After going 1-1 last week and wrapping up regular season conference play at No. 4 Maryland, the Hokies have drawn the Terps in this year's ACC Tournament. Tech fell in College Park last weekend, 19-5, and will face the conference foe for the first time in the post season. Tech has never won an ACC Tournament game and will look to counter last week's outcome as it searches for its first victory.

Series Info: Maryland

The Hokies have never beaten Maryland in nine attempts. The two teams first met in 2003, which was the only time they battled as non-conference opponents. This ACC Tournament match up between the Hokies and Terps will mark the first post season clash for the pair. Maryland, ranked fourth in the country, topped the Hokies 19-5 last weekend as both teams closed out regular season conference play. Tech did not score a goal in the first half for the second time this season, while five different Hokies scored and junior Libby Rosebro was the only one to earn more than one point.

Scouting Report: Maryland

The Terps went 2-0 last week as they topped the Hokies after traveling to then-No. 18 Princeton. Though they will closeout their regular season on Wednesday, hosting No. 15 Georgetown, the Terps enter the ACC Tournament at 13-3 on the year after finishing conference play at 3-2.

Katie Schwarzmann's 50 goals pace the team, while Alex Aust leads the way with 32 assists and 66 points. Kelly McPartland had Tech's number last weekend, scoring four goals and assisting another. On defense, Iliana Sanza leads the way with 28 ground balls and 22 caused turnovers. Goalie Brittany Dipper did not allow a Hokie goal last weekend and upped her saves total with 107 with five against Tech, helping her to a .510 percentage and a 7.39 GAA on the season.

Nonn Earns All-ACC Honor

Senior middle Jessica Nonn was named to the 2012 All-ACC squad through what has been a stellar final season. This is the first of such honors for the Catonsville, Md., native, as she becomes just the fourth Hokie to garner the accolade.

Player Spotlight

Jack Boissonneault • Fr. • Midfield • Brooklin, Ontario.

Freshman middle Jack Boissonneault has been red-hot offensively as of late for the Hokies. Boissonneault leads the team with a four-game scoring streak, her longest of the season. She was the only player to score more than once at then-No. 5 North Carolina and put away two more goals at Longwood last week. The newcomer also scored against nationally-ranked Virginia and Maryland. Boissonneault has played in all but one game in her collegiate debut and has excelled on the defensive end as well, tallying 14 ground balls and five caused turnovers on the year.

History Made Topping No. 7 'Hoos

The Hokies downed their in-state rival No. 7 Virginia two weeks ago, 10-9 in overtime for the first time in program history. The win gives Tech its first win over a top-10 team, while it also marks the second straight season the Hokies have knocked off a ranked conference opponent.

Even play and long possessions themed regulation, as neither team led by more than two goals at any point. It was the late heroics of senior middle Jessica Nonn that kept Tech alive. She scored the final three goals of the game for Tech, including the overtime game-winner.

This was Tech's first overtime game since the 2009 season and its third straight win in extra time.

Nonn Honored for Top Performance

Senior leader Jessica Nonn was honored for her performance against No. 7 Virginia. After scoring the eventual game-winning goal, as well as the final two Tech goals of regulation, Nonn earned various weekly honors. She was named ACC Offensive Player of the Week as well as Synapse Sports Offensive Player of the Week, WomensLax.com Player of the Week and Virginia Tech Hardees Star of the Week.

Tech Against The Best

As a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Hokies have the opportunity to face numerous ranked teams every season.

Tech is 5-70 all-time against ranked teams, as it recently upped that record with a historic, 10-9 overtime win over in-state rival Virginia. The Cavaliers were ranked seventh in the country that week. The win was Tech's first ever over a top-10 team.

The Hokies have faced back-to-back ranked conference twice this season and faced then-No. 13 James Madison in non-conference play. Last week, Tech wrapped up conference play by traveling to No. 4 Maryland.

Leading the Way

Captaining the Hokies in 2012 are seniors Shannon Bone, Jessica Nonn and Julie Wolfinger. The trio earned team captain honors before the year began and will look to lead their team in their final season.

The three players have combined to start 130 games, scoring 130 goals and assisting on 32 more. On the defensive end, they have scooped up 233 ground balls and caused 131 turnovers through their three previous seasons.

Nonn Spearheads Veteran Midfield

Already a dominant player on the field, senior Jessica Nonn has extended her takeover this season to Tech's record books. While the Catonsville, Md., native leads the team in every statistical category, she also ranks among the all-time best at Tech in all categories except assists.

Nonn holds the No. 2 spot in caused turnovers and ground balls, while also ranking third in draw controls, goals and points.

The senior has scored in 14 of the 15 games so far this season. She ranks third in the ACC causing 1.27 turnovers per game and fourth with 3.00 draws and 1.73 ground balls per game.

Gale in Goal

Junior Alex Gale remains as the starter in the cage for the Hokies, which makes it her third season as the primary goalkeeper. The Cicero, N.Y., native has made 73 saves so far this season, including at least six in four of the last six games.

Despite the loss, Gale came up big against William & Mary, blocking all four free position attempts in the game. Later, Gale allowed just one goal in the first half at Mt. St. Mary's and came up big for her team, especially in the closing minutes to help seal a 13-12 win at Old Dominion.

Widlake Adds to Powerful Midfield

Senior Morgan Widlake adds greatly to the depth and experience in an already veteran midfield for the Hokies. Widlake has been a staple in the starting line-up since arriving at Tech three seasons ago and has been a force on both end of the field.

The Catonsville, Md., native is tied for fourth in the conference as she averages 1.20 caused turnovers and 1.73 ground balls per game. Widlake is tied for first on the squad with 26 ground balls, and is also second on the team with 18 caused turnovers, as well as third with 21 goals, 28 points and 35 draws.

Future Production

Freshmen Megan Will, Jack Boissonneault and Meg Bartley have come on strong early in their collegiate careers. The trio of newcomers have combined to score 53 goals, assist 16 more and scoop up 30 ground balls through 15 games.

Will has missed just two starts in her career and is second on the team with 24 goals this season. Boissonneault has grabbed 14 ground balls and has tallied 16 points. Bartley has earned at least one point in ten of Tech's last 11 games, while also consistently dominating the draw.

Back Where They Belong

Juniors Brooke Martin and Libby Rosebro have both transitioned back to their original positions this season and have proven they are happy to be back. Rosebro contributed greatly on defense last season but has rejoined the midfield this year due to her offensive success in the off-season. The Richmond, Va., native has tallied 18 points, 16 ground balls and nine caused turnovers on the year. Martin rejoins the attack this season from the midfield last year. She has tallied 21 goals and 26 points, including an impressive six-goal outing against High Point.

Protecting the Cage

The Tech defense has a much different look in 2012. Senior captain Julie Wolfinger spearheads the newly constructed unit and she is joined by junior Charlotte Marsh, redshirt freshman Taylor Landry and redshirt junior Chirstina Patten, who both missed last season due to injury. Relieving the starting crew has been freshman Ann Wallace Tazewell and junior Kristin Semones.

Fifteen games into the season, the unit is stronger than ever, tallying 41 ground balls and 28 caused turnovers collectively.

Fresh Start

All eight of the team's freshmen saw action in the season-opening win over Presbyterian College, while newcomer Megan Will also started the game. Will led all newcomers with three points in the game as she buried the first three goals of her career. Also earning their first points were Jack Boissonneault (2g), Maddy Hess (1g, 1a), Rachel Skay (1g), Cawley Bromley (1a) and Meg Bartley (1a).

Changing Things Around

Tech will see a number of players switch positions this season or return to positions they previously played. Junior Libby Rosebro spent much of last season on the defensive end but will return to the midfield this year after emerging as an offensive threat in the offseason. Senior leader Shannon Bone, who has served as somewhat of a utility player for the Hokies and also saw a lot of time on the defensive end last year, will also reposition herself into the midfield.

Junior Brooke Martin will move out of the midfield, where she gave the Hokies great minutes off the bench last season and get back to her original position on attack. Also moving out of the midfield will be Taylor Landry. Landry missed last season due to injury and saw some time in the offseason as a middie, but really excelled on the defensive end.

New Additions for 2012

On top of adding new assistant coach Sarah Jonson to the staff in the offseason, the Virginia Tech lacrosse team has welcomed eight freshmen this season in Maddy Hess, Cawley Bromley, Jack Boissonneault, Ann Wallace Tazewell, Meg Bartley, Rachel Skay, Caroline Boucher and Megan Will. The class represents six different states, with only two players hailing from the same state, as well as Canada.
