COACH FRANK BEAMER

Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech '69), whose Virginia Tech teams have posted a 192-64 record over the past 20+ seasons and have appeared in bowl games each year in that span, is in his 27th year as the head football coach at Tech and 33rd overall. Beamer has guided the Hokies to a 216-104-2 record and sits with an overall record of 258-127-4.

Under Beamer, Tech football has enjoyed unprecedented success with 20 consecutive bowl appearances, four ACC titles, five ACC Coastal Division crowns, three BIG EAST Conference titles, two "major" bowl victories, six BCS appearances and a trip to the national championship game.

Tech won the BIG EAST title in 1995 and 1999, and shared it in '96. Beamer was voted BIG EAST Coach of the Year by the league's coaches each of those seasons and was tabbed the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005.

In 1997, he was inducted into the Virginia Tech Sports Hall of Fame, becoming the first active coach at the university to be honored in that fashion. Following the 1999 season, he earned eight national coach of the year honors.

During his undergraduate days at Tech, Beamer started three years as a cornerback and played on the Hokies' 1966 and 1968 Liberty Bowl teams.

The 66-year-old Hillsville, Va., native began as an assistant at Radford High School from 1969 through 1971. Then, after one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Maryland, he went to The Citadel where he worked five seasons under Bobby Ross and one year under Art Baker. His last two years at The Citadel, Beamer was the defensive coordinator. In 1979, he went to Murray State as the defensive coordinator under Mike Gottfried. He was named head coach at MSU in 1981 and went on to compile a six-year record of 42-23-2.

In 1990, Beamer received a new contract and a substantial pay raise. He refused the raise, however, until a time that all classified and faculty employees of the university could have the same opportunity for pay raises. Most state salaries had been frozen at the time. When offered a pay increase in 2006, he did not sign the agreement until his assistant coaches were taken care of.

He is married to the former Cheryl Oakley of Richmond, Va. They have two children, Shane, a former member of his dad's football team at Virginia Tech and now the associate head coach/running backs coach at Virginia Tech; and daughter Casey, a 2003 graduate of Tech. He has three grandchildren, Sutton, Olivia and Hunter, children of Shane and his wife, Emily. Casey was married in 2012 to former Virginia Tech wrestler Canaan Prater.

Beamer was born in Mt. Airy, N.C., and grew up in Hillsville, Va. At Hillsville High, he earned 11 varsity letters as a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball.

An avid NASCAR fan, Beamer has been the official starter for races at Bristol Motor Speedway, Martinsville Speedway and Richmond International Raceway.

Beamer, who is the winningest active coach in the Football Bowl Subdivision with 258 victories, had his No. 25 jersey retired by Tech in a pregame ceremony before the Marshall game in 2002. He is sixth all-time among FBS coaches (min. 10 seasons at FBS school) in terms of all-time victories.

STABILITY AT THE TOP

• Frank Beamer, the first Tech alumnus to guide Virginia Tech's football program since the 1940s, has coached and won more football games at Tech than any other head coach.

• Not one of the 125 active Division I-A (FBS) head football coaches has been at his current school longer than Beamer.

WHAT'S A HOKIE?

That's the most frequently asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

Following is the "Old Hokie" yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

• Tech has scored in a school-record 230 straight football games, beginning with a win over Miami on Sept. 23, 1995. The streak began after a 16-0 loss to Cincinnati in 1995.

• The previous school record was 66 straight games (1970-76). During its current streak, Tech has scored 13 or more in all but 10 games.

SELLOUT STREAK

• Virginia Tech's Lane Stadium/Worsham Field has been sold out for 93 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against Virginia.

DEFENSIVE TRADITION

• Virginia Tech defensive coordinator Bud Foster is the architect of some of the nation's best defenses on an annual basis. Since the start of the 2000 season, Tech leads the nation in interceptions and is third in turnovers gained. Check out these numbers Foster's crew has put up:

BY THE NUMBERS

6,096 ... career yards passing by Logan Thomas currently place him third among Tech players. Thomas needs 413 yards to pass Bryan Randall (6,508) for second place and 922 yards to break the record held by Tyrod Taylor (7,017).

1984 ... the last season in which Virginia Tech did not block at least one kick.

1,015 ... career rushing yards for Logan Thomas rank him fifth all-time among Tech quarterbacks.

595 ... kickoff return yards for Demetri Knowles last season were the most for a Tech player since Billy Hardee had 758 yards in 1973.

290.3 ... Over the last nine years, Virginia Tech ranks third in the nation in total defense. During that 121-game span, the Hokies have allowed their opponents an average of just 290.3 yards per game. Only Alabama (263.43) and LSU (287.25) have allowed fewer yards in that time, and the Crimson Tide and Tigers have played fewer games (118) during that span than have the Hokies.

83 ... different players on special teams or defense have scored at least one touchdown during Coach Frank Beamer's 26 seasons at Tech.

36 ... receptions for D.J. Coles in his last full season of play (2011).

30 ... career tackles for loss for James Gayle is tops on this year's Tech team.

13.89 ... average yards per punt return for Kyshoen Jarrett last season ranked ninth nationally.

12 ... players on the Hokies' roster that have already earned their undergraduate degree.

7.62 ... tackles for loss per game last year tied Tech for ninth-best nationally.

5 ... national ranking for the Tech defense last season in third down conversion defense (28.22 pct.)

4 ... players on Tech's current roster who scored touchdowns last season.

THOMAS THE TANK

• Senior quarterback Logan Thomas may be the tallest starting signal caller in school history, but he certainly had some shoes to fill in replacing four-year starter and 2010 ACC Player of the Year Tyrod Taylor. All Taylor did in four years was lead Tech to three ACC titles, set a school record for wins by a quarterback (34), and set career marks in total offense, passing yards and many more.

• Thomas has shown he is more than capable, breaking Taylor's school record for total offense in a season with 3,482 yards as a sophomore and then breaking his own record last year with 3,500 yards.

• The redshirt senior, who earned second-team All-ACC honors as a sophomore, was recruited as a tight end, but was moved to quarterback just before his first preseason camp and began the process of being groomed for the position.

• Thomas was a standout basketball player at Brookville High and received scholarship offers to play basketball at JMU, Duquesne, Liberty, Akron, Richmond and Tulane, but he decided to focus on football. He's also an avid golfer who likes to hit the links whenever he has free time.

UNCERTAINTY IN THE BACKFIELD

• While the Tech offense lost Ryan Williams and Darren Evans (2010) and David Wilson (2011) to the NFL over the past three years, the Hokies still boast a talented arsenal under running backs coach Shane Beamer.

• Sophomore J.C. Coleman, at only 5-7, took over as Tech's starting tailback midway through last season and led the tailbacks with 492 yards rushing and had two rushing scores. He also had 21 receptions for 132 yards and a score and averaged 21.6 yards per kick return.

• Trey Edmunds was impressive last preseason as a true freshman and almost earned a spot on the dress squad, but coaches ultimately felt they would be better off with him redshirting. He used the year to get bigger and after a breakout spring session, he is in the running for the starting spot. The son of NFL Pro Bowler Ferrell Edmunds, the younger Edmunds posted a 4.37 in the 40 and had a 375-pound front squat this past offseason.

• Joel Caleb was recruited as an athlete coming out of Clover Hill High in Midlothian after playing six different positions. The prep All-American spent last year

RUSHING = OUTCOME?

• Under head coach Frank Beamer (322 games), the Hokies are 187-38-2 when outrushing their opponents, 28-66 when being outrushed and 1-0 when the rushing total is even.

• In Tech's current 20-year bowl run (since 1993), Tech is 167-23 when outrushing its opponents, 24-41 when being outrushed and 1-0 when the rushing total is even.

• In its current 20-year bowl run (since 1993), Tech is 110-8 when rushing for 200 yards or more.

• Since the start of the 1999 season, Tech is 122-16 when outrushing its opponent and 17-29 when being outrushed.

as a wide receiver, but made the move to tailback during the first week of this year's preseason camp. At 6-feet-2, 205 pounds, Caleb gives the Hokies another big body at the position to complement Edmunds and picked up the position quickly.

A REWARD FOR GOOD GRADES

• The Virginia Tech football team eats its Friday travel meals at The Farmhouse in order of grade-point average range. Those players who have graduated, as well as those players who maintain the highest grade-point average, eat all team meals first. Coach Beamer invites each player to eat, calling out his name and his GPA range, starting with the highest.

THE LEADER OF THE D-LINE

• Senior defensive end James Gayle had a breakout season in 2011, earning All-ACC honors. He had 38 tackles, including 12.5 tackles for loss and seven sacks, along with 20 quarterback hurries that year. Last year, he had 43 tackles, including 11.0 for loss and five sacks, earning second-team All-ACC honors for the second year in a row.

• A physical monster, the 255-pound Hampton, Va., product has posted a 39.5-inch vertical and a 4.44 40-time. Gayle didn't seriously take up the sport of football until his sophomore year at Bethel High in Hampton. And he didn't play that season because of a hamstring injury.

• But his late start hasn't hurt thanks to the good genes passed down to him. Gayle's dad, Jimmy, played running back at Ohio State from 1979-82, and was named the 1981 Liberty Bowl most outstanding player.

• His uncle, Shaun Gayle, played 12 seasons in the NFL (1984-95) and was a member of the Chicago Bears squad that won Super Bowl XX in 1985. He also owns the distinction of returning the shortest punt for a touchdown in NFL history, when he returned a punt 5 yards for a touchdown against the New York Giants in a 1985 divisional playoff victory.

A FAMILY ATMOSPHERE

• Defensive players Ronny and Devin Vandyke are just two of numerous Hokies on the roster to have family ties to the Tech football program.

• There are seven players on the team with brothers who either are playing or did play at Virginia Tech. Derrick Hopkins lined up next to his brother Antoine for three seasons along the defensive line. David Wang is the younger brother of former offensive tackle Ed Wang and redshirt junior lineman Mark Shuman is the younger brother of former starting center and current weight room assistant director Ryan Shuman.

• Kyle Fuller is a senior defensive back who started the past two years for the Hokies. He is joined on the team by his brother, Kendall Fuller. Both are younger brothers of former Hokie players Vincent Fuller, who played six seasons with the Tennessee Titans, and Corey Fuller, now with the Detroit Lions.

• Quarterback Logan Thomas and tight end Zack McCray are first cousins as their mothers are sisters.

• Linebacker Tariq Edwards is the son of former Hokie football player Bo Campbell, who lettered from 1989-92.

• Redshirt Freshman Alston Smith is the son of former Hokie and NFL Hall of Famer Bruce Smith.

• Redshirt freshman Zach Snell is the son of former Hokie wide receiver Donald Wayne Snell (1984-86) and the nephew of former Hokie receiver Sidney Snell (1977-80). He is also the cousin of Tech redshirt freshman quarterback Brendan Motley. Redshirt freshman punter Hunter Windmuller is the nephew of the late Denny Windmuller, a defensive back for the Hokies who lettered in 1978 and 1979.

• Freshman Deon Newsome is the son of Myron Newsome, who lettered in 1995 and 1996 and freshman Kyle Chung is the son of former Hokie lineman and current NFL assistant coach Eugene Chung while freshman Woody Baron is the nephew of former Tech player Jim Baron (1994-95).

• Over 20 sets of brothers have played for head coach Frank Beamer in his 27 years at Virginia Tech.

WORKING HIS WAY BACK

• After moving from safety to cornerback last season, redshirt senior Antone Exum is looking to make a bigger move this year ... one back to the field.

• Last year, Exum made a move to cornerback in an experiment to try and get the best players in the secondary and he flourished. He played so well in his first action at corner that defensive secondary coach Torrian Gray made the move permanent. The move paid off as he led the team in interceptions, was MVP of the Russell Athletic Bowl and earned All-ACC honors.

• After deciding to come back for his senior year, Exum tore the ACL and lateral meniscus in his right knee in January playing pick-up basketball on campus. Dr. James Andrews repaired the knee, but Exum missed all of spring practice. The doctors are hoping for a late-September return date for Exum, but nothing is set in stone.

• Exum has already graduated from Tech with a degree in finance and is working on a second undergraduate degree in marketing.

TECH'S KICKING TRADITION

• Senior Cody Journell is back for his senior year, looking to continue the recent string of success for Virginia Tech kickers. Since joining the ACC in 2004, Tech's kickers have combined to make 181 of 219 field-goal attempts (83 percent) with three earning All-ACC honors.

• Journell is a local product who hails from Ripplemead, about 30 minutes from campus. He came in with impressive credentials after earning prep All-America honors coming out of nearby Giles High School.

• Last year, he hit three game-winning field goals, including two in overtime and one as time expired in regulation.

• Journell is the first Tech principal place-kicker to sign an NLI and come in on scholarship since Shayne Graham signed with the Hokies in 1996 and went on to earn first-team All-Big East Conference honors in all four seasons as Tech's kicker before going on to a standout NFL career (now with Cleveland).

• For his career, Journell is 34-for-42 on field goals with a long of 42 yards and 77-for-80 on extra points. He made 20 of 25 field goals last season, earning honorable mention All-America honors from SI.com.

• He is also 6-for-7 on game-tying, lead-changing or game-winning field goals in the last three minutes of the fourth quarter or in overtime for his career. The only miss was a 51-yarder in the Russell Athletic Bowl (in a heavy rain) with the game tied late, but he later made the game-winner in overtime.

• Journell has already graduated with a degree in marketing management and is working on a second degree in finance.

TAKING CARE OF WALK-ONS

• Virginia Tech has had a lot of success with walk-on players. John Engelberger was a starter for the San Francisco 49ers and Denver Broncos, while John Burke played in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1987. Cody Grimm went from a walk-on, to a starter, to an All-American, and finally to an NFL Draft pick of Tampa Bay in 2009.

• Current Tech walk-ons who have earned scholarships include Michael Branthover, Charley Meyer, Josh Trimble, Griffin Hite, A.J. Hughes, Joe St. Germain, Jack Tyler, Derek DiNardo, Willie Byrn and Trey Gresh.

• Will Montgomery (C, Washington Redskins) and Grimm are former Hokie walk-on who have seen starting action in the NFL recently.

GETTIN' IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

• Of the 14 seniors on the 2013 roster, there are 10 Hokie graduates, with three others slated to graduate in December and one scheduled to graduate in May.

• Additionally, junior David Wang has already graduated (business degree in three years) and earned a second undergraduate degree this past summer. Junior E.L. Smiling graduated this past summer to bring the total number of graduates on the roster to 12.

• In 10 of the past 12 years, Tech has graduated at least 70 percent of its class.

• Since 2001, there have been 228 senior Tech football players on the roster with 213 earning their degree. That is over 93 percent.

MAKING THE MOVE

• Senior Andrew Miller took over as the center two years ago and had a solid season in the middle of the line, but had his season cut short last year due to a broken foot he suffered against Duke. Now, he's being asked to move to guard for his final season, a move that new line coach Jeff Grimes thinks will benefit him and the team.

• The Bassett, Va., native was a standout wrestler in high school and has competed for the Hokies' nationally ranked wrestling squad. Miller was a two-time Virginia Group AA state champion and was the No. 3-ranked heavyweight by W.I.N. Magazine following his senior year. He was also a first-team all-state selection in football.

• Miller has already graduated from Tech with a degree in agribusiness.

THIS IS VIRGINIA TECH FOOTBALL

- Head coach Frank Beamer is the winningest active coach in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) with 258 victories and is sixth all-time among FBS coaches in terms of career victories – ahead of such legends as Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Tom Osborne, LaVell Edwards, Hayden Fry and Lou Holtz.
- No coach among the 125 active Division I-A head football coaches has been at his current school longer for more consecutive years than Coach Beamer, as he is in his 27th season at the helm of the Hokies' program.
- Coach Beamer is one of 10 all-time coaches in Division I/FBS to win 200 or more games at one college. Currently, only 36 coaches at all levels are in this group.
- In 10 of the past 12 years, Virginia Tech has graduated at least 70 percent of its football class and had two Academic All-Americans in 2011. Since 2001, there have been 228 senior Tech football players on the roster with 213 earning their degree.
- During a 10-year span from (2002-2011), Virginia Tech had the ninth-most players taken in the NFL Draft of any school, according to DraftMetrics.
- Virginia Tech won 10 or more games in every year from 2004-2011, tied for the third-longest streak in the modern era. Tech has won 10 or more games 11 times over the past 14 seasons and 13 of the past 17 seasons.
- With its trip to the Russell Athletic Bowl last year, Virginia Tech is now one of only three teams to go to 20 bowls in the past 20 seasons. The other two are Florida State (31) and Florida (22).
- Tech is one of only six programs in college football history to go to a bowl in at least 20 straight years, Nebraska (35), Michigan (33), Florida State (31; active), Alabama (25), Florida (22; active) and Tech (20; active).
- Head coach Frank Beamer is one of only four coaches all-time to lead a program to 20 or more straight bowl games, joining Bobby Bowden (Florida State, 28), Tom Osborne (Nebraska, 25) and Paul "Bear" Bryant (Alabama, 24).
- Virginia Tech has been a consistent winner since the mid-90s, winning an average of 9.3 games per year during the current streak of 20 straight seasons capped by bowl appearances.
- Since joining the ACC prior to the 2004 season, Virginia Tech has compiled an 91-30 overall record, the best mark of any school in the conference. Tech's 60-17 league record and four league crowns are also the best among league teams during that span.
- Since 1980, Tech is one of just eight schools to produce a No. 1 overall pick in the NFL at least twice. The other schools are Miami (2), Ohio State (2), Auburn (3), Southern Cal (2), Penn State (2), Stanford (2) and Oklahoma (2).
- Lane Stadium has been sold out for 93 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against the University of Virginia.
- During Coach Beamer's time in Blacksburg, the other 13 ACC football programs have employed a combined 63 head coaches.

PLAYING THROUGH THE PAIN

- Linebacker Tariq Edwards played through immense pain most of the second half of the 2011 season before undergoing surgery after the season to put a rod in his left tibia to relieve pain from a stress fracture in his shin.
- Even in pain, Edwards made a career-best 71 tackles that season, including 11.5 tackles for a loss and 3.5 sacks, along with two interceptions as he started all 14 games at linebacker to help hold together a front seven riddled by injuries. He suffered the stress fracture late in the season and played through it in the Sugar Bowl. He had another procedure done in last year's preseason, which set him back, but he made his first appearance in the fourth game of the season and played sparingly, most on kickoff coverage.

- The senior is back to full strength now and expected to open the season as Tech's starting backer.
- Edwards is the son of former Hokie receiver and punt returner Bo Campbell, who played for the Hokies from 1989-92. Campbell received the Long Distance AT&T Award for leading the nation in average punt return yards (18.2 yds) in 1991, the fall after Tariq was born.
- Edwards has already graduated from Tech with a degree in psychology and is working on a second undergraduate degree in human development.

TRIMBLE TAKES OVER

- Josh Trimble is the fourth brother in his family to play football at the FBS level, but the first to take a different path. Older brothers Jeremy, Jordan and Justin all played or play for Army. Jeremy is currently stationed in South Korea while Jordan just returned from a tour in Afghanistan. Justin is a senior at West Point.

- The four brothers are the son of former Bishop O'Connell football coach Steve Trimble, a Maryland defensive back who played four years in the NFL, who died of a heart attack in his school office in 2011. Trimble was a member of Maryland's 1976 ACC championship team and played for the Broncos and Bears in the early '80s.
- Trimble has gone from a walk-on to now the starting outside linebacker for the Hokies and earned a scholarship this preseason.

HOKIE PRIDE

- Virginia Tech football has always prided itself on taking care of its players before, during and after their time in Blacksburg. A testament to the family atmosphere created is the roster of former Hokie players serving in some capacity with the football team in the athletic department.

Frank Beamer (head coach)
 Shane Beamer (assoc. head coach)
 Cornell Brown (asst. coach)
 Mike Burnop (radio color commentator)
 Cory Byrd (SAASS coordinator)
 David Everett (Hokie Club)
 Jarrett Ferguson (strength & conditioning coach)
 John Graves (G.A.; weight room)
 Torrian Gray (asst. coach)
 Jermaine Holmes (director, SAASS)
 James Hopper (G.A. coach)
 John Moody (Hokie Club)
 Mark Muncey (G.A.; weight room)
 Greg Nosal (G.A. coach)
 Keith Short (strength & conditioning coach)

- During Beamer's time in Blacksburg, the other 13 ACC programs have employed a combined 64 full-time head coaches.
- Five of his nine assistant coaches, plus two of the four GAs, played for him either at Murray State (Bud Foster, Charley Wiles) or Virginia Tech (Shane Beamer, Cornell Brown, Torrian Gray, plus GAs Greg Nosal and James Hopper).

IMPRESSIVE GENES

- Center David Wang comes from athletic parents, both of whom were members of the Chinese Olympic team. Wang has already graduated with a pair of degrees from Tech, one in 2011 in management and another this past summer in marketing.
- He is the brother of former Hokie Ed Wang, who made history in April of 2010 by becoming the first Chinese American to be drafted by an NFL team when Buffalo took him in the fourth round. Ed and David were featured on NFL China in 2010 as a crew came over from Beijing to do a story on American football.
- Tech also holds the distinction of having the first Korean American drafted by an NFL team as Eugene Chung was taken by New England in the first round of the 1992 Draft. His son, Kyle, is a freshman offensive lineman for the Hokies this season.

THE FABULOUS FULLERS

• Virginia Tech has had plenty of success recruiting the household of Vincent and Nina Fuller up in Baltimore. There was Vincent, who went on to be drafted in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by Tennessee and spent eight years in the league. He played at Tech from 2001-04, recording eight career interceptions.

• In 2010, Kyle signed with the Hokies and has had a big impact on the program. For his career, he has 149 tackles, including 21.5 for loss and 4.5 sacks, four interceptions, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

• The second-oldest Fuller, Corey, took a different route to Blacksburg. He signed to run track at Kansas and competed for two years in Lawrence. He decided to give football a try and transferred to Tech in 2010, sitting out a year as required by the NCAA. He had a break-out year last season at receiver and ended up being drafted in the sixth round by the Detroit Lions.

• This past February, the youngest and final Fuller - Kendall - signed with the Hokies. He is a true freshman defensive back who is slated to get the start at cornerback opposite Kyle and will be Tech's nickel back, taking the spot of the outside linebacker when teams go with three receivers.

• If Corey, Kyle and Kendall go on to have careers that afford them playing time in the NFL, the four of them will become just the second group of four brothers to play in the NFL and the first group of four brothers to be drafted to the NFL out of the same college. Jim (Notre Dame), Joey (USC), Keith (USC) and Ross (Notre Dame) Browner are four brothers who played in the NFL in the late 1970s and 1980s, but went to different schools.

• Other notable brother combinations starting together on the same side of the ball for Tech were: Derrick and Antoine Hopkins at defensive tackle from 2010-12; Orion and Cam Martin (defensive end and whip linebacker, respectively) in the late 2000s; Kevin and Jonathan Lewis, starting defensive tackles side-by-side in 2002, and offensive linemen T.J. (RT) and Todd (LG) Washington in 1996.

JACK IN THE BOX

• Linebacker Jack Tyler has proven to be quite the find for defensive coordinator Bud Foster, who had a heavy hand in recruiting Tyler as a recruited walk-on. Tyler has been invaluable for the Hokies, coming up big in several key games. In the 2010 ACC Championship game, he filled in for an injured Bruce Taylor in the second half against Florida State and contributed seven tackles – three of which went for losses.

• In 2011, he racked up 12 tackles in the win at Georgia Tech and topped that in last season's opener with a career-high 17 tackles against the Yellow Jackets in the Hokies' overtime win to earn ACC Linebacker of the Week honors. The 17 total stops are the most by a Tech defender since Michael Crawford had 18 against Texas A&M in 2003.

• Tyler earned first-team All-ACC honors from the coaches and second-team honors from ACSMA after the season. He had a team-high 119 tackles, including 13 for loss and 2.5 sacks, with three pass break ups and 13 quarterback hurries.

• He is the second linebacker from Oakton High to walk-on at Tech and go on to earn honors for the Hokies. Cody Grimm took the same route, earning All-America accolades his senior season, and is now playing in the NFL for Tampa Bay.

GIVING IT ONE MORE TRY

• Senior D.J. Coles had a personal-best 36 catches for 480 yards and three touchdowns in 2011, but had offseason knee surgery in 2012, which slowed him down.

• A veteran in a young group, Coles has played in 37 games for his career (three starts), catching 39 passes for 507 yards and three touchdowns.

DOING GOOD DEEDS

• Head coach Frank Beamer is a strong believer in giving back to the community. He founded Herma's Readers in 2008 and last year, the team helped raise money for Wounded Warrior Project. Additionally, the team has raised money in the past to help support Breast Cancer Awareness and Ewing's sarcoma cancer.

• Herma's Readers is a non-profit organization that promotes the power of reading and literacy to youngsters during their formative years, grades K-3. The organization was formed as a tribute to Tech head football coach Frank Beamer's late mother, Herma, a teacher for over 30 years in the Commonwealth of Virginia. Herma's Readers has delivered over 21,000 new and used books collected at Virginia Tech football games to youngsters throughout the Commonwealth. Currently, Coach Beamer's program has also dispersed more than $80,000 for new book purchases for children. That is a total of more than 53,000 new and used books.

- The Virginia Tech football team also raised money to support Wounded Warrior Project through the sale of camouflage Virginia Tech hats and wristbands. Wounded Warrior Project was created to raise awareness and enlist the public's aid as well as provide direct programs for the needs of injured service members.

- Coach Beamer invited Ben Kiernan, through Wounded Warrior Project, to join the Virginia Tech Football team at spring football practice in 2012, showing the team a mock-up of the camo helmet to be worn for the Sept. 22 game against Bowling Green. Kiernan was a 1371 Combat Engineer for the Marines when he was injured on Sept. 16, 2010 in Afghanistan as part of an ambush during Operation Enduring Freedom. Kiernan is a graduate of Virginia Tech, receiving a B.A. in urban affairs in 2008.

MORE IMPORTANT THINGS THAN FOOTBALL

- Junior Kyshoen Jarrett may be thriving at his rover position, but he knows there are way more important things in life than football.

- Jarrett's older brother, Daishawn Capers, has cerebral palsy and is legally blind. He is wheelchair-bound and needs help doing almost everything, relying on his brother and mother, Vinise Capers. In high school, Jarrett would often take care of Daishawn, either getting him ready for school in the morning or by watching him during the evenings when their mother was away.

- Though from Tannersville, Pa., Jarrett's mother and brother now live in North Carolina and come to almost every home game. Daishawn sits there waiting to hear his brother's name over the public address system, ready to cheer for his brother every time he makes a play.

- Jarrett is a converted cornerback who moved to the rover position in the spring of 2012 and now starts there while also seeing time as a punt returner. At Pittsburgh last season, he broke off a 94-yard punt return for a touchdown, the second-longest return in school history and the longest under head coach Frank Beamer. He averaged 13.9 yards per punt return last season, ninth-best in the FBS and was second on the team with 83 tackles.

INTERNATIONAL RECEIVERS

- Two of Tech's main threats in its receiving corps aren't even from the United States. Sophomore Demitri Knowles hails from Freeport, Grand Bahamas in The Bahamas and redshirt freshman Joshua Stanford is from Mississauga, Ontario in Canada.

- Knowles was born and raised in The Bahamas and grew up competing in swimming and track before moving to Lynchburg, Va., to try his hand at football. After spending just two seasons at Liberty Christian Academy playing a sport he really knew nothing about before he was 14 years old, Knowles is making strides in the game.

- Knowles' only exposure to the game before his high school years — other than watching Miami Dolphins and Miami Hurricanes games on television — was playing it in his backyard.

- But then, Devard Darling, a native of The Bahamas and a former Florida State and Washington State receiver who was on NFL rosters for seven seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, Kansas City Chiefs and Houston Texans, brought a football camp to Freeport. Knowles attended the camp, and won Most Valuable Player honors. He was hooked and moved to Virginia for his final two years of high school, where his speed caught the eye of Virginia Tech coaches.

- Knowles caught a 42-yard touchdown midway through the fourth quarter of Virginia Tech's 20-17 overtime win against Georgia Tech in last year's season-opener.

- Stanford, a Canadian born and bred, eschewed his first love, hockey, because it was too expensive, so he migrated toward football.

- Because of a situation back home in Canada, his parents decided it'd be best for him to move south to live with family friends in Georgia when he was 15. There is where his game really took off. Stanford's recruiting heated up late and Virginia Tech got a verbal from him late, right before the 2012 signing day.

- Stanford impressed in preseason camp and played early on, but got his knee rolled up on against Austin Peay in the second week, which ended his season. Tech applied for a medical hardship waiver for him to preserve his freshman season.

PLAYING FOR HIS BROTHER

- Every time offensive guard Brent Benedict takes the field, he says he is playing for his brother, Heath, who died unexpectedly of an enlarged heart in March of 2008, just weeks before the NFL Draft.

- The older Benedict, also an offensive lineman, originally signed with the University of Tennessee, but transferred to Newberry (S.C.) College, where he was a

FRESHMEN MAKING HISTORY

• The last true freshman to start in the opening game on the offensive line was Sergio Render in 2006 at right guard. He would go on to start 52 games during his career at Tech. He's also the last true freshman to start anywhere on the offensive line for the Hokies.

• The last true freshman to start any game at offensive tackle for Tech was Jimmy Martin, who started the last six games at right tackle during the 2002 season.

• No true freshman has ever started a game at left tackle under Beamer and no true freshman has started an opening game at either tackle position under Beamer.

• No true freshman has ever started the opening game at cornerback under Coach Frank Beamer. Antonio Banks is the last true freshman to start in the secondary and that came at free safety in the 1993 season opener.

• Depending on the defensive formation Tech comes out in, one or two true freshmen could start in the secondary. Kendall Fuller is the No. 1 man at field corner, but moves to the nickel back and true freshman Brandon

Facyson comes in at the corner spot when Fuller moves over.

• Facyson, who has aspirations to be a heart surgeon, enrolled in January after graduating high school early while Fuller enrolled for Summer II.

• Sam Rogers entered camp as a walk-on fullback in the No. 4 position on the depth chart, but enters the season as the starter at the position. He chose to walk-on at Tech over scholarship offers at Bucknell and St. Francis, as well as walk-on opportunities at Virginia, Richmond and William & Mary. At 5-foot-10, 220 pounds, Rogers did it all for Hanover High in Mechanicsville (outside Richmond), playing quarterback, receiver, running back and multiple positions on defense, earning first-team all-state honors as a utility player. His brother, Ben, was an All-America center on the Division III level for Hampden-Sydney College.

BEAMERBALL

• During the Frank Beamer era at Tech, putting points on the scoreboard has always been a team effort — the offense, the defense and the special teams. It's called BeamerBall, and what sets it apart are the contributions of the defense and special teams.

• During Beamer's time, a player at every position on the defensive unit has produced at least one touchdown, and 37 different players have scored touchdowns while playing on Tech's special teams.

• Altogether, the defense and special teams have combined for 132 TDs since Beamer arrived in 1987, including 115 in Tech's past 245 games.

• Under Beamer, Tech's defense has scored 82 TDs, with 54 coming on pass interceptions, 26 on fumble returns and two on fumble recoveries. The special teams have added 50 TDs, including 17 on blocked punts, 19 on punt returns, nine on kickoff returns, four on blocked field goals and one on a fumble recovery.

• Fittingly, the trend started in Beamer's first game as Tech's head coach when true freshman Jon Jeffries returned a kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown against Clemson. It was the Hokies' first TD under Beamer, and it was the first of many scored by the special teams.

• Under Beamer, 83 different players on defense and special teams have scored TDs. Twenty-three of those players scored twice while Eddie Royal, Xavier Adibi, Jason Lallis, Ike Charlton and Ricky Hall each had three scores, André Davis had four, Victor Harris had five and DeAngelo Hall had seven.

• Since the start of the 1993 season, Tech is 75-15 in games it scores at least one TD on defense or special teams. Tech is 79-25 under Beamer when scoring a non-offensive touchdown.

BEAMERBALL II

• Tech's tradition for blocking kicks is another part of BeamerBall. It was carried to new heights in 1998 with 10 blocks during the regular season and two more in the Hokies' Music City Bowl game against Alabama.

• Tech has 129 blocks in Frank Beamer's 322 games as the head coach. The Hokies have blocked 64 punts (17 returned or recovered for TDs), 38 field goals and 27 extra points.

• The most prolific kick blockers under Beamer have been defensive lineman Bernard Basham (7 kicks) and safety Keion Carpenter (6 kicks). Basham blocked three field goals and four PATs, while Carpenter blocked six punts.

• During the Beamer era, Tech has blocked two kicks in a game 22 times, winning 16 of those games. Tech blocked two kicks against four different teams in 1998.

VIRGINIA TECH'S 230-GAME SCORING STREAK

Virginia Tech's current 230-game scoring streak from 1995 to present stands as the 15th-longest in Division I-A college history. In the 230-game run, Tech scored on its first offensive possession 75 times, plus another three occasions where it scored on returns on its first touch of the game. The Hokies have scored in the first quarter 166 times during the streak, and have had it extended by halftime in 220 of the 230 games. Here's that list: (* — includes a blocked punt recovery in the end zone prior to the first offensive possession against Akron in 1995; an interception return prior to the first offensive possession at Clemson in 2007; and an interception return prior to the first offensive possession against Boston College in 2008):

* - had 13 games vacated by NCAA from 2010 season (not included in streak)

Virginia Tech has a 175-55 record during the scoring streak, averaging 34.5 points in the wins and 19.9 points in the losses. The Hokies had only four occasions where they were delayed extending the streak until the fourth quarter. The last time came in the 2012 Russell Athletic Bowl in a 13-10 overtime win against Rutgers. The latest Tech scored its first points in a game was with 6:58 left in the 2005 Sugar Bowl against Auburn, a game in which the Hokies went on to score another touchdown in the loss. Here's a look at those occasions.

(* — denotes in New Orleans; ^ - indicates game in Orlando):

Date	Game	Opponent	Fourth Quarter Score (first if multiple scores)	Time Left (4Q)	Result
Nov. 4, 2000	67	at Miami	Lee Suggs 1 yd run	12:23	L, 21-41
Jan. 3, 2005	122	Auburn*	Josh Morgan 29 yd pass from Bryan Randall	6:58	L, 13-16

Dec. 28, 2012	230	Rutgers ^	Cody Journell 25 yd FG	12:14	W, 13-10 (ot)

There have been seven occasions where Virginia Tech scored just once to continue the streak, by seven different players. Only once did Tech's lone score come in the fourth quarter of a game and that came in 2005 when Marcus Vick scored on a 5-yard run with 8:06 left in a 27-7 loss. A look at these seven times with one score.
