin of former Hokies Orion and Cam Martin.

♦ There are seven players on the team with brothers who either are playing or did play at Virginia Tech. The Hopkins Brothers (Antoine and Derrick) started up front along the defensive line the first five games until Antoine was hurt. Wiley Brown is the younger brother of former defensive end Nekos Brown and David Wang is the younger brother of former offensive tackle Ed Wang. Redshirt freshman lineman Mark Shuman is the younger brother of former starting center and current weight room G.A. Ryan Shuman.

♦ Kyle Fuller is a sophomore defensive back who played last year as a true freshman. He is joined on the team by his brother, Corey Fuller, who ran track at Kansas for two seasons before transferring to Tech last year. Both are younger brothers of former Hokie Vincent Fuller, who played six seasons with the Tennessee Titans.

TECH'S KICKING TRADITION

♦ For the first time in five seasons, Tech will not be relying on a senior walk-on for the kicking duties. In 2006, Brandon Pace went 18-for-19 on field goals en route to second-team All-ACC honors. In 2007, it was Jud Dunlevy, who went 21-for-26 on the season.

♦ In 2008, Dustin Keys set a school record with 23 made field goals. In 2009, it was Matt Waldron's turn and he responded by making 20-of-23 field goals and scoring 108 points en route to first-team All-ACC honors.

♦ And last year, Chris Hazley picked up where the others left off, hitting 21-of-22 field goals, including a school-record (for a single season) 21 in a row.

♦ The last four were one-year wonders, each winning the job in their final season, and each going on to score over 100 points. The previous five seasons, the five kickers combined to make 103 of 119 field-goal attempts (86.6 percent) and produce 525 points with two earning All-ACC honors.

♦ This year, it's Cody Journell's time to shine. He's taken a different route as he was a scholarship signee in February of 2009 and redshirted before serving as a backup last year.

♦ He is a local product who hails from Ripplemead, about 30 minutes from campus. He came in with impressive credentials after earning prep All-America honors coming out of nearby Giles High School.

♦ After redshirting as a freshman in 2009, Journell was slowed by a hip flexor in last year's spring drills and never could make a serious run for the job. But this year, he had a breakout spring to earn the top spot.

♦ Journell is the first Tech principal placekicker to sign an NLI and come in on scholarship since Shayne Graham signed with the Hokies in 1996 and went on to earn first-team All-Big East Conference honors in all four seasons as Tech's kicker before going on to a standout NFL career.

♦ Journell is also the first non-senior to be Tech's kicker since Pace was the starter as a junior in 2005.

♦ Senior kickoff specialist Justin Myer has a cannon of a leg, but isn't as accurate or consistent as Journell, and could be called on for some attempts of 50 yards or longer.

FROM THE BEACH TO THE MOUNTAINS

♦ Junior linebacker Bruce Taylor was thrust into the starting lineup last year after 2009's starter, Barquell Rivers, tore a quad tendon while lifting in spring of 2010.

♦ Taylor was born in Georgia, but moved to Myrtle Beach, S.C., where he went to high school. He was the first commitment in the Hokies' 2008 class and has adjusted nicely in his time in the mountains. While productive on the field, Taylor also helps out with the Special Olympics of Southwest Virginia off the field.

♦ Last season, he led the team with 91 tackles, including 15.5 for loss. He hurt his shoulder this past spring during practice and had to have surgery, but is back full now.

BACK AND FORTH AND BACK AGAIN

♦ For senior Chris Drager, it's been a nomad's journey at Virginia Tech. He arrived at Tech in 2007 and saw the field as a true freshman helping out on special teams and at tight end. He suffered a season-ending knee injury while making a 9-yard reception against William & Mary and received a medical hardship waiver.

♦ As a redshirt freshman in 2008, he again played a lot of special teams and contributed at tight end, catching three passes. After a breakout spring season in 2009, he was moved to defensive end, a position he hadn't played since high school. He had to learn on the fly in preseason practices and ended up recording 22 tackles, including 6.5 for loss with 2.5 sacks in 2009. Last year, he started 11 games and collected 34 tackles, including six for loss and two sacks, as he started to flourish at the position.

♦ Now, the senior is back as the starting tight end, making the move selflessly to help the team. He has just eight catches for 107 yards for his career, but was moved because of a lack of experience at the position.

♦ The Pennsylvania native got his bachelor's degree in human nutrition, foods and exercise in December of 2009, needing just three years to do so. He then started the research component of his master's degree last spring and began master's classes in the fall. He finished the class part of his master's program this past summer and now just has to write his thesis, which should take all of this school year and will hopefully graduate next spring.

♦ Drager had a 3.83 grade-point average as an undergraduate and has over a 3.9 GPA in grad school. He's doing his thesis on the effects of docosahexaenoic acid, an omega-3 fatty acid, on resistance training and muscle damage and has taken the initial steps to apply for a Rhodes Scholarship.

FROM THE GOPHER STATE TO BLACKSBURG

scholarship - a rarity for long snappers coming out of high school.

♦ The aspiring journalist, who cut several videos for Tech's website this preseason and is a regular contributor to the school newspaper, has handled punt, field goal and extra point snaps for the Hokies during his career. He's made 428 snaps in his career with just two unusable snaps (1 punt and 1 FG in the 2009 Miami game in the rain).

IT'S WILEY BROWN TIME

♦ Walk-on whip linebacker Wiley Brown is the son of Chuck Brown a famous songwriter and performer who is known as the "Godfather of Go-Go" music. The elder Brown had the No. 1 national R&B hit in "Bustin' Loose" in 1978. The hook from that song was used by Nelly in the 2002 No. 1 hit "Hot in Herre."

♦ The elder Brown turned 76 in August, and in 2009, to honor him, the city of Washington, D.C., designated the portion of Seventh Street NW from T Street to Florida Avenue as Chuck Brown Way.

♦ Wiley is the younger brother of Nekos, who started at defensive end in 2009. He played at Duquesne before transferring in and sitting out in 2009. He was a special teams demon, recording 13 special teams tackles for the year and a forced fumble in the Orange Bowl on kickoff coverage

CONSTANT ON THE SIDELINES

♦ Long-time equipment manager Lester Karlin and Assistant to the Head Coach Billy Hite are both in their 34th seasons on the Tech staff and have been on the sideline for 404 consecutive Tech games.

TAKING CARE OF WALK-ONS

♦ Former walk-on John Engelberger was a starter for the San Francisco 49ers and Denver Broncos, and John Burke played in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1987. Cody Grimm went from a walk-on, to a starter, to an All-American, and finally to an NFL Draft pick of Tampa Bay in 2009.

♦ Current Tech walk-ons who have earned scholarships include Jack Tyler, Justin Myer, Joey Phillips, Martin Scales and Corey Fuller with others in line should a scholarship open up.

♦ Grimm and Will Montgomery (C, Washington Redskins) are both former Hokie walk-ons starting in the NFL this year.

GIVE IT TO BROOKS

♦ Offensive guard Jaymes Brooks is making his living as a third-year starter at offensive guard, but the senior also is proud that he scored a touchdown on a run from the fullback position in his last high school game.

♦ The Newport News, Va., native also excelled in another sport, winning the Virginia Group AAA state indoor track & field shot put title as a sophomore and finishing second in both the shot put and discus at the State Outdoor Track & Field Championship meet his senior year.

♦ Brooks, who was born in Zweibrucken, Germany, was thrust into the limelight for the Orange Bowl two seasons ago when the starter was ruled ineligible. He responded with a solid game in the win and has started every game since, a streak of 34 contests.

BOOK END TACKLE

♦ Senior offensive tackle Blake DeChristopher anchors a senior-laden offensive line, one that has combined to make 128 career starts, third-most in the ACC. DeChristopher, who is in his fourth year as a starter, has started 43 games and has a chance to reach the rare 50-game mark this season.

♦ An intimidating presence at 6-5, 311 pounds, DeChristopher proudly carries around a full beard and shaggy hair, but is also a beast in the weight room. He strained a pectoral muscle in off-season max testing, causing him to miss most of the preseason, but he didn't miss a beat once the season rolled around and has started every game.

GIVING THEM HIS FINGER

♦ No one can accuse offensive guard Greg Nosal of being soft after his performance against CMU last year. The senior got his pinkie finger stuck in the facemask of a defender, ripping the fleshy tip of the finger off. After the trainers fished it out of his glove, they put the digit on ice and wrapped up Nosal so he could finish the game.

♦ Finally, he went into the training room late in the game after the pain medicine wore off to get the tip sewn back on, but he played two quarters with 9 1/2 fingers.

♦ Nosal's father, Greg, was promoted in 2009 to Rear Admiral in the U.S. Navy and works at the Pentagon. The younger Nosal has lived all over the country, taking residence in Virginia Beach twice, Jacksonville twice, Washington, D.C. twice and Honolulu once, moving six times total.

GETTIN' IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

♦ Of the 17 seniors on the 2011 roster, there are eight Hokie graduates, with seven others slated to graduate in December and one on track to graduate next May.

♦ Here's how the current seniors, listed alphabetically, stand: Kwamaine Battle (graduated, working toward second undergraduate degree), Jarrett Boykin (graduates in December), Jaymes Brooks (graduates in December), Collin Carroll

(graduates in December), Danny Coale (graduated, working toward second undergraduate degree), Blake DeChristopher (graduated, working toward second undergraduate degree), Chris Drager (graduated, working on Master's), Bo Gentry (scheduled to graduate in summer 2012), Cris Hill (graduates in December), Andrew Lanier (graduated, working toward second undergraduate degree), Justin Myer (scheduled to graduate in May), Greg Nosal (graduated, working toward second undergraduate degree), Josh Oglesby (graduated, working toward second undergraduate degree), Barquell Rivers (graduated, working toward second undergraduate degree), Dyrell Roberts (graduates in December), Eddie Whitley (graduates in December), Tyler Weiss (graduates in December).

♦ Additionally, junior Courtney Prince graduated this past summer to bring the Hokies' total number of graduates to nine.

♦ In eight of the past 10 years, Tech has graduated 70 percent or higher of its football class.

HOKIE PRIDE

♦ Virginia Tech football has always prided itself on taking care of its players before, during and after their times in Blacksburg. A testament to the family atmosphere created is

SENIOR PRODUCTION

♦ The senior duo of Jarrett Boykin and Danny Coale have been a productive group for the Hokies over the past four seasons. Coale is best remembered for his 81-yard catch against Nebraska in the waning moments to set up Dyrell Roberts' 11-yard touchdown catch in the 16-15 win. Boykin's 39-yard catch-and-run for a score gave the Hokies the lead for good in the 40-31 win at NC State last year, the biggest comeback under head coach Frank Beamer. Both are in the top six at Tech in both all-time receptions and receiving yards.

♦ Roberts, a senior, broke his arm in the Arkansas State game and is eligible to come back next year.

♦ Below are Boykin and Coale's career stats and their total numbers as a duo.

	G	Rec.	Yds.	TD	Avg.
Boykin	46	143	2346	15	16.4
Coale	47	133	2171	7	16.3

HOP AND SKIP

♦ Defensive tackles Antoine Hopkins and Derrick Hopkins started beside each other on the defensive line this year for the first five games before Antoine tore his ACL in the loss to Clemson.

♦ Antoine, known as "Hop," switched from No. 98 to No. 56 last year, a number he wore in high school. Derrick, the sophomore known as "Skip," had a tremendous spring session and will again be wearing Antoine's old No. 98. The two have a younger brother nicknamed "Jump" to complete the trio.

♦ The last brothers to play side-by-side for the Hokies were Blake and Brett Warren at linebacker in the mid 2000s.

♦ Other notable brother combinations starting together on the same side of the ball were Orion and Cam Martin (defensive end and whip linebacker, respectively) in the late 2000s; Kevin and Jonathan Lewis, starting defensive tackles side-by-side in 2002, and offensive linemen T.J. (RT) and Todd (LG) Washington in 1996.

THE FREAK

♦ Junior wide receiver Marcus Davis is poised to have a major impact on the offense this year after finally settling in at the position.

♦ At 6-foot-4 and 230 pounds, the freakishly athletic Davis runs a 4.37-second 40-yard dash and set a Tech program record with a 44-inch vertical jump in the spring, making him a big target for Logan Thomas to find anywhere, but particularly on jump ball situations in the end zone.

♦ In the summer of 2010, Davis worked on his catching skills by catching 100 balls a day. Many of those balls were caught with tennis balls taped to the palms of his hands to make him catch the ball with his fingertips.

♦ Davis came to Tech as a quarterback, but quickly switched to wide receiver. But he hurt his right shoulder just four practices into the 2008 preseason camp and underwent surgery. After taking a redshirt year, he was moved back to quarterback the next spring, but was moved back out wide with just a week left in the spring and has been a permanent resident of the receiving corps since.

♦ His first college reception was an 80-yard touchdown catch in 2009 against Boston College. Against Appalachian State, he hauled in three passes for 140 yards and two touchdowns.

COORDINATOR TIDBITS

During Bud Foster's 211-game tenure as defensive/co-defensive coordinator, Tech has ...

- ♦ had 45 different defensive players score touchdowns.
- ♦ held opponents to an average of 106.1 yards rushing and 16.3 points per game.
- ♦ been nationally ranked in the top five of a major defensive category 35 times.
- ♦ had at least one defensive player earn All-America honors from some publication in all 16 seasons. Four players gained A-A recognition in 1999 and three were honored in 2001.
- ♦ produced six first-team All-Americans and 11 others who have earned second- or third-team All-America honors from one of the recognized groups.
- ♦ had 34 players drafted by NFL teams.
- ♦ produced its first Lombardi Award winner and its first Nagurski Trophy winner in Corey Moore.
- ♦ produced two BIG EAST defensive players of the year – Corey Moore, who earned the honor in both 1998 and 1999, and Cornell Brown, who won it in 1995.
- ♦ featured 10 players who have recorded nine or more interceptions in their career

ONE LAST SHOT

♦ Senior linebacker Barquell Rivers has seen the highs and lows of college football and now is trying to go out on top.

♦ In his first college start, Rivers made a big late-game fourth-down stop at the goal line to help preserve the Hokies' 2009 Orange Bowl victory over Cincinnati. The next season, in his first year as the starting mike linebacker, Rivers was second on the team with 96 tackles. But in the first week of March, 2010, it all changed. While working out in the Merryman Center weight room tore the quadriceps tendon in his left leg while power cleaning 351 pounds.

♦ Following surgery, recovery and rehabilitation time was scheduled as five to six months. He returned to practice in early October, but developed patella tendinitis and was shut back down. He worked his way back to play on the kickoff team in the Orange Bowl against Stanford and is coming off a nice spring session.

♦ Rivers, who has already graduated, was one of the four game captains for the opener against Appalachian State and plays on the field goal block squad also.

25 FOR NO. 25

♦ Head coach Frank Beamer, who wore No. 25 when he played at Tech in the 1960s, is in his 25th season at the helm of the Hokies.

♦ During Beamer's time in Blacksburg, the other 11 ACC programs have employed a combined 51 head coaches.

♦ Stanford has had eight head coaches over the past 25 years, the most among the

During Bryan Stinespring's 127-game tenure as offensive coordinator, Tech has ...

- ♦ won 96 games and averaged 364.9 yards of total offense.
- ♦ averaged 30.4 points per game, finishing first or second in the ACC in scoring offense in five of seven seasons.
- ♦ finished with six of its top nine all-time teams in both total offense and total points.
- ♦ had 18 players drafted and 33 players total sign with NFL teams.
- ♦ had five players earn All-Big East honors, including one repeat performer, and 23 who won All-ACC honors, with five repeat picks.
- ♦ produced a Rimington Trophy winner and unanimous All-American in Jake Grove.
- ♦ produced the ACC Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year for 2004 (Bryan Randall) and 2010 (Tyrod Taylor), and the 2009 ACC Rookie of the Year (Ryan Williams).
- ♦ featured 1,000-yard rushers Ryan Williams, Kevin Jones, Lee Suggs, Darren Evans and Branden Ore, the two top passing leaders in school history and five of the top pass catchers in school history.

67 programs (six major conferences plus Notre Dame) with automatic BCS qualifying privileges.

COACHES AT THEIR ALMA MATERS

♦ Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer is one of 18 head coaches working at their alma maters this season.

Chris Ault - Nevada
 Frank Beamer - Virginia Tech
 Bill Blankenship - Tulsa
 Troy Calhoun - Air Force
 Jon Embree - Colorado
 Steve Fairchild - Colorado State
 Pat Fitzgerald - Northwestern
 Mike Gundy - Oklahoma State
 Doug Marrone - Syracuse
 Ruffin McNeill - East Carolina
 Rick Neuheisel - UCLA
 Luke Fickell - Ohio State
 Joker Phillips - Kentucky
 Larry Porter - Memphis
 David Shaw - Stanford
 Willie Taggart - Western Kentucky
 Don Treadwell - Miami University
 Paul Wulff - Washington State

FIGHTING THROUGH THE PAIN

♦ Junior walk-on punter Scott Demler won the starting punting job in the preseason and took over for All-ACC punter Brian Saunders. The fact that he is able to punt is a small miracle since he has chronic back pain.

♦ Demler, from Washington Crossing, Pa., has facet syndrome in his back, which causes him to have back pain every day. He hurt his back his second day of preseason practice at Tech in 2008 and doctors back home said he injured the third vertebrae in his back.

♦ Doctors advised him not to punt or do certain activities, but Demler did a lot of rehab and core strengthening to get back to health. He still wakes up sore every day, but is playing through the pain.

♦ Demler is now splitting the reps with true freshman Michael Branthover.

ANOTHER TOUGH BREAK

♦ Senior wide receiver Dyrell Roberts was looking to return to form this fall after having emergency surgery last fall following a game. Roberts, a speedster who was one of the top kickoff return men in 2009, was hit on the thigh on a return in the Georgia Tech game last year.

♦ After the game, it was bruised, but nothing out of the ordinary. As the night went on and the pain increased, he was finally rushed to Montgomery Regional Hospital and had a series of surgeries over the next week to relieve pressure in his thigh from compartment syndrome. Without the surgeries, he could've suffered permanent muscle damage.

♦ Roberts missed the rest of the season and practiced sparingly in the spring, but returned this fall and broke the school record for career kickoff return yards with a 25-yarder against Appalachian State. But against Arkansas State, he suffered another tough injury on a kickoff return when he broke his left arm on the opening return. He had surgery the next day and is out for the rest of the year, but is eligible to return next year as he hasn't redshirted yet.

IMPRESSIVE GENES

♦ Backup offensive guard David Wang

comes from athletic parents, both of whom were members of the Chinese Olympic team.

♦ David had surgery on his shoulder during preseason and redshirted in 2009 before seeing the field in five games last year as the top backup at left guard. He was the top backup at right guard before fracturing his right foot against East Carolina and will be out until at least November.

♦ He is the brother of former Hokie Ed Wang, who made history in April of 2010 by becoming the first Chinese American to be drafted by an NFL team when Buffalo took him in the fourth round. Ed and David were featured on NFL China in 2010 as a crew came over from Beijing to do a story on American football.

♦ Virginia Tech also holds the distinction of having the first Korean American drafted by an NFL team as Eugene Chung was taken by the New England Patriots in the first round of the 1992 Draft.

HISTORY OF VIRGINIA TECH FOOTBALL

- Virginia Tech is in its 118th football season and has compiled a 684-432-46 all-time record in 1,162 games.
- Tech won its 650th game on Sept. 3, 2008, with a 20-17 win over Georgia Tech.
- The Hokies played their first football game on Oct. 21, 1892, with a 14-10 win over St. Albans in a game played on Tech's campus.
- Virginia Tech is 16th among Division I schools in terms of all-time wins.
- The Hokies have compiled 13 10-win seasons, including seven in a row and 10 in the last 12 seasons.
- Tech has won conference football titles in the Southern Conference, the Big East Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

HISTORY OF LANE STADIUM/WORSHAM FIELD

- Virginia Tech's on-campus home since 1965, Lane Stadium/Worsham Field (66,233) is one of college football's most hostile venues.
- The Hokies have compiled an all-time record of 194-69-6 in 269 games at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field. The Hokies are 120-32-1 at home under Frank Beamer and 102-18 at home since the start of the 1996 season.
- The stadium is named for the late Edward H. Lane, a graduate of the university and a former member of the Board of Visitors. Lane headed an educational foundation project which raised more than $3 million for the original construction. Lane's personal donation was the first received by the fund.
- The field was officially dedicated on Sept. 5, 1992 in honor of Wes and Janet Worsham, longtime Hokie supporters from Kilmarnock, Va. The Worshams pledged $1 million to the university's Second Century Campaign. The Campaign raised over $18.6 million, almost $1.7 million more than the original goal.
- Lane Stadium has been sold out for 85 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against Virginia.
- The original cost of the stadium was $3.5 million with an original capacity of 40,000.
- The first game played in the new stadium was a freshman game on Sept. 24, 1965, an 8-8 tie between Tech and Maryland. The first varsity game was played a week later, on Oct. 2 with the Hokies beating William & Mary 9-7.

ALL-TIME BLACKSBURG RECORD

- In addition to its impressive record at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field (1965-present), Virginia Tech has made Blacksburg a very difficult place to play for opposing football teams.
- Tech has compiled a 354-100-13 record in 467 games in Blacksburg.
- Virginia Tech's first game on campus was its first game ever played, a 14-10 win over St. Albans on Oct. 21, 1892. The game was played on an open field behind the Barracks No. 1 (Lane Hall) on the northeast side of campus.
- A small, ungraded area near the present Memorial Chapel was assigned for both athletic and military drill use in 1894 and was known as Sheib Field, where Tech went 13-1. The area was enlarged in 1902 and became known as Gibboney Field, where the Hokies posted a 19-2 record.
- In 1909 the area was graded and leveled, the grandstand enlarged, and the name changed to Miles Field, where the Hokies went 60-3-3. Miles Field was used for football, baseball, and track until Miles Stadium was completed in 1926. Tech called Miles Stadium home from 1926-64, posting a 67-25-4 record.
- Miles Stadium was razed following the 1964 football season and was superseded by the present Lane Stadium.

BEAMERBALL

• During the Frank Beamer era at Tech, putting points on the scoreboard has always been a team effort — the offense, the defense and the special teams. It's called BeamerBall, and what sets it apart are the contributions of the defense and special teams.

• Seven of Tech's last 10 teams are ranked among the school's top 10 highest scoring teams. During that time, a player at every position on the defensive unit has produced at least one touchdown, and 35 different players have scored touchdowns while playing on Tech's special teams. Altogether, the defense and special teams have combined for 130 TDs since Beamer arrived in 1987, including 113 in Tech's past 224 games.

• Under Beamer, Tech's defense has scored 82 TDs, with 54 coming on pass interceptions, 26 on fumble returns and two on fumble recoveries. The special teams have added 48 TDs, including 17 on blocked punts, 18 on punt returns, eight on kickoff returns, four on blocked field goals and one on a fumble recovery.

• Fittingly, the trend started in Beamer's first game as Tech's head coach when true freshman Jon Jeffries returned a kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown against Clemson. It was the Hokies' first TD under Beamer, and it was the first of many scored by the special teams.

• Under Beamer, 81 different players on defense and special teams have scored TDs. Twenty-three of those players scored twice while Eddie Royal,

Xavier Adibi, Jason Lallis, Ike Charlton and Ricky Hall each had three scores, André Davis had four, Victor Harris had five and DeAngelo Hall had seven.

• Since the start of the 1993 season, Tech is 75-13 in games it scores at least one TD on defense or special teams. Tech is 79-23 under Beamer when scoring a non-offensive touchdown.

BEAMERBALL II

• Tech's tradition for blocking kicks is another part of BeamerBall. It was carried to new heights in 1998 with 10 blocks during the regular season and two more in the Hokies' Music City Bowl game against Alabama.

• Tech now has 128 blocks in Frank Beamer's 301 games as the head coach. The Hokies have blocked 63 punts (17 returned or recovered for TDs), 38 field goals and 27 extra points.

• The most prolific kick blockers under Beamer have been defensive lineman Bernard Basham (7 kicks) and safety Keion Carpenter (6 kicks). Basham blocked three field goals and four PATs, while Carpenter blocked six punts.
