Notes: This will mark the first match up between the Hokies and Coastal Carolina ... This is Coastal's first season of women's lacrosse at the varsity level.

Scouting Coastal Carolina

The Chanticleers enter the weekend at 0-2 on the season, falling to Cincinnati, 13-8, and Marquette, 12-11 in overtime. The match up against the Hokies will be the third of four straight home games to open the season for Coastal.

Through the first couple games, Keri White leads the way early with six goals on the year, while Charlotte O'Leary has five goals and two assists. Lily Yednock has caused six turnovers and picked up nine ground balls on the year.

In goal for the Chanticleers has been Trista Kuehn, who has a .387 save percentage, making 12 saves so far this year.

Last Time Out

The Hokies suffered their second straight loss last Friday, falling at High Point, 9-5. Libby Rosebro led the offense for Tech with two goals, while Julie Heaps, Brooke Martin and Cawley Bromley all scored as well. Freshman Jessi Thon earned the first point of her career assisting Martin's goal.

Alex Gale made a lot of key stops for the Hokies in cage, finishing the game with 11 saves.

Senior Leaders

Captaining the Hokies this season will be seniors Libby Rosebro, Brooke Martin, Julia Heaps and Christina Patten. All four bring a wealth of on-field experience. Entering the season they have combined to play in 190 games and make 137 starts, even with Heaps being sidelined for much of last season due to injury and Patten suffering a torn Achilles causing her to miss 2011.

Veteran Experience

Tech returned a wealth of experience this season as it welcomes back 12 seniors. As a class, these veterans have been an integral part of the transition the program has recently made. They have helped lead their squad to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in over 10 years. They have also assisted in taking down ranked conference opponents in back-to-back years, topping then-No. 16 Boston College in 2011 and then-No. 7 Virginia in 2012.

Progressing Program

The Virginia Tech lacrosse team has seen a steady momentum shift over the past few seasons. Since former assistant Megan Burkner took over as head coach the Hokies have put together back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in program history while also knocking off ranked conference opponents in back-to-back years. Tech earned its best ACC finish in 2011 when a tiebreak awarded the Hokies the three-seed in the annual ACC Tournament. Tech also set a new program best in 2012 when it finished the year with a 7-2 record at Thompson Field.

Against The Best

The Hokies have a chance to play numerous ranked opponents and NCAA Tournament participants every season, especially within conference play. This year Tech opened with No. 7/6 Duke on the road. Although Tech is just 5-73 against ranked opponents, the Hokies have knocked off two ranked opponents in the last two seasons, earning their first-ever defeat of a top-10 foe when they topped then-No. 7 Virginia last year.

Strong Conference

The Atlantic Coast Conference has made a name for itself as a strong lacrosse conference. This season, five teams entered the year ranking in the top 20 of both the IWCA Poll and the deBeer Media Poll. With preseason polls still in effect, Maryland holds the No. 4 spot in both polls, while North Carolina ranks fifth in each. Duke enters the year as the 7/6 team in the nation, Virginia holds the No. 8 and No. 11 spots and Boston College ranks 20th and 18th.

Maryland, Duke, North Carolina and Virginia were all participants in the the 2012 NCAA Tournament.

Will to be the Best

Sophomore Megan Will broke onto the scene her in collegiate debut last year, earning a starting spot right away. Will finished the year as the second-leading scorer on the team with 30 goals, also tallying a squad second-best 37 points. Her three goals against Maryland in the ACC Tournament earned her a spot on the conference's All-Tournament team.

The Bel Air, Md., native is already out to a productive start after scoring two goals and assisting another at Duke.

Gale in Goal

Senior goalie Alex Gale has been the primary starter in cage since her arrival in 2010. Her 310 career saves lands her in fifth place all-time Tech. Gale finished 2012 with 90 saves and a 10-7 record.

Gale currently sits atop the ACC averaging 4.5 ground balls and 11.50 saves per game. She also ranks third in the league with a .469 save percentage.

Right Back to Business

Senior Brooke Martin returns great experience to the Hokie attack and midfield this year. She has played in every game since arriving on campus. After finishing her junior season as the third-leading scorer on the team, Martin has gone straight to work in 2013. She put away three goals in the opener a week ago at Duke.

The Hunt Valley, Md., native leads the team so far with four goals on the year.

Bartley, an Unexpected Surprise

Sophomore Meg Bartley walked on to the Tech lacrosse team in the Fall of 2011 and as the 2012 season began she made a quick and efficient impact. The Lewes, Del., native earned a starting job on attack by the fifth game, after scoring four goals and assisting another against UC Davis at home.

Bartley will again be threat on the draw for the Hokies as she matched a career high, winning six, at Duke a week ago.

True Team Player

Senior Libby Rosebro has been a team-first player for the Hokies over the years. She has started and played in every game since the beginning of her sophomore outing. The middle made the transition to defense as sophomore to add game-experience and help fill in where injuries and inexperience left the Hokies at a disadvantage. Contributing on both sides of the field, the Richmond, Va., native finished her junior campaign with 12 goals, nine assists, 17 ground balls and 10 caused turnovers.

Fresh Meat

Tech welcomes eight freshmen to the squad this season, hailing from six different states. Hannah Sieger is the only goalie in the new mix for the Hokies and she joins the team from San Diego and Rancho Bernardo High School. Laney Clarke (Virginia Beach, Va./ Cape Henry) and Mikayla Sweeney (Waxhaw, N.C./ Waxhaw) will look to add depth for the Hokies on attack.

The remaining newcomers will contribute in the coming years from the midfield or on the defensive side of things. Gracee Hendrix (Vero Beach, Fla./ Vero Beach), Claiborne Lucas (Roanoke, Va./ Patrick Henry), Jessi Thon (Victor, N.Y./ Victor), Kelsey Allen (West Islip, N.Y./ West Islip) and Meghan Macera (Westminster, Md./ Westminster) will look to earn playing time in their debuts.
