Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech '69), whose Virginia Tech teams have posted a 209-77 record over the past 22-plus seasons and have appeared in bowl games each year in that span, is in his 29th year as the head football coach at Tech and 35th overall. Beamer has guided the Hokies to a 233-117-2 record and sits with an overall record of 275-140-4.

Under Beamer, Tech football has enjoyed unprecedented success with 22 consecutive bowl appearances, four ACC titles, five ACC Coastal Division crowns, three BIG EAST Conference titles, two "major" bowl victories, six BCS appearances and a trip to the national championship game.

Tech won the BIG EAST title in 1995 and 1999, and shared it in '96. Beamer was voted BIG EAST Coach of the Year by the league's coaches each of those seasons and was tabbed the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005.

In 1997, he was inducted into the Virginia Tech Sports Hall of Fame, becoming the first active coach at the university to be honored in that fashion. Following the 1999 season, he earned eight national coach of the year honors.

During his undergraduate days at Tech, Beamer started three years as a cornerback and played on the Hokies' 1966 and 1968 Liberty Bowl teams.

The 68-year-old Hillsville, Virginia, product began as an assistant at Radford High School from 1969 through 1971. Then, after one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Maryland, he went to The Citadel where he worked five seasons under Bobby Ross and one year under Art Baker. His last two years at The Citadel, Beamer was the defensive coordinator. In 1979, he went to Murray State as the defensive coordinator under Mike Gottfried. He was named head coach at MSU in 1981 and went on to compile a six-year record of 42-23-2.

He is married to the former Cheryl Oakley of Richmond, Virginia. They have two children, Shane, a former member of his dad's football team at Virginia Tech and now the associate head coach/running backs coach at Virginia Tech; and daughter Casey, a 2003 graduate of Tech. He has four grandchildren, Sutton, Olivia and Hunter, children of Shane and his wife, Emily. Casey, who married former Virginia Tech wrestler Canaan Prater in 2012, had her first son, Hudson, in February.

Beamer was born in Mt. Airy, North Carolina, and grew up in Hillsville, Virginia. At Hillsville High, he earned 11 varsity letters as a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball.

An avid NASCAR fan, Beamer has been the official starter for races at Bristol Motor Speedway, Martinsville Speedway and Richmond International Raceway.

Beamer had his No. 25 jersey retired by Tech in a pregame ceremony before the Marshall game in 2002.

SPRING ROAD ON VIRGINIA TECH CAMPUS RENAMED 'BEAMER WAY'

In appreciation for his many years of service and extraordinary contributions to university life, the Virginia Tech Board of Visitors renamed Spring Road in honor of Frank Beamer on Aug. 6, 2015. Recognizing contributions made both on and off the field by head football coach Beamer and his wife, Cheryl, Spring Road, which runs alongside the west stands and press box of Lane Stadium, is now known as Beamer Way. The official athletics department street address is 25 Beamer Way in recognition of Frank Beamer's jersey number when he played football for Tech from 1966-68. VT President Dr. Timothy Sands and VT Director of Athletics Whit Babcock made the official presentation in front of the football team in a team meeting on the eve of the start of preseason practice.

STABILITY AT THE TOP OF VIRGINIA TECH PROGRAM

Frank Beamer, the first Tech alumnus to guide Virginia Tech's football program since the 1940s, has coached and won more football games at Tech than any other head coach. Not one of the 128 active FBS head football coaches has been at his current school longer than Beamer, who is in his 29th year at Tech. He is the longest-tenured coach at the same school by a full 12 years (Oklahoma's Bob Stoops & Iowa's Kirk Ferentz - 17th seasons).

During Beamer's 28 previous years at Tech, 20 different power conference schools have had six or more head coaches, including five schools in the ACC: Pittsburgh (8), Boston College (7), Louisville (7), North Carolina (7) and Miami (6). Three schools - Pitt, Stanford and Vanderbilt - have had eight different coaches during the time Beamer has been the head coach at Tech.

Since the end of the 2009 season, 98 FBS schools have hired new head coaches.

Last Time vs. Pitt

 VIRGINIA TECH	16
 PITT	21

Heinz Field • Pittsburgh, Pa. • October 16, 2014 • Attendance: 43,125

PITTSBURGH – The University of Pittsburgh continued its mastery over Virginia Tech in games played at Heinz Field with a 21-16, Thursday night victory on ESPN. The win gave the Panthers a 4-0 record against the Hokies at the venue.

Turnovers and penalties plagued Tech in an outing that it managed just 26 yards rushing and converted on only two of 14 third-down opportunities. The Hokies had just 22 rushing attempts, the second fewest ever in the Frank Beamer era. Still, the Hokies had the ball with a chance to win in the final minutes, but stalled just short of midfield with 1:22 remaining.

Pitt gained the upper hand in the fourth quarter when it stopped Tech on a fourth-and-2 play at the Panthers' 38-yardline, then took just two plays to move 62 yards for a touchdown and a 21-9 advantage. The Hokies managed to keep their chances alive with a nine-play, 80-yard touchdown drive that ended with 4:52 left.

Tech, which was averaging 34:55 minutes of possession time per game (third best in the nation), controlled the ball for just 28:14 against the Panthers.

All of Tech's scoring came from true freshmen, with kicker Joey Slye kicking three field goals and an extra point and receiver Cam Phillips grabbing a 14-yard touchdown pass.

GAME NOTES

- Tech failed to score 21 points or more for the first time this season. The Hokies' six points at the half were also a season low.
- Freshman receiver Cam Phillips tied his career high with seven catches against the Panthers.
- Defensive tackle Corey Marshall picked off a pass during the second quarter, the first interception of his Tech career.
- The Hokies are now 12-24 at current NFL stadiums during Coach Frank Beamer's 27-plus seasons.
- Defensive end Dadi Nicolas recorded the Hokies' first blocked kickoff the season when he tipped a fourth quarter field goal. It was Nicolas' first career block and the 132nd blocked kick under Coach Frank Beamer (40th field goal).
- Isaiah Ford had four more receptions to give him 32 for the season. The 32 catches are the most ever in a season for a true freshman under Beamer, surpassing Jarrett Boykin's 30 in 2008.

HOKIES = RATINGS

- The Hokies' top scorer is kicker Joey Slye, who connected on 20-of-28 fields goals and converted 33-of-34 on extra points for 93 points.
- Bucky Hodges led the team in touchdowns, catching seven touchdown passes in 2014 - a Tech single-season record for tight ends, while also adding a TD on a blocked punt in the end zone against Virginia. He also caught a two-point conversion attempt to give him 50 points for the year.

#LUNCHPAILD

- During Bud Foster's 262-game tenure as defensive/co-defensive coordinator, Tech has ...*
- had 50 different defensive players score touchdowns.
 - scored 76 touchdowns (52 on pass interceptions, 23 on fumble returns and one on a fumble recovery).
 - held opponents to an average of 111.5 yards rushing and 17.2 points per game.
 - been nationally ranked in the top five of a major defensive category 37 times. Tech finished No. 1 in total defense in 2005 and 2006, second in 2001 and third in 1999.
 - pitched 28 shutouts.
 - had at least one defensive player earn All-America honors from some publication in 17 of 19 seasons. Four players gained A-A recognition in 1999 and three were honored in 2001.
 - produced six first-team All-Americans and 12 others who have earned second- or third-team All-America honors from one of the recognized groups.
 - had 37 players drafted by NFL teams.
 - produced its first Lombardi Award winner and its first Nagurski Trophy winner in Corey Moore.
 - produced two BIG EAST defensive players of the year - Corey Moore (1998, 1999), and Cornell Brown (1995).
 - featured 10 players who have recorded nine or more interceptions in their career.

THE STORIED LUNCH PAIL

- Taken with the Hokies wherever they go is the storied lunch pail. The Pail served as the inspiration for Tech's record-setting 1995 defense, symbolizing Tech's blue collar approach to defensive football. Every year since, a member of the defense has been responsible for toting a new Pail.
- Coach Rod Sharpless, then the co-defensive coordinator along with Bud Foster, brought a lunch pail back from New Jersey and they decided that it would become the symbol of the 1995 defense. Sharpless' mother-in-law found the now famous original lunch pail in Mercerville, N.J., where it had belonged to a coal miner.
- The players put the unit goals, weekly goals, the keys to success for the week and a signed mission statement before the season in the Pail ... plus the turf from road wins.

MOTLEY'S FIRST THREE STARTS ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Brenden Motley continues to do things at Tech that no other starting quarterback under Coach Frank Beamer has done in their early starts at Tech. Entering the ECU game, Motley was one of four quarterbacks (Michael Brewer, Grant Noel and Jim Druckenmiller) to throw for more than 400 yards in their first two starts. In fact, Motley was the FIRST quarterback under Beamer to register back-to-back games with at least 200 yards passing, the FIRST quarterback to surpass 500 total yards of offense and the FIRST quarterback to account for six TDs.

After the ECU game, in which he threw for 281 yards and touchdown and added 85 rushing yards and a touchdown, Motley has continued some streaks that no other Tech starting quarterback has done under Beamer.

- Motley is the only quarterback to throw for at least 200 yards in each of his first three starts
- Motley is the only quarterback to rush for a touchdown in each of his first three starts
- Motley is the first quarterback to account for at least 220 yards of total offense in his first three starts
- Motley is the second quarterback with at least 200 yards of total offense in their first three starts
- Motley is the third quarterback to account for at least two touchdowns (pass and rush) in his first three starts
- Motley is the fourth quarterback to throw a touchdown in his first three starts

To the right, are more numbers on where Motley ranks in terms of quarterbacks under Beamer in their first three career starts. The number to the far right is what that respective quarterback had through four games. If the leader or someone that may move into the top three is not listed, that quarterback's number is at the top, with a key at the bottom of the chart.

EDMUNDS BROTHERS RARE FEAT

Just after Virginia Tech's first touchdown against Ohio State on Sept. 7, the Edmunds brothers - Terrell, Tremaine and Trey - became just the third trio of brothers to take the field together at the same time in the same game for a major college football program dating back to 1970. The first to accomplish this rarest of feats was the Selmon brothers at Oklahoma when Lee Roy, Lucious and Dewey all played for the Sooners' defense during the 1972 and 1973 seasons. They were followed in 2010 and 2011 by the McCray brothers - Cliff, Jordan and Justin - who all played on the offensive line together at UCF. During the 2015 season, the Edmunds are regularly appearing together on the special teams kickoff coverage team.

VIRGINIA TECH'S 260-GAME SCORING STREAK

Virginia Tech's current scoring streak started in 1995 and now stands as the 12th-longest streak in Division I-A college history, and the sixth-longest active streak in the FBS. During the run, Tech scored on its first offensive possession 84 times, plus another five occasions* where it scored on returns on its first touch of the game. The Hokies have scored in the first quarter 188 times during the streak, and have extended it by halftime in 247 of the 259 games. Here's the year-by-year breakdown (* - blocked punt recovery in the end zone against Akron in 1995; an interception return at Clemson in 2007; an interception return against Boston College in 2008; a blocked punt return against Marshall in 2013; and a fumble return on the opening kickoff of the 2014 Western Michigan game):

* - had 13 games vacated by NCAA from 2010 season (not included in streak)

Virginia Tech has a 192-68 record during the streak, averaging 33.9 points in the wins and 19.6 points in the losses. The Hokies have only on six occasions delayed extending the streak until the fourth quarter or overtime. The last time came in 2014 in an overtime loss at Wake Forest. The latest Tech scored its first points in a game was in overtime in 2014 at Wake Forest (a 0-0 tie after four quarters). The latest in a regulation game was with 1:30 left in Tech's game versus Miami also in 2014. Here's a look at the six occasions.

There have been nine occasions where Virginia Tech scored just once to continue the streak, by nine different players. Only twice did Tech's lone score come in the fourth quarter of a game: 2005 when Marcus Vick scored on a 5-yard run with 8:06 left in a 27-7 loss and in 2014 when Isaiah Ford caught a 14-yard pass from Mark Leal with 1:30 left in a 30-6 loss and once it came in overtime, last year at Wake Forest on a Joey Slye field goal. A look at these nine times with one score.

MORE ON THE FULLERS

The Fullers became the first family at Tech to send four brothers to the school. More impressively is that, despite three of them playing on the defensive side of the ball, all four of them have scored at least one touchdown in their Tech careers.

VINCENT FULLER - CB

At VT: 142 tackles, 19 PBU, 8 INTs, 3 FR
 Two TDs: 50-yd fumble return; 74-yd blocked FG return
 Fourth-round pick of Tennessee; 8 years in the NFL

COREY FULLER - WR

At VT (2 seasons): 45 rec., 815 yds, 6 TDs
 Final TD was only touchdown in 13-10 win over Rutgers in Russell Athletic Bowl
 Sixth-round pick of Detroit; in third year in the NFL
 2015 Stats:

KYLE FULLER - CB

At VT: 173 tackles, 23.5 TFL, 28 PBU, 6 INTs, 4 FF
 Second-team All-American
 One TD: recovered blocked punt in end zone
 First-round pick of Chicago; in second year in the NFL
 2015 Stats:

KENDALL FULLER - CB

At VT: 112 tackles, 26 PBU, 8 INTs, 2 FR, 1 FF
 2014 Second-Team All-American; First-team All-ACC
 One TD: 47-yd INT for a touchdown at UNC

OF NOTE: If Kendall gets drafted and plays in the NFL, the four Fullers will become just the second group of four brothers to play in the NFL and the first group of four brothers to be drafted to the NFL out of the same college. Jim (Notre Dame), Joey (USC), Keith (USC) and Ross (Notre Dame) Browner are four brothers who played in the NFL in the late 1970s and 1980s, but went to different schools.

MORE ON THE EDMUNDS

Not to be outdone, the three Edmunds - Trey, Terrell and Tremaine - have become the first trio of brothers to play for head coach Frank Beamer all at the same time and are the fourth family to have at least three sons play at Tech.

The Fullers, again, are the only set of four brothers to play in Blacksburg, while the Houserights had four family members play for the Hokies.

Father: Bill Houseright (lettered 1973-77)

Sons: Bill Houseright, Jr. (lettered 1995)

Jake Houseright (lettered 1998-01)

Jonas Houseright (lettered 2006-08)

The only other trio of brothers to play for Tech was the Warrens.

Brothers: Blake Warren (lettered 2002-05)

Brett Warren (lettered 2004-05, 2007-08)

Beau Warren (lettered 2007-10)

LANE STADIUM - HOME OF THE HOKIES

Rising high into the mountainous sky of the New River Valley, Virginia Tech's Lane Stadium enters its 51st year of football competition in 2015. The Tech football team has enjoyed over two decades of success, going to 22 straight bowl games and winning 10 or more games eight straight seasons from 2004-11. A big part of that success is the home-field advantage the Hokies enjoy at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Billed as the toughest place in college football for opponents to play by Rivals.com in 2005 and one of the scariest places to play by ESPN.com in 2007, the Hokies play not only on one of the best playing surfaces in the nation, but with the south end zone and west side additions, the Hokies compete in one of the best stadiums in the nation.

Sitting at roughly 2,057 feet above sea level, the stadium is the second-highest among all FBS schools in the eastern United States, trailing only Appalachian State (3,300). Completed in 1965, Lane Stadium/Worsham Field has gone through numerous changes, renovations and additions. But through it all, it has always been regarded as one of the finest places to watch – and toughest places for opponents to play – a college football game.

A WINNING TRADITION

On Sept. 22, 1994, Tech won its 100th game in Lane Stadium in memorable fashion before a national television audience on ESPN with a 34-6 win over rival West Virginia. On Nov. 1, 2003, Tech upset No. 2 Miami 31-7 to pick up its 150th all-time win at Lane Stadium, marking the highest-ranked opponent the Hokies have ever defeated.

Tech's overall record at Lane Stadium is 208 wins, 77 losses and six ties in 51 years of play. The Hokies are 134-40-1 at home during Coach Frank Beamer's tenure at Virginia Tech and more impressively, are 116-26 in Blacksburg during the past 22 seasons.

Since joining the ACC prior to the 2004 season, Tech has accumulated a record of 58-15 at home, including a conference mark of 32-12. The Hokies went 32-9 at Lane Stadium/Worsham field while a member of the BIG EAST.

A large part of that impressive record is the home-field environment created by the fans, as Lane Stadium was sold out for 94 consecutive games, starting with the final game of the 1998 season against Virginia and running through the 2012 season.

THE HOKIE STONE

Before each home football game, Virginia Tech football players and coaching staff enter Lane Stadium through a tunnel. On the stadium-side entrance to Worsham Field, they pass beneath a Hokie Stone, which they touch for good luck and is flanked by these words: "For those who have passed. For those to come ... Reach for Excellence."

ENTER SANDMAN

The history behind Virginia Tech's use of Metallica's "Enter Sandman" started during the 2000 season. That summer Tech added a new scoreboard to Lane Stadium and the athletics marketing team decided to use the scoreboard for an entrance video. The group considered "Welcome to the Jungle" by Guns N' Roses and "Sirius" by the Alan Parsons Project before settling on "Enter Sandman." It has been the entrance song for the Hokies ever since.

THE BATTLE AT BRISTOL

VIRGINIA TECH vs. TENNESSEE - SEPT. 10, 2016

On Oct. 14, 2013, Virginia Tech and Tennessee announced plans to play a non-conference football game at the Bristol Motor Speedway in 2016 at a joint news conference held at the speedway – a game that was dubbed as the “Battle at Bristol.”

The Bristol Motor Speedway will become a football venue next year when the Hokies take on neighboring Tennessee – the two schools are just 236 miles apart – in a non-conference tilt. Track officials anticipate the Sept. 10, 2016 game will break college football's all-time single-game attendance mark. The current record occurred in 2013 when Michigan and Notre Dame played in front of 115,109 fans at Michigan Stadium. The Bristol Motor Speedway is close to a 160,000-seat venue.

The marketing campaign for the game took another step when track general manager Jerry Caldwell, NASCAR Xfinity Series driver Ty Dillon and Derek Vaughan, an engineer with Richard Childress Racing – and a Virginia Tech graduate (mechanical engineering, class of 1998) – along with other BMS officials came to Blacksburg on Aug. 11 of this year to promote the game. The group toured Tech's facilities, met with athletics department personnel, including AD Whit Babcock and head football coach Frank Beamer, and answered questions from the media. Dillon and Vaughan also caught passes and ran drills with assistant head coach Shane Beamer and some of Tech's players.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as “Virginia Tech.”

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The “State University” was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply “Virginia Tech.”

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

WHAT'S A HOKIE?

That's the most frequently asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute. With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his “Old Hokie” yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if “Hokie” had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics. Following is the “Old Hokie” yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

GAME ONE

 No. 1 OHIO STATE	42
 VIRGINIA TECH	24

Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, Va. • September 7, 2015 • Attendance: 65,632

BLACKSBURG, Va. —Ohio State quarterback Cardale Jones threw two touchdown passes and rushed for 99 yards, as the No. 1-ranked Buckeyes rallied from a small halftime deficit to defeat Virginia Tech 42-24 at Lane Stadium on Monday night.

Jones had a touchdown pass and a touchdown run in the second half, helping the Buckeyes avenge last season's 35-21 loss to the Hokies in Columbus, Ohio. Behind Jones, Ohio State amassed 572 yards of total offense.

Worse than the loss, Hokies quarterback Michael Brewer fractured his collarbone in the third quarter. He will undergo surgery on Tuesday and will miss at least 4-8 weeks.

Tech trailed 14-0, but rallied to take a 17-14 lead at halftime, scoring two second-quarter touchdowns. A 51-yard touchdown pass from Brewer to Sam Rogers got the Hokies on the board, and Tech cut the lead to 14-10 on Joey Slye's 46-yard field goal. Tech then took the lead on a 1-yard pass from Brewer to tight end Ryan Malleck with 15 seconds left in the first half.

Ohio State, though, quickly grabbed the lead in the second half, scoring on a 54-yard pass from Jones to Braxton Miller, a quarterback who missed last season because of an injury and was moved to receiver this past spring. On the ensuing possession, Brewer took a shot while attempting a pass and had to be helped from the field.

After Brewer's injury, the Hokies didn't amount much in the way of offense behind untested backup Brenden Motley. Tech amassed just 77 yards of offense after Brewer left the game, though Motley did throw a touchdown pass late in the game to Isaiah Ford.

Miller gave the Buckeyes a 28-17 lead on a 53-yard touchdown run with 2:05 left in the third quarter. Jones' 10-yard touchdown run with 12:26 left in the game essentially put the game away.

Jones completed 9 of 18 for 186 yards, with two touchdowns and an interception. Ezekiel Elliott rushed for 122 yards on 11 carries, including an 80-yard touchdown run, and Miller rushed for 62 yards on six carries and a touchdown. He also caught two passes for 72 yards and a score.

Brewer completed 11 of 16 for 156 yards and two touchdowns for the Hokies. Motley completed 4 of 9 for 36 yards, with a touchdown and an interception.

GAME NOTES

- Five true freshman saw action vs. Ohio State for the Hokies.
- Tech sold out its first home game since (10/5/13) vs. UNC (attendance of 65,632)
- Michael Brewer had a career-long 51 yard pass for a touchdown to Sam Rogers
- Brendan Motley set career-highs in passing attempts (9), completions (4), yards (36) and his first TD.

GAME TWO

 FURMAN	3
 VIRGINIA TECH	42

Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, Va. • September 12, 2015 • Attendance: 60,118

BLACKSBURG, Va. — Coming off a short week and playing a quarterback who came into the season as the backup left Virginia Tech fans feeling that disaster loomed on the horizon.

But Brenden Motley took away those doubts. Making his first collegiate start, Motley threw two touchdown passes and rushed for a touchdown to lead the Hokies past Furman 42-3 on Saturday afternoon.

Motley started in place of injured Michael Brewer, who broke his collarbone in the Hokies' Monday night loss to No. 1 Ohio State. Brewer underwent surgery on Tuesday and is expected to miss the next 4-6 weeks, perhaps longer.

Enter Motley, a redshirt junior who played his high school ball at nearby Christiansburg High School. He completed 16 of 24 passes for 233 yards, and he also rushed for 38 yards on four carries.

Mostly behind Motley, Virginia Tech (1-1) finished with 583 yards of total offense, the Hokies' most in a game since 2010 and their most under offensive coordinator Scot Loeffler, who took over in 2013. Virginia Tech had a balanced attack, running for 299 yards and throwing for 284. Much of that came in the second half. The Hokies had 371 yards in the final 30 minutes, including 200 on the ground.

Tech led 14-0 and broke open the game with three third-quarter touchdowns. He threw 1-yard and 32-yard touchdown passes to Isaiah Ford sandwiched around a 1-yard touchdown run by Trey Edmunds — his first touchdown run since November of 2013.

Those touchdowns gave the Hokies a 35-3 advantage going to the fourth quarter. Tech's final score came on a 4-yard run by freshman Dwayne Lawson, arguably the Hokies' top recruit in the 2015 class.

Andrew Motuapuaka's interception return for a touchdown — his second career touchdown — headlined a Tech defense that forced three turnovers and held Furman to 254 yards.

Travon McMillian paced the Hokies' rushing attack with 98 yards on six carries, while Lawson finished with 51 on nine carries. Cam Phillips and Ford each caught five passes for 86 and 77 yards, respectively.

GAME NOTES

- Isaiah Ford tied a career-high with two TD receptions
- Tech had its most offensive yards under Scot Loeffler with 583. Most since a 2010 win over Wake Forest
- Brenden Motley made his first career start and set career-highs in passing attempts (24), completions (16), yards and TDs (2).
- Freshman Travon McMillian ran for a team-high and a career-high 98 yards

GAME THREE

 VIRGINIA TECH	51
 PURDUE	24

Ross-Ade Stadium • West Lafayette, Ind. • September 19, 2015 • Attendance: 45,759

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Tech quarterback Brenden Motley threw two touchdown passes and ran for one, and Tech's defense and special teams also scored as the Hokies pulled away from the Boilermakers 51-24 at Ross-Ade Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

With the win, Tech moved to 2-1 on the season. Purdue fell to 1-2.

Motley, making his second straight in place of injured quarterback Michael Brewer, completed 15 of 23 for 220 yards, with the touchdown and no interceptions. Behind Motley, Tech amassed 471 yards of total offense — a balanced 238 rushing and 233 passing — and played the main role in the Hokies scoring 27 straight points to break open a close game.

Defensively, Chuck Clark returned a fumble for a touchdown for the Hokies, and Terrell Edmunds' blocked punt in the third quarter was returned by Anthony Shegog for a touchdown.

This game marked the first time since the Clemson game in 2007 that the Hokies scored in all three phases of the game.

Tech grabbed the lead for good on a 5-yard touchdown run by Motley with 1:08 left in the first half that gave the Hokies a 24-17 edge. The Hokies then put the game away with 17 third-quarter points.

An 82-yard kickoff return by Der'Woun Greene to open the second half led to a 42-yard field goal by Joey Slye that gave the Hokies a 27-17 lead. Then on Tech's next possession, a 42-yard drive ended when J.C. Coleman scored from a yard out. Slye's extra point gave Tech a 34-17 bulge with 5:10 left in the third quarter.

The Hokies closed the quarter with Edmunds' blocked punt. Shegog picked up the loose ball and ran it back 15 yards for a touchdown, and Slye's extra point gave the Hokies a 41-17 advantage with a minute left in the quarter.

Slye added a field goal in the fourth quarter and a 3-yard touchdown pass from Motley to Bucky Hodges — their second hookup of the day — accounted for the final margin.

Tech's defense held the Boilermakers to just 265 yards of offense. Purdue quarterback Austin Appleby completed just 9 of 28 for 110 yards, with two interceptions.

Slye made three field goals for the Hokies, who also got six receptions and 128 yards from Isaiah Ford. Trey Edmunds paced Tech's 238-yard rushing day with 72 yards on nine carries.

GAME NOTES

- This game marked the first time since the Clemson game in 2007 that the Hokies scored in all three phases of the game.
- It was the highest point total for Tech since they had 52 points against Wake Forest in 2010.
- Most points in back-to-back games since 2010 against Central Michigan and Wake Forest.
- Bucky Hodges had a career-high two TD receptions. Had one TD catch seven previous times in his career.

GAME FOUR

 VIRGINIA TECH	28
 EAST CAROLINA	35

Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium • Greenville, N.C. • September 26, 2015 • Attendance: 50,514

GREENVILLE, N.C. — East Carolina quarterback James Summers rushed for 169 yards and threw for 110 yards, helping the Pirates rally from a 14-0 deficit to beat Virginia Tech 35-28 in a non-conference game at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium on Saturday.

The loss marked the Hokies' second straight to the Pirates, who downed the Tech in Blacksburg last year. Tech lost in Greenville, North Carolina, for the first time since 1992.

"The good thing for us is we're getting ready to enter conference play," Tech coach Frank Beamer said. "Everything is still there . . . the ACC championship, the Orange Bowl . . . the whole deal is still there. But we've got to become a better football team to enter into that mix. It's vey obvious what we need to do."

East Carolina scored 28 consecutive points at one stretch after the Hokies scored two touchdowns off Pirate turnovers.

Tech trailed 35-21 after a 41-yard touchdown run by Summers with 3:43 left in the third quarter. The Hokies cut into that lead, getting a 5-yard touchdown run by Brenden Motley with 8:18 left in the game. The big play came on a 60-yard completion from Motley to Cam Phillips, and the touchdown capped a 95-yard drive.

Tech had two more chances to score in the final five minutes. One drive ended when Bucky Hodges couldn't corral a fourth-down pass from Motley that would have given the Hokies a first down in ECU territory. The final chance came at the end of the game when Tech got the ball to its 41 and tried a "Hail Mary" that fell incomplete.

Motley led the Hokies with 366 of their 439 yards of offense. He completed 20 of 35 for 281 yards, with a touchdown and an interception. He also rushed for 85 yards and a score.

Summers, who went into the game as the backup to Blake Kemp, rushed for his 169 yards on 21 carries, and he completed 5 of 8 for the 110 yards and a score. East Carolina finished 410 yards.

GAME NOTES

- Tech trailed for the first time all season at halftime, 21-14.
- Isaiah Ford became the fastest player to 1,000 receiving yards under Frank Beamer, passing Andre Davis.
- Motley became the first Tech quarterback under Beamer to score a rushing touchdown or throw for at least 200 yards in each of his first three starts.
- The Hokies' defense allowed its first touchdown in the season quarter

VIRGINIA TECH MEDIA INFORMATION

MONDAY - PRESS LUNCHEON

This Monday, media members are invited to the Shott Media Center, which is located on the bottom level of the South End Zone, to take part in a joint press conference with selected players, Coach Frank Beamer and additional assistant coaches in the home interview room. A light lunch is served at noon with the interviews normally beginning at 12:30 p.m., with Coach Beamer being at the podium at approximately 1 p.m. The players who come to Monday's media luncheon will not be available post-practice on Tuesday.

A video feed of the players and Coach Beamer is available for free, both live and archived, on hokiesports.com. Media may watch this feed outside of the Shott Media Center, but can not ask questions.

Media may ONLY park in the softball/track lot without a visitor's pass. Tickets will be the responsibility of the offender.

TUESDAY - MEDIA INTERVIEWS

Tuesday, Tech Defensive Coordinator Bud Foster along with several offensive and defensive players and assistant coaches will be available post practice. These interviews will take place outside the Veatch Family Lounge at approximately 6:15 p.m. Foster will speak first for no longer than 10 minutes and then the players and coaches will be available for 20 minutes after that.

Media are asked to wait in the basketball work area located in Cassell Coliseum until a member of the Strategic Communications staff brings the media members to the lounge area.

Media coming for campus for post-practice interviews do not need a visitor's parking pass (after 5 p.m.). If members plan to come on campus during normal business hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m.), they must stop at the Visitor's Center and get a parking pass. Tickets will be the responsibility of the offender.

WEDNESDAY - ACC TELECONFERENCE

The ACC football coaches will be featured on a weekly teleconference, beginning Wednesday, Aug. 27 and continuing each Wednesday until Nov. 25. Each coach will be available for 10 minutes, with Coach Frank Beamer scheduled to start at 11:40. Members of the media can secure the number by contacting the ACC office at (336) 851-6062.
