* Atlantic Coast Conference contest

LAST TIME OUT ...

The Hokies lost at North Carolina State on Friday, 2-1 in overtime, in an ACC match in Raleigh, N.C. James Shupp scored for the Hokies in the 30th minute, but the Wolfpack rallied for the conference victory. The Hokies opened the scoring just under the half hour mark as Shupp finished off a pass from Taylor Lemmon at 29:12. However, the Wolfpack would equalize at 41:39 thanks to an own goal, which occurred after a long throw-in. Neither team would score in the second half and Hokies were forced to play into extra time for the second straight game and sixth time overall this year. NC State took the only shot in overtime before the Wolfpack's Nazmi Albadawi finished off a combination play in the box via assists from Zabarle Kollie and Nader Jaibat at 96:34 to give the home side the win.

NEXT UP ...

Tech hosts in-state rival Virginia in conference action on Friday, Oct. 21 at 7 p.m. The Hokies then travel to Radford for a 6 p.m. match on Tuesday, Oct. 25.

SCOUTING WRIGHT STATE...

• Wright State enters the game with a record of 6-4-2 overall. The Raiders won four out of their first six matches, defeating Marshall (1-0), IUPUI (1-0), Evansville (2-0) and Marquette (2-1). Wright State has played one ranked team thus far this season, losing at then-No. 21 Kentucky, 2-1, at the Kentucky Invitational on Sept. 2. Wright State competes in the Horizon League and has scored conference wins over Detroit (2-1 OT) and Cleveland State (2-1 OT). They have a 2-1-1 mark in HL games this season.

• In its last game on Saturday, Wright State tied Wisconsin-Milwaukee, 2-2 in double overtime, in Milwaukee, Wisc. Justin Laird tied the game with just under 20 minutes remaining for Wright State, but neither team would score in the remainder of regulation or overtime. Bryce Rockwell-Ashton gave WSU an early 1-0 lead in the 16th minute. Milwaukee, however, tied it at the 58:32 mark and the Panthers went ahead with another goal 10 minutes later. Laird, though, drew the Raiders even with a goal at the 70:38 mark, his fifth of the year. Brian Cothorn and Rockwell-Ashton each recorded an assist on the goal, Cothorn's second of the season and Rockwell-Ashton's third. Craig Feehan had three saves in the Raider goal.

• As a team, Wright State is outscoring its opponents, 16-13. Rockwell-Ashton leads the team in scoring with five goals and three assists for 13 points. Laird adds five goals and an assist for 11 points. Derek Zuniga has also tallied three goals and an assist. In goal, Feehan has played all 1,126 minutes and has three shutouts, 43 saves and a 1.04 goals against average.

SERIES HISTORY...

• This is the first all-time meeting between Virginia Tech and Wright State in men's soccer. It marks the third and final time this year that the Hokies are playing an opponent for the first time in program history. Earlier this month, Tech played NJIT (Oct. 8) and Campbell (Oct. 11) for the first time in men's soccer.

• Tech has only played a current member of the Horizon League one other time in men's soccer. On Sept. 6, 2009, the Hokies defeated Wisconsin-Milwaukee, 2-1, at the Middleton Sports & Fitness Invitational in Madison, Wisc.

Mike Brizendine enters his third year as Virginia Tech's head coach after spending five years as the Hokies' top assistant.

Brizendine's 2010 squad played five top-20 nationally ranked opponents, including taking sixth-ranked Virginia to overtime on the road. His 2009-10 team was one of only three Atlantic Coast Conference men's soccer programs to receive the NSCAA Team Academic Award, which honors teams with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher. It marked the second time in program history and first since 2003, that the Hokies earned academic recognition from the NSCAA.

An experienced coach on all levels, Brizendine helped guide the Hokies to their first NCAA College Cup appearance in school history in 2007. He has worked with all aspects of the Hokie program. For his contributions, Brizendine was recognized as the NSCAA's Atlantic Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 2007.

Brizendine joined the Hokie staff after a successful stint with Bridgewater College, a Division III program that participates in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference (ODAC). After assisting both the men's and women's programs at Bridgewater in 2000, he became the head men's coach from 2001 to 2003, guiding the team from non-competitive status to a full-fledged Division III program. Brizendine led Bridgewater to its two best single-season records, 12-6 in 2003 and 11-7 in 2002, for a 23-13 mark over two seasons and a .639 winning percentage. For this significant turn-around, his peers named him ODAC Coach of the Year in 2003.

Brizendine graduated from James Madison University in 1999 and earned his Master of Education from Virginia Tech in 2005.

Prior to his time at Bridgewater College, he was an assistant coach at Ferrum College for the men's soccer team in 1999. He has also been active guiding and encouraging kids in youth soccer programs throughout his coaching career.

As a player, he lettered four seasons at James Madison University from 1995-98 and ended his career sixth in all-time scoring for the Dukes. He earned all-conference and all-region recognition during his four-year career. He also played professionally with the Roanoke Wrath (1999) and the Northern Virginia Royals (2000 and 2001) of the Division 3 league.

Brizendine and his wife, Lucy, reside in Blacksburg, Va.

Game-by-Game Recap

Game #1 vs. Howard | Aug. 27 | L, 2-1

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- The Virginia Tech men's soccer team opened the 2011 season on Aug. 27 with a 2-1 loss to Howard at Thompson Field.

After a scoreless first half, in which Tech held a majority of the possession in the Howard half of the field, the Bison stunned the Hokies as they got on the board first when Mario Martin capitalized with a low finish from eight yards on a pass from Rahman Alarape at 59:02.

Then at 80:12, Martin again finished for Howard, this time off a pass from Akinbola Richardson, making the score 2-0 in favor of the Bison. However, Tech would get the board just 15 seconds later when Michael Garrick found David Clemens, who dribbled past Howard defenders into the box and finished off a nice individual effort from just outside the six-yard box. After their goal, the Hokies kept on pushing numbers forward as Howard tried to hold on. Garrick nearly got the equalizer at 86:08 as his flick over Hamilton's head hit the crossbar and came back down into play, but Tech couldn't put in the ensuing rebound.

For the game, Tech out-shot Howard, 18-4, and out-cornered the Bison, 14-0. Clemens led the Hokie offense with seven shots and his goal marked the second year in a row that he has scored Tech's first goal of the year. Kyle Renfro played all 90 minutes between the pipes for Tech.

Game #2 vs. Wisconsin | Sept. 2 | L, 1-0 (OT)

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- The Virginia Tech men's soccer team fell to Wisconsin, 1-0 in overtime, on day one of the Hilton Garden Hokie Invitational at Thompson Field. The Badgers' Josh Thiermann scored the game-winner in sudden death overtime in the 97th minute.

The start of the game was delayed by nearly two hours due to two lightning delays in the first match of the day between Cincinnati and Virginia. In the 20th minute, captain James Shupp came forward down the right side and put in a low cross which found Mike Wilkie who fired a shot just wide of the near post. In the first period, Tech held a 9-7 advantage in shots and recorded six corners to just two for Wisconsin.

Robert Alberti played well on the flank the entire night, serving in crosses and creating chances. He led Tech in shots for the game with five. Alberti nearly caught Wisconsin keeper Ciro Martinez off his line in the 64th minute when his shot hit from the left side hit the crossbar. Tech also outshot the Badgers, 11-6, in the second half, and had a 20-16 advantage on the game. However, neither team found the back of the net in regulation and the game was forced into a golden goal overtime period.

In the first extra session, Wisconsin's Thiermann found space down the left side and dribbled into the Tech box where his shot from 10 yards found the back of the net.

Kyle Renfro played all 96:44 in goal and made seven saves.

Game #3 vs. Cincinnati | Sept. 4 | W, 2-1

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- Robert Alberti converted a penalty kick in the 82nd minute to give the Virginia Tech men's soccer its first win of the season over Cincinnati, 2-1, in the final game of the Hilton Garden Hokie Invitational at Thompson Field. The Hokies improved to 1-2-0 overall on the season while the Bearcats dropped to 1-2-0.

In the first half, Tech got on the board only 4:28 into the game as Ben Strong played a through ball to Mikey Minutillo who finished first time from 10 yards out on the right side of the box. The assist was Strong's first as a Hokie.

In the second half, the Bearcats' Emmanuel Appiah found space in the center of the park and fired a shot from 30 yards that hit the crossbar and went in to tie the match at 60:55. Then, with eight and a half minutes remaining, Michael Garrick was fouled after the play in the box by Cincinnati goalkeeper Joey Barnard. Barnard was assessed a yellow card and Tech was awarded a penalty kick.

Alberti stepped up and buried the penalty in the lower left corner after Barnard guessed the other direction to give the Hokies the win, 2-1. It was his first game-winning goal as a Hokie.

Kyle Renfro was solid all game as he made four saves, including a crucial stop in the 84th minute off a shot from Cincinnati's Leon Powell. For the match, Cincinnati outshot the Hokies, 13-7, while corners were even at six apiece. After the game, Jed Prater and Alberti were named to the all-tournament team for Tech.

Game #4 vs. #1 North Carolina | Sept. 10 | W, 1-0 (2OT)

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- James Shupp scored the game-winning goal in the 103rd minute and Kyle Renfro notched his second career shutout as the Virginia Tech men's soccer team defeated No.1-ranked North Carolina, 1-0 in double overtime, in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both teams in front of a packed house at Thompson Field.

Eight minutes into the second half, UNC's Enzo Martinez ripped a shot from outside the box which hit the near post. The rebound came out the Tar Heels' Kirk Urso who followed with a low shot but Renfro made a fine recovering save to keep the game tied at 0-0. The game would remain tied after 90 minutes, forcing sudden death overtime.

The Hokies' then stunned the Tar Heels just 2:31 into the second overtime period with the only goal of the match. The goal originated with a long throw-in from the left side by Tech that was flicked on by Kevin Reitzel. The ball bounced in the box several times and eventually came through to an open Shupp on the back post who finished off the game-winner. It was Shupp's first goal since 2009 and his first game-winner as a Hokie. The assist was also Reitzel's first collegiate point.

The win was Tech's first over North Carolina since 2007. It was also the Hokies' first win over a top-ranked team since 2004 when Tech beat ACC rival Duke, 1-0, in Durham.

Game #5 vs. Longwood | Sept. 13 | W, 1-0

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- The Virginia Tech men's soccer team won its third straight game as the Hokies defeated Longwood, 1-0, at Thompson Field. Drew Ranahan scored the game-winner in the 47th minute with a header from a corner kick by Ben Strong.

Just one minute and seven seconds into the second half, Tech got the breakthrough. Strong struck a low corner to the near post which Ranahan redirected off his head low into the far post from six yards for his first collegiate goal. The assist was Strong's second of the season.

NEWARK, N.J. -- The Virginia Tech men's soccer team lost to New Jersey Institute of Technology, 2-1, in a non-conference match on Lubetkin Field at J. Malcolm Simon Stadium. All three goals in the match were scored in the first period.

The Highlanders struck early as Luis Granizo scored from 15 yards via an assist from Kwesi Alleyne only 3:15 into the match.

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- Playing at home for the first time in over two weeks, the Virginia Tech men's soccer team tied Campbell, 1-1 in double overtime, on a rainy and blustery night at Thompson Field. The tie was the Hokies' first draw of the season.

Campbell struck first at 19:52 as Brian Urioste settled a headed Tech clearance off a cross at the top of the box and fired a half volley from 18 yards to the far post, past the reach of a diving Kyle Renfro.

In the second half Tech had the better run of play for much of the period and would equalize at 69:59 when freshman defender Kevin Reitzel got his foot on the end of cross and directed the ball towards goal, where it went off a Campbell defender and in for an own goal.

Mikey Minutillo created his own chance with a nice individual effort down the left flank in the 77th minute. His shot had Campbell keeper Ethan Hall beat to the far post, but the ball hit the woodwork.

In the overtime periods, Campbell outshot Tech, 7-1. The Camels' Nick Burdett had his shot from the left flank nick the near post and go wide in the 95th minute. Renfro made three saves in the extra sessions for Tech, preserving the result.
