A few game notes in 140 characters or less

This will be the third meeting on the gridiron between @BGathletics and @VT_Football. #BGSUvsVT @VT_Football is 2-0 against @BGathletics, playing in 1990 and 1993, both times in Blacksburg.

The #Hokies have 1 player from OH: frosh Austin Jones (Cincy) while the #Falcons have 1 player from VA: Scott Davis (Richmond).

@BGathletics is led by Dave Clawson, who came to #BGSU from Richmond, where he was the head coach.

Saturday is Military Appreciation Day as the #Hokies will wear special camouflage helmets to support Wounded Warrior Project.

@BGathletics head athletic trainer Nick Richey was a football and softball trainer at #VT in the mid 2000s.

THE SERIES

- Saturday's game will be the third football meeting between Virginia Tech and Bowling Green. Tech holds a 2-0 lead in the series, but the two teams haven't met since 1993.

- The schools met for the first time in football in 1990 when the Hokies downed the Falcons 21-7 at Lane Stadium and again in 1993 when Tech won 33-16 win at Lane Stadium.

MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

- The Tech football team will raise money to support Wounded Warrior Project through the sale of camouflage Virginia Tech hats and wristbands. The Hokies will also wear camo helmets for the first time in school history.

- A member of the Corps of Cadets will carry a commemorative flag during the team's entrance in honor of Deriek Crouse, the fallen VT police officer who was killed on campus last December. Officer Crouse was a U.S. Army Veteran and his family will be in attendance. Additionally, Army specialist Chris Dooley will be honored as part of Wounded Warrior project. Dooley grew up in Troutville and was part of the initial invasion of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

- There are two flyovers for this game, one pregame: a WWII B-25, and one at halftime: a P-51 Mustang.

- In the pregame, as part of the HT's on-field performance, the Alumni Association will reward Col. Wes Fox an honorary lifetime membership in the Association for his long service to Virginia Tech. He retired as the Deputy Commandant of the Cadets at Virginia Tech in 2001 and is one of 81 living recipients of the Medal of Honor.

STRONG IN SEPTEMBER

- Tech has a 66-11 mark in September dating back to the start of its bowl streak in the 1993 season, including a 27-6 mark over the past six-plus seasons (2005-2012).

COUNTDOWN TO KICKOFF

- 10 Virginia Tech's 10 touchdowns have been scored by nine different players.
- 9 Quarterback Logan Thomas has moved into ninth place in all-time total offense at Tech with 4,372 yards.
- 8 The longest punt return allowed by Tech this season has been eight yards.
- 7 Freshman punter A.J. Hughes has seven punts inside the 20-yard line.
- 6 Six Hokie receivers have catches of 20 or more yards this season.
- 5 Marcus Davis' 85-yard touchdown catch against Pitt tied for the fifth-longest reception in school history.
- 4 The Hokies have four interceptions on the season and lead the nation in picks since 2000 with 231.
- 3 Bowling Green will be making its third football visit to Blacksburg.
- 2 Kyshoen Jarrett's 94-yard punt return against Pittsburgh was the second-longest in school history.
- 1 Virginia Tech has now recorded at least one defensive or special team touchdown in 22 consecutive seasons.

COACH FRANK BEAMER

Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech '69), whose Virginia Tech teams have posted a 187-60 record over the past 19+ seasons and have appeared in bowl games each year in that span, is in his 26th year as the head football coach at Tech and 32nd overall. Beamer has guided the Hokies to a 211-99-2 record and sits with an overall record of 253-122-4.

Under Beamer, Tech football has enjoyed unprecedented success with 19 consecutive bowl appearances, four ACC titles, five ACC Coastal Division crowns, three BIG EAST Conference titles, two "major" bowl victories, six BCS appearances and a trip to the national championship game.

Tech won the BIG EAST title in 1995 and 1999, and shared it in '96. Beamer was voted BIG EAST Coach of the Year by the league's coaches each of those seasons and was tabbed the ACC Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005.

* - active coach;

taken from 2012 NCAA Football Record Book

In 1997, he was inducted into the Virginia Tech Sports Hall of Fame and following the 1999 season, he earned eight national coach of the year honors. Beamer returned to his alma mater in December of 1986 after a six-year stint as the head coach at Murray State University, where he compiled a 42-23-2 mark.

During his undergraduate days at Tech, Beamer started three years as a cornerback and played on the Hokies' 1966 and 1968 Liberty Bowl teams. The 65-year-old Hillsville, Va., native began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Maryland in 1972. He held assistant coaching positions at The Citadel and Murray State before being named MSU's head coach in 1981.

He is married to the former Cheryl Oakley of Richmond, Va. They have two children, Shane, a former member of his dad's football team at Virginia Tech and now the associate head coach/running backs coach at Virginia Tech; and daughter Casey, a 2003 graduate of Tech. He has two grandchildren, Sutton and Olivia, daughters of Shane and his wife, Emily.

Beamer was born in Mt. Airy, N.C., and grew up in Hillsville, Va. At Hillsville High, he earned 11 varsity letters as a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball.

Beamer, who is the winningest active coach in the Football Bowl Subdivision with 253 victories, had his No. 25 jersey retired by Tech in a pregame ceremony before the Marshall game in 2002. He is eighth all-time among FBS coaches (min. 10 seasons at FBS school) in terms of all-time victories.

STABILITY AT THE TOP

• Frank Beamer, the first Tech alumnus to guide Virginia Tech's football program since the 1940s, has coached and won more football games at Tech than any other head coach.

• Not one of the 124 active Division I-A (FBS) head football coaches has been at his current school consecutively longer than Beamer (Nevada's Chris Ault is in his 28th season, but not consecutively).

WHAT'S A HOKIE?

That's the most frequently asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

Following is the "Old Hokie" yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

HOUSE OF HORRORS

- Lane Stadium has always been a difficult place for opponents to play and has been dubbed one of the best game-day environments in college football. Tech has a 53-9-1 record versus non-conference teams at home since the start of the 1991 season.
- Virginia Tech has posted a 198-69-6 overall record at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.
- Tech is 124-32-1 at home under the direction of Frank Beamer.
- Tech football teams are 358-100-13 all time in Blacksburg, including a 54-8 record since the start of the 2003 season.
- A large part of that impressive record is the home-field environment created by the fans as Lane Stadium has been sold out for 89 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against Virginia.
- The Hokies went unbeaten and untied in 2008 (6-0), 2000 (6-0), 1999 (6-0), 1996 (7-0), 1993 (6-0) 1980 (6-0), 1975 (5-0) and 1965 (3-0) at Lane Stadium. They went 4-0-1 in 1972 and 2-0-1 in 1966.

NINETEEN BOWLS IN A ROW

• With its trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl last year, Tech is now one of only three teams to go to 19 bowls in the past 19 seasons. The other two are Florida State and Florida.

Active Consecutive Bowl Appearances

1.	Florida State	30
2.	Florida	22
3.	Virginia Tech	19
4.	Georgia, Georgia Tech	15
5.	Oklahoma	13
6.	LSU, Ohio State	12

CONSISTENCY IS THE KEY

• Tech has been a consistent winner since the mid-90s, winning an average of 9.6 games per year during the current streak of 19 straight seasons capped by bowl appearances.

• Since the beginning of the 1995 season, Florida has won 171 games, one more than Tech's 170 to lead the country during that span. Boise State is third at 166 wins*.

* - Ohio State had 12 wins vacated from 2010; would have 172 wins

SCORING STREAK

• Tech has scored in a school-record 220 straight football games, beginning with a win over Miami on Sept. 23, 1995. The streak began after a 16-0 loss to Cincinnati in 1995.

• The previous school record was 66 straight games (1970-76). During its current streak, Tech has scored 13 or more in all but 10 games.

CONSECUTIVE BOWL APPEARANCES (COACHES)

1.	Bobby Bowden (1982-09)	28
2.	Tom Osborne (1973-97)	25
3.	Paul "Bear" Bryant (1959-82)	24
4.	Frank Beamer (active)	19
5.	LaVell Edwards (1978-94)	17

DEFENSIVE TRADITION

• Virginia Tech defensive coordinator Bud Foster is the architect of some of the nation's best defenses on an annual basis.

• Since the start of the 2000 season, Tech leads the nation in interceptions and is second in turnovers gained. Check out these numbers Foster's crew has put up:

Most Interceptions Forced (2000-current)

1.	Virginia Tech	231
2.	Boston College	217
3.	Oklahoma	211

Game 1: Hokies Rally Late to Down Jackets in Overtime

Georgia Tech

17

No. 16 Virginia Tech

OT 20

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.

Sept. 3, 2012 • Attendance: 65,632

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Cody Journell booted a 17-yard field goal in overtime to give No. 16 Virginia Tech a heart-pounding 20-17 victory over ACC rival Georgia Tech before a sold out Monday night crowd at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

It was also Journell who got the Hokies to the extra period by hitting a 41-yard game-tying field goal as time expired in regulation play. That kick capped a frantic six-play, 51-yard drive that started with just 44 seconds remaining.

The two teams saved most of their offensive fireworks for the end of the game, combining for 292 yards of offense in the fourth quarter and overtime after putting up a combined total of 322 yards during the first three periods of the contest. The Yellow Jackets took a 10-7 lead just three minutes into the fourth quarter with a field goal. The teams then traded touchdowns before Journell's decisive field goals.

Quarterback Logan Thomas passed for two touchdowns and 230 yards for the Hokies during the win. He also added 40 yards on the ground. On the defensive side, mike linebacker Jack Tyler led three Virginia Tech defenders with double-digit tackles. Tyler finished with 17, while whip linebacker Jeron Gouveia-Winslow and tackle Derrick Hopkins had 11 apiece.

Game Notes

- Six Hokie players made their first collegiate starts on offense or defense in the game. Nick Becton (OT), Vinston Painter (OT), David Wang (OG), Michael Holmes (TB) and Ryan Malleck (TE) were the first-timers on offense, while Kyshoen Jarrett (ROV) was the lone defensive player.

- The game was the first overtime game in Lane Stadium history. The Hokies ended their 2011 season with an overtime loss to Michigan in the Sugar Bowl and have played in a total of five overtime contests, posting a 3-2 record.

- Georgia Tech won the time of possession battle, but Virginia Tech won the game. It's the first time in the last six meetings that the team that didn't win the TOP battle didn't win the game.

- The Hokies went with the same five offensive lineman for every offensive snap.

No. 15 Virginia Tech

42

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.
Sept. 8, 2012 • Attendance: 65,632

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Virginia Tech overcame another slow start before getting its offense on track and piling up 419 yards on the way to a 42-7 non-conference victory over Austin Peay at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Tech managed just seven points during the first 24:25 of the game and had only 32 yards on the ground when Tony Gregory blocked an Austin Peay punt. The play provided a spark for the Hokies who went on to score touchdowns on five of their next seven possessions. Tech ended up amassing 419 yards of total offense, including 187 yards on the ground.

Quarterback Logan Thomas ran for one touchdown and passed for two more in the win. He connected on 15 of 23 passes for 212 yards. Number two quarterback Mark Leal completed all three of his passes for 20 yards. Senior Dyrrell Roberts caught five balls for 50 yards in the contest, while fellow seniors Randall Dunn and Corey Fuller grabbed touchdown passes.

Defensively, the Hokies limited Austin Peay to 221 yards overall and posted 10 tackles behind the line. Junior Kyle Fuller and freshman Donaldven Manning picked off passes as Tech held the Governors to just 62 yards through the air.

Game Notes

- Kyshoen Jarrett returned a punt 46 yards to set up Virginia Tech's first touchdown of the game. The sophomore rover also chipped in six tackles, including 1.5 for loss.

- Six players dressed for the first time in their collegiate careers: David Mellstrom, Griffin Hite, Dadi Nicolas, Justin Taylor, Greg Gadell and E.L. Smiling.

- Michael Holmes scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 2-yard run in the first quarter, then added his second in the third period with a 9-yard burst.

- Tight end Randall Dunn had three catches against the Governors. His 39 yards receiving were a personal best. One of his catches went for a 13-yard touchdown.

- Junior tailback Tony Gregory blocked his second career punt and scored his first career rushing touchdown.

Game 3: Panthers Take it to Hokies at Heinz Field

No. 13 Virginia Tech

Pittsburgh

Heinz Field • Pittsburgh, Pa.
Sept. 15, 2012 • Attendance: 48,032

PITTSBURGH, Pa. – The University of Pittsburgh drove 75 yards for a touchdown on its opening possession and never looked back on the way to a thorough 35-17 victory over nationally ranked Virginia Tech at Heinz Field.

The Panthers scored on three of their first four possessions, mixing strong running performances by tailbacks Rushel Snell and Ray Graham with an effective passing attack. Pitt posted 202 yards of offense in the first quarter in building a 14-0 lead and held a 21-3 advantage at the half.

Tech aided Pittsburgh's cause by committing four first-half turnovers, three in Pitt territory and the other at the Hokies' 20. A fourth-quarter interception by cornerback Antone Exum at the Pitt 36 gave Tech an opportunity to get back in the game, but the Hokies stalled and the Panthers marched 88 yards on 15 plays for a clinching touchdown.

The Hokies compiled 324 yards of offense on the day but allowed 537 yards, including 254 on the ground.

Game Notes

- Tech quarterback Logan Thomas suffered the first three-interception game of his collegiate career. All three of the picks came in the first half, but none led to Pittsburgh points.

- Sophomore Kyshoen Jarrett, who hails from Pennsylvania, returned a punt 94 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. It was the second-longest punt return in school history behind Frank Loria's 95-yard return against Miami in 1967.

- Quarterback Logan Thomas and receiver Marcus Davis teamed up on an 85-yard touchdown pass. The play ranks as the fourth-longest TD pass in school history and ties for the fifth longest pass play at Tech.

- The loss stopped Tech's school- and ACC-record string of consecutive wins in true road games at 13. The streak was also the longest in the nation.

THOMAS THE TANK

• Quarterback Logan Thomas may be the tallest starting signal caller in school history, but he certainly had some shoes to fill in replacing four-year starter and 2010 ACC Player of the Year Tyrod Taylor last season. All Taylor did in four years was lead Tech to three ACC titles, set a school record for wins by a quarterback (34), as well as marks in total offense, passing yards and many more.

• Thomas showed last year he was more than up for the task, breaking Taylor's school record for total offense in a season with 3,482 yards. He also became just the second quarterback in school history to pass for over 3,000 yards in a season and tied the school mark for rushing touchdowns in a season by a quarterback with 11.

• After a breakout 2011 in which he earned second-team All-ACC honors, the 6-6, 254-pounder who wears a size 16 or 17 shoe depending on the make (17 cleat; 16 regular shoe), is poised to pick up where he left off last season.

• The redshirt junior was recruited as a tight end, but was moved to quarterback just before his first preseason camp and began the process of being groomed for this season.

• Thomas was a standout basketball player at Brookville High and received scholarship offers to play basketball at JMU, Duquesne, Liberty, Akron, Richmond and Tulane but he decided to focus on football. He's also an avid golfer who likes to hit the links whenever he has free time.

• Thomas already has two fourth-quarter, game-winning touchdown drives (East Carolina, Miami). He completed 23 of 25 passes for 310 yards and three scores along with two rushing scores to lead the Hokies back to the win over Miami last year. His completion percentage of 92 percent in that game is a single-game record under head coach Frank Beamer (min. 20 attempts). For his career, he has thrown for 3,827 yards and 24 touchdowns, completing 58.8 percent of his passes, and has rushed for 12 more touchdowns.

NEW FACES IN THE BACKFIELD

• While the Tech offense lost Ryan Williams and Darren Evans (2010) and David Wilson (2011) to the NFL over the past two years, the Hokies will still boast a talented arsenal under running backs coach Shane Beamer.

• Michael Holmes appears to be one of several who have a bright future for the Hokies. After redshirting last year, the Harrisonburg, Va., product put together a good spring session and preseason to earn the starting nod. True freshman J.C. Coleman, at only 5-8, entered Tech in January after graduating early and reaped the benefits of a spring practice. Martin Scales, a converted fullback, brings a bruising running style to the position and could see action in short-yardage situations.

• Tony Gregory is perhaps the fastest of all the backs when healthy, but he is returning after having a second surgery to repair an ACL injury. True freshman Trey Edmunds, son of former NFL Pro Bowler Farrell Edmonds, will begin his career at tailback and may redshirt this season, but could eventually also play linebacker for the Hokies.

A REWARD FOR GOOD GRADES

- The Tech football team eats its meals in order of grade-point average range. Those players who have graduated, as well as those players who maintain the highest grade-point average, eat all team meals first. Coach Beamer invites each player to eat, calling out his name and his GPA range, starting with the highest.

THE LEADER OF THE D-LINE

- Junior defensive end James Gayle had a breakout season at his defensive end position, earning All-ACC honors. He had 38 tackles, including 12.5 tackles for loss and seven sacks, along with 20 quarterback hurries last year.

- A physical monster, the 260-pound Hampton, Va., product posted a position-record 39.5-inch vertical and a 4.44 40-time this past offseason.

- Gayle didn't seriously take up the sport of football until his sophomore year at Bethel High in Hampton. And he didn't play that season because of a hamstring injury.

- But his late start hasn't hurt because of the good genes passed down to him. Gayle's dad, Jimmy, played running back at Ohio State from 1979-82, and was named the 1981 Liberty Bowl most outstanding player.

- His uncle, Shaun Gayle, played 12 seasons in the NFL (1984-95) and was a member of the Chicago Bears squad that won Super Bowl XX in 1985. He also owns the distinction of returning the shortest punt for a touchdown in NFL history, when he returned a punt 5 yards for a touchdown against the New York Giants in a 1985 divisional playoff victory.

RUSHING = OUTCOME?

- Under head coach Frank Beamer (312 games), the Hokies are 184-34-2 when outrushing their opponents, 26-65 when being outrushed and 1-0 when the rushing total is even.

- In Tech's current 19-year bowl run (since 1993), Tech is 164-19 when outrushing its opponents, 22-40 when being outrushed and 1-0 when the rushing total is even.

- In its current 19-year bowl run (since 1993), Tech is 108-7 when rushing for 200 yards or more.

- Since the start of the 1999 season, Tech is 119-12 when outrushing its opponent and 15-28 when being outrushed.

THE BIG MAN IN THE MIDDLE

- Junior Andrew Miller took over as the center last season and is the lone returning starter on this year's line. The Bassett, Va., native was a standout wrestler in high school and has competed for the Hokies' nationally ranked wrestling squad. Miller was a two-time Virginia Group AA state champion and was the No. 3-ranked heavyweight by W.I.N. Magazine following his senior year. He was also a first-team all-state selection in football.

- The Rimington Award candidate started all 14 games for the Hokies last year, playing over 900 offensive snaps.

A FAMILY ATMOSPHERE

- Defensive tackles Antoine and Derrick Hopkins are just two of numerous Hokies on the roster to have family ties to the Tech football program.

- Redshirt seniors Vinston Painter and Randall Dunn are cousins as are redshirt junior Logan Thomas and redshirt sophomore Zack McCray.

- Linebacker Tariq Edwards is the son of former Hokie football player Bo Campbell, who lettered from 1989-92. George George III is a walk-on whose father, George, was on the Tech team in the 1970s.

- Freshman Alston Smith is the son of former Hokie and NFL Hall of Famer Bruce Smith, while Martin Scales is the cousin of former Hokies Orion and Cam Martin.

- There are seven players on the team with brothers who either are playing or did play at Virginia Tech. The Hopkins Brothers (Antoine and Derrick) started up front along the defensive line the first five games last year until Antoine was hurt. David Wang is the younger brother of former offensive tackle Ed Wang and redshirt sophomore lineman Mark Shuman is the younger brother of former starting center and current weight room assistant director Ryan Shuman. Additionally, redshirt freshman Ronny Vandyke is joined on the team this year by his brother, Devin Vandyke.

- Kyle Fuller is a junior defensive back who started last year for the Hokies. He is joined on the team by his brother, Corey Fuller, who ran track at Kansas for two seasons before transferring to Tech in 2010. Both are younger brothers of former Hokie Vincent Fuller, who played six seasons with the Tennessee Titans.

- True freshman Zach Snell is the son of former Hokie wide receiver Donald Wayne Snell (1984-86) and the nephew of former Hokie receiver Sidney Snell (1977-80). He is also the cousin of Tech freshman quarterback Brendan Motley. Freshman punter Hunter Windmuller is the nephew of the late Denny Windmuller, a defensive back for the Hokies who lettered in 1978 and 1979.

TECH'S KICKING TRADITION

• Junior Cody Journell is back after a solid 2011 campaign, one in which he bucked the recent Tech tradition of relying on senior walk-on kickers. Last season was the first time in five seasons, Tech didn't rely on a senior walk-on for the kicking duties. In 2006, Brandon Pace went 18-for-19 on field goals en route to second-team All-ACC honors. In 2007, it was Jud Dunlevy, who went 21-for-26 on the season. In 2008, Dustin Keys set a school record with 23 made field goals. In 2009, it was Matt Waldron's turn and he responded by making 20-of-23 field goals and scoring 108 points en route to first-team All-ACC honors.

• And in 2010, Chris Hazley picked up where the others left off, hitting 21-of-22 field goals, including a school-record (for a single season) 21 in a row.

• The last four were one-year wonders, each winning the job in their final season, and each going on to score over 100 points.

• Over the last six+ seasons, Tech's starting field goal kickers have combined to make 120 of 140 field-goal attempts (86 percent) and produce 618 points with three earning All-ACC honors.

• This year, Cody Journell holds down the job once again. He took a different route as he was a scholarship signee in February of 2009 and redshirted before serving as a backup in 2010.

• He is a local product who hails from Ripplemead, about 30 minutes from campus. He came in with impressive credentials after earning prep All-America honors coming out of nearby Giles High School.

• After redshirting as a freshman in 2009, Journell was slowed by a hip flexor in the 2010 spring drills and never could make a serious run for the job. But after a strong spring, he earned the job last year and didn't look back en route to honorable mention All-ACC honors. He started this season with a bang, hitting a 41-yard field goal as time expired in regulation against Georgia Tech and then hit the game-winner in overtime.

• Journell is the first Tech principal place-kicker to sign an NLI and come in on scholarship since Shayne Graham signed with the Hokies in 1996 and went on to earn first-team All-Big East Conference honors in all four seasons as Tech's kicker before going on to a standout NFL career.

• Journell was 14-for-17 last season on field goals (making his last 10 attempts) and 43-for-44 on extra points.

TAKING CARE OF WALK-ONS

• Former walk-on John Engelberger was a starter for the San Francisco 49ers and Denver Broncos, and John Burke played in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1987. Cody Grimm went from a walk-on, to a starter, to an All-American, and finally to an NFL Draft pick of Tampa Bay in 2009.

• Current Tech walk-ons who have earned scholarships include Michael Branthover, Jack Tyler, Joey Phillips, Martin Scales, Trey Gresh and Corey Fuller.

• Grimm and Will Montgomery (C, Washington Redskins) are both former Hokie walk-ons who started in the NFL last year.

GETTIN' IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

• Of the 17 seniors on the 2012 roster, there are 13 Hokie graduates, with three others slated to graduate in December and one scheduled to graduate in May.

• Here's how the current seniors, listed alphabetically, stand: Nick Becton (graduated); Marcus Davis (graduated); Randall Dunn (graduated); George George (graduated); Jeron Gouveia-Winslow (graduated);

• Additionally, juniors Antone Exum and David Wang have graduated (business degrees in three years) to bring the total number of graduates on the roster to 15, the most in the FBS this year (Pitt is second with 12).

• In nine of the past 11 years, Tech has graduated at least 70 percent of its football class.

HOP AND SKIP

• Defensive tackles Antoine Hopkins and Derrick Hopkins started beside each other on the defensive line last year for the first five games before Antoine tore his ACL in the loss to Clemson. He's back and the two are reunited on the line.

BY THE NUMBERS

1992 ... was the last season Tech failed to block at least one punt in a season. The Hokies have blocked at least one kick in every season (26) under Coach Frank Beamer.

263 ... yards needed by quarterback Logan Thomas to pass Jim Druckenmiller (4,634 yds.) for eighth place in all-time total offense yards at Virginia Tech.

231 ... pass interceptions by the Hokies since the start of the 2000 season lead the nation.

147 ... average passing yards allowed per game by the Hokies ranks them eighth nationally in pass defense.

94 ... yard punt return by sophomore Kyshoen Jarrett against Pitt ranks as the longest scoring punt return by an ACC player since 1970 and the fourth-longest scoring punt return in ACC history. Dick Harris of South Carolina had a 97-yard return against UNC in 1970.

66-11 ... record during the month of September dating back to the start of Tech's bowl streak in 1993.

45 ... of the 59 Tech players who saw action at Pittsburgh have eligibility remaining, including 32 with two or more years left.

25.8 ... average yards on kickoff returns by freshman J.C. Coleman.

22 ... consecutive seasons the Hokies have scored at least one touchdown on defense or special teams.

20.4 ... average yards per catch on senior Marcus Davis' 12 receptions this season.

12 ... Tech players have already caught passes for the Hokies.

11.67 ... tackles per game by linebacker Jack Tyler tie him for 10th nationally in tackles.

11 ... touchdowns by Logan Thomas last season made him the first quarterback to lead the Hokies in touchdowns for a season since David Lamie in 1977.

9 ... quarterback Logan Thomas' current all-time rank at Virginia Tech in total offense (4,372), passing yards (3,827) and touchdown passes (24).

5 ... Tech's national standing in punt returns with an average of 26 yards per return.

2:51 ... the Hokies' time of possession during the fourth quarter at Pittsburgh.

- Antoine, known as "Hop," switched from No. 98 to No. 56 in 2010, a number he wore in high school. Derrick, the sophomore known as "Skip," will again be wearing Antoine's old No. 98. The two have a younger brother nicknamed "Jump" to complete the trio.

- Derrick started all 14 games for the Hokies last season, registering 51 tackles, including five for loss and three sacks.

- The last brothers to play side-by-side for the Hokies were Blake and Brett Warren at linebacker in the mid 2000s.

- Other notable brother combinations starting together on the same side of the ball were Orion and Cam Martin (defensive end and whip linebacker, respectively) in the late 2000s; Kevin and Jonathan Lewis, starting defensive tackles side-by-side in 2002, and offensive linemen T.J. (RT) and Todd (LG) Washington in 1996.

HOKIE PRIDE

- Virginia Tech football has always prided itself on taking care of its players before, during and after their times in Blacksburg. A testament to the family atmosphere created is the roster of former Hokie players serving in some sort of capacity with the football team in the athletic department.

Frank Beamer (head coach)

Shane Beamer (asst. coach)

Cornell Brown (asst. coach)

Mike Burnop (radio color commentator)

Cory Byrd (SAASS coordinator)

John Candelas (G.A. coach)

David Everett (Hokie Club)

Jarrett Ferguson (strength & conditioning coach)

John Graves (G.A.; weight room)

Torrian Gray (asst. coach)

Jermaine Holmes (director, SAASS)

James Hopper (G.A. coach)

Jimmy Martin (G.A.; coach)

John Moody (Hokie Club)

Mark Muncey (G.A.; weight room)

Keith Short (strength & conditioning coach)

- During Beamer's time in Blacksburg, the other 11 ACC programs have employed a combined 52 head coaches.

- Stanford has had eight head coaches over the past 26 years, the most among the 67 programs (six major conferences plus Notre Dame) with automatic BCS qualifying privileges.

- Five of his nine assistant coaches, plus three of the four GAs, played for him either at Murray State (Bud Foster, Charley Wiles) or Virginia Tech (Shane Beamer, Cornell Brown, Torrian Gray, plus GAs John Candelas, Jimmy Martin and James Hopper).

THE FREAK

- Senior wide receiver Marcus Davis is poised to have a major impact on the offense this year after finally settling in at the position.

- At 6-foot-4 and 230 pounds, the freakishly athletic Davis runs a 4.37-second 40-yard dash and set a Tech program record with a 44-inch vertical jump in the spring, making him a big target for Logan Thomas to find anywhere, but particularly on jump ball situations in the end zone.

- In the summer of 2010, Davis worked on his catching skills by catching 100 balls a day. Many of those balls were caught with tennis balls taped to the palms of his hands to make him catch the ball with his fingertips.

- Davis came to Tech as a quarterback, but quickly switched to wide receiver. He hurt his right shoulder just four practices into the 2008 preseason camp and underwent surgery.

- After taking a redshirt year, he was moved back to quarterback the next spring, but was moved back out wide with just a week left in the spring and has been a permanent resident of the receiving corps since.

- His first college reception was an 80-yard touchdown catch in 2009 against Boston College. He took a short pass at Pittsburgh, broke a tackle and raced for an 85-yard score, finishing his day with 129 yards receiving.

- For his career, he has caught 66 passes for 1,119 yards and nine touchdowns.

ONE MORE GO AT IT

- Senior wide receiver Dyrell Roberts is looking to return to form this fall after having season-ending injuries each of the past two seasons.

- Roberts, a speedster who was one of the top kickoff return men in 2009, was hit on the thigh on a return in the Georgia Tech game in 2010. After the game, it was bruised, but nothing out of the ordinary. As the night went on and the pain increased, he was finally rushed to Montgomery Regional Hospital and had a series of surgeries over the next week to relieve pressure in his thigh from compartment syndrome. Without the surgeries, he could've suffered permanent muscle damage.

- Roberts missed the rest of the season and practiced sparingly in the spring, but returned last fall and broke the school record for career kickoff return yards with a 25-yarder against Appalachian State.

- But against Arkansas State last year, he suffered another tough injury on a kickoff return when he broke his left arm on the opening return. He missed the rest of the season, but because he hadn't redshirted yet, he was eligible for a medical hardship waiver and returns this season.

- For his career, he has caught 72 passes for 1,073 yards and five touchdowns. His biggest is a sliding catch in the back of the end zone in 2009 against Nebraska with 21 seconds left to help clinch a big comeback victory.

BACK FROM LISFRANC SPRAINS

- Virginia Tech lost two starting linebackers last year to the rare Lisfranc foot sprains, but both are back this fall after recovering from surgeries. Outside linebacker Jeron Gouveia-Winslow hurt his foot against Miami and starting inside linebacker Bruce Taylor hurt his foot two weeks later against Boston College. This is the same injury that ended Houston Texans' quarterback Matt Leinert's season a year ago.

- Taylor, a senior, was thrust into the starting lineup last year after 2009's starter, Barquell Rivers, tore a quad tendon while lifting in spring of 2010. In 2010, Taylor led the team with 91 tackles, including 15.5 for loss, and was leading the team again last year before suffering the injury.

- While productive on the field, Taylor also helps out with the Special Olympics of Southwest Virginia off the field.

- After a tough season in 2010 in his first year as a starter, Gouveia-Winslow seemed to turn the corner last year before his injury. The senior had nine tackles, including one for a loss and five quarterback hurries early on and recorded an interception. In two games this season, he has 15 tackles, third on the team.

MAKING THE MOVE

• Junior Antone Exum moved back and forth between rover and free safety last season, two positions similar enough that a move could be made seamlessly.

• But this past spring, Exum made a move to cornerback in an experiment to try and get the best players in the secondary and he flourished. He played so well in his first ever action at corner that defensive secondary coach Torrian Gray plans on making the move permanent.

• Exum is a big proponent of hot yoga and takes classes either in Blacksburg or back home in the Richmond area. He credits the classes with helping with his cardio, flexibility, loosening his hips and his core strength – all things vital to a successful cornerback.

PLAYING THROUGH THE PAIN

• Junior linebacker Tariq Edwards played through immense pain most of the second half of last season. The Cheraw, S.C., native underwent surgery after the season to put a rod in his left tibia to relieve pain from a stress fracture in his shin and missed spring practice.

• Even in pain, Edwards made a career-best 71 tackles last season, including 11.5 tackles for a loss and 3.5 sacks, along with two interceptions as he started all 14 games at linebacker to help hold together a front seven riddled by injuries. He suffered the stress fracture late in the season and played through it in the Sugar Bowl. He had another procedure done in the preseason, which set him back as he's yet to see the field this season.

• Edwards is the son of former Hokie receiver and punt returner Bo Campbell, who played for the Hokies from 1989-92. Campbell received the Long Distance AT&T Award for leading the country in average punt return yards (18.2 yds) in 1991, the fall after Tariq was born.

READY FOR ACTION

• Redshirt sophomore Brent Benedict will see plenty of action at offensive guard this year and the Jacksonville, Fla., native is ready to roll after two long seasons.

• A highly ranked offensive line product at The Bolles School, Benedict was a SuperPrep All-American and was rated as the No. 76 player in the country and the No. 12 offensive tackle in the country by Rivals. He missed some of his senior season with a knee injury, but still signed with the University of Georgia.

• He redshirted as a true freshman, while undergoing rehabilitation for a knee injury suffered in high school, but was still a recipient of the Walter C. Troutman Football Scholarship Endowment that year. He decided to transfer to Virginia Tech last summer and sat out last year due to NCAA transfer rules.

• Now three years removed from high school and a tough road to recovery from a knee injury, Benedict will see his first game action since 2009.

• Every time he takes the field, Benedict says he is playing for his brother, Heath, who died unexpectedly of an enlarged heart in March of 2008, just weeks before the NFL Draft. The older Benedict, also an offensive lineman, originally signed with the University of Tennessee, but transferred to Newberry (S.C.) College, where he was a two-time Little All-American. He was projected as a mid-rounder in the NFL Draft and was the first Division II player since 2004 to take part in the Senior Bowl.

A UNIQUE SUMMER SCHOOL EXPERIENCE

• Defensive tackle Derrick Hopkins and defensive end Zack McCray took part in a unique summer school experience this past summer, joining a group of Virginia Tech student-athletes in spending a portion of the summer in the Dominican Republic as part of a university-designed study abroad course about leadership and putting leadership initiatives into practice.

• For 10 days, the group visited poorer parts of the country to work with underprivileged children and helped kids within different communities. The student athletes also coordinated sports camps to expose kids there to different sports.

• Along with Hopkins and McCray, the group included volleyball players Liz Trinchere and Cara Baarendse, women's tennis player Carol Kahoun, women's track and field runner Madalyn Nuckols, women's swimmer Meaghan Holloway, women's soccer player Katie DeTuro, men's soccer player Nick Smirniotopolous and wrestling All-American Devin Carter.

IMPRESSIVE GENES

• Offensive guard David Wang comes from athletic parents, both of whom were members of the Chinese Olympic team.

• David had surgery on his shoulder during preseason and redshirted in 2009 before seeing the field in five games in 2010 as the top backup at left guard. He was the top backup at right guard last year before fracturing his right foot against East Carolina, causing him to miss the rest of the season. While laid up with the foot injury, the avid video gamer ascended to No. 35 in the world rankings for Call of Duty on the Xbox 360 console, playing 6-8 hours a day. He would only take breaks for schoolwork and "because I was hungry."

• After working hard in the offseason, the junior now takes over at left guard on an inexperienced offensive line.

• He is the brother of former Hokie Ed Wang, who made history in April of 2010 by becoming the first Chinese American to be drafted by an NFL team when Buffalo took him in the fourth round. Ed and David were featured on NFL China in 2010 as a crew came over from Beijing to do a story on American football.

• Tech also holds the distinction of having the first Korean American drafted by an NFL team as Eugene Chung was taken by New England in the first round of the 1992 Draft.

THE COMPUTER GUY

• At 6-1, 300 pounds, senior defensive tackle Antoine Hopkins may be the biggest, yet athletic, computer guy out there. He's also proud of the fact and recently even started his own computer business, taking infected computers and cleaning off viruses, as well as performing other routine maintenance items on computers. Hopkins suffered a torn ACL last year early on and missed the rest of the season, but spent part of the fall working with the I.T. staff in the athletics department in his spare time, learning more about the industry.

• With his return to full speed this fall, he provides yet another big body in a deep defensive line that is expected to be a major force this season.

THE VERSATILE FULLER

• Junior cornerback Kyle Fuller may be one of the best corners in the country, but might also be one of the smallest outside linebackers in the country, as well.

• At 6-0, 181 pounds, Fuller can move between corner and Tech's nickel back, which essentially replaces the outside linebacker, in certain situations. As a true freshman, he started six games - mostly in the nickel spot - and recorded 32 tackles, including 4.0 for loss, with six pass break ups and a forced fumble.

• Last year, he flourished in the role as he led the team in tackles for loss last season with 14.5. He had 65 tackles, including 4.5 sacks, two interceptions, seven pass break ups, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. He also pounced on a blocked punt in the end zone for a touchdown against Appalachian State.

• The Baltimore, Md., native is a strong open-field tackler with great closing speed. He made a game-saving tackle against Duke last year by stopping Blue Devils quarterback Sean Renfree for a loss on fourth down late in the fourth quarter when Duke was driving for a potential game-winning score.

• He was a second-team All-ACC selection at corner last season and has started the 2012 season strong. Against Georgia Tech, he intercepted a pass in overtime to set up the Hokies' winning points and chipped in a tackle for loss, as well.

• He is also a nominee for the Lott Trophy, given to the top defensive player who also

VIRGINIA TECH IS "DBU"

They like to call themselves "D-Block" or "DBU" and there's no denying the recent success (1993-present) of Virginia Tech's defensive backs.

Below is a list of 24 Hokie D-backs who have made their mark on the professional ranks.

Jimmy Williams	CB	2005 unanimous A-A; 2nd-round draft pick of Atlanta in 2006 embodies the integrity, character, academic accomplishments and community involvement associated with the Hall of Fame linebacker whose name is on the award.

- This year, he is the veteran in a strong, but young secondary as he tries to become the next great Virginia Tech cornerback. Virginia Tech has produced five All-America cornerbacks over the last nine seasons: DeAngelo Hall (2003), Jimmy Williams (2005), Brandon Flowers (2006 and 2007), Victor “Macho” Harris (2008) and Jayron Hosley (2010).

- Tech also has had at least one defensive back selected in the NFL Draft in each of the last 13 years after Hosley was taken in the third round of April’s Draft by the New York Giants. He joins 16 other defensive backs taken since 1999. Eight have gone in the first three rounds: Ike Charlton in 2000, Cory Bird in 2001, DeAngelo Hall in 2004, Eric Green in 2005, Jimmy Williams in 2006, Aaron Rouse in 2007, Brandon Flowers in 2008 and Hosley in 2011.

JACK IN THE BOX

- Linebacker Jack Tyler has proven to be quite the find for defensive coordinator Bud Foster, who had a heavy hand in recruiting Tyler as a recruited walk-on. Tyler has been invaluable for the Hokies, coming up big in several key games. In the 2010 ACC Championship game, he filled in for an injured Bruce Taylor in the second half against Florida game and contributed seven tackles – three of which went for losses. Last year, he racked up 12 tackles in the win at Georgia Tech and topped that this season with a career-high 17 tackles against the Yellow Jackets in the Hokies’ overtime win to earn ACC Linebacker of the Week honors. The 17 total stops are the most by a Tech defender since Michael Crawford had 18 against Texas A&M in 2003.

- Through three games, the sophomore has 35 tackles, including 1.5 for loss.

REPLACING BOYKIN AND COALE

- Virginia Tech is replacing wide receivers Jarrett Boykin and Danny Coale, the most productive duo in terms of receptions in ACC history. Boykin left Tech with a school-record 184 catches for a record 2,844 yards, while Coale was second in both categories with 165 catches for 2,658 yards. Together, they caught 349 passes for 5,502 yards and 26 touchdowns.

- After suffering a loss in game one, replacing them is a trio of seniors in Dyrell Roberts, Marcus Davis and Corey Fuller, along with a gaggle of freshmen and sophomores.

- Roberts has had two season-ending injuries the past two seasons, both coming on kickoff returns, but is best remembered for his sliding, 11-yard touchdown catch in the back of the end zone with 21 seconds left to help Tech rally and beat Nebraska 16-15 in 2009.

- Fuller ran track at the University of Kansas, competing in the triple jump, before transferring to Tech to play football. After sitting out a year due to transfer rules, he earned a scholarship after last season. That decision proved to be the right one after in the season-opening win against Georgia Tech as he caught five passes for a career-high 82 yards, including a big 4th-down grab on the final drive that sent the game to overtime.

- Davis, who came to Tech as a quarterback, averaged a team-best 17 yards per catch last year. He is a big threat who leads the team with 299 all-purpose yards through three games.

- Senior D.J. Coles had a personal-best 36 catches for 480 yards and three touchdowns in 2011, but had offseason knee surgery which slowed him down. He tried to come back, but re-injured the knee in the first game against Georgia Tech and will apply for a medical hardship waiver to return next year.

DOING GOOD DEEDS

- Head coach Frank Beamer is a strong believer in giving back to the community. He founded Herma’s Readers in 2008 and this year, the team will help raise money for the Wounded Warrior Project. Additionally, the team has raised money in the past to help support Breast Cancer Awareness and Ewing’s sarcoma cancer.

- Herma's Readers is a non-profit organization that promotes the power of reading and literacy to youngsters during their formative years, grades K-3. The organization was formed as a tribute to Tech head football coach Frank Beamer's late mother, Herma, a teacher for over 30 years in the Commonwealth of Virginia. Herma's Readers has delivered over 21,000 new and used books collected at Virginia Tech football games to youngsters throughout the Commonwealth. Currently, Coach Beamer's program has also dispersed more than $80,000 for new book purchases for children. That is a total of more than 53,000 new and used books.

- The Virginia Tech football team will also raise money to support the Wounded Warrior Project through the sale of camouflage Virginia Tech hats and wristbands. The Wounded Warrior Project was created to raise awareness and enlist the public's aid as well as provide direct programs for the needs of injured service members.

- Coach Beamer invited Ben Kiernan, through the Wounded Warrior Project, to join the Virginia Tech Football team at spring football practice March 30, showing the team a mock-up of the camo helmet to be worn for the Sept. 22 game against Bowling Green. Kiernan was a 1371 Combat Engineer for the Marines when he was injured on Sept. 16, 2010 in Afghanistan as part of an ambush during Operation Enduring Freedom. Kiernan is a graduate of Virginia Tech, receiving a B.A. in Urban Affairs in 2008.

MORE IMPORTANT THINGS THAN FOOTBALL

- Sophomore Kyshoen Jarrett may have the starting rover position locked down with his impressive play early on, but he knows there are way more important things in life than football.

- Jarrett's older brother, Daishawn Capers, has cerebral palsy and is legally blind. He is wheelchair-bound and needs help doing almost everything, relying on his brother and mother, Vinise Capers. In high school, Jarrett would often take care of Kaishawn, either getting him ready for school in the morning or by watching him during the evenings or part of a weekend when their mother was away.

- Though from Tannersville, Pa., Jarrett's mother and brother now live in North Carolina and come to almost every home game. Laishawn sits there waiting to hear his brother's name over the public address system, ready to cheer for his brother every time he makes a play.

- Jarrett is a converted cornerback who moved to the rover position in the spring and now starts there while also seeing time as a punt returner. At Pittsburgh, he broke off a 94-yard punt return for a touchdown, the second-longest return in school history and the longest under head coach Frank Beamer.

DID YOU KNOW ...

- Long-time equipment manager Lester Karlin and Assistant to the Head Coach Billy Hite are both in their 34th seasons on the Tech staff and have been on the sideline for 415 consecutive Tech games ... Offensive lineman Michael Via, who has seen game action at tackle, guard and center in his career, has already graduated with a degree in fisheries science and has aspirations to be a game warden ... Receiver Joshua Stanford is listed as from Lithonia, Ga., but the true freshman was born and raised in Canada. He is from Mississauga, Ontario and attended St. Marcellinus Secondary School through 10th grade before moving to Georgia ... Wide receiver E.L. Smiling's sister, Sheena Tosta, won a silver medal at the Beijing Olympics in the 400m hurdles ... Holder Trey Gresh started his own lawn cutting business when he was 15 ... Freshman punter A.J. Hughes played at the same high school as starting New York Giants punter Steve Weatherford, who was part of the Super Bowl Championship squad ... Receiver Demitri Knowles was born and raised in the Bahamas.

THE GAME ON RADIO

- All Virginia Tech football games can be heard throughout Virginia and much of the mid-Atlantic region on the Virginia Tech IMG Sports Network.

- Some of the region's most powerful radio stations combine to give Virginia Tech tremendous exposure throughout Virginia, Maryland, and Washington, D.C., and in parts of Tennessee, West Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Delaware, and Pennsylvania.

- Nine-time Virginia Sportscaster of the Year Bill Roth (play-by-play), Hokies' Hall of Famer Mike Burnop (analyst) and Adam Witten (scoreboard anchor) comprise Virginia Tech football's on-air broadcast crew.

- The 2012 season marks Roth and Burnop's 25th season together in the Virginia Tech radio booth, making them one of the longest-tenured active duos in the FBS.

- Coverage begins 90 minutes prior to kickoff with the Hardees Chicken Tenders Tailgate Show and the NTELOS Wireless Pre-Game Report. The game broadcast, presented by The Virginia Lottery is followed by the Kroger Point After, a fast-paced, 90-minute post-game scoreboard and interview program.

VIRGINIA TECH SPORTS TODAY

- Highlights of Tech's games, post-game interviews and other features can be seen on Virginia Tech Sports Today, Tech's weekly television magazine show presented by IMG College shown weekly in 11 markets throughout the mid-Atlantic region.

THE REDSKINS PIPELINE

- For all of Virginia Tech head coach Frank Beamer's awards, honors and accolades, he also has a streak that's little known, but incredible in its own right. Beamer has had at least one son of a former Washington Redskin on his roster for 16 consecutive years and that streak should continue on with the addition of freshman Alston Smith, son of Bruce Smith, to the roster this year.

- The streak was bolstered by a run of 10 straight years with a Warren on the roster (first Blake, then Brett, and then Beau) from 2001-2011.

HISTORY OF VIRGINIA TECH FOOTBALL

- Virginia Tech is in its 119th football season and has compiled a 692-435-46 all-time record in 1,173 games.
- Tech won its 650th game on Sept. 3, 2008, with a 20-17 win over Georgia Tech.
- The Hokies played their first football game on Oct. 21, 1892, with a 14-10 win over St. Albans in a game played on Tech's campus.
- Virginia Tech is tied for 15th among Division I schools in terms of all-time wins.
- The Hokies have compiled 14 10-win seasons, including eight in a row and 11 in the last 13 seasons.
- Tech has won conference football titles in the Southern Conference, the Big East Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

HISTORY OF LANE STADIUM/WORSHAM FIELD

- Virginia Tech's on-campus home since 1965, Lane Stadium/Worsham Field (65,632) is one of college football's most hostile venues.
- The Hokies have compiled an all-time record of 198-69-6 in 273 games at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field. The Hokies are 124-32-1 at home under Frank Beamer and 106-18 at home since the start of the 1996 season.
- The stadium is named for the late Edward H. Lane, a graduate of the university and a former member of the Board of Visitors. Lane headed an educational foundation project which raised more than $3 million for the original construction. Lane's personal donation was the first received by the fund.
- The field was officially dedicated on Sept. 5, 1992 in honor of Wes and Janet Worsham, longtime Hokie supporters from Kilmarnock, Va. The Worshams pledged $1 million to the university's Second Century Campaign. The Campaign raised over $18.6 million, almost $1.7 million more than the original goal.
- Lane Stadium has been sold out for 89 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against Virginia.
- The original cost of the stadium was $3.5 million with an original capacity of 40,000.
- The first game played in the new stadium was a freshman game on Sept. 24, 1965, an 8-8 tie between Tech and Maryland. The first varsity game was played a week later, on Oct. 2 with the Hokies beating William & Mary 9-7.

ALL-TIME BLACKSBURG RECORD

- In addition to its impressive record at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field (1965-present), Virginia Tech has made Blacksburg a very difficult place to play for opposing football teams.
- Tech has compiled a 358-100-13 record in 471 games in Blacksburg.
- Virginia Tech's first game on campus was its first game ever played, a 14-10 win over St. Albans on Oct. 21, 1892. The game was played on an open field behind the Barracks No. 1 (Lane Hall) on the northeast side of campus.
- A small, ungraded area near the present Memorial Chapel was assigned for both athletic and military drill use in 1894 and was known as Sheib Field, where Tech went 13-1. The area was enlarged in 1902 and became known as Gibboney Field, where the Hokies posted a 19-2 record.
- In 1909 the area was graded and leveled, the grandstand enlarged, and the name changed to Miles Field, where the Hokies went 60-3-3. Miles Field was used for football, baseball, and track until Miles Stadium was completed in 1926. Tech called Miles Stadium home from 1926-64, posting a 67-25-4 record.
- Miles Stadium was razed following the 1964 football season and was superseded by the present Lane Stadium.

BEAMERBALL

- During the Frank Beamer era at Tech, putting points on the scoreboard has always been a team effort — the offense, the defense and the special teams. It's called BeamerBall, and what sets it apart are the contributions of the defense and special teams.
- During Beamer's time, a player at every position on the defensive unit has produced at least one touchdown, and 36 different players have scored touchdowns while playing on Tech's special teams.
- Altogether, the defense and special teams have combined for 131 TDs since Beamer arrived in 1987, including 114 in Tech's past 235 games.
- Under Beamer, Tech's defense has scored 82 TDs, with 54 coming on pass interceptions, 26 on fumble returns and two on fumble recoveries. The special teams have added 49 TDs, including 17 on blocked punts, 19 on punt returns, eight on kickoff returns, four on blocked field goals and one on a fumble recovery.
- Fittingly, the trend started in Beamer's first game as Tech's head coach when true freshman Jon Jeffries returned a kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown against Clemson. It was the Hokies' first TD under Beamer, and it was the first of many scored by the special teams.
- Under Beamer, 82 different players on defense and special teams have scored TDs. Twenty-three of those players scored twice while Eddie Royal,

Xavier Adibi, Jason Lallis, Ike Charlton and Ricky Hall each had three scores, André Davis had four, Victor Harris had five and DeAngelo Hall had seven.

- Since the start of the 1993 season, Tech is 75-14 in games it scores at least one TD on defense or special teams. Tech is 79-24 under Beamer when scoring a non-offensive touchdown.

BEAMERBALL II

- Tech's tradition for blocking kicks is another part of BeamerBall. It was carried to new heights in 1998 with 10 blocks during the regular season and two more in the Hokies' Music City Bowl game against Alabama.
- Tech now has 129 blocks in Frank Beamer's 312 games as the head coach. The Hokies have blocked 64 punts (17 returned or recovered for TDs), 38 field goals and 27 extra points.
- The most prolific kick blockers under Beamer have been defensive lineman Bernard Basham (7 kicks) and safety Keion Carpenter (6 kicks). Basham blocked three field goals and four PATs, while Carpenter blocked six punts.
- During the Beamer era, Tech has blocked two kicks in a game 22 times, winning 16 of those games. Tech blocked two kicks against four different teams in 1998.

TOUCHDOWNS BY DEFENSE & SPECIAL TEAMS

- 1987: Jon Jeffries, 92-yd. kickoff return vs. Clemson; Don Stokes, recovered blocked punt in end zone vs. Syracuse; Randy Cockrell (ilb), 90-yd. interception return vs. Navy.
- 1988: Don Stokes, recovered blocked punt in end zone vs. Southern Miss; Jock Jones, recovered blocked punt in end zone vs. West Virginia; Roger Brown (cb), 55-yd. interception return vs. South Carolina; Leslie Bailey (ilb), 19-yd. interception return vs. South Carolina.
- 1989: Marcus Mickel, 90-yd. kickoff return vs. Clemson; Jock Jones (olb), 55-yd. interception return vs. Tulane; Roger Brown (cb), 55-yd. interception return vs. North Carolina State.
- 1990: The '90 season marked the first and only season to date during Beamer's tenure that Tech failed to score at least one TD on either defense or special teams.
- 1991: P.J. Preston (olb), recovered fumble in end zone vs. Oklahoma; Ken Landrum, 18-yd. blocked punt return vs. Cincinnati; Kirk Alexander (fs), 95-yd. interception return vs. Cincinnati.
- 1992: Tyronne Drakeford (cb), 40-yd. interception return vs. East Carolina; Tony Kennedy, 91-yd. kickoff return vs. Louisville; Ken Brown (olb), 18-yd. interception return vs. Rutgers.

VIRGINIA TECH'S 220-GAME SCORING STREAK

Virginia Tech's current 220-game scoring streak from 1995 to present stands as the 15th-longest in Division I-A college history. In the 219-game run, Tech scored on its first offensive possession 73 times, plus another three occasions where it scored on returns on its first touch of the game. The Hokies have scored in the first quarter 160 times during the streak, and have had it extended by halftime in 211 of the 220 games. Here's that list: (* — includes a blocked punt recovery in the end zone prior to the first offensive possession against Akron in 1995; an interception return prior to the first offensive possession at Clemson in 2007; and an interception return prior to the first offensive possession against Boston College in 2008):

Virginia Tech has a 170-50 record during the scoring streak, averaging 34.7 points in the wins and 19.8 points in the losses. The Hokies had only three occasions where they were delayed extending the streak until the fourth quarter. The last time came in 2005 in a 27-7 loss to No. 5 Miami at home. The latest Tech scored its first points in a game was with 6:58 left in the 2005 Sugar Bowl against Auburn, a game in which the Hokies went on to score another touchdown in the loss. The only other time came in a 2000 game at Miami where Tech didn't score until 12:23 left in the game and went on to score two more touchdowns in the loss. Here's a look at those occasions.

Date	Game	Opponent	Fourth Quarter Score (first if multiple scores)	Time Left (4Q)	Result
Nov. 4, 2000	67	at Miami	Lee Suggs 1 yd run	12:23	L, 21-41
Jan. 3, 2005	122	Auburn*	Josh Morgan 29 yd pass from Bryan Randall	6:58	L, 13-16
Nov. 5, 2005	131	Miami	Marcus Vick 2 yd run	8:06	L, 7-27

There have been seven occasions where Virginia Tech scored just once to continue the streak, by seven different players. Only once did Tech's lone score come in the fourth quarter of a game and that came in 2005 when Marcus Vick scored on a 5-yard run with 8:06 left in a 27-7 loss. A look at these seven times with one score.
