The Series vs. Virginia

This is a renewal of the most-played rivalry for the Hokies ... The series dates back to 1915 and the two schools have met at least once every year since 1961 … The Cavaliers lead the all-time series, 84-53 … UVa has won the last three meetings, including a 73-55 win last season in JPJA … Tech is 13-33 in road games in the series, and 3-4 in John Paul Jones Arena … The Hokies are 8-11 against Virginia since joining the ACC and 8-10 in ACC regular season games … Tech is 13-28 against UVa in all conference games, including Southern Conference games … Along with Blacksburg and Charlottesville, the two teams have met in Roanoke, Richmond, Hampton, Salem, Lynchburg and Greensboro, N.C.

Last Time Out: Wake Forest 83, VT 77

A furious second half comeback fell short, as the Hokies lost to Wake Forest, 83-77, in Cassell Coliseum on Wednesday night ... Tech trailed by as many as 21 points in the first half, and cut the lead to six points late, but could get no closer ... Devin Wilson continued his outstanding play, scoring a career-high 26 points and playing all 40 minutes in the game ... Jarell Eddie added 20 points and Trevor Thompson recorded his second double-double of the season, with 10 points and 12 rebounds ... Tech outrebounded the Deacs and committed just six turnovers, but shot just 33.8 percent from the floor.

Increased Offensive Productivity

Entering 2014, Devin Wilson was 2-8 on three-point field goals (.250) in 13 games ... Since the New Year, Wilson is 7-10 from three-point range (.700) in five games ... He is averaging 14.4 points per game in 2014 ... Wilson is shooting .511 from the field and .500 from three-point range this season.

Devin Wilson

The State We're In

With the loss to VCU, Virginia Tech is 423-308 (.579) all-time against schools from Virginia ...Tech is 2-1 this season against schools from the Commonwealth and was 1-2 last season against state schools ... The Hokies have played 14 schools from the state ... With the win over Norfolk State on Dec. 11, 2011, the only state Division I school that Tech has not played is Hampton ... Tech holds winning records against 10 of the schools and even records against two others ... Tech will play VMI, Radford, VCU and UVa from the Commonwealth this season.

Talking Trevor

In the win over VMI, Trevor Thompson recorded five blocked shots ... That is the most blocked shots by a Virginia Tech freshman since Cadarian Raines blocked five shots in a win over

Trevor Thompson

UMBC on Dec. 22, 2009 ... In the win over Western Carolina, he recorded his first career double-double ... He scored 15 points and grabbed 11 rebounds in just 21 minutes of action ... Its first double-double by a Hokie freshman since Marshall Wood had 14 points and 16 rebounds in an overtime loss at NC State last season ... It was Tech's first double-double of the season ... In the loss to Wake Forest, Thompson recorded his second career double-double, with 10 points and a career-high 12 rebounds in just 18 minutes of action ... It marks the first time that a Virginia Tech freshman has recorded multiple double-doubles in a season since Jeff Allen had nine double-doubles as a freshman in the 2007-08 season ... His 12 rebounds is the most by a Hokie freshman since Wood's 16 rebounds in the NC State game last season.

Cleaning the Glass

The Hokies grabbed a season-high 22 offensive rebounds in the loss to Wake Forest ... The previous high this season was 17 offensive boards in the win over VMI on Nov. 18 ... That total is tied for the second-most in a game by the Hokies since joining the ACC and is the most by the Hokies against an ACC opponent in a regulation game since joining the league in 2004-05 season ... The last time the Hokies had 22 offensive rebounds in a game was in a 59-57 win over Oklahoma State in the Preseason NIT at Madison Square Garden ... Tech grabbed 27 offensive rebounds in a 104-100 double overtime loss to Maryland in Cassell Coliseum on Feb. 27, 2007 ... It is the 11th time that Tech has grabbed 20-or-more offensive rebounds in a game since joining the ACC and the sixth time with 20-or-more offensive rebounds in an ACC game.

A Dynamic Duo

The Hokies are starting a pair of freshmen in the backcourt this season, Ben Emelogu and Devin Wilson ... The pair is averaging 20.8 points per game this season, the second-highest average for any freshman duo in the ACC this season ... Only the duo of Jabari Parker and Matt Jones of Duke, who are averaging 21.6 points per game, is ahead of Wilson and Emelogu ... NC State's duo of Anthony Barber and Lennard Freeman is third at 15.7 points per game.

5 in the 20-Point Club

So far this season, five Hokies have scored 20-or-more points in a game ... Most recently, Devin Wilson and Cadarian Raines posted career-highs with 20 points each in the loss at Notre Dame, joining Adam Smith, Jarell Eddie and Ben Emelogu in the 20-Point Club ... The last time that Tech saw five players score at least 20 points in a game in the same season was the 2005-06 season, when Coleman Collins, Zabian Dowdell, Jamon Gordon, Deron Washington and A.D Vassallo all matched the mark ... Tech also had five score 20 in the 2004-05 season.

2 Frosh with 20

With his career-high 20 points in the loss at Notre Dame, Devin Wilson joins Ben Emelogu as the first Virginia Tech freshmen to each have 20-point games in the same freshman season ... Emelogu scored

Ben Emelogu

22 points in the win over West Virginia on Nov. 12, 2013 ... The last duo to pull off the feat was Jeff Allen and Malcolm Delaney, who each had a single 20-point scoring night in their freshman season of 2007-08.

Hasn't Happened Often

Devin Wilson scored a career-hgh 26 points in the loss to Wake Forest ... That is the second-highest point total in a game by a Virginia Tech freshman since 1999 ... The only time a Virginia Tech freshman scored more than 22 points in a game was on Jan. 28, 2006, when A.D. Vassallo scored 29 points at Wake Forest ... When Ben Emelogu scored 22 points in the win over West Virginia, he became the first Tech freshman to score 20-or-more points in a game since Malcolm Delaney scored 20 points as a freshman in a loss at No. 5 North Carolina on Feb. 16, 2008 ... Wilson's 26 points was just the 18th time since 1999 that a Hokie freshman has scored 20-or-more points in a game.

Hot Inside on a Cold, Winter's Night

In the loss at Notre Dame, the Hokies shot 52.1 percent from the field, including 62.5 percent in the second half ... The 52.1 percent is Tech's highest percent in ACC play this season and third-highest overall this season ... The last time the Hokies shot better than 52.1 percent from the field in an ACC game was when Tech went 23-of-42 from the field (54.8 percent) in the win over Clemson on March 2, 2013 ... Tech shot 62.5 percent from the field in the first half of that game ... The last time Tech hit better than 62.5 percent from the field in a half was the 81-63 win over Winthrop on Dec. 3, 2013.

Struggling Through Injuries

Ben Emelogu had started each of the previous six games for the Hokies before missing the Notre Dame game ... Emelogu suffered a sprained right ankle in the final play of practice on Friday, Jan. 17 ... Emelogu did not play in the loss to Wake Forest and is listed as day-to-day ... Adam Smith made the start at Notre Dame, but saw limited time as he continues to be hampered by a strained left calf, an injury suffered in late November ... An MRI on Tuesday revealed a stress fracture in the left fibula as well as the strained calf ... He will be out for the next two weeks and will be reevaluted at that time.

Adam Smith

Putting in the Time

Devin Wilson is averaging 32.4 minutes played per game this season, highest on the team ... The last Hokie to average more minutes played in their freshman season were teammates Zabian Dowdell and Jamon Gordon, who averaged 33.8 and 33.3 minutes played per game in their freshman season of 2003-04 ... Wilson played all 40 minutes in the loss to Wake Forest due to continued injuries in the Hokie back court.

Better on the Boards

The Hokies are averaging 39.1 rebounds per game this season, up from an average of 35.8 last season ... The last time the Hokies averaged more than 39.1 rebounds per game was the 2001-02 season, when Tech averaged 39.8 rebounds per game.

Reaching New Levels

With his three-point field goal at the 18:21 mark of the first half in the loss to #2/2 Syracuse, Jarell Eddie recorded his 1,000th career point ... He was the 44th player in Virginia Tech history to score 1,000 career points ... He has a career point total of 1,038 points, 42nd on the all-time list.

Jarell Eddie

Being Stingy

In the loss to Boston College on Jan. 11, the Hokies committed a season-low six turnovers ... That is the fewest turnovers for the Hokies in a game since committing five turnovers in a loss at Clemson on Jan. 27 last season ... The Hokies matched that total of six turnovers in the loss to Wake Forest.

Two With Twenty

In the loss to No. 1 Michigan State, Adam Smith scored 27 points and Jarell Eddie scored 23 points ... It marked the first time that two Hokies each had 20-or-more points in the same game since Jan. 9, 2013, when Erick Green scored 24 points and Eddie had 21 points in a loss to Boston College ... In the loss at Notre Dame, Devin Wilson and Cadarian Raines, who each scored 20 points, matched the feat ...In the loss to Wake Forest, Wilson scored 26 points and Eddie scored 20 points, which combined with the Notre Dame game, became the first time since November 2012 that the Hokies had consecutive games in which two players scored 20-or-more points.

Cadarian Raines

Dishing It Out

In the win over Furman, Devin Wilson recorded 11 assists ... The last Hokie freshman to record 11 assists in a single game was Dell Curry, who had 11 assists as a freshman against Maryland-Eastern Shore on Dec. 4, 1982 ... The 11 assists is also one assist shy of the Tech overall school record of 12, set by Dave Sensibaugh, Bimbo Coles and, most recently, Troy Manns in 1997 ... Wilson also has two games of eight assists each ... Wilson is fourth in assists in the ACC, second among ACC freshmen.

And Hauling It In

Devin Wilson grabbed a career-high seven rebounds in the loss to UNCG ... It is the most rebounds for a Virginia Tech freshman point guard since Malcolm Delaney grabbed eight rebounds in a win over Boston College on Feb. 26, 2008.

And Scoring the Ball

Devin Wilson set a then-career-high with 20 points in the loss at Notre Dame ... Entering the locker room at intermission, he was scoreless ... His 20 second-half points is the most by a Hokie this season and the most second half points by a Hokie since Erick Green scored 21 points in the second half at Virginia on Feb. 12, 2013 ... Wilson had "just" three assists in the win over Maryland-Eastern Shore, but concentrated more on scoring the ball ... While fellow freshman Ben Emelogu recorded a career-high nine assists and no turnovers, Wilson tied a then-career-best with 16 points ... He also made his second three-pointer of the season ... Wilson upped his career-high to 26 points in the loss to Wake Forest.

JvZ Comes Up Big

Joey van Zegeren continues his strong showing for the Hokies ... JvZ earned his first start of the season in the win over Radford, grabbing six rebounds and blocking three shots and followed that with nine points and seven rebounds in the win over Winthrop, including scoring eight points in the first four minutes of the game ... In the ACC overtime win at Miami, JvZ grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds, while adding eight points in a career-high 35 minutes of action ... He blocked three shots and grabbed five rebounds in the loss to VCU, but played just 20 minutes due to foul troubles ... In the loss to UNCG, JvZ scored a career-high 11 points and grabbed seven rebounds, and he led the Hokies in rebounding in the loss to No. 2/2 Syracuse ... He tied his then-career-high with five blocked shots in the loss to Boston College and scored 11 points in the loss to Clemson ... In the loss at Notre Dame, JvZ recorded a career-high six blocked shots.

Joey van Zegeren

Increased Swats

The Hokies are third in the ACC and 29th in the nation in blocked shots this season ... Tech is averaging 5.4 blocked shots per game, up from an average of 3.9 blocked shots per game last season ... Three different Hokies have blocked five shots in a single game and five Hokies have reached double figures in blocks so far this season.

Juggling the Injuries

Eighteen games into the 2012-13 season, the Hokies had used just four starting line-ups ... This season, head coach James Johnson has been forced to juggle his line-ups game-by-game, due, primarily to injuries ... In the loss at Notre Dame, Johnson used his ninth different starting line-up ... In the end, Tech used six different starting line-ups last season.

Balanced Attack

When Devin Wilson and Cadarian Raines led the Hokies in scoring in the loss at Notre Dame, Raines became the seventh different Hokie to lead the team in scoring so far this season ... Last season, only Erick Green and Jarell Eddie led the team in scoring in a game.

Dishing It Out, Part Deux

On the strength of Devin Wilson's 11 assists, the Hokies recorded a season-high 19 assists in the win over Furman ... It is the most assists for the Hokies since the opening game of last season, an 80-62 win over East Tennessee State in Cassell Coliseum.

Always There When You Need Him

In the loss at Notre Dame, Christian Beyer earned his first collegiate start ... The walk-on from New Bern, N.C., has seen increased playing time in the last several weeks due to injuries and other factors for the Hokies ... Coming off the bench at VCU, Beyer saw 16 minutes of action, all coming in the second half ... He led the team with eight rebounds, including three off the offensive glass ... In the loss to Clemson, Beyer led the team in rebounding and played a season and ACC-game high of 26 minutes.

Back on the Scene

Senior post player Cadarian Raines had seen his playing time cut back recently and had not scored in double figures for the Hokies since the first game of the season ... All that changed on Jan. 19, as Raines posted a career-high 20 points and led the Hokies with six rebounds in the loss at Notre Dame ... Raines came off the bench to play 22 minutes.

2,500 Games

The game against Clemson marked the 2,500th game in school history ... Virginia Tech is now 1365-1137 all-time in collegiate basketball, good for a .546 winning percentage ... This is the Hokies' 105th season of men's basketball.

Cap & Gown

On Friday, Dec. 20, the Virginia Tech men's basketball team traveled to Richmond, Va., to play the next day against VCU in the Governor's Holiday Hoops Classic ... Before the bus rolled down the highway, the team and, in particular, Cadarian Raines had something to do ... Raines earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from the College of Liberal Arts that morning in Cassell Coliseum and his teammates were all there to see the accomplishment ... After plenty of photos and congratulations from family, friends and teammates, Raines hopped on the bus for the three hour trip to the State Capital.

Three in a Row

The game with Clemson was the final game of a three-game ACC homestand ... This was only the second time since the Hokies joined the ACC for the 2004-05 season that Tech has had a three-game ACC homestand ... In the 2007-08 season, the Hokies defeated Georgia Tech, Boston College and Wake Forest in late February and early March ... Later this season, Tech will have another three-game ACC homestand ... An interesting side note of the recently completed homestand is that Virginia Tech did not begin spring semester classes until Jan. 21 and, therefore, had no students on campus during the homestand ... Tech has never had a three-game ACC road trip.

Spreading the Offense Around

When Will Johnston and Joey van Zegeren scored in double figures in the win over Furman, it marked the ninth and 10th different players to record a double-figure scoring game this season ... Eight players scored at least 10 points in a game in the each of the previous four seasons.

Doing It All

In the win over Winthrop, Jarell Eddie had perhaps his best, and unquestionably his busiest, night as a collegian ... Due to injuries, the Hokies played the game without guards Adam Smith and Ben Emelogu ... Eddie, who at times in his Tech career has played the power forward spot, was forced to not only start at his natural small forward position, but to also play both guard spots, including a run at the point ... Eddie proved he was up to the challenge, as he scored a career-high 34 points, tied a career-high with six three-pointers and grabbed a team-high seven rebounds in 37 minutes of action ... His 34 points are the most by a Hokie since Erick Green scored 35 points in the home loss to #14/15 Miami on Jan. 30, 2013.

Hokies vs. No. 1

With the loss to Michigan State, Virginia Tech is 4-8 all-time against teams ranked No. 1 in the AP poll ... Tech is 3-4 against No. 1 since joining the ACC ... The Hokies are 0-4 against top-ranked teams in neutral site games ... These numbers are only for teams ranked in the AP poll.

Hokies vs. Ranked Teams

With the loss to No. 2 Syracuse, the Hokies are 13-45 against nationally ranked teams since joining the ACC for the 2004-05 season ... Tech is 30-153 all-time against teams ranked in the AP poll ... Tech is 0-2 this season and was 1-4 against ranked teams last season ... The last time the Hokies defeated a nationally-ranked team was Dec. 1, 2012, when Tech defeated No. 15 Oklahoma State, 81-71, in Cassell Coliseum ... These numbers are only for teams ranked in the AP poll.

Limited Trips to the Line

The Hokies attempted just three free throws in the win at Miami, making just one ... That was the fewest attempted and made free throws in a game for the Hokies since joining the ACC in the 2004-05 season.

Keep Off the Glass

In the win over Winthrop, the Hokies outrebounded the Eagles, 37-22 ... The 22 rebounds by WU is the fewest by a Tech opponent since Boston College had 19 rebounds in a 66-65 Hokie win in Cassell Coliseum on Feb. 12, 2012 ... The 59 combined rebounds in the Winthrop game is the fewest in a Virginia Tech game since March 2, 2013, when Tech and Clemson combined for 54 rebounds in a 69-61 Hokies win in Cassell Coliseum ... Tech held Maryland-Eastern Shore to 26 rebounds on Dec. 31.

Two With Doubles

In the win over Radford, C.J. Barksdale (14 pts./10 rebs.) and Jarell Eddie (13 pts./10 rebs.) each recorded double-doubles ... It marked the first time since Jeff Allen (18 pts./15 rebs.) and Victor Davila (12 pts./10 rebs.) each recorded double-doubles in the win over No. 1 Duke on Feb. 26, 2011.

Hitting Threes

The Hokies made a season-high 13 three-pointers in the loss to No. 1 Michigan State ... It is the most three-point field goals made by the Hokies since they made 14 threes in a win at UNC Greensboro on Nov. 19, 2012 ... With the 12 made three-pointers in the win over Furman, Tech made 10-or-more three-pointers in four consecutive games, the first time that has happened at least since the 1999-2000 season ... With the 12 three-point field goals in the overtime win at Miami, the Hokies have made at least 10 three-pointers in five of their 18 games, plus five more games of 8-or-more three-pointers.

Mueller to Sit Out This Season

The NCAA has ruled freshman guard Malik Mueller ineligible for the 2013-14 season due to initial eligibility rules ... Mueller is able to practice with the team this season and will be eligible to play four years beginning next season.

Low Points for the Opposition

In the win over Furman, the Hokies allowed the Paladins just 54 points, including 17 first half points... Both figures are season-lows for Tech opposition ... The 54 points is the lowest total allowed by Tech since Dec. 10, 2012, when Tech defeated Mississippi Valley State, 70-49, in Cassell Coliseum ... The 17 points allowed in the first half is the lowest point total in a half by a Tech opponent since Tech allowed Eastern Michigan nine first half points on Dec. 22, 2011.

Rebounding Differential

In the win over VMI, the Hokies outrebounded the Keydets, 52-31 ... The 21-rebound differential is the largest for the Hokies since outrebounding Oklahoma State, 47-24, on Dec. 31, 2011 in a 67-61 Tech win in Stillwater.

500-Plus in the Cassell

The Hokies have a 537-170 overall record in Cassell, good for a .760 winning percentage ... Tech is 7-6 in Cassell Coliseum this season and was 10-7 in Cassell last season ... Tech was 11-7 in the 2011-12 season and was 12-4 in Cassell the season before, the 50th year for the arena ... The win over Florida State on Jan. 8, 2011, was the 500th victory in the building ... The win over FSU in 2008 marked the Hokies' 600th game played in Cassell Coliseum ... Tech defeated Rhode Island, 86-63, on Nov. 20, 2002, in its 500th game in the arena ... Tech has had just one break-even home season and one losing season in Cassell Coliseum ... The 17 victories for the Hokies at home in the 2009-10 season set a new Cassell Coliseum and school record ... Including all home games, the Hokies are 836-320 (.723).

Tripling on Doubles

In the loss to Seton Hall, Jarell Eddie recorded his first double-double of the season with 19 points and 11 rebounds, to go along with four blocked shots and four assists ... He made it two straight double-doubles with 14 points and 10 rebounds in the win over Furman and in the win over Radford, he pushed the streak to three consecutive double-doubles, with 13 points and 10 rebounds ... It marked the first time since Feb. 13, 15 and 19 of 2011 that a Hokie has had three consecutive double-doubles, when Jeff Allen recorded the last three of his seven consecutive double-doubles.

That's A Lot of Points

The 105 points scored in the win over VMI is the most points scored in a game by the Hokies since March 18, 2009, a 116-108 double overtime victory over Duquesne in the first round of the 2009 NIT in Cassell Coliseum ... It is the most points scored in a regulation game (40 minutes) and in a regular season game by the Hokies since Dec. 7, 1994, a 110-75 win over VMI in Cassell Coliseum ... It is the first time the Hokies have scored more than 100 points in a game since Feb. 13, 2011, a 102-77 home win over Georgia Tech.

Hot Night at the Line

In the loss to No. 1 Michigan State, the Hokies were 14-15 from the free throw line ... The 93.3 percent is Tech's highest free throw percentage in a game in which they have shot at least 10 free throws since Feb. 21, 2010, when the Hokies made 15-16 from the line in a loss at No. 6 Duke ... An interesting side note, the Hokies have made 25 of their last 26 free throw attempts against Big Ten Conference opponents (96.2 percent).

Comfortable at the Line

Jarell Eddie is shooting 82.5 percent from the line in his career and is fourth in career free throw percentage on the all-time list at Virginia Tech ... Eddie's 86.8 percent from the line as a sophomore was the fifth-best season in Tech history ... He is shooting 82.2 percent from the line this season.

350 and Counting

The Hokies have hit at least one three-pointer in every game since joining the ACC in the 2004-05 season ... Tech has now hit a three in 352 consecutive games, the most in school history ... Since the three-point arc was added to college basketball for the 1986-87 season, the Hokies have hit at least one three in all but three games ... The last time that the Hokies did not record a three-point field goal in a game was at Providence on Feb. 1, 2003.

Finally a Two

Will Johnston has earned significant playing time during the last two seasons, primarily because of his three-point shooting ... After hitting a three-pointer against Wake Forest, he has now made 33 field goals and all but two of them have been three-pointers ... Johnston scored a two-point field goal against UMES ... During the off-season, Johnston was awarded a scholarship for his efforts both on and off the court ... He made a career-high four three-pointers in the win over Furman.

Will Johnston

There's a First Time for Everything

Will Johnston made his first collegiate start at Virginia last year ... It marked the first time a walk-on had started for the Hokies since Joey Racer started in the home finale against NC State two seasons ago ... It was the first time that the Hokies have started a walk-on in a non-Senior Day situation since at least the 1999-2000 season ... Johnston also got the start at NC State and again in the win over Florida State and at Miami last season and this season, got the start in the win over Winthrop, playing a career-high 30 minutes and again in the overtime win at Miami ... In the loss at Notre Dame, walk-on Christian Beyer made his first collegiate start.

Lotsa Swats

Virginia Tech recorded 13 blocked shots in the win over West Virginia ... The last time Tech had reached double figures in blocked shots in a game was Feb. 10, 2010, when the Hokies blocked 12 shots in a win at NC State ... The last time Tech blocked more than 13 shots in a game was on Dec. 9, 2009, when the Hokies tied a school record of 15 blocks in a win over VMI in Cassell Coliseum ... Tech also blocked 15 shots in a win over Coastal Carolina on Dec. 4, 1993 ... Tech had nine blocked shots in the win over VMI and eight in the win over Winthrop.

Captain Ben

Although he is only a freshman, Ben Emelogu has been named a team captian this season for the Hokies ... The guard from Grand Prairie, Texas came to Tech during the summer and established himself with his teammates immediately, earning the honor ... It took a great effort to even play in the Western Carolina game, as Emelogu was suffering from flu-like symptoms and recieved an IV prior to the game ... He scored 16 points in 27 minutes in that victory.

Rankin Leaves Team

Virginia Tech guard Marquis Rankin has decided to leave the team, effective immediately ... The junior from Charlotte, N.C., has not appeared in a game this season, due to personal reasons ... He has appeared in 53 career games, starting 13 times and averaged 3.0 points and 1.0 assists per game for his career ... He has decided to stay at Virginia Tech in order to work towards his undergraduate degree.

Early Start to Conference Play

The Hokies' 61-60 overtime win over Miami marked the conference opener for the Hokies and the Hurricanes ... This was the earliest date that Tech has won an ACC game, on the third-earliest date the Hokies had opened ACC play since joining the league in the 2004-05 season ... The earliest Tech ever opened an ACC season was on Dec. 4, 2005, a heart-breaking 77-75 loss at No. 1 Duke ... Tech also played arch-rival Virginia on Dec. 5, 2010.

What is a Hokie?

That's the most frequently asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics ... The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute ... With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body ... Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today ... Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention ... Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

That's A Lot in A Little

The win over VMI was the final game in a stretch that saw the Hokies open the season with four games in the first nine days of the regular season.

Big Lead in the Locker Room

Virginia Tech took a 38-18 lead into the locker room at halftime in the win over Western Carolina ... The 20-point lead was the Hokies' largest halftime lead since a 44-24 lead against Wake Forest in Cassell Coliseum on Jan. 15, 2011 ... The last time the Hokies led by more than 20 points at the half was a 50-11 lead over Mount St. Mary's in Cassell Coliseum on Jan. 2, 2011.

They Were the Champions, My Friends

On the weekend on Oct. 26, 2013, Virginia Tech welcomed the 1973 NIT Champion basketball team back to campus for their 40th reunion ... That team, coached by Don DeVoe, defeated New Mexico, Fairfield, Alabama and Notre Dame in Madison Square Garden to capture the school's first-ever NIT title ... Tech downed the Irish, 92-91 in overtime in the championship game ... Bobby Stevens hit a jumper at the buzzer to claim the win.

The Multi-Lingual Big Man

Communicating with forward Joey van Zegeren is easy for most students at Virginia Tech, regardless of nationality ... The redshirt sophomore from The Netherlands is fluent in five languages and has understanding of several others ... If you see him around campus, make sure to say "Hello", or "Hola", or "Hallo", or "Bonjour", or, well, you get the idea.

Five Doubles is Rare

When Marshall Wood recorded his first career double-double in the overtime loss at NC State last season, he became the fifth Hokie to record a double-double during that season (and the fourth to record his first career double-double last season) ... That was the first season since at least the 1989-90 season that five Hokies have recorded double-doubles in the same season ... Nine games into this season, three Hokies, Trevor Thompson, Jarell Eddie and C.J. Barksdale, have recorded double-doubles for the Hokies.

Excuse Them, They're New

In the win over West Virginia, the three leading scorers for the Hokies were all playing in just their second games in a Tech uniform ... Ben Emelogu (22 pts.), Adam Smith (19 pts.) and Devin Wilson (16 pts.) all made their Virginia Tech debuts just three days earlier ... Smith played two seasons ago as a freshman at UNC Wilmington and Emelogu and Wilson are both freshmen.

Welcoming Back Old Foes

The Hokies welcomed back two traditional rivals to the schedule last season and added another this season … Tech defeated VMI, 95-80, on Nov. 15 in a rivalry that dates back to 1909 and defeated West Virginia, 87-82, in Blacksburg on Nov. 12 … Tech and WVU first met in basketball in 1921 and have played 78 times since then … The teams had last met in the 2003-04 season, the Hokies' last season as a member of the BIG EAST Conference … This season, the Hokies have added Radford back to the schedule, defeating the Highlanders, 81-56, on Nov. 29 … Although the two schools have now met only six times since first playing in 1987, the Highlanders are, geographically, the closest Division I school to Virginia Tech, sharing the New River Valley … The loss to VCU was the first meeting between the two schools since the 1994-95 season.

Joey van Zegeren is tied for the ACC lead in blocked shots in league games.

The Last Time That...

Head Coach James Johnson

James Johnson is in his second season as Virginia Tech's head men's basketball coach. Johnson's up-tempo style of offense energized the Hokie fan base in his first season and, with a fresh infusion of talent for the 2013-14 season, Tech will see a more pressure-oriented defense.

During Johnson's first season, senior guard Erick Green became the first Hokie ever to be named the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year and to lead the nation in scoring. Johnson and the Hokies defeated No. 15 Oklahoma State in December in Cassell Coliseum, earning the new coach a victory in his first-ever game against a nationally-ranked team.

Just as important, two Hokies, Jarell Eddie and Christian Beyer were named to the All-ACC Academic team. Johnson has renewed a pledge to better involve the program into the daily life of the Virginia Tech campus and the New River Valley community. In the past year, the program became a part of the Christmas Store, Special Olympics and other activities and charities in the area.

No stranger to the Hokie Nation, Johnson spent the previous five seasons on the men's basketball staff at Virginia Tech. He was an assistant coach from 2007-2011 before being promoted to associate head coach prior to last season. He had accepted an assistant coaches' position at Clemson on April 13 of this year, but returns to Blacksburg to take over the reins of the men's basketball program. Director of Athletics Jim Weaver named Johnson to the position on May 1, 2012.

"I am pleased with Coach Johnson's first year as head coach," Weaver said. "He has surrounded himself with an excellent staff who cares about the players and their development in both the classroom and the basketball court."

Johnson joined the Hokies following two seasons as an assistant at George Mason. While at Mason, he focused on organizing the team's defensive efforts in practice and games. The Patriots were a combined 45-23 in his two seasons and advanced to the 2006 NCAA Final Four. Before GMU, Johnson spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Penn State. He was the recruitment coordinator for the Nittany Lions. Prior to Penn State, Johnson had a one-year stint as an assistant at the College of Charleston and he spent two years as an assistant at Elon.

"Virginia Tech and the Hokie Nation have a special place in my heart and I am blessed and excited for the opportunity to become the head basketball coach," Johnson said at the time of his hiring. "I look forward to working with a great group of young men and moving forward with this program."

Johnson, a native of Powhatan, Va.,

was a four-year player and three-year starter at Ferrum College. A three-time Defensive Player of the Year, he helped guide his team to two conference championships and a berth in the NCAA Division III Tournament. He was also voted his team's Most Valuable Player in 1993. In 2001, Johnson was selected as one of the Top 10 players in Ferrum basketball history. In September of 2009, Johnson was elected into the Ferrum College Athletic Hall of Fame.

After graduating from Ferrum with a bachelor of science in psychology in 1993, he immediately stepped into the coaching ranks at his alma mater and served as an assistant for two seasons. Johnson helped guide the Panthers to a regular-season conference title. In 1995, Johnson moved on to Longwood College as an assistant and then spent one year at Hargrave Military Academy, where he worked with the post-graduate team. In 1997, he began a three-year run as an assistant at Old Dominion. Johnson is a member of the Black Coaches Association (BCA) and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). In March 2001, Rivals.com named Johnson one of the Top 20 Assistant Coaches at Mid-Major Division I Schools. He was a squad leader in the Army National Guard from 1989-91.

VIRGINIA TECH 87, WEST VIRGINIA 82

NOV. 12, 2013 • 1 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Virginia Tech freshman Ben Emelogu scored a game-high 22 points, and Adam Smith made some key plays down the stretch to help the Hokies rally past West Virginia 87-82.

Smith scored 19 points for the Hokies who rallied from a 17-point deficit in the first half. He scored seven of Tech's last nine points in the game – all in the final 1:46.

His basket with 1:46 left in the game gave Tech an 80-77 lead. West Virginia cut the lead to 80-79 on a bucket by Juwan Staten with 44 seconds left.

Smith then made one of the biggest plays of the game. He drove to the basket, put up a shot and made it, getting fouled in the process. He made the free throw, and the three-point play gave the Hokies an 83-79 lead with 33.2 seconds remaining.

West Virginia's Remi Dibo then hit a 3-pointer with 23.7 seconds left to cut the lead to 83-82, but Smith answered again, hitting two free throws to push the lead to 85-82 with 16.2 seconds remaining.

West Virginia (1-1) had a chance to tie the game, but Nathan Adrian's 3-pointer was short, and Tech freshman Devin Wilson got the rebound. Wilson made two free throws with 5 seconds left to seal the game for Virginia Tech.

Emelogu scored 13 of his 22 in the first half, rallying the Hokies from that 17-point deficit. Tech went on a 12-1 run that ended with Emelogu's 3-pointer at the buzzer to cut the lead to 41-36 at halftime. The Hokies then scored the first eight points of the second half, using that 20-1 run spanning both halves to get back into the game.

Wilson finished with 16 points for the Hokies, making 4 of 7 from the floor and all eight of his free-throw attempts. Jarell Eddie had 10 points – all in the second half.

Dibo led West Virginia with 17 points, while Eron Harris added 16 for the cold-shooting Mountaineers. West Virginia shot just 35.7 percent from the floor (25 of 70).

GAME 3

VIRGINIA TECH 79, WESTERN CAROLINA 61

NOV. 15, 2013 • 7 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Trevor Thompson recorded his first double-double and Jarell Eddie had 17 points, as the Hokies led from start to finish in downing Western Carolina 79-61.

The Hokies (2-1) jumped out to 22-point, first-half lead and had a 20-point halftime lead. Eddie scored 10 of his 17 points in the first half for Tech, which shot 51.6 percent on 16-of-31 shooting in the first 20 minutes.

Western Carolina (2-2) scored just three points in the first eight minutes – all on free throws. The Catamounts missed their first 11 shots and didn't make a field goal until Justin Browning's basket with 10:31 left in the first half.

The Catamounts shot just 22.2 percent on 6-of-27 shooting in the first half. They only made 32.8 percent (20 of 61) for the game, including 3-of-25 shooting from beyond the 3-point arc.

Thompson's three first-half dunks got the crowd in the game, and in the second half, he scored nine points. He finished with 15 points on 4-of-7 shooting from the floor and 7-of-11 shooting from the free-throw line and he added 11 rebounds.

It marked the second straight solid performance for the 6-foot-11 freshman, who did not play in the season opener against USC Upstate. He had seven points and five rebounds in 17 minutes in the Hokies' win over West Virginia.

The Catamounts cut the lead to 53-43 on two free throws by Browning with 7:43 left, but got no closer. But Thompson then hit two free throws, and after a turnover by Western Carolina's Brandon Boggs, the Hokies' Devin Wilson added two more free throws with 7:27 remaining to push the lead to 57-43. The Catamounts got no closer than 12 the rest of the game.

James Sinclair led the Catamounts with 16 points. Trey Sumler, who scored 29 points in the Catamounts' loss at Oregon, finished with 11 on just 5-of-14 shooting.

GAME 4

VIRGINIA TECH 105, VMI 92

NOV. 18, 2013 • 7 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Jarell Eddie tied a career high with five 3-pointers and scored 21 points to pace a balanced attack, as Virginia Tech held on late to down Virginia Military Institute 105-92.

Led by Eddie, the Hokies hit a season-high 11 3-pointers. Eddie shot 7 of 12 from the floor overall – including 5 of 5 from beyond the 3-point arc. He also made both of his free-throw attempts and grabbed six rebounds.

Eddie's shooting certainly opened things up for the Hokies, who topped the 100-point mark for the first time since the 2011 season. Five players scored in double figures for Tech, and every Hokie player who played in the game scored.

Freshman guard Ben Emelogu added 19 points off the bench for the Hokies and hit four 3-pointers. C.J. Barksdale, who was suspended for the first three games of this season by Johnson for a violation of team rules, scored 16 points and grabbed six rebounds in his season debut.

Tech led by as many as 20 in the second half after Adam Smith's 3-pointer with 13:50 remaining and appeared to be coasting toward an easy victory. But VMI started pressing, and the Hokies got sloppy with the ball. Eight of Virginia Tech's 16 turnovers came in the final 13 minutes of the game.

VMI cut the lead to 98-92 on two free throws by QJ Peterson with 1:18 left, but the Hokies scored the game's final seven points.

Barksdale scored on a lay-up with 1:10 left, and after a missed 3-pointer by Peterson, Smith a free throw to give the Hokies a 101-92 lead with 56 seconds to go. Trey Chapman then missed a 3-pointer, and Eddie got the rebound. He tossed it ahead to Barksdale, who broke free for a dunk to give the Hokies a 103-92 lead with 39 seconds left and all but seal the game.

Peterson missed a jumper with 33 seconds left and then fouled the Hokies' Will Johnston, who made two free throws with 31 seconds left to account for the final margin.

Rodney Glasgow and Peterson led VMI (3-2) with 22 points each. D.J. Covington added 20 points and five rebounds for the Keydets, who were out-rebounded 52-31 by the Hokies.

GAME 5

MICHIGAN ST. 96, VIRGINIA TECH 77

NOV. 22, 2013 • 9:30 P.M. • BROOKLYN, N.Y

The Hokies fell 96-77 in their opening game of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn. Jarell Eddie finished the game with a career-high six threes as part of a 23-point effort, while Adam Smith led the team with 27 points.

The Hokies (3-2) got out to a slow start as Michigan State (5-0) took an early 10-5 lead, but Tech controlled the boards early on and it would eventually pay off. The Spartans struggled from beyond the arc early, unable to connect on their first six attempts. Tech took advantage and eventually tied the game at 10 on a Ben Emelogu three. C.J. Barksdale followed it up with a bucket of his own to give the Hokies their first lead of the game nearing the midway point in the half.

Following the under-12 media timeout, the Hokies went on an 8-0 run for their largest lead of the night at 20-14. The game saw six lead changes over the next three minutes of play, but Michigan State began to pull away in the closing minutes of the half. The final five minutes of the first period were dominated by Michigan State's Adreian Payne, who scored 11 of the team's 15 points in that time frame.

Eddie neared yet another 20-point half as he had 17 at the break, including 4 threes, while Payne put up 20 by halftime, as neither team saw another player score more than six points in the first half.

Michigan State continued to roll in the second half as it opened with a 13-3 run. The Hokies scored just nine points in the first ten minutes of the second half, but midway through the period Smith came alive for Tech. He scored nine straight points for the Hokies and was the only consistent source of production for the squad in the later part of the game.

Barksdale neared a double-double for the Hokies, finishing with eight points and seven boards, while Smith also grabbed six rebounds and had five assists. Payne, as well as Branden Dawson finished with double-doubles for the Spartans. Payne went for 29 and 10, while Dawson scored 12 points and brought down 10 rebounds.

GAME 6

SETON HALL 68, VIRGINIA TECH 67

NOV. 23, 2013 •7 P.M. • BROOKLYN, N.Y.

Senior Jarell Eddie earned his first double-double of the season, but the Virginia Tech men's basketball team came up just short against the Seton Hall Pirates, dropping its final game of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic, 68-67 in the Barclays Center in Brooklyn. Eddie finished the game with 19 points and 10 rebounds, to go along with four assists and a career-high four blocks. The Pirates were led by Fuquan Edwin, who hit a late three to take the lead and made four free throws down the stretch to seal win for his team.

Tech got out to an impressive start, going up 8-0 on the Pirates to begin the game. Adam Smith hit a pair of jumpers from beyond the arc and Eddie added another three to open play. A 7-0 run for Seton Hall made it a two-possession game, but Tech held on to the advantage until a 12-3 Seton Hall run tied things up at 29 with just under six minutes remaining in the first half.

The two teams would trade the lead five times in the closing minutes of the first half, but Seton Hall took the 38-36 lead into the break.

Despite evening the game back up 16 seconds into the new half, it didn't take long for Seton Hall to regain and maintain its first-half lead. Tech kept things close and never let the Pirates make the difference more than five points during the second half.

With under five minutes to play, the Hokies took their first lead since a C.J. Barksdale bucket to start off the second half. Ben Emelogu hit a three to tie it and finished off a fast break started by Eddie with a dunk to put the Hokies up 57-55. Seton Hall tied it up at 57, but Tech wouldn't trail again until a three from Edwin made it 62-61 with 27 seconds on the clock. Tech was forced to foul in the closing seconds of the game and a costly turnover with 12 seconds remaining went on to make it a two-possession game.

Emelogu got it back within two when he hit a three with four seconds left, but Edwin made both free throws on the ensuing foul to make it a four-point difference. The freshman struck again from beyond the arc in the final second but the Hokies remained just short as time ran out.

GAME 7

VIRGINIA TECH 75, FURMAN 54

NOV. 26, 2013 • 7 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Virginia Tech's Jarell Eddie scored 14 points to lead the hot-shooting Hokies to a 75-54 nonconference win over Furman. Eddie's 14 points – his seventh straight game in double figures – paced five Tech players in double figures. The Hokies also got 13 points from Marshall Wood, a career-high 12 points from Will Johnston and 11 points from Adam Smith. Johnston hit four 3-pointers, while Wood and Smith hit three 3's each, as the Hokies hit 12 3-pointers.

The performance marked the fourth straight game in which the Hokies have made at least 10 3-pointers. Eddie made 6 of 15 from the floor, including two threes, and he also grabbed 10 rebounds for his second straight double-double. It marked the fifth double-double of his career.

Furman scored the first basket of the game on a jumper by Stephen Croone. But the Hokies answered with an 18-1 run to take control of the game and never trailed again.

In the second half, Tech built the lead to 22 points following a Wood 3-pointer with 14:30 left that gave the Hokies a 43-21 lead. Furman cut the lead to nine points on two occasions, the final coming on a Croone 3-pointer that sliced the lead to 51-42 with 7:40 remaining.

But the Hokies' Johnston answered with a 3-pointer with 7:11 remaining to start a 15-2 run that pushed the lead back to 66-44, and the Hokies weren't threatened again. Eddie scored seven of the 15 in that run.

Johnston, who played 26 minutes mainly because Ben Emelogu was out (concussion-like symptoms), knocked down 4 of 6 from beyond the arc. Wood, who reached double figures for the first time this season, made 4 of 8 from the floor, including 3 of 5 from beyond the arc.

Virginia Tech also got a career-high 11 assists from freshman point guard Devin Wilson, who became the first Tech freshman to record 11 assists in a game since Dell Curry dished out 11 against Maryland-Eastern Shore on Dec. 4, 1982.

Croone led the Paladins with 27 points. He hit 8 of 14 from the floor and 10 of 11 from the free-throw line. Larry Wideman added 13 points for the Paladins, who only had four players score in the game.

GAME 8

VIRGINIA TECH 81, RADFORD 56

NOV. 29, 2013 • 2 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Virginia Tech guard Adam Smith scored 28 points to carry the Hokies past New River Valley rival Radford 81-56 in a nonconference game played Friday afternoon.

Smith's 28 points were his career high as a Tech player, topping the 27-point outburst against Michigan State. He scored 32 in a game while at UNC Wilmington as a freshman before transferring to Tech before last season.

Smith scored 17 of his 28 points in the first half for the Hokies, who used an 18-0 first-half run to break open the game against Radford, whose campus is only 15 miles from Tech's campus. Six different players scored in the run, and Jarell Eddie's three-point play with 13:09 left in the half gave the Hokies a 23-5 lead.

The Hokies led by as many as 22 points in the half. Smith hit 7 of 12 from the floor and both of his free-throw attempts in the first 20 minutes. C.J. Barksdale added 10 points for the Hokies.

Radford (4-2), which made just four shots in the first 12:30 of the game, hit just 33.3 percent in the first half (10 of 30), including 1 of 10 from beyond the 3-point arc.

The Highlanders cut the lead to 62-48 on a 3-pointer by R.J. Price with 10:17 left in the game. But the Hokies scored six straight points, the last two coming on a basket by Barksdale with 7:57 remaining that pushed the Hokies' lead to 20. Virginia Tech wasn't threatened again.

Barksdale had 14 points and 10 rebounds for his second career double-double. Eddie added 13 points and 10 rebounds for his third double-double of the season and the sixth of his career.

The Hokies played without freshman guard Ben Emelogu, who sat out a second straight game with concussion-like symptoms. Emelogu, whom Johnson said would be re-evaluated on Sunday, is averaging 14 points per game.

GAME 9

VIRGINIA TECH 81, WINTHROP 63

DEC. 3, 2013 • 7 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Despite playing without Adam Smith and Ben Emelogu because of injuries, the Virginia Tech Hokies got a career night from Jarell Eddie and pulled away from pesky Winthrop to record an 81-63 victory over the Eagles.

Smith missed the game with a calf strain, while Emelogu sat out a third straight game with concussion-like symptoms. With those two out, the Hokies relied on Eddie, and the senior delivered in a big way.

Eddie scored a career-high 34 points, surpassing his previous career high of 28 points, which came at UNC Greensboro last season. He hit 13 of 18 from the floor, including 6 of 8 from beyond the 3-point arc.

Eddie's six 3-pointers were one shy of the school record set by Malcolm Delaney at North Carolina in 2011. His 13 baskets were a career high and his six 3-pointers tied a career high.

Eddie started going off midway through the first half, scoring 17 straight points for the Hokies at one stretch en route to a 20-point first half. He hit 7 of 11 from the floor in the first 20 minutes, including 5 of 7 from beyond the 3-point arc. Tech hit seven 3-pointers and shot 53.6 percent from the floor in bolting to a 42-33 halftime lead.

Winthrop managed to hang around, though, and cut the Tech lead to 55-53 on a basket by Keon Johnson with 7:40 left in the game. But Eddie answered with a basket to push the lead to 57-53 and start a 17-4 run that helped the Hokies pull away.

C.J. Barksdale added 13 points for the Hokies, and Devin Wilson pitched in 11 points and eight assists. The Hokies also got solid minutes from Joey van Zegeren, who made his second straight start, and Cadarian Raines, with van Zegeren scoring nine points and Raines added eight off the bench. The trio of Barksdale, van Zegeren and Raines combined to hit 11 of 17 from the floor.

GAME 10

A late run at the end of regulation helped lift the Virginia Tech men's basketball team past the Miami Hurricanes 61-60 in overtime on Sunday afternoon at the BankUnited Center. Senior Jarell Eddie led the Hokies with 24 points and eight rebounds, while Garrius Adams paced the Hurricanes with 14 points in each team's conference opener.

Eddie scored Tech's final 11 points as part of a 13-3 run in the last seven and a half minutes of the second half. Tech (7-3, 1-0 ACC) had numerous opportunities in the second half to regain a lead it hadn't seen since midway through the first half, but Miami (5-5, 0-1 ACC) had an answer and would not allow the Hokies to get within a possession.

Late in regulation, Tech freshman Devin Wilson was fouled and had the chance to tie it from the free-throw line, but he missed the front end of a 1-and-1. Miami's Adams was fouled on the rebound and made it a three-point game, going 1-for-2 from the line.

On the ensuing possession, Eddie was guarded tightly in the corner but pulled up anyway and nailed the 3-pointer to tie it up at 56 with 45 seconds on the clock. On Miami's next time down the court, Davon Reed airballed a 3 that sailed out of bounds with 14 seconds to play. Eddie's attempt at a final shot was blocked and things headed to overtime.

Adams was the first to strike in extra time for Miami, but Tech sophomore Marshall Wood quickly answered with a 3 for the Hokies. With Tech trailing by two and less than 30 seconds to play, Eddie hit a jumper to put the Hokies up 61-59. Adams was fouled on Miami's next possession, but he only made one of the two free throws with seven seconds left. Miami got the rebound, but an errant shot hit the back of the backboard, and the Hokies escaped.

Redshirt sophomore Joey van Zegeren had a career-high 10 rebounds by the half and neared a double-double by game's end, adding eight points. Freshman Ben Emelogu was the only other Tech player to score in double figures, finishing with 11 points, while Wilson finished the game with five assists.

James Kelly had 12 points and nine rebounds for the Hurricanes, while Reed added 10 points. Neither team shot particularly well in the game, both under 35 percent.

GAME 11

VCU guard Melvin Johnson scored 19 of his career-high 27 points in the first half and sparked a big first-half run, as the Rams downed the Hokies 82-52 in a Governor's Holiday Hoops Classic game played at the Richmond Coliseum.

Jarell Eddie and Ben Emelogu paced the Hokies with 12 points, but Tech shot just 35.4 percent from the floor and turned the ball over a season-high 27 times. VCU scored 42 points off the Hokies' turnovers.

Tech actually led early in this one, scoring the game's first six points. But after C.J. Barksdale's basket with 15:47 remaining that gave the Hokies an 8-6 lead, things fell apart.

The Rams scored 31 straight points to take a 37-8 lead. Johnson hit five of his six first-half 3-pointers in the run, and he capped the run with a 3-pointer that gave the Rams a 19-point bulge with 6:03 left in the half.

VCU's fullcourt pressure defense was just too much for the Hokies, who turned the ball over 15 times in the first 20 minutes and made just 8 of 24 from the floor (33 percent).

The Hokies, who are one of the best 3-point shooting teams in the nation, hit nine against the Rams, with Eddie hitting 4 of 7 from beyond the arc. Marshall Wood hit two, and Tech hit 9 of 20 for the game.

Making matters worse for the Hokies, they lost two players to injuries – Barksdale and guard Adam Smith. Barksdale sprained an ankle, while Smith re-aggravated a calf injury. Barksdale scored two points in seven minutes before leaving, while Smith scored three points in 15 minutes before his departure.

GAME 12

Marshall Wood tied a career high with 14 points, but the Hokies let an 11-point, second-half lead slip away in a 55-52 loss to UNCG at Cassell Coliseum.

Tech led 43-32 after two free throws by Ben Emelogu with 10:06 left in the game. But UNCG went on an 18-6 run over the next 9:23, with Kyle Cain scoring nine of his game-high 18 points in that span. The run ended with Kayel Locke's basket with 1:23 left that gave the Spartans a 50-49 lead – their first lead since the 19:47 mark of the second half.

Wood missed a 3-pointer with 1:07 left, and Locke went to work again for the Spartans, scoring on a layup with 34 seconds remaining to give UNCG a 52-49 lead.

The Hokies got a free throw from Wood with 17 seconds left that sliced the UNCG lead to 52-50, and they then fouled the Spartans' Drew Parker, who made the second of two free throws that gave UNCG a 53-50 lead.

Tech had a chance to tie the game with 10.1 seconds left. Devin Wilson made a layup and was fouled, but he missed a free throw that would have tied the game at 53.

RJ White hit two free throws with 9.3 seconds left to give the Spartans a 55-52 lead. Wood then missed a 3-pointer with three seconds left that would have tied the game.

Cain and Locke, UNCG's post players, combined for 33 points, with Locke scoring six of his 15 points in the final two minutes. Cain hit 8 of 14 from the floor and grabbed 10 rebounds for the Spartans, who battled the bigger Hokies even on the boards (34 each). Locke made 4 of 9, but hit 7 of 8 from the free-throw line. The two combined to hit 12 of 23 from the floor on a day when UNCG shot just 36.5 percent (19 of 52).

The Hokies got 11 points each from Emelogu and Joey van Zegeren.

VIRGINIA TECH 82, UMES 66

DEC. 31, 2013 • 4 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

A career day from freshman Devin Wilson and a big response from senior Jarell Eddie helped lift the Virginia Tech men's basketball team past the University of Maryland-Eastern Shore, 82-66, in Cassell Coliseum Tuesday evening. Wilson scored 16 points for Tech, while Eddie was anything but flat against the Hawks, adding 17 points and nine rebounds.

Eddie rebounded from his performance against UNCG early, scoring Tech's first points of the game and although both teams scored right away, things got out to a slow start in the opening minutes. Following the first media timeout junior C.J. Barksdale went on a 5-0 run of his own to help spark the Hokies. Tech turned it into a 12-2 streak to go ahead 19-8 with just under 12 minutes left in the first half.

The Hokies never let UMES get closer than 10 points and eventually took a 46-23 lead into the break. The 23-point halftime difference was the largest in Tech's favor this season and the biggest halftime lead since holding a 50-11 advantage over Mt. St. Mary's in 2011.

Tech continued to cruise in the second half, leading by as many as 26 points at times. The Hokies finished the game outrebounding UMES 42-26. Freshman Ben Emelogu saw increased action at the point and finished the game with a career-high nine assists.

The Tech bench outscored the Hawks' reserves 22-2 in the first half, and 37-13 in the game much in part to the efforts of Barksdale, freshman Trevor Thompson and junior Will Johnston. Barksdale, who has seen limited action as of late due to knee and ankle injuries, finished the game with nine points, as did Johnston, while Thompson added eight points. The trio also combined for 15 rebounds.

GAME 14

SYRACUSE 72, VIRGINIA TECH 52

JAN. 7, 2014 • 9 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Tech stayed with Syracuse for 35 minutes, but the No. 2-ranked Orangemen pulled away and remained perfect on the season with a 72-52 victory.

Tech trailed by as many as 12 in the first half, but the Hokies held the Orangemen to just one field goal in the final eight minutes of the first half and managed to cut the lead to 35-29 at halftime. Adam Smith scored nine points to lead the way for the Hokies, hitting three of his six 3-point attempts.

In the second half, the Hokies cut the Syracuse lead to 44-40 when Ben Emelogu banked in a free-throw line jumper with 14:44 left to play. But the Orangemen then took control of the game.

Syracuse went on a 16-0 run after Emelogu's basket, stretching the lead to 60-40 on a basket by C.J. Fair with 6:45 left. The Hokies missed nine straight shots during that run and went more than eight minutes without scoring. Joey van Zegeren's dunk off a missed Marshall Wood jumper stopped the run with 6:16 left.

Fair paced a balanced Syracuse attack with 17 points, as four Orangemen scored in double figures. Syracuse shot 46.7 percent from the floor.

C.J. Barksdale led the Hokies with 12 points. Tech was shooting 45.5 percent from the floor before Syracuse's run, but really slumped in the final 14 minutes and shot just 36.7 percent for the game against Syracuse's noted 2-3 zone.

Adam Smith returned to the court for the first time since the VCU game for the Hokies and added nine points. Tech's leading scorer, Jarell Eddie, scored just six points and hit 2 of 9 from the floor.

GAME 15

BOSTON COLLEGE 62, VIRGINIA TECH 59

JAN. 11, 2014 • NOON • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Boston College's Lonnie Jackson hit a 3-pointer in the final 30 seconds, and Virginia Tech missed a shot in the waning moments, all of which sent the Hokies to a 62-59 defeat.

Tech took a 59-58 lead on a 3-pointer by C.J. Barksdale with 1:36 remaining. BC's Olivier Hanlan turned the ball over on the Eagles' next possession, but the Hokies couldn't take advantage, as Jarell Eddie missed a 3-pointer with 47 seconds left.

BC then called a timeout with 33 seconds to go. After the timeout, Jackson got a good look from the left wing and hit the 3-pointer to give the Eagles a 61-59 edge with 27.4 seconds remaining.

The points marked Jackson's only points of the second half.

Tech got the ball up the court quickly and called a timeout with 22.8 seconds left. The Hokies ran the clock down before getting the ball into the hands of guard Adam Smith, who took a jumper from the baseline that came up short with two seconds to go.

BC's Joe Rahon got the rebound, and Smith fouled Rahon with a second remaining. Rahon made the first free throw, but missed the second one. Eddie got the rebound for the Hokies and time expired.

Jackson – who missed BC's first three games this season with a hamstring injury and had scored in double figures just once this season – came into the game averaging just 4.4 points per game. But he led BC with 17 points, hitting 6 of 11 from the floor, including five 3-pointers. Hanlan added 14.

Virginia Tech shot just 28.6 percent in the second half (8 of 28) and 35.1 percent for the game (20 of 57). The Hokies also missed nine free throws.

Smith led the Hokies with 12 points, and Barksdale added 11. Eddie, Tech's leading scorer at 16.6 points per game, scored 10 for the Hokies, but made just 3 of 14 from the floor.

GAME 16

CLEMSON 56, VIRGINIA TECH 49

JAN. 15, 2013 • 7 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Devin Wilson scored 14 points, but it wasn't enough for Virginia Tech, which dropped another close game, this time to the Clemson Tigers by a score of 56-49 in an ACC game played Wednesday night at Cassell Coliseum.

Tech had its biggest lead of the game after point guard Devin Wilson hit the second of two free throws to give it a 36-30 lead with 14:01 remaining. But the Tigers responded by scoring the next 10 points. Damarcus Harrison and Adonis Filer hit 3-pointers in the run, as Clemson reclaimed the lead for good.

Clemson's spurt ended up being a 16-4 run that ended when Jaron Blossomgame hit the second of two free throws that gave the Tigers a 46-40 lead with 6:37 left – their biggest lead of the game.

Clemson led 49-43 after K.J. McDaniels hit his lone 3-pointer of the night with 4:09 to go, but the Hokies scored six straight points, tying the game on Ben Emelogu's 3-pointer with 2:01 left. Those were the Hokies' last points of the game.

Filer broke the tie for the Tigers, driving to the basket and hitting a layup while getting fouled. He made the free throw, and three-point play with 1:24 remaining to give Clemson a 52-49 lead.

The Hokies got 14 points from Wilson and 11 each from Emelogu and Joey van Zegeren. Virginia Tech shot 41.7 percent against Clemson's defense, which is ranked first nationally in scoring (53.9 ppg) and second in field-goal percentage (35.9 percent). But the Hokies hurt themselves by making just 4 of 14 from the free-throw line.

Virginia Tech has lost five of its past six games and hasn't scored 60 points in any of the five losses. The Hokies' leading scorer, Jarell Eddie, scored just three points against the Tigers.

McDaniels led the Tigers with 14 points, hitting 4 of 9 from the floor, including both 3-point attempts. Rod Hall added 11 points for the Tigers, who shot just 40.4 percent from the floor (19 of 47).

GAME 17

NOTRE DAME 70, VIRGINIA TECH 63

JAN. 19, 2014 • 6 P.M. • SOUTH BEND, IND.

A big second half for freshman Devin Wilson and an exciting return for redshirt-senior Cadarian Raines weren't enough for the Virginia Tech men's basketball team as it fell to Notre Dame, 70-63, in the Purcell Pavilion.

Redshirt sophomore Joey van Zegeren began the game with three blocks in the opening three minutes as play remained back-and-forth for the opening five. Notre Dame went on an 8-0 run following the first media timeout and was able to maintain the distance until Raines checked in for the Hokies with 9:32 left in the first half. He quickly went to work, scoring nine points in his first five minutes of action over the last three games.

Seven straight points from Raines got the Hokies back to within three as they trailed 21-18 with 6:15 left before the break, but they were unable to score a field goal in the closing four minutes of the half and allowed the Irish to take a commanding 39-24 lead into the half.

Tech quickly shifted the momentum out of the locker room, starting the second stanza with a 9-3 run. Wilson, who had just two points in the first half, quickly scored six in the first four and a half minutes of the second, making it 44-37 and forcing a Notre Dame timeout.

A 7-0 run for Tech got the Hokies within two points with 9:55 to play, but back-to-back threes for the Irish quickly reestablished some distance. Tech was able to get back within five points on two occasions, but that was as close as it got.

Wilson matched his previous career high in the second half alone and also added seven assists in the game, while van Zegeren blocked a career high six shots. Tech outrebounded the Irish 35-30 and Raines led the way with six. C.J. Barksdale put up 12 points for Tech, reaching double figures for the third time in the last four games. The Hokies played without starting guard Ben Emelogu, who missed the game due to a sprained right ankle, suffered in practice on Friday.

GAME 18

WAKE FOREST 83, VIRGINIA TECH 77

JAN. 22, 2014 • 7 P.M. • BLACKSBURG, VA.

Virginia Tech point guard Devin Wilson scored a career-high 26 points, but the Hokies got off to a slow start and couldn't catch up, falling to Wake Forest 83-77.

Behind Travis McKie, Wake Forest got off to a sizzling start, shooting 54.8 percent from the floor in the first half (17 of 31) and making 7 of its 10 3-point attempts. The Demon Deacons made eight straight baskets at one stretch, and they took what turned out to be their biggest lead of the game on a 3-pointer by Miles Overton with 4:15 left in the half that gave them a 40-19 edge. McKie scored 15 first-half points, and Wake Forest led 42-27 at halftime.

The Hokies tried to make a game of it in the final five minutes, as Wilson scored 17 of his career-high 26 in the final 5:35. He scored the Hokies' final 10 points of the game.

But Wilson missed two free throws with 3:37 left, and Miller-McIntyre scored with 3:15 to go to give the Demon Deacons a 71-60 lead. The Hokies' Jarell Eddie then cut the lead to 71-63 on a 3-pointer with 2:55 remaining.

But Miller-McIntyre answered again. He hit the first of two free throws and grabbed the rebound after missing the second one. He then scored with 2:10 remaining to give Wake Forest a 74-63 lead, and Virginia Tech got no closer than the final margin.

Wake Forest came into the game shooting 44.3 percent from the floor and 31.8 percent from beyond the 3-point arc. But the Demon Deacons tied a season high with nine 3-pointers and shot 53.6 percent (30 of 56) from the floor for the game.

The Hokies missed their first 11 shots from the floor and shot just 33.8 percent (22 of 65) for the game.

Wilson made 6 of 10 from the floor, including 3 of 4 from beyond the 3-point arc. He also hit 11 of 14 from the free-throw line.

Eddie finished with 20 points for the Hokies, and Trevor Thompson had 10 points and 12 rebounds.
