*All times Eastern, home games in all capsFRANK'S FINAL ACT

Saturday's game marks Frank Beamer's final regular season game as VT's head coach. Should Beamer secure a 20th career win vs. UVA, it would mark a 12th straight Commonwealth Cup win for the Hokies and ensure a 23rd consecutive bowl berth to extend America's longest active streak recognized by the NCAA. VT has won 15 of its last 16 meetings with UVA with that lone blemish coming in 2003.

#THANKSFRANK

Virginia Tech is wearing commemorative helmet stickers for its final three regular season games to honor Frank Beamer's legacy. Notes on the logo & other tributes:

The logo recalls an iconic shot of Beamer after an on-field celebration following a 38-14 win vs. BC (11/26/99) that capped a perfect 11-0 regular season to send the Hokies to a national championship tilt vs. Florida State in the Sugar Bowl. The seven stars depict the seven conference titles claimed by VT under Beamer.

- A commemorative line of apparel and items featuring the logo is available through the University Bookstore and partner outlets. A portion of the proceeds from this sale will benefit Coach Beamer's charity, Herma's Readers.
- Herma's Readers is named in honor of Coach's late mother, who was a teacher. The program has distributed over 100,000 new and used books across Virginia and has raised $145,000 for the purchase of additional books.

MORE THAN A COACH

Simply put, Frank Beamer has been the face of Virginia Tech for nearly three decades. In the aftermath of the April 16, 2007 tragedy, Beamer not only met with victims of families, but also helped served as a unifying figure who helped the campus and surrounding community heal and draw closer together. Hokies everywhere will forever remember his lasting contributions to Virginia Tech that went above and beyond the football field.

A LASTING LEGACY

Dating back to 2005, in conjunction with community outreach programs, Beamer has raised over $365,000 for charitable causes. Beneficiaries have included: Hokie United, United Way, Breast Cancer Awareness, St. Baldrick's Foundation, Sandy Hook and Uplifting Athletes. The Intrepid Heroes Fund has realized $63,000 from donations at Tech's last three Military Appreciation Games, as well.

Beamer, Hokies Seek to Secure 23rd Straight Bowl Berth, 12th Consecutive Commonwealth Cup Win

- Saturday's game marks Frank Beamer's final regular contest as VT's coach. A win would make VT bowl eligible for a 23rd straight year.
- The Hokies have won 11 straight meetings with UVA and 15 of the last 16 games in this rivalry dating back to 1999.
- The Hokies are 18-10 in regular season finales/ACC title games under Beamer, including wins in eight of the last nine such games.
- VT is coming off a 30-27 OT loss win vs. UNC (11/21), while UVA registered a 42-34 victory vs. Duke (11/21).
- A Virginia Tech victory would mark the 25th time in 29 seasons that a Beamer-led VT squad registered six or more wins.
- VT is seeking three straight ACC road wins in the same season for the first time since winning four straight in 2011.
- UVA has won six of its last seven ACC home games, but hasn't won't four straight ACC games at home since 2002.

Putting Virginia Tech's Commonwealth Cup Dominance in Perspective Among In-State FBS Rivalries

- Over the past 16 seasons, Virginia Tech has dominated its in-state FBS rival like no other major program.
- While not an exhaustive list, here is a look at how the Hokies 15-1 record vs. UVA stacks up over the past 16 years.

RECORD	TEAM	RIVAL	RIVARLY/TROPHY	CURRENT WIN STREAK
1. 15-1 (.938)	Virginia Tech	Virginia	Commonwealth Cup	11 Games Virginia Tech

Key Stats During VT's Commonwealth Cup Streak, Other Important Factors vs. Cavaliers

- VT is fourth in the ACC at +5 (20 takes/15 gives) in 2015. Only Wake (-10) ranks below UVA (-8) in turnover margin.
- Surprisingly, VT only holds a +7 edge in turnovers in its last 16 games vs. UVA with 29 takes/22 gives.
- The Hokies have held UVA to 21 points or fewer in all 15 of their victories dating back to 1999.
- Dating back to 1999, VT is 138-11 (.926) when holding opponents to 21 or fewer points, including a 47-3 (.940) road mark.
- VT has outscored UVA a 463-208 margin in their last 16 meetings, equating to an average score of 28.9 to 13.0.
- The last three games in the Virginia Tech-UVA series have all been decided by 10 points or fewer.
- Virginia is seeking to register back-to-back ACC wins for the first time since beating NCSU (11/3/12) and Miami (11/10/12).
- VT is scoring 29.8 ppg and will face a Virginia squad that ranks last in the ACC in scoring defense (33.0 ppg).
- Dating back to 2010, VT is 28-4 (.875) when scoring 30+ points and UVA is 4-27 (.129) when allowing 30+ points.
- VT is 21-3 (.875) all-time in ACC road games when it does not throw an INT. UVA has forced an ACC-low two INTs in 2015.
- VT has outgained UVA by 107.9 rushing ypg (205.5-97.6) and owns 19 more rushing TDs (36-15) over the last 16 games.
- The Hokies are 25-1 (.962) all-time in ACC play when rushing for 200 or more net yards (4-0 vs. UVA).
- In ACC games, only four players rank ahead of VT's Travon McMillian (95.9) in rushing ypg.
- No ACC squad has permitted more TD passes than UVA (24). VT's defense has allowed opponents to throw 14 TDs in 2015.

LET'S BE FRANK ON #LPD

Dating back to 1996, no FBS team has registered more sacks 743.0 or interceptions (335) than Virginia Tech's Lunch Pail Defense. The Hokies also own an FBS-best 44 INT return TDs over that span, while only Ohio State (16.5) and Alabama (16.6) have allowed fewer points per game than Virginia Tech (17.2).

SEEKING #23STRAIGHT

The Hokies own 22 straight bowl berths, the longest active streak recognized by the NCAA. A win vs. UVA would make VT eligible for a 23rd straight bowl. The following squads have already secured enough wins to extend their bowl streaks. Number in parentheses indicates streak entering 2015: Georgia (18), Oklahoma (16) and LSU (15). Georgia Tech's 18-year streak will be snapped this year.

FLASHBACK TO 1987

VT will wear maroon helmets with crown striping similar to the club's inaugural season under Beamer in 1987. White jerseys and pants will complete the look. In 1987, President Ronald Reagan was in his second term and Soviet leader Michael Gorbachev was Time's "Man of the Year." Aretha Franklin was inducted into the Rock Hall of Fame, while Guns N' Roses debuted Appetite For Destruction, which would sell over 30 million copies.

Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech '69), whose Virginia Tech teams have posted a 212-81 record over the past 22-plus seasons and have appeared in bowl games each year in that span, is in his 29th year as the head football coach at Tech and 35th overall. Beamer has guided the Hokies to a 236-121-2 record and sits with an overall record of 278-144-4.

Under Beamer, Tech football has enjoyed unprecedented success with 22 consecutive bowl appearances, four ACC titles, five ACC Coastal Division crowns, three BIG EAST Conference titles, two "major" bowl victories, six BCS appearances and a trip to the national championship game.

Tech won the BIG EAST title in 1995 and 1999, and shared it in '96. Beamer was voted BIG EAST Coach of the Year by the league's coaches each of those seasons and was tabbed the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005.

In 1997, he was inducted into the Virginia Tech Sports Hall of Fame, becoming the first active coach at the university to be honored in that fashion. Following the 1999 season, he earned eight national coach of the year honors.

During his undergraduate days at Tech, Beamer started three years as a cornerback and played on the Hokies' 1966 and 1968 Liberty Bowl teams.

The 69-year-old Hillsville, Virginia, product began as an assistant at Radford High School from 1969 through 1971. Then, after one season as a graduate assistant at the University of Maryland, he went to The Citadel where he worked five seasons under Bobby Ross and one year under Art Baker. His last two years at The Citadel, Beamer was the defensive coordinator. In 1979, he went to Murray State as the defensive coordinator under Mike Gottfried. He was named head coach at MSU in 1981 and went on to compile a six-year record of 42-23-2.

He is married to the former Cheryl Oakley of Richmond, Virginia. They have two children, Shane, a former member of his dad's football team at Virginia Tech and now the associate head coach/running backs coach at Virginia Tech; and daughter Casey, a 2003 graduate of Tech. He has four grandchildren, Sutton, Olivia and Hunter, children of Shane and his wife, Emily. Casey, who married former Virginia Tech wrestler Canaan Prater in 2012, had her first son, Hudson, in February.

Beamer was born in Mt. Airy, North Carolina, and grew up in Hillsville, Virginia. At Hillsville High, he earned 11 varsity letters as a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball.

An avid NASCAR fan, Beamer has been the official starter for races at Bristol Motor Speedway, Martinsville Speedway and Richmond International Raceway.

SPRING ROAD ON VIRGINIA TECH CAMPUS RENAMED 'BEAMER WAY'

In appreciation for his many years of service and extraordinary contributions to university life, the Virginia Tech Board of Visitors renamed Spring Road in honor of Frank Beamer on Aug. 6, 2015. Recognizing contributions made both on and off the field by head football coach Beamer and his wife, Cheryl, Spring Road, which runs alongside the west stands and press box of Lane Stadium, is now known as Beamer Way. The official athletics department street address is 25 Beamer Way in recognition of Frank Beamer's jersey number when he played football for Tech from 1966-68. VT President Dr. Timothy Sands and VT Director of Athletics Whit Babcock made the official presentation in front of the football team in a team meeting on the eve of the start of preseason practice.

STABILITY AT THE TOP OF VIRGINIA TECH PROGRAM

Frank Beamer, the first Tech alumnus to guide Virginia Tech's football program since the 1940s, has coached and won more football games at Tech than any other head coach. Not one of the 128 active FBS head football coaches has been at his current school longer than Beamer, who is in his 29th year at Tech. He is the longest consecutive tenured coach at the same school by a full 12 years (Oklahoma's Bob Stoops & Iowa's Kirk Ferentz - 17th seasons).

During Beamer's 28 previous years at Tech, 20 different power conference schools have had six or more head coaches, including five schools in the ACC: Pittsburgh (8), Boston College (7), Louisville (7), North Carolina (7) and Miami (6). Three schools - Pitt, Stanford and Vanderbilt - have had eight different coaches during the time Beamer has been the head coach at Tech.

Since the end of the 2009 season, there have been 140 new head coaches hired to start a season.

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va. • Nov. 28, 2014 • Attendance: 60,431

BLACKSBURG – Tight end Bucky Hodges snared a 9-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Michael Brewer with 1:48 remaining and the defense held late as Virginia Tech defeated in-state rival Virginia, 24-20, at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field in the regular-season finale for both teams. The victory assured Tech possession of the Commonwealth Cup for the 11th-consecutive year and cleared the way for the Hokies' 22nd straight bowl bid, the second-longest active streak in the country.

Hodges played a major role in the win, recovering a blocked punt for a touchdown in thesecondquarter, and then making two clutch catches on the Hokies' final drive. The 6-foot-6 redshirt freshman hauled in a 50-yard toss from Brewer to set up his touchdown reception.

Tech's defense nailed down the win, posting three of its four quarterback sacks during the Cavaliers' final possession. Tech ends Dadi Nicolas and Ken Ekanem combined for a sack that sent Cavs' starting quarterback Greyson Lambert to the sidelines on the first play of the drive and teamed on another that ended the drive at the Hokies' 44 with four seconds remaining to clinch the victory.

J.C. Coleman rushed for 118 yards as the offense posted 433 yards, the most allowed by UVa in 2014.

GAME NOTES

- Freshman C.J. Reavis recorded the first blocked punt of his career, which was recovered by teammate Bucky Hodges for a touchdown. It was the 134th blocked kick and 66th punt blocked during Coach Frank Beamer's 28 seasons at Virginia Tech.
- With his 58 yards in the game, Isaiah Ford broke the Virginia Tech freshman record for receiving yards in a season, moving past Joshua Stanford who had 614 yards in 2013. Ford now has 665 yards. He has already set the freshman record for catches in a season with 53.
- All 24 Virginia Tech points in the game were scored by freshmen.
- Tight end Bucky Hodges caught his seventh touchdown pass of the season, setting a school singleseason mark for scoring catches by a tight end. Jeff King held the previous school mark of six touchdown receptions set in 2005.

MADDY APPROACHES GAMES PLAYED RECORD

Former long snapper Collin Carroll played in a school record 55 consecutive games, from Aug. 30, 2008 to Jan. 3, 2012, which was every game of his four-year career. The 55 games played (also a school record) for Carroll is now in jeopardy.

Defensive lineman Luther Maddy enters the Virginia game with 54 career games played, over his five-year career. Maddy played in 13 games as a freshman, sophomore and junior, and the first four games last season, his senior year, before suffering a season-ending injury. He was granted a medical hardship waiver and able to play a fifth year.

With today's game Maddy will tie Carroll for the most games ever played in a career at Virginia Tech. With a bowl berth a possibility, the redshirt-senior from Delray Beach, Florida, could become the all-time leader in games played as a Hokie with 56.

FRESHMEN ANSWERING THE CALL TO START

In all, nine true freshman have seen the field for the Hokies this fall. In alphabetical order, they include: Adonis Alexander, Jahque Alleyne, Xavier Burke, Tremaine Edmunds, Dwayne Lawson, Carson Lydon, Yosuah Nijman, Steven Peoples and Mook Reynolds. Three of them - Alexander (6), Edmunds (1) and Reynolds (2) have combined to make nine starts.

To put it in perspective over the past two seasons, in 2014, a total of 10 true freshman played for the Hokies with four of them combining for 31 starts. The list of starters include current Hokies: Isaiah Ford (11), Cam Phillips (9), Marshawn Williams (8) and Greg Stroman (1).

In 2013, 11 true freshman played for Tech, the most in head coach Frank Beamer's 29 seasons in Blacksburg, and those players combined for over 50 starts that season. Those include current Hokies in the junior class: Jonathan McLaughlin (13), Kendall Fuller (12), Chuck Clark (2) and Sam Rogers (2), and those who are redshirt-sophomores: Brandon Facyson (9) and Kalvin Cline (7).

DOUBLE DIGITS MAKE FIRST STARTS IN 2015

This season has now seen 12 Hokies make their first collegiate starts during the 2015, with the latest being true freshman Tremaine Edmunds, who started the first game of his career at Georgia Tech on Nov. 12. Below is the list of Hokies, who made their first starts in 2015.

* - Stroman's first start on offense (started once as DB last year)

INJURIES TO STARTERS

The Hokies lost four preseason starters from their original depth chart this season to injury, either for a couple of games or for the season. The four does not include running backs Marshawn Williams and Shai McKenzie, who were lost to injury before the season began.

Michael Brewer, r-Sr., QB: suffered a broken left collarbone after taking a hit early in the third quarter of the season-opening game versus Ohio State ... missed six starts.

Kyle Fuller, Jr., DB: suffered a right knee injury during preseason camp ... battled through the first three games, but is out for the rest of the season ... missed eight starts.

Andrew Motuapuaka, r-So., LB: suffered an MCL sprain in his left knee and missed two starts - at Purdue and vs. ECU.

Corey Marshall, r-Sr., DL: suffered a hamstring injury and missed three starts. Played just one snap versus Pittsburgh, eight snaps versus Duke and six at Georgia Tech.

STABILITY UP FRONT

Through 11 games, Tech's offensive line has certainly become a source of stability for the team. Consider this, only six players have started every game this year on offense and four of them are on the line. In fact, except for the NC State game, the five positions have all featured the same starters (Wyatt Teller did not start versus the Wolfpack, but did play 64 of 68 plays) and they are certainly building for the future.

CONSECUTIVE STARTS STREAK CONTINUES

A couple of Hokies saw their consecutive starts streak end this season - most notably Michael Brewer and Kendall Fuller, however three members of the defense have pushed their streak into the 20s.

Redshirt-senior Dadi Nicolas along with redshirt-junior Ken Ekanem have both reached 24 straight starts for the Hokies, while junior Chuck Clark started his 21st straight game against the Tar Heels last Saturday.

On the offensive side of the ball, senior Ryan Malleck holds the longest consecutive start streak, which stands at 20 straight games entering Saturday. Sophomore Bucky Hodges is the only other Hokie on either offense or defense, whose consecutive start streak extended from last year, and currently stands at 13.

HUGHES TACKS ON SCHOOL RECORDS FOR PUNTING

Tech punter A.J. Hughes entered his senior season as the school's all-time leader in career punts and punting yardage. Recently, he passed the 12,000-yard milestone for punting yards and now has 12,453, which is also now the second-most ever in the history of the ACC. His 298 career punts are also the second most, trailing only current Wake Forest punter Alexander Kinal, who is more than 30 punts and 1,500 yards better than Hughes.

However, Hughes' 41.79 career punting average is slightly ahead of Kinal's (41.77) and would put him 22nd all-time in the ACC record books. In Tech's history, the mark is third.

MCMILLIAN PUSHES PAST 700 AND EYES 1,000 YARDS

Entering the Virginia game, redshirt-freshman Travon McMillian has rushed for 880 yards on the ground, which leads the team. It is the most yards rushed in a single season by a Hokie over the past four years (Trey Edmunds, 675, 2013), while the last Tech player to rush for more than 1,000 yards was David Wilson (1,709, 2011).

The 880 yards also puts McMillian into the ACC record book. Currently, the conference lists the 35 best single-season rushing yard performances by freshman and McMillian sits at No. 19. The list rises all the way up to a pair of Hokie backs, Ryan Williams (1,655, 2009) and Darren Evans (1,265, 2008) who are No. 1 and 2 on the list. Only nine freshmen have ever reached the 1,000-rushing yard plateau in ACC history.

At Tech, 13 men have done it 16 times. Only Cyrus Lawrence (1980-81), Lee Suggs (2000, 2002) and Roscoe Coles (1975-76) did it twice.

MORE ON MCMILLIAN

McMillian finished games with 98, 96 and 99 rushing yards, before breaking through with the first 100-yard game of his career against Duke (10/24), a 142-yard effort. He then went for 105 at Boston College (10/31) to become the first freshman at Tech with back-to-back 100-yard rushing games since Ryan Williams had five straight to end the 2009 season.

His 135 yards on the ground at Georgia Tech made it three in a row, to become the first Tech running back with three straight 100-yard efforts since David Wilson, who went seven straight games with at least 100 yards in the 2011 season.

THERE'S A FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING

For the season, Brenden Motley has thrown for 1,155 yards and 11 touchdowns, which currently leads the team. Michael Brewer, who missed six starts due to injury, returned to the starting lineup and enters today's game with 1,122 yards passing and 10 touchdowns.

A quick glance at the Tech history books indicates that the closest any two quarterbacks have come to either both throwing for 1,000 yards in the same season or both reaching the 10 TDs thrown plateau before this combo did it, was back in 2007. That season, Sean Glennon led the team with 1,796 yards passing and 12 TDs, while Tyrod Taylor threw for 927 yards and five TDs.

THERE'S A FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING, TOO

Glennon and Taylor are the only set of Tech QBs to each have multiple 200-yard passing games in the same season, as Glennon had four during the 2007 season and Taylor had two.

Currently, Motley leads the team with three 200-yard passing games this season and, against Duke (10/24), Brewer notched his first and had 273 versus UNC (11/21). Brewer had five last season, including 235 versus Virginia. If he gets that third, 2015 will mark the first time two different Tech QBs each passed for at least 200 yards in three different games in the same season.

THERE'S A FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING, THREE

For the third time in the Beamer era, five Hokies have completed at least one pass during the season. One more player this year, would make it six for the first time ever.

The first time was in 1989, when three QBs each completed passes: Cam Young (62 completions), Will Furrer (45) and Rodd Wooten (28). WR Kevin Bennett went 1 for 2 for 32 yards and a TD, while WR Tony Kennedy was 1 for 6 for six yards.

The second time was last year, as QBs Michael Brewer (262), Mark Leal (6) and Brenden Motley (1) all completed passes. The others were WR Isaiah Ford, who was 1 of 1 for 30 yards and P A.J. Hughes, who was 1 for 1 for 10 yards.

This season, outside of QBs Brewer (53), Motley (92) and Dwayne Lawson (3), Ford has done it again, going 1 of 2 for 14 yards and FB Sam Rogers in 1 for 1 for 13 yards.

BREWER MOVING INTO THE TOP 10 AT TECH

Speaking of Michael Brewer, he enters Saturday's game with 3,814 passing yards, which is 10th all-time at the school (in less than two full seasons).

Meanwhile, his 28 touchdown passes are T-9th on the career list at Tech with Sean Glennon (2004-08), and with two more, he'd become just the sixth Tech QB to toss 30 or more in a career.

MOTUAPUAKA SCORING THROUGH BEAMERBALL

With his 34-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Boston College (10/31), redshirt-sophomore Andrew Motuapuaka has now scored three TDs in his Tech career, joining a very select company. Only eight other Hokies have scored three or more defensive or special teams TDs (under Beamer).

1. DeAngelo Hall 7 (5 PR/1 FR/ 1 IR)
2. Macho Harris 5 (4 IR/1 KOR)
3. André Davis 4 (4 PR)
4. Xavier Adibi 3 (2 IR/1 FR)
- Ike Charlton 3 (2 IR/1 FR)
- Ricky Hall 3 (1 PR/1 BPR/1 RBP)
- Jason Lallis 3 (2 FR/1 IR)
- Andrew Motuapuaka 3 (1 IR/2 FR)
- Eddie Royal 3 (3 PR)

HODGES, PHILLIPS CAN ALSO CATCH THE BALL

Below (gray box) is a detailed summary of what sophomore Isaiah Ford has done so far in his Tech career. However, fellow classmates Cam Phillips and Bucky Hodges aren't too far behind when it comes to catches and yards receiving.

Thanks to a six-catch, career-high 95-yard game in his last outing at Georgia Tech (10/31), Phillips now has 83 career catches (T-19th all-time at Tech) for 1,034 career yards (24th).

Hodges, who enjoyed a five-catch, career-high 101-yard effort versus Duke (10/24), is sitting with 78 career receptions (T-22nd all-time) for 984 career yards (25th). He adds 13 TD catches, which is tied for eighth all-time.

Before this season, no Hokie had ever caught more than 70 career passes before his junior season and only three men had ever gone over 1,000 receiving yards. Ford and Phillips have already done that, and Hodges is just 16 yards shy.

FORD CHANGING AND CHASING THE HISTORY BOOKS

Sophomore Isaiah Ford is quickly moving up many of the career records' list at the school and his numbers even through two seasons are approaching or are already the best at the school.

Consider these:

FASTEST PLAYER TO 10 TD CATCHES

By game is now Ford, 19 games, passing Andre' Davis who did it in 20 games.

FASTEST PLAYER TO 1,000 REC. YARDS

By game is now Ford, 17 games, passing Davis, who did it in 19 games.

FASTEST PLAYER TO 100 RECEPTIONS

Is now Ford, who caught No. 100 in his 22nd game played and did it quicker than former Tech receiver Jarrett Boykin (35 games)

Ford has now also put up the best numbers by a Tech wide receiver through a sophomore season at the school (under Beamer).

Consider these:

MOST TOUCHDOWN CATCHES

Ford tops the list with 15, but is being chased by Bucky Hodges, who has 13. The previous high was nine by Andre' Davis.

MOST RECEPTIONS

Ford tops the list with his 113 catches, passing Boykin, who caught 70 through his sophomore season. Cam Phillips is now second with 83, while Hodges is third at 78.

MOST RECEIVING YARDS

Ford again at the top of the list with 1,525 yards, besting Boykin's 1,276 yards.

Where does Ford stand (under Beamer) in all-time two-year bests among wide receivers in yards and receptions?

See below:

MOST RECEPTIONS, 2-YEAR SPAN

Jarrett Boykin (Jr.-Sr. seasons)	114

SLYE SCORING POINTS NAMED SEMI-FINALIST

The Palm Beach County Sports Commission released its 20 semi-finalists for the 2015 Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award presented by the Orange Bowl. The 20 kickers, which included Virginia Tech sophomore Joey Slye.

Slye has made 18 of 25 field goals this season, 18 of 22 inside of 50 yards, and is 38 of 46 from that distance in his career at Tech. He has also converted 32 of 33 extra-point attempts this season and had a streak of 48 straight.

The Stafford, Virginia, native booted four field goals at Boston College (10/31), which tied his career high for makes (vs. Cincinnati, 12/27/14), and six times this season has made at least two field goals in a game. He currently leads the Hokies with 86 points.

He's already moved up to 14th place on the school's all-time scoring list with 179 points, two points shy of moving into the 12th spot. Slye is eighth among kickers, with Don Wade (1981-84) next on that list with 224 points.

HODGES NAMED SEMI-FINALIST FOR MACKAY AWARD

Announced on Monday, Nov. 16, sophomore TE Bucky Hodges was named one of eight semi-finalists for the John Mackey Award, given annually to the most outstanding collegiate tight end. Hodges, a Virginia Beach, Virginia, native, is one of two sophomores on the list and one of two tight ends on the list from the ACC.

The list will be slimmed down to three finalist on Nov. 24 and the winner will be announced on Dec. 9.

Twice this year, the Hokies accumulated more than 200 yards rushing and passing. They are 40-5 in such games. The last time they had two such games in the same season was 2011, when they did it four times.

vs. Furman	284 passing	299 rushing	42-3 win

FORD SETS AND APPROACHES A COUPLE MORE RECORDS

With eight receptions in the game versus UNC (11/21), Isaiah Ford extending a streak of catching at least two passes in every game of his career, which now stands at 24 straight games, at Tech record. The previous record (under Beamer) was set by Danny Coale, who ended his career with a 22-game streak from Oct. 16, 2010 to Jan. 3, 2012.

The consecutive games record for at least one catch is 27 games, set by Ernest Wilford (Aug. 25, 2002 to Dec. 26, 2003).

LONGEST CONTINUOUS TENURED ASSISTANT COACHES (ACTIVE)

Only 31 of the 1,152 full-time assistants in FBS have been at their current schools since 2005. Below is the top 10

1.	1983	Gary Campbell - Oregon RBs coach
2.	1987	*Bud Foster - Virginia Tech DC
3.	1990	Bryan Stinespring - Virginia Tech TEs coach
4.	1993	Jerry Brown - Northwestern DBs coach
	1993	Don Pellum - Oregon DC
6.	1994	Odell Haggins - Florida State DTs coach

RUSHING = WINS

- Under Frank Beamer (359 games), the Hokies are 206-44-2 when outrushing their opponents, 29-77 when being outrushed and 1-0 when the rushing total is even.
- In Tech's current 22-year bowl run (since 1993), Tech is 185-28 when outrushing its opponents, 26-53 when being outrushed and 1-0 when the rushing total is even.
- In its current 22-year bowl run (since 1993), Tech is 118-8 when rushing for 200 yards or more.
- Since the start of the 2000 season, the Hokies are 45-0 when rushing 50 times or more in a non-OT game (last loss: 1999 national championship game to FSU; rushed 52 times).
- Since the start of the 1999 season, Tech is 140-22 when outrushing its opponent and 19-40 when being outrushed.

ALL SCORERS RETURNED

- Every single Hokie who scored a point last season for the Virginia Tech Hokies - a total of 313 points - returned in 2015. The list includes 14 players - three who were on defense and another on special teams.
- The Hokies' top scorer was kicker Joey Slye, who connected on 20-of-28 fields goals and converted 33-of-34 on extra points for 93 points.
- Bucky Hodges led the team in touchdowns, catching seven touchdown passes in 2014 - a Tech single-season record for tight ends, while also adding a TD on a blocked punt in the end zone against Virginia. He also caught a two-point conversion attempt to give him 50 points for the year.
- Ryan Malleck contributed a pair of TD grabs to give the tight end position a total of nine TD catches for the season.
- Third on the list overall was Isaiah Ford, who as a freshman, hauled in six touchdown passes, while classmate Cam Phillips snagged three.
- On the ground, Marshawn Williams led the way with four touchdown runs, while Shai McKenzie (3) and J.C. Coleman (2).
- Quarterback Michael Brewer had two rushing touchdowns and fullback Sam Rogers added one.
- On the defensive side of the ball, and one from special teams, there were an additional four Hokies who scored touchdowns. Donovan Riley and Kendall Fuller each reached the end zone after an interception, while Andrew Motuapuaka (on kickoff coverage) and Greg Stroman each hit paydirt on fumble returns.

#LUNCHPAILD

During Bud Foster's 269-game tenure as defensive/co-defensive coordinator, Tech has ...

- had 50 different defensive players score touchdowns.
- scored 77 touchdowns (52 on pass interceptions, 24 on fumble returns and one on a fumble recovery).
- held opponents to an average of 112.6 yards rushing and 17.2 points per game.
- been nationally ranked in the top five of a major defensive category 37 times. Tech finished No. 1 in total defense in 2005 and 2006, second in 2001 and third in 1999.
- pitched 28 shutouts.
- had at least one defensive player earn All-America honors from some publication in 17 of 19 seasons. Four players gained A-A recognition in 1999 and three were honored in 2001.
- produced six first-team All-Americans and 12 others who have earned second- or third-team All-America honors from one of the recognized groups.
- had 37 players drafted by NFL teams.
- produced its first Lombardi Award winner and its first Nagurski Trophy winner in Corey Moore.
- produced two BIG EAST defensive players of the year - Corey Moore (1998, 1999), and Cornell Brown (1995).
- featured 10 players who have recorded nine or more interceptions in their career.

THE STORIED LUNCH PAIL

- Taken with the Hokies wherever they go is the storied lunch pail. The Pail served as the inspiration for Tech's record-setting 1995 defense, symbolizing Tech's blue collar approach to defensive football. Every year since, a member of the defense has been responsible for toting a new Pail.
- Coach Rod Sharpless, then the co-defensive coordinator along with Bud Foster, brought a lunch pail back from New Jersey and they decided that it would become the symbol of the 1995 defense. Sharpless' mother-in-law found the now famous original lunch pail in Mercerville, N.J., where it had belonged to a coal miner.
- The players put the unit goals, weekly goals, the keys to success for the week and a signed mission statement before the season in the Pail ... plus the turf from any road wins. Also included in the Pail is the list of names of the 32 fallen Hokies from the April 16, 2008 tragedy.

EDMUNDS BROTHERS RARE FEAT

Just after Virginia Tech's first touchdown against Ohio State on Sept. 7, the Edmunds brothers - Terrell, Tremaine and Trey - became just the third trio of brothers to take the field together at the same time in the same game for a major college football program dating back to 1970. The first to accomplish this rarest of feats was the Selmon brothers at Oklahoma when Lee Roy, Lucious and Dewey all played for the Sooners' defense during the 1972 and 1973 seasons. They were followed in 2010 and 2011 by the McCray brothers - Cliff, Jordan and Justin - who all played on the offensive line together at UCF. During the 2015 season, the Edmunds are regularly appearing together on the special teams kickoff coverage team.

VIRGINIA TECH'S 267-GAME SCORING STREAK

Virginia Tech's current scoring streak started in 1995 and it currently stands tied for the 11th-longest streak in FBS history, and the sixth-longest active streak in the FBS. During the run, Tech scored on its first offensive possession 86 times, plus another five occasions* where it scored on returns on its first touch of the game. The Hokies have scored in the first quarter 191 times during the streak, and have extended it by halftime in 254 of the 267 games. During the streak, the Hokies have posted 28 shutouts by their defense.

Here's the year-by-year breakdown (* - blocked punt recovery in the end zone against Akron in 1995; an interception return at Clemson in 2007; an interception return against Boston College in 2008; a blocked punt return against Marshall in 2013; and a fumble return on the opening kickoff of the 2014 Western Michigan game):

Virginia Tech has a 195-72 record during the streak, averaging 33.8 points in the wins and 19.9 points in the losses. The Hokies have only on six occasions delayed extending the streak until the fourth quarter or overtime. The last time came in 2014 in an overtime loss at Wake Forest. The latest Tech scored its first points in a game was in overtime in 2014 at Wake Forest (a 0-0 tie after four quarters). The latest in a regulation game was with 1:30 left in Tech's game versus Miami also in 2014. Here's a look at the six occasions.

Date	Game	Opponent	Fourth Quarter/OT Score (first if multiple scores)	Time Left (4Q)	Result

Nov. 22, 2014	254	at Wake Forest	Joey Slye 28 yd FG	OT	L, 3-6 (2ot)

There have been nine occasions where Virginia Tech scored just once to continue the streak, by nine different players. Six of those times it was special teams (five times - four field goals and a blocked FG return) or the defense (one time - on a fumble return) that helped continue the streak.

Only twice did Tech's lone score come in the fourth quarter of a game: 2005 when Marcus Vick scored on a 5-yard run with 8:06 left in a 27-7 loss and in 2014 when Isaiah Ford caught a 14-yard pass from Mark Leal with 1:30 left in a 30-6 loss and once it came in overtime, last year at Wake Forest on a Joey Slye field goal. A look at these nine times with one score.

A FAMILY AFFAIR

The Virginia Tech football program prides itself on the family atmosphere it instills and that has not gone unnoticed as many sets of brothers and sons of former players have followed in those footsteps and decided to play for head coach Frank Beamer and his staff. Below is a list of current players who have followed their relatives to Blacksburg.

In all 25 sets of brothers have been coached by Beamer.

Woody Baron (junior)

Uncle: Jim Baron (lettered 1994-95)

Connor Kish (freshman)

Brother: Kevin Kish (freshman)

Kyle Chung (redshirt sophomore)

Father: Eugene Chung (lettered 1988-91)

Tremaine Edmunds (freshman)

Brothers: Terrell Edmunds (redshirt freshman)
 Trey Edmunds (redshirt junior)

Coleman Fox (freshman)

Father: Rich Fox (lettered 1986-89)

CURRENT TECH PLAYERS WITH NFL CONNECTIONS

Kyle Chung - father, Eugene Chung, played at Tech before playing in the NFL with New England, Jacksonville and Indianapolis. He is currently the offensive line assistant of the Kansas City Chiefs.

Kalvin Cline - father, Mike Cline, was drafted by the Green Bay Packers.

Trey, Terrell and Tremaine Edmunds - father, Ferrell Edmunds, played seven seasons in the NFL as a tight end, earning two Pro Bowl nods.

Kendall Fuller - brother, Vincent Fuller, played six seasons as a defensive back for the Tennessee Titans - brother, Corey, is currently playing in the NFL and is a wide receiver with the Detroit Lions; - brother, Kyle, is currently playing in the NFL and is a defensive back with the Chicago Bears.

Alston Smith - father, Bruce Smith, was a standout player for the Hokies before going on to star in the NFL. The all-time sacks leader was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2010.

MORE ON THE FULLERS

The Fullers became the first family at Tech to send four brothers to the school. More impressively is that, despite three of them playing on the defensive side of the ball, all four of them have scored at least one touchdown in their Tech careers.

VINCENT FULLER - CB

At VT: 142 tackles, 19 PBU, 8 INTs, 3 FR
 Two TDs: 50-yd fumble return; 74-yd blocked FG return
 Fourth-round pick of Tennessee; 8 years in the NFL

COREY FULLER - WR

At VT (2 seasons): 45 rec., 815 yds, 6 TDs
 Final TD was only touchdown in 13-10 win over Rutgers in Russell Athletic Bowl
 Sixth-round pick of Detroit; in third year in the NFL

KYLE FULLER - CB

At VT: 173 tackles, 23.5 TFL, 28 PBU, 6 INTs, 4 FF
 Second-team All-American
 One TD: recovered blocked punt in end zone
 First-round pick of Chicago; in second year in the NFL

KENDALL FULLER - CB

At VT: 112 tackles, 26 PBU, 8 INTs, 2 FR, 1 FF
 2014 Second-Team All-American; First-team All-ACC
 One TD: 47-yd INT for a touchdown at UNC
OF NOTE: If Kendall gets drafted and plays in the NFL, the four Fullers will become just the second group of four brothers to play in the NFL and the first group of four brothers to be drafted to the NFL out of the same college. Jim (Notre Dame), Joey (USC), Keith (USC) and Ross (Notre Dame) Browner are four brothers who played in the NFL in the late 1970s and 1980s, but went to different schools.

MORE ON THE EDMUNDS

Not to be outdone, the three Edmunds - Trey, Terrell and Tremaine - have become the first trio of brothers to play for head coach Frank Beamer all at the same time and are the fourth family to have at least three sons play at Tech.

The Fullers, again, are the only set of four brothers to play in Blacksburg, while the Houserights had four family members play for the Hokies.

Father: Bill Houseright (lettered 1973-77)

Sons: Bill Houseright, Jr. (lettered 1995)
 Jake Houseright (lettered 1998-01)
 Jonas Houseright (lettered 2006-08)

The only other trio of brothers to play for Tech were the Warrens.

Brothers: Blake Warren (lettered 2002-05)
 Brett Warren (lettered 2004-05, 2007-08)
 Beau Warren (lettered 2007-10)

LANE STADIUM - HOME OF THE HOKIES

Rising high into the mountainous sky of the New River Valley, Virginia Tech's Lane Stadium enters its 51st year of football competition in 2015. The Tech football team has enjoyed over two decades of success, going to 22 straight bowl games and winning 10 or more games eight straight seasons from 2004-11. A big part of that success is the home-field advantage the Hokies enjoy at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

Billed as the toughest place in college football for opponents to play by Rivals.com in 2005 and one of the scariest places to play by ESPN.com in 2007, the Hokies play not only on one of the best playing surfaces in the nation, but with the south end zone and west side additions, the Hokies compete in one of the best stadiums in the nation.

Sitting at roughly 2,057 feet above sea level, the stadium is the second-highest among all FBS schools in the eastern United States, trailing only Appalachian State (3,300). Completed in 1965, Lane Stadium/Worsham Field has gone through numerous changes, renovations and additions. But through it all, it has always been regarded as one of the finest places to watch – and toughest places for opponents to play – a college football game.

A WINNING TRADITION

On Sept. 22, 1994, Tech won its 100th game in Lane Stadium in memorable fashion before a national television audience on ESPN with a 34-6 win over rival West Virginia. On Nov. 1, 2003, Tech upset No. 2 Miami 31-7 to pick up its 150th all-time win at Lane Stadium, marking the highest-ranked opponent the Hokies have ever defeated - home or on the road.

Tech's overall record entering the 2015 season at Lane Stadium was 208 wins, 77 losses and six ties in 50 years of play. The Hokies entered the year 134-40-1 at home during Coach Frank Beamer's tenure at Virginia Tech and more impressively, were 116-26 in Blacksburg during the previous 22 seasons (during its current bowl run).

In terms of conference success, Tech entered the season 32-12 in ACC home games and was 32-9 as a member of the BIG EAST.

A large part of that impressive record is the home-field environment created by the fans, as Lane Stadium was sold out for 94 consecutive games, starting with the final game of the 1998 season against Virginia and running through the 2012 season.

THE HOKIE STONE

Before each home football game, Virginia Tech football players and coaching staff enter Lane Stadium through a tunnel. On the stadium-side entrance to Worsham Field, they pass beneath a Hokie Stone, which they touch for good luck and is flanked by these words: "For those who have passed. For those to come ... Reach for Excellence."

ENTER SANDMAN

The history behind Virginia Tech's use of Metallica's "Enter Sandman" started during the 2000 season. That summer Tech added a new scoreboard to Lane Stadium and the athletics marketing team decided to use the scoreboard for an entrance video. The group considered "Welcome to the Jungle" by Guns N' Roses and "Sirius" by the Alan Parsons Project before settling on "Enter Sandman." It has been the entrance song for the Hokies ever since.

THE BATTLE AT BRISTOL

VIRGINIA TECH vs. TENNESSEE - SEPT. 10, 2016

On Oct. 14, 2013, Virginia Tech and Tennessee announced plans to play a non-conference football game at the Bristol Motor Speedway in 2016 at a joint news conference held at the speedway – a game that was dubbed as the “Battle at Bristol.”

The Bristol Motor Speedway will become a football venue next year when the Hokies take on neighboring Tennessee – the two schools are just 236 miles apart – in a non-conference tilt. Track officials anticipate the Sept. 10, 2016 game will break college football's all-time single-game attendance mark. The current record occurred in 2013 when Michigan and Notre Dame played in front of 115,109 fans at Michigan Stadium. The Bristol Motor Speedway is close to a 160,000-seat venue.

The marketing campaign for the game took another step when track general manager Jerry Caldwell, NASCAR Xfinity Series driver Ty Dillon and Derek Vaughan, an engineer with Richard Childress Racing – and a Virginia Tech graduate (mechanical engineering, class of 1998) – along with other BMS officials came to Blacksburg on Aug. 11 of this year to promote the game. The group toured Tech's facilities, met with athletics department personnel, including AD Whit Babcock and head football coach Frank Beamer, and answered questions from the media. Dillon and Vaughan also caught passes and ran drills with assistant head coach Shane Beamer and some of Tech's players.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as “Virginia Tech.”

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The “State University” was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today. Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply “Virginia Tech.”

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

WHAT'S A HOKIE?

That's the most frequently asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute. With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his “Old Hokie” yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if “Hokie” had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics. Following is the “Old Hokie” yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

GAME ONE

 No. 1	OHIO STATE	42
	VIRGINIA TECH	24

Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, Va. • September 7, 2015 • Attendance: 65,632

BLACKSBURG, Va. — Ohio State quarterback Cardale Jones threw two touchdown passes and rushed for 99 yards, as the No. 1-ranked Buckeyes rallied from a small halftime deficit to defeat Virginia Tech 42-24 at Lane Stadium on Monday night.

Jones had a touchdown pass and a touchdown run in the second half, helping the Buckeyes avenge last season's 35-21 loss to the Hokies in Columbus, Ohio. Behind Jones, Ohio State amassed 572 yards of total offense.

Worse than the loss, Hokies quarterback Michael Brewer fractured his collarbone in the third quarter. He will undergo surgery on Tuesday and will miss at least 4-8 weeks.

Tech trailed 14-0, but rallied to take a 17-14 lead at halftime, scoring two second-quarter touchdowns. A 51-yard touchdown pass from Brewer to Sam Rogers got the Hokies on the board, and Tech cut the lead to 14-10 on Joey Slye's 46-yard field goal. Tech then took the lead on a 1-yard pass from Brewer to tight end Ryan Malleck with 15 seconds left in the first half.

Ohio State, though, quickly grabbed the lead in the second half, scoring on a 54-yard pass from Jones to Braxton Miller, a quarterback who missed last season because of an injury and was moved to receiver this past spring. On the ensuing possession, Brewer took a shot while attempting a pass and had to be helped from the field.

After Brewer's injury, the Hokies didn't amount much in the way of offense behind untested backup Brenden Motley. Tech amassed just 77 yards of offense after Brewer left the game, though Motley did throw a touchdown pass late in the game to Isaiah Ford.

Miller gave the Buckeyes a 28-17 lead on a 53-yard touchdown run with 2:05 left in the third quarter. Jones' 10-yard touchdown run with 12:26 left in the game essentially put the game away.

Jones completed 9 of 18 for 186 yards, with two touchdowns and an interception. Ezekiel Elliott rushed for 122 yards on 11 carries, including an 80-yard touchdown run, and Miller rushed for 62 yards on six carries and a touchdown. He also caught two passes for 72 yards and a score.

Brewer completed 11 of 16 for 156 yards and two touchdowns for the Hokies. Motley completed 4 of 9 for 36 yards, with a touchdown and an interception.

GAME NOTES

- Five true freshman saw action vs. Ohio State for the Hokies.
- Tech sold out its first home game since (10/5/13) vs. UNC (attendance of 65,632).
- Michael Brewer had a career-long 51 yard pass for a touchdown to Sam Rogers.
- Brendan Motley set career-highs in passing attempts (9), completions (4), yards (36) and his first TD.

GAME TWO

	FURMAN	3
	VIRGINIA TECH	42

Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, Va. • September 12, 2015 • Attendance: 60,118

BLACKSBURG, Va. — Coming off a short week and playing a quarterback who came into the season as the backup left Virginia Tech fans feeling that disaster loomed on the horizon.

But Brenden Motley took away those doubts.

Making his first collegiate start, Motley threw two touchdown passes and rushed for a touchdown to lead the Hokies past Furman 42-3 on Saturday afternoon.

Motley started in place of injured Michael Brewer, who broke his collarbone in the Hokies' Monday night loss to No. 1 Ohio State. Brewer underwent surgery on Tuesday and is expected to miss the next 4-6 weeks, perhaps longer.

Enter Motley, a redshirt junior who played his high school ball at nearby Christiansburg High School. He completed 16 of 24 passes for 233 yards, and he also rushed for 38 yards on four carries.

Mostly behind Motley, Virginia Tech (1-1) finished with 583 yards of total offense, the Hokies' most in a game since 2010 and their most under offensive coordinator Scot Loeffler, who took over in 2013. Virginia Tech had a balanced attack, running for 299 yards and throwing for 284.

Much of that came in the second half. The Hokies had 371 yards in the final 30 minutes, including 200 on the ground.

Tech led 14-0 and broke open the game with three third-quarter touchdowns. He threw 1-yard and 32-yard touchdown passes to Isaiah Ford sandwiched around a 1-yard touchdown run by Trey Edmunds — his first touchdown run since November of 2013.

Those touchdowns gave the Hokies a 35-3 advantage going to the fourth quarter. Tech's final score came on a 4-yard run by freshman Dwayne Lawson, arguably the Hokies' top recruit in the 2015 class.

Andrew Motuapuaka's interception return for a touchdown — his second career touchdown — headlined a Tech defense that forced three turnovers and held Furman to 254 yards.

Travon McMillian paced the Hokies' rushing attack with 98 yards on six carries, while Lawson finished with 51 on nine carries. Cam Phillips and Ford each caught five passes for 86 and 77 yards, respectively.

GAME NOTES

- Isaiah Ford tied a career-high with two TD receptions.
- Tech had its most offensive yards under Scot Loeffler with 583. Most since a 2010 win over Wake Forest.
- Brenden Motley made his first career start and set career-highs in passing attempts (24), completions (16), yards and TDs (2).
- Freshman Travon McMillian ran for a team-high and a career-high 98 yards.

GAME THREE

	VIRGINIA TECH	51
	PURDUE	24

Ross-Ade Stadium • West Lafayette, Ind. • September 19, 2015 • Attendance: 45,759

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Tech quarterback Brenden Motley threw two touchdown passes and ran for one, and Tech's defense and special teams also scored as the Hokies pulled away from the Boilermakers 51-24 at Ross-Ade Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

With the win, Tech moved to 2-1 on the season. Purdue fell to 1-2.

Motley, making his second straight in place of injured quarterback Michael Brewer, completed 15 of 23 for 220 yards, with the touchdown and no interceptions. Behind Motley, Tech amassed 471 yards of total offense — a balanced 238 rushing and 233 passing — and played the main role in the Hokies scoring 27 straight points to break open a close game.

Defensively, Chuck Clark returned a fumble for a touchdown for the Hokies, and Terrell Edmunds' blocked punt in the third quarter was returned by Anthony Shegog for a touchdown.

This game marked the first time since the Clemson game in 2007 that the Hokies scored in all three phases of the game.

Tech grabbed the lead for good on a 5-yard touchdown run by Motley with 1:08 left in the first half that gave the Hokies a 24-17 edge. The Hokies then put the game away with 17 third-quarter points.

An 82-yard kickoff return by Der'Woun Greene to open the second half led to a 42-yard field goal by Joey Slye that gave the Hokies a 27-17 lead. Then on Tech's next possession, a 42-yard drive ended when J.C. Coleman scored from a yard out. Slye's extra point gave Tech a 34-17 bulge with 5:10 left in the third quarter.

The Hokies closed the quarter with Edmunds' blocked punt. Shegog picked up the loose ball and ran it back 15 yards for a touchdown, and Slye's extra point gave the Hokies a 41-17 advantage with a minute left in the quarter.

Slye added a field goal in the fourth quarter and a 3-yard touchdown pass from Motley to Bucky Hodges — their second hookup of the day — accounted for the final margin.

Tech's defense held the Boilermakers to just 265 yards of offense. Purdue quarterback Austin Appleby completed just 9 of 28 for 110 yards, with two interceptions.

Slye made three field goals for the Hokies, who also got six receptions and 128 yards from Isaiah Ford. Trey Edmunds paced Tech's 238-yard rushing day with 72 yards on nine carries.

GAME NOTES

- This game marked the first time since the Clemson game in 2007 that the Hokies scored in all three phases of the game.
- It was the highest point total for Tech since they had 52 points against Wake Forest in 2010.
- Most points in back-to-back games since 2010 against Central Michigan and Wake Forest.
- Bucky Hodges had a career-high two TD receptions. Had one TD catch seven previous times in his career.

GAME FOUR

	VIRGINIA TECH	28
	EAST CAROLINA	35

Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium • Greenville, N.C. • September 26, 2015 • Attendance: 50,514

GREENVILLE, N.C. — East Carolina quarterback James Summers rushed for 169 yards and threw for 110 yards, helping the Pirates rally from a 14-0 deficit to beat Virginia Tech 35-28 in a non-conference game at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium on Saturday.

The loss marked the Hokies' second straight to the Pirates, who downed the Tech in Blacksburg last year. Tech lost in Greenville, North Carolina, for the first time since 1992.

"The good thing for us is we're getting ready to enter conference play," Tech coach Frank Beamer said. "Everything is still there ... the ACC championship, the Orange Bowl ... the whole deal is still there. But we've got to become a better football team to enter into that mix. It's very obvious what we need to do."

East Carolina scored 28 consecutive points at one stretch after the Hokies scored two touchdowns off Pirate turnovers.

Tech trailed 35-21 after a 41-yard touchdown run by Summers with 3:43 left in the third quarter. The Hokies cut into that lead, getting a 5-yard touchdown run by Brenden Motley with 8:18 left in the game. The big play came on a 60-yard completion from Motley to Cam Phillips, and the touchdown capped a 95-yard drive.

Tech had two more chances to score in the final five minutes. One drive ended when Bucky Hodges couldn't corral a fourth-down pass from Motley that would have given the Hokies a first down in ECU territory. The final chance came at the end of the game when Tech got the ball to its 41 and tried a "Hail Mary" that fell incomplete.

Motley led the Hokies with 366 of their 439 yards of offense. He completed 20 of 35 for 281 yards, with a touchdown and an interception. He also rushed for 85 yards and a score.

Summers, who went into the game as the backup to Blake Kemp, rushed for his 169 yards on 21 carries, and he completed 5 of 8 for the 110 yards and a score. East Carolina finished 410 yards.

GAME NOTES

- Tech trailed for the first time all season at halftime, 21-14.
- Isaiah Ford became the fastest player to 1,000 receiving yards under Frank Beamer, passing Andre Davis.
- Motley became the first Tech quarterback under Beamer to score a rushing touchdown or throw for at least 200 yards in each of his first three starts.
- The Hokies' defense allowed its first touchdown in the season quarter.

BLACKSBURG — Pittsburgh rushed for 166 yards and its defense held the Hokies in check for much of the game, enabling the Panthers to knock off Virginia Tech 17-13 in the ACC opener for both schools.

The win marked just Pittsburgh's second in Blacksburg — the other one came in 2002 — and sent the Hokies to their second straight loss. Pittsburgh is now 3-1 overall, 1-0 in the ACC. Tech is 2-3, 0-1.

Tech cut a 17-10 lead to 17-13 on a 48-yard field goal by Joey Slye with 13:20, but the Hokies couldn't get any closer. Their next three drives ended in an interception, a punt and an interception.

Tech finished with only 100 yards of total offense, including just nine rushing. Brenden Motley was sacked seven times, and he completed 9 of 20 for 91 yards, with a touchdown and three interceptions.

Pittsburgh finished with 276 yards of offense. Tailback Qadree Ollison rushed for 122 yards on 19 carries and a touchdown. Peterman completed 9 of 15 for 110 yards, with the touchdown and no interceptions. Pittsburgh only turned the ball over once.

Tech trailed the entire game, spotting the Panthers a 10-0 lead in the first quarter, with Pittsburgh getting a 45-yard field goal from Chris Blewitt and a 23-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Nate Peterman to tight end J.P. Holtz.

Off to a slow start, the Hokies finally put together a good drive spanning the first and second quarters. A 12-play, 83-yard drive that took more than six minutes ended when Motley hit Cam Phillips for an 11-yard touchdown play. The big play on the drive, though came two plays earlier when, on third-and-17 from the Pittsburgh 40, Motley completed a 28-yard pass to tight end Bucky Hodges for a first down. Slye's extra point following the touchdown cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7 with 11:38 left in the half.

Pittsburgh wasted little time in getting going in the second half. Ollison rumbled 43 yards on the Panthers' first play from scrimmage, giving Pittsburgh a first down at the Tech 25. On the next play, he scored, and Blewitt's extra point gave the Panthers a 17-7 lead.

Tech sliced into that lead midway through the third quarter. Andrew Motuapuaka forced Ollison to fumble, and the Hokies' Terrell Edmunds recovered and returned it to the Pittsburgh 23. The drive stalled, but the Hokies got a 43-yard field goal from Joey Slye to cut the lead to 17-10 with 6:03 left in the third quarter.

That turned out to be their last score. On the final eight plays from scrimmage, Tech's offense turned the ball over twice and gave up three sacks.

GAME NOTES

• Tech had its lowest offensive output of 100 yards since Beamer's first game vs. Clemson in 1987.

• Joey Slye made a season-long 48 yard field goal.

• Virginia Tech blocked its 136th kick and 41st field goal under Beamer.

• The Hokies have forced a turnover so far in every game in 2015.

GAME SIX

	NC STATE	13
	VIRGINIA TECH	28

Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, Va. • October 9, 2015 • Attendance: 61,183

BLACKSBURG — Virginia Tech quarterback Brenden Motley threw three touchdown passes to Isaiah Ford, and the Hokies rushed for 200 yards, as they notched a much-needed 28-13 victory over ACC foe NC State on Friday night.

For the second straight game, Tech found itself behind 10-0 in the first half. NC State got on the board on its opening drive, getting a 33-yard field goal by Kyle Bambard and an 8-yard scoring pass from quarterback Jacoby Brissett to Jumichael Ramos.

But Tech's defense responded after that, holding the Wolfpack to just a field goal the rest of the game. In fact, the Wolfpack amassed just 125 yards in the final three quarters and finished with just 270 yards for the game.

The Hokies' defense also held NC State quarterback Jacoby Brissett in check. Brissett threw for just 113 yards and his streak of passes without an interception ended at 241 when Adonis Alexander intercepted him in the fourth quarter.

Tech's offense exploded in the second quarter, scoring on three straight possessions — all ending on touchdown passes from Motley to Ford. Motley's 27-yard touchdown pass to Ford with 10:41 left in the first half cut the NC State lead to 10-7 and then his 5-yard touchdown pass to Ford with 5:54 left in the first half gave Tech a lead it would not relinquish.

A 2-yard touchdown pass to Ford with 18 seconds left gave the Hokies a 21-10 lead at halftime. Ford became the first Tech receiver since Ernest Wilford in 2002 (Syracuse) to catch at least three touchdown passes in a game. Wilford caught four in the Hokies' triple overtime loss to the Orangemen.

NC State added a field goal in the third quarter, but the Hokies put the game way midway through the fourth quarter. Leading 21-13 and taking over at their own 12, they drove to their own 41 before Motley handed the ball off to Travon McMillian on a second-down play. McMillian broke down the left sideline, hurdled a tackler and went 59 yards for a touchdown that gave Tech a 28-13 lead with 6:54 left in the game.

NC State tried to respond, driving to the Tech 32. But on fourth down, quarterback Jacoby Brissett's pass in the end zone was broke up by the Hokies' Brandon Facyson, and Tech took over on downs, essentially sealing the game.

Tech finished with 358 yards of offense. Motley completed 14 of 28 for 158 yards, with the three touchdown passes to Ford and no interceptions. McMillian set career highs in yards (96) and carries (11).

GAME NOTES

• Isaiah Ford became the fastest Tech player to 10 TD receptions and the first to ever have three TD catches in one quarter.

• Virginia Tech is 4-0 now in Friday night games.

• The Hokies erased the largest deficit so far this season at 10 points.

• With his three TD passes in the second quarter, Motley became the third QB under Beamer to toss three TD passes in one quarter.

GAME SEVEN

	VIRGINIA TECH	20
	MIAMI	30
Sun Life Stadium • Miami, Fla. • October 17, 2015 • Attendance: 50,787
MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. — Virginia Tech turned the ball over four times, and that turned out to be the difference in the game, as Miami converted those turnovers into 10 points and knocked off the Hokies 30-20 in an ACC game played Saturday at Sun Life Stadium. With the loss, the Hokies fell to 3-4 on the season, 1-2 in ACC play. Miami moved to 4-2 overall, 1-1 in the league. Michael Brewer, who hadn't played since fracturing his clavicle in the season opener against Ohio State, came into this game toward the end of the third quarter after starter Brenden Motley had committed his third turnover. A Motley interception with 3:34 left in the third led to a 21-yard field goal by Miami kicker Michael Badgley that gave the 'Canes a 23-13 lead with 58 seconds left in the quarter. The Hokies managed to slice into Miami's lead on a 33-yard pass from Brewer to Isaiah Ford, and Joey Slye's extra point cut the lead to 23-20 with 7:20 remaining. But Tech's defense couldn't get a stop. Miami drove 75 yards in nine plays on the ensuing possession and scored on a 2-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Brad Kaaya to Rashawn Scott with 2:44 remaining. Badgley's extra point basically sealed the game. The Hokies finished the game with 361 yards of offense. Motley completed 14 of 23 for 136 yards, with a touchdown and two interceptions, while Brewer completed 3 of 4 for 65 yards, with a touchdown and an interception. Tailback Travon McMillian led the Hokies' ground game with a career-best 99 yards, and he also caught a touchdown pass from Motley. Kaaya paced Miami's attack. He completed 19 of 30 for 296 yards, with two touchdowns and no interceptions. Miami finished with 395 yards of offense. Motley's fumble on the second play from scrimmage led to a 3-yard touchdown run by Miami tailback Joe Yearby to give the 'Canes a 7-0 lead. The two teams then swapped field goals before the Hokies tied the game on Motley's 9-yard touchdown pass to McMillian. Tech appeared to be in great shape heading into halftime, tied with Miami at 13. The 'Canes faced a third-and-20 from their own 11, but quarterback Brad Kaaya completed a 45-yard pass to Herb Waters. Three plays later, a roughing-the-passer penalty on Tech gave the 'Canes 15 more yards. In the end, Miami took advantage of Tech's mistakes. With 4 seconds left, Kaaya threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Rashawn Scott, and the extra point gave Miami a 20-13 lead at the break.
GAME NOTES
• Deon Clarke, Ken Ekanem and Dadi Nicolas all have started 20 consecutive games • Tech extended its scoring streak to 263 straight games • The Hokies lost for the first time wearing the special military-inspired helmets (3-1).

GAME EIGHT

	No. 23 DUKE	45
	VIRGINIA TECH	43
Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, Va. • October 24, 2015 • Attendance: 63,257
BLACKSBURG – Virginia Tech tailback Travon McMillian rushed for a career-high 142 yards, but it wasn't enough as the Hokies came up on the losing end of a 45-43 four-overtime affair with the No. 23 Duke Blue Devils on Saturday afternoon at Lane Stadium. Duke quarterback Thomas Sirk threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Erich Schneider in the fourth overtime and then ran in the two-point conversion to give the wild win in the first four-overtime game in ACC history. With the loss, Tech fell to 3-5 overall, 1-3 in the ACC. Duke moved to 6-1 overall, 3-0 in league play. The Hokies had taken a 43-37 lead on a 1-yard touchdown run by McMillian to start the fourth overtime. Tech went for two points, as required by NCAA rules, but quarterback Michael Brewer's pass attempt to Isaiah Ford was broken up by a Duke defender. Duke immediately went to work. On the Blue Devils' first play, Sirk lofted a strike to Schneider, who scored, and then he ran in the two-point conversion for the win. Tech lost despite out-gaining Duke 452-449. Led by McMillian, the Hokies rushed for 182 yards. McMillian carried the ball a career-high 29 times and scored twice. Tech trailed 24-16 after Duke's Ross Martin hit a 41-yard field goal with 11:48 left in regulation. But the Hokies managed to tie the game by going 83 yards in 12 plays. The drive ended when Brewer threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Bucky Hodges with 2:07 remaining. McMillian's run – after two Duke pass interference penalties – gave the Hokies the two points they needed to tie the game. Brewer completed 24 of 45 for 270 yards, with three touchdowns. He threw touchdown passes of 16, 23 and 11 yards to Hodges, who finished with five catches for 101 yards. It marked the first 100-yard receiving game of Hodges' career. Sirk paced Duke's attack, throwing for 270 yards and four touchdowns. He also rushed for 109 yards on 18 carries.
GAME NOTES
• The last time Tech lost scoring 40+ points was a 52-49 defeat to California on Dec. 26, 2003 at the Insight Bowl in Phoenix, Arizona. • The 4 OTs set a school record for Tech and is the most played in an ACC game. • Bucky Hodges had a career-high 101 yards receiving and 3 TDs. • Scored on the longest touchdown drive under head coach Frank Beamer in terms of time of possession (9:46) and plays (20).

GAME NINE

	VIRGINIA TECH	26
	BOSTON COLLEGE	10

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, Mass. • October 31, 2015 • Attendance: 28,108

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. — Travon McMillian rushed for 105 yards, Joey Slye booted four field goals and the Hokies' defense scored a touchdown, helping Virginia Tech down the Boston College Eagles 26-10 in an ACC game played Saturday at Alumni Stadium. The win snapped the Hokies' two-game losing streak.

The Eagles came into the game ranked in the top 10 nationally in nine defensive categories, but the Hokies got off to a good start, and the Eagles offense, which has struggled much of the season, couldn't make up the difference.

Tech's defense held the Eagles to just 218 yards and forced four turnovers, including three fumbles, and it didn't give up a touchdown until the fourth quarter. Tech's offense finished with 275 yards of offense, led by McMillian's 105 rushing and Michael Brewer's 180 throwing. McMillian, who carried the ball 33 times, rushed for more yards against BC than any tailback this season.

The Hokies got on the board first in this one, scoring on their second possession. They went 47 yards in just four plays, with the drive ending on a 27-yard touchdown pass from Brewer to receiver Cam Phillips. Slye's extra point gave Tech a 7-0 lead with 6:44 left in the first quarter.

Tech's third drive ended in points as well. The Hokies marched to the BC 27, but the drive stalled after that and they settled for a 47-yard field goal by Slye. That gave them a 10-0 lead with 1:13 left in the first quarter.

Tech's defense accounted for the Hokies' second touchdown, as mike linebacker Andrew Motuapuaka stripped Jordan Gowins of the ball at the BC 34 and then grabbed it. He returned it 34 yards for a touchdown, and Slye's extra point gave Tech a 17-0 lead with 11:01 left in the first half.

Tech's final score of the first half came on a nice, two-minute drive that was extended when BC roughed punter A.J. Hughes after the Eagles had stopped the Hokies at the Tech 17.

Tech retained possession and marched 55 yards to the BC 20, using big pass plays of 25 and 16 yards to Isaiah Ford and Phillips, respectively. Slye nailed a 38-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to give Tech a 20-0 lead at halftime.

The teams traded field goals in the third quarter, with Slye adding a 32-yarder. That marked the third time this season that he's hit at least three field goals in a game and the sixth time in his career. His four field goals tied a career high, which he set in Tech's win over Cincinnati in the Military Bowl last year.

The Eagles finally got on the board toward the end of the third. An 11-play, 59-yard drive ended when Mike Knoll hit a 29-yard field goal that cut the Hokies' lead to 23-3 with 3:26 left in the third. The Eagles added a touchdown on a 3-yard run by Richard Wilson with 8:09 left in the game.

GAME NOTES

• Virginia Tech improved to 41-6 as a member of the ACC when scoring a defensive or special teams TD.

• Joey Slye tied a career-high with four made field goals going 4-for-4.

• Travon McMillian had 32 rush attempts, the most by a Tech player since Ryan Williams in 2009.

• The three recovered fumbles by the Hokies were the most since 2009 vs. NC State.

GAME TEN

	VIRGINIA TECH	23
	GEORGIA TECH	21

Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta, Ga. • November 12, 2015 • Attendance: 48,522

ATLANTA — Virginia Tech used great defense and a timely touchdown in the fourth quarter to rally from a 14-0 deficit and knock off Georgia Tech 23-21 in an ACC game played at Bobby Dodd Stadium in Atlanta on Thursday night.

With the win, the Hokies moved to 5-5 overall, 3-3 in the ACC, and need one more win to become bowl eligible for the 23rd straight season. Georgia Tech fell to 3-7 overall, 1-6 in the ACC.

Georgia Tech's third lost fumble of the game put Virginia Tech in prime scoring position in the fourth quarter. Virginia Tech defensive tackle Woody Baron forced Georgia Tech's Marcus Allen to fumble, and Dadi Nicolas recovered at the Georgia Tech 18 for the Hokies.

Travon McMillian took advantage, scoring a touchdown on a 4-yard run with 6:58 left that gave the Hokies the lead. Joey Slye missed the extra point, but Virginia Tech still led 23-21.

Virginia Tech's defense did the rest. Georgia Tech twice had chances to take the lead, but the Hokies held both times. On the Yellow Jackets final drive, they drove into Virginia Tech territory, but an unsportsmanlike penalty pushed them back and then the Hokies' Ken Ekanem came up with a big third-down sack of Georgia Tech's Justin Thomas. On fourth-and-27, Thomas' pass fell incomplete, enabling the Hokies to secure the win.

Virginia Tech's defense was outstanding after the first quarter. It gave up 130 yards in the first quarter, but just 128 in the final three quarters. The Hokies forced three turnovers in the win.

In fact, Georgia Tech finished with just 258 yards. That marked the fewest by a Georgia Tech coach Paul Johnson squad against a Virginia Tech defensive coordinator Bud Foster defense.

McMillian paced Virginia Tech's offense with 135 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Quarterback Michael Brewer threw for 178 yards and a score.

The Hokies fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter, but came from behind to tie the game at 14 at halftime following two long second-quarter scoring drives. The first one ended with a McMillian 2-yard touchdown run and the second one ended with a 17-yard touchdown pass from Brewer to Isaiah Ford.

Georgia Tech's lone score in the second half came when Brewer threw a pass that was intercepted on Georgia Tech's Brant Mitchell on third-and-10. Mitchell took it 32 yards to the end zone for a touchdown that gave the Yellow Jackets a 21-14 lead with 14 minutes left in the third quarter.

GAME NOTES

• Cam Phillips had a career-high 95 yards receiving in the game.

• Travon McMillian ran for 100+ yards for the third straight game

• Isaiah Ford has caught at least two passes in every game of his career, 23 straight games breaking Danny Coale's record of 22 games

• The three recovered fumbles for the second straight game

GAME ELEVEN

	NORTH CAROLINA	23
	VIRGINIA TECH	21

Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, Va. • November 22, 2015 • Attendance: 65,632

BLACKSBURG – Virginia Tech rallied from a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter to tie the game, but the Hokies couldn't quite overcome No. 12 North Carolina, falling 30-27 in overtime to the Tar Heels at Lane Stadium on Saturday in what marked the final home game of Tech head coach Frank Beamer's coaching career.

With the loss, the Hokies fell to 5-6 overall, 3-4 in the ACC, and they now need to beat rival Virginia next Saturday to become bowl eligible for the 23rd consecutive season. North Carolina moved to 10-1 overall, 7-0 in the ACC, and clinched the Coastal Division crown.

There were multiple tributes to Beamer, who, on Nov. 1, announced his plans to retire at the end of the season following 29 seasons as the Hokies' head coach. The Hokies played with emotion for their head coach, but were unable to overcome the Tar Heels.

On the field, North Carolina opened a 24-10 lead in the fourth quarter, taking advantage of a Sam Rogers fumble and a Michael Brewer interception on back-to-back possessions to score two touchdowns – both on Elijah Hood touchdown runs.

But the Tar Heels couldn't salt the game away. Quarterback Marquise Williams fumbled on back-to-back possessions in the fourth quarter, with the first one leading to an 8-yard touchdown pass from Brewer to tight end Bucky Hodges and the second one leading to a 4-yard touchdown pass from Brewer to receiver Isaiah Ford.

Ford's touchdown catch came with 1:07 remaining and tied the game at 24. Tech's defense held the Tar Heels on the ensuing possession and forced a punt. The Hokies then ran out the clock, sending the game into overtime.

Tech lost the toss heading into overtime, and North Carolina elected to play defense first. The Hokies went three-and-out and settled for a 41-yard field goal by Joey Slye that gave them a 27-24 lead.

North Carolina then got the ball. The Tar Heels drove to the Tech 3, but a false start pushed them back to the 8. A 3-yard run by quarterback Marquise Williams left North Carolina faced a third-and-goal from the 5. Out of a timeout, Williams threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Quinshad Davis to end the game. Davis appeared to be juggling the ball, but the officials reviewed the play, and the call stood.

Williams completed 13 of 26 for 205 yards, with a touchdown, and he also rushed for a touchdown. Hood rushed for 115 yards, as the Tar Heels finished with 445 yards of offense.

GAME NOTES

- Tech has scored in 267 straight games, sixth-longest streak in the country
- Isaiah Ford had a career-high 155 yards receiving
- Luther Maddy has played in 54 games, one shy of the school record
- Ford is tied for the school record in reception TDs in a season with Andre Davis and Antonio Freeman

VIRGINIA TECH MEDIA INFORMATION

MONDAY - PRESS LUNCHEON

Mondays, media members are invited to the Shott Media Center, which is located on the bottom level of the South End Zone, to take part in a joint press conference with selected players, Coach Frank Beamer and additional assistant coaches in the home interview room. A light lunch is served at noon with the interviews normally beginning at 12:30 p.m., with Coach Beamer being at the podium at approximately 1 p.m. The players and coaches who come to Monday's media luncheon will not be available post-practice on Tuesday.

A video feed of the press conference is available for free, both live and archived, on hokiesports.com. Media may watch this feed outside of the Shott Media Center, but can not ask questions.

Media may ONLY park in the softball/track lot without a visitor's pass. Tickets will be the responsibility of the offender.

TUESDAY - MEDIA INTERVIEWS

Tuesdays, offensive and defensive players along with assistant coaches will be available post practice. These interviews will take place outside the Veatch Family Lounge at approximately 6:15 p.m. Most weeks, defensive coordinator Bud Foster is available this day and will speak first for 10 minutes and then the coaches and players will be available for 20 minutes after that.

Media are asked to wait in the basketball work area located in Cassell Coliseum until a member of the Strategic Communications staff brings the media members to the lounge area.

Media coming for campus for post-practice interviews do not need a visitor's parking pass (after 5 p.m.). If members plan to come on campus during normal business hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m.), they must stop at the Visitor's Center and get a parking pass. Tickets will be the responsibility of the offender.

WEDNESDAY - ACC TELECONFERENCE

The ACC football coaches will be featured on a weekly teleconference, beginning Wednesday, Aug. 27 and continuing each Wednesday until Nov. 25. Each coach will be available for 10 minutes, with Coach Frank Beamer scheduled to start at 11:40.

Members of the media can secure the number by contacting the ACC office at (336) 851-6062

ACC VIDEO CLIP SERVICE

ACC Advanced Media will utilize the ACC Video Clip Service (AVCS) to provide football highlights and press conference excerpts to broadcast media across the conference footprint. This service will provide video content to media outlets in a more timely fashion, in an easy to access and download format, at no cost. To register for the AVCS contact Scott McBurney, Assistant Commissioner/ACC Advanced Media, at smcburney@theacc.org or call 336.369.4646.
