* Atlantic Coast Conference contest

LAST TIME OUT ...

The Hokies returned home for the first time in over two weeks on Tuesday and tied Campbell, 1-1 in double overtime, on a rainy night at Thompson Field. Campbell struck first as Brian Urioste buried a half volley from the top of the box at 19:59. Despite being outshot 9-3 in the first period, Tech turned things around and had the better run of play in the second half. James Shupp had his rip blocked off the line by Camel defender in the 69th minute, and the Hokies were able to equalize thanks to an own goal in the 70th minute. Mikey Minutillo nearly had the winner in the 77th minute, but his shot hit the post. Kyle Renfro was solid in goal and preserved the result with three saves in the overtime periods. He finished with eight stops on the night.

NEXT UP ...

Tech returns home on Tuesday, Oct. 18 to play Wright State at 7 p.m., before hosting Virginia in an ACC match on Friday, Oct. 21 at 7 p.m.

SCOUTING NORTH CAROLINA STATE...

• North Carolina State enters the game with a record of 5-6-2 overall and like Virginia Tech, is 1-3-0 in Atlantic Coast Conference play. The Wolfpack have defeated two ranked teams this season, scoring wins over then-No. 9 Southern Methodist, 1-0 in overtime, at the Duke Nike Classic on Sept. 2 and over then-No. 13 Boston College, 2-1, on Sept. 30 in Raleigh, N.C., for their lone ACC win.

• In its last game on Tuesday, NC State defeated Georgia Southern, 1-0, in Raleigh. Nazmi Albadawi's goal in the 71st minute proved to be all the Wolfpack would need to earn the win. Fabian Otte made three saves in the Pack goal to record his fourth shutout of the season. NC State outshot Georgia Southern, 15-6.

• As a team, NC State is outscoring its opponents, 15-14. Albadawi leads the team in goals (five) and points (13). Zabarle Kollie adds two goals and is tied for the team lead in assists with Albadawi (three). Ollie Kelly has tallied two goals and two assists. In goal, Otte has 40 saves and a 1.11 goals against average in 12 games played.

SERIES HISTORY...

• This is the 17th all-time meeting between Virginia Tech and North Carolina State in men's soccer. The Wolfpack hold a 10-5-1 series lead and the two teams have met three times in the ACC Tournament, including last year. NC State has won all three meetings between the two teams in the ACC Tournament. During ACC regular season play, Tech holds a 5-2 advantage over NC State, but is 2-6 all-time when playing NC State on the road. The series began in 1978.

• In last year's ACC Tournament first round match on Nov. 9, 2010 in Cary, N.C., the No. 8-seeded Wolfpack defeated the ninth-seeded Hokies, 6-3. The nine total goals made it the highest scoring match in the ACC Tournament since the tournament began in 1987. The game saw four lead changes, but ultimately the tide turned in favor of the Wolfpack when Tech was given a red card with 20 minutes to go and NC State netted three goals while the Hokies were down to 10 men.

• In the regular season match between Tech and NC State last year, the Hokies scored a 2-1 win on Sept. 25, 2010 in Raleigh.

Mike Brizendine enters his third year as Virginia Tech's head coach after spending five years as the Hokies' top assistant.

Brizendine's 2010 squad played five top-20 nationally ranked opponents, including taking sixth-ranked Virginia to overtime on the road. His 2009-10 team was one of only three Atlantic Coast Conference men's soccer programs to receive the NSCAA Team Academic Award, which honors teams with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher. It marked the second time in program history and first since 2003, that the Hokies earned academic recognition from the NSCAA.

An experienced coach on all levels, Brizendine helped guide the Hokies to their first NCAA College Cup appearance in school history in 2007. He has worked with all aspects of the Hokie program. For his contributions, Brizendine was recognized as the NSCAA's Atlantic Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 2007.

Brizendine joined the Hokie staff after a successful stint with Bridgewater College, a Division III program that participates in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference (ODAC). After assisting both the men's and women's programs at Bridgewater in 2000, he became the head men's coach from 2001 to 2003, guiding the team from non-competitive status to a full-fledged Division III program. Brizendine led Bridgewater to its two best single-season records, 12-6 in 2003 and 11-7 in 2002, for a 23-13 mark over two seasons and a .639 winning percentage. For this significant turn-around, his peers named him ODAC Coach of the Year in 2003.

Brizendine graduated from James Madison University in 1999 and earned his Master of Education from Virginia Tech in 2005.

Prior to his time at Bridgewater College, he was an assistant coach at Ferrum College for the men's soccer team in 1999. He has also been active guiding and encouraging kids in youth soccer programs throughout his coaching career.

As a player, he lettered four seasons at James Madison University from 1995-98 and ended his career sixth in all-time scoring for the Dukes. He earned all-conference and all-region recognition during his four-year career. He also played professionally with the Roanoke Wrath (1999) and the Northern Virginia Royals (2000 and 2001) of the Division 3 league.

Brizendine and his wife, Lucy, reside in Blacksburg, Va.

Game-by-Game Recap

Game #1 vs. Howard | Aug. 27 | L, 2-1

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- The Virginia Tech men's soccer team opened the 2011 season on Aug. 27 with a 2-1 loss to Howard at Thompson Field.

After a scoreless first half, in which Tech held a majority of the possession in the Howard half of the field, the Bison stunned the Hokies as they got on the board first when Mario Martin capitalized with a low finish from eight yards on a pass from Rahman Alarape at 59:02.

Then at 80:12, Martin again finished for Howard, this time off a pass from Akinbola Richardson, making the score 2-0 in favor of the Bison. However, Tech would get the board just 15 seconds later when Michael Garrick found David Clemens, who dribbled past Howard defenders into the box and finished off a nice individual effort from just outside the six-yard box. After their goal, the Hokies kept on pushing numbers forward as Howard tried to hold on. Garrick nearly got the equalizer at 86:08 as his flick over Hamilton's head hit the crossbar and came back down into play, but Tech couldn't put in the ensuing rebound.

For the game, Tech out-shot Howard, 18-4, and out-cornered the Bison, 14-0. Clemens led the Hokie offense with seven shots and his goal marked the second year in a row that he has scored Tech's first goal of the year. Kyle Renfro played all 90 minutes between the pipes for Tech.

Game #2 vs. Wisconsin | Sept. 2 | L, 1-0 (OT)

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- The Virginia Tech men's soccer team fell to Wisconsin, 1-0 in overtime, on day one of the Hilton Garden Hokie Invitational at Thompson Field. The Badgers' Josh Thiermann scored the game-winner in sudden death overtime in the 97th minute.

The start of the game was delayed by nearly two hours due to two lightning delays in the first match of the day between Cincinnati and Virginia. In the 20th minute, captain James Shupp came forward down the right side and put in a low cross which found Mike Wilkie who fired a shot just wide of the near post. In the first period, Tech held a 9-7 advantage in shots and recorded six corners to just two for Wisconsin.

Robert Alberti played well on the flank the entire night, serving in crosses and creating chances. He led Tech in shots for the game with five. Alberti nearly caught Wisconsin keeper Ciro Martinez off his line in the 64th minute when his shot hit from the left side hit the crossbar. Tech also outshot the Badgers, 11-6, in the second half, and had a 20-16 advantage on the game. However, neither team found the back of the net in regulation and the game was forced into a golden goal overtime period.

In the first extra session, Wisconsin's Thiermann found space down the left side and dribbled into the Tech box where his shot from 10 yards found the back of the net.

Kyle Renfro played all 96:44 in goal and made seven saves.

Game #3 vs. Cincinnati | Sept. 4 | W, 2-1

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- Robert Alberti converted a penalty kick in the 82nd minute to give the Virginia Tech men's soccer its first win of the season over Cincinnati, 2-1, in the final game of the Hilton Garden Hokie Invitational at Thompson Field. The Hokies improved to 1-2-0 overall on the season while the Bearcats dropped to 1-2-0.

In the first half, Tech got on the board only 4:28 into the game as Ben Strong played a through ball to Mikey Minutillo who finished first time from 10 yards out on the right side of the box. The assist was Strong's first as a Hokie.

In the second half, the Bearcats' Emmanuel Appiah found space in the center of the park and fired a shot from 30 yards that hit the crossbar and went in to tie the match at 60:55. Then, with eight and a half minutes remaining, Michael Garrick was fouled after the play in the box by Cincinnati goalkeeper Joey Barnard. Barnard was assessed a yellow card and Tech was awarded a penalty kick.

Alberti stepped up and buried the penalty in the lower left corner after Barnard guessed the other direction to give the Hokies the win, 2-1. It was his first game-winning goal as a Hokie.

Kyle Renfro was solid all game as he made four saves, including a crucial stop in the 84th minute off a shot from Cincinnati's Leon Powell. For the match, Cincinnati outshot the Hokies, 13-7, while corners were even at six apiece. After the game, Jed Prater and Alberti were named to the all-tournament team for Tech.

Game #4 vs. #1 North Carolina | Sept. 10 | W, 1-0 (2OT)

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- James Shupp scored the game-winning goal in the 103rd minute and Kyle Renfro notched his second career shutout as the Virginia Tech men's soccer team defeated No.1-ranked North Carolina, 1-0 in double overtime, in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both teams in front of a packed house at Thompson Field.

Eight minutes into the second half, UNC's Enzo Martinez ripped a shot from outside the box which hit the near post. The rebound came out the Tar Heels' Kirk Urso who followed with a low shot but Renfro made a fine recovering save to keep the game tied at 0-0. The game would remain tied after 90 minutes, forcing sudden death overtime.

The Hokies' then stunned the Tar Heels just 2:31 into the second overtime period with the only goal of the match. The goal originated with a long throw-in from the left side by Tech that was flicked on by Kevin Reitzel. The ball bounced in the box several times and eventually came through to an open Shupp on the back post who finished off the game-winner. It was Shupp's first goal since 2009 and his first game-winner as a Hokie. The assist was also Reitzel's first collegiate point.

The win was Tech's first over North Carolina since 2007. It was also the Hokies' first win over a top-ranked team since 2004 when Tech beat ACC rival Duke, 1-0, in Durham.

Game #5 vs. Longwood | Sept. 13 | W, 1-0

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- The Virginia Tech men's soccer team won its third straight game as the Hokies defeated Longwood, 1-0, at Thompson Field. Drew Ranahan scored the game-winner in the 47th minute with a header from a corner kick by Ben Strong.

Just one minute and seven seconds into the second half, Tech got the breakthrough. Strong struck a low corner to the near post which Ranahan redirected off his head low into the far post from six yards for his first collegiate goal. The assist was Strong's second of the season.

NEWARK, N.J. -- The Virginia Tech men's soccer team lost to New Jersey Institute of Technology, 2-1, in a non-conference match on Lubetkin Field at J. Malcolm Simon Stadium. All three goals in the match were scored in the first period.

The Highlanders struck early as Luis Granizo scored from 15 yards via an assist from Kwesi Alleyne only 3:15 into the match.

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- Playing at home for the first time in over two weeks, the Virginia Tech men's soccer team tied Campbell, 1-1 in double overtime, on a rainy and blustery night at Thompson Field. The tie was the Hokies' first draw of the season.

Campbell struck first at 19:52 as Brian Urioste settled a headed Tech clearance off a cross at the top of the box and fired a half volley from 18 yards to the far post, past the reach of a diving Kyle Renfro.

In the second half Tech had the better run of play for much of the period and would equalize at 69:59 when freshman defender Kevin Reitzel got his foot on the end of cross and directed the ball towards goal, where it went off a Campbell defender and in for an own goal.

Mikey Minuttillo created his own chance with a nice individual effort down the left flank in the 77th minute. His shot had Campbell keeper Ethan Hall beat to the far post, but the ball hit the woodwork.

In the overtime periods, Campbell outshot Tech, 7-1. The Camels' Nick Burdett had his shot from the left flank nick the near post and go wide in the 95th minute. Renfro made three saves in the extra sessions for Tech, preserving the result.
