VIRGINIA TECH & PACIFIC FIRST LOOK

BACK IN THE OLD DOMINION

▪ The Hokies are back playing in the state of Virginia after spending the opening weekend in Omaha, Nebraska for the first time. The Hokies went 1-1.

FAMILIAR PLACE

▪ Virginia Tech has competed in this event six times.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

▪ Freshmen Jon Ingason, Emil Koho and Justus Kauppinen bring youth level international experience to the Hokies.

UNFAMILIAR OPPOSITION

▪ Tech's schedule features three games against teams the program has never faced before; Creighton, Omaha and Pacific. Those three opponents will be the first three matches of the 2017 season.

2016 IN REVIEW

▪ The 2016 Hokies advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament and earned the program's second-highest final ranking at No. 8. Along the way, Tech defeated ETSU, Charlotte and Indiana.

POLL POSITION

▪ Tech began the season ranked 17th in the United Soccer Coaches poll.

BACK AGAIN

▪ Head coach Mike Brizendine returns eight starters and 16 letter winners from last season's breakout squad.

BREAKOUT SEASON

▪ In 2016, the Hokies exploded for 38 goals, 11 of which came from Marcelo Acuna. The Costa Rica native tallied 25 points en route to a Second Team All-ACC selection.

ALL ABOUT THE TIGERS

▪ Pacific has started the season 2-0 following victories over Sacramento State (2-0) and CSU Bakersfield (5-2).

▪ Tristan Blackmon leads all Tigers in points with four, following his brace against Sacramento State.

▪ In goal, senior Curtis Goldsmith holds a 1.00 goals against average and has made six saves on the season.

LAST TIME OUT

▪ Last time out, Tech lost to Nebraska Omaha 5-1. Marcelo Acuna tallied the lone Hokie goal to open his account in 2017. He redirected a header into the back of the net that came from a service from Humberto Montero.

2017 VIRGINIA TECH MEN'S SOCCER GAME NOTES

HEAD COACH: MIKE BRIZENDINE

In his eight years at the helm of the Virginia Tech program, head coach Mike Brizendine has worked to return the Hokies to the top of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Last season, Brizendine's squad made a triumphant return to the NCAA tournament, winning three games on the way to the Elite Eight.

The 2016 season marked a resurgence of the Tech soccer program, winning six straight games to open the season en route to a No. 15 ranking. After opening the non-conference portion of the season by upsetting No. 18 Ohio State and No. 24 Georgetown, the Hokies would end the season 10-1-3 against non-league opponents. Rising to a No. 15 ranking during the regular season, the Hokies compiled their best ACC record in Brizendine's tenure, finishing 3-4-1 to earn a nine seed in the ACC Tournament. Tech's four losses all came against programs ranked in the top-10: tenth-ranked Syracuse, seventh-ranked Clemson, third-ranked UNC and top-ranked Notre Dame. The team picked up an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament, the program's first in a decade, opening with a 1-0 victory over East Tennessee State. The Hokies downed powerhouse programs No. 10 Charlotte and No. 7 Indiana on the road to advance to the Elite Eight, earning the team a final ranking of eighth.

Brizendine was named the 2016 Virginia SID Coach of the Year with junior Marcelo Acuna earning third-team All-America honors. Senior Juan Pablo Saavedra joined an elite group of former Hokies when he was drafted by FC Toronto in the 2016 MLS Draft.

Brizendine has coached 21 players that have gone on to play professional soccer, as well as six MLS draftees. After taking over a team facing significant recruiting restrictions and coming off a four-win season, his leadership has returned Virginia Tech to prominence, well on the way to the upper echelons of collegiate soccer.

After serving 10 years as a collegiate assistant coach, including five at Virginia Tech, Brizendine finally got his opportunity lead his own program when former AD Jim Weaver promoted him to the head coach on June 11, 2009.

During the 2015 season, Brizendine and his young squad won five games, including an upset against then-No. 10 Xavier. At the conclusion of the season, forward Ricardo John signed with the professional team Central F.C. in his native country of Trinidad and Tobago.

In 2014, Brizendine's young squad produced seven wins, including victories over Wake Forest, NC State, SIUE and UNCG. Freshman Ricardo John, who tallied 11 points, was named all-conference and all-region. Underclassmen scored all 19 goals and freshman keeper Ben Lundgaard recorded six shutouts in seeing nearly 75 percent of the minutes in goal.

The 2013 season saw a school-record three players either drafted into the MLS or sign professional contracts following the season. The Hokies also earned eight points in ACC play, the most since 2007, behind five ties and an upset victory over No. 17 Syracuse. Under Brizendine's direction, the Hokie defense only allowed 23 goals all season, the lowest total allowed since 2005, as well as the second first-team All-ACC selection in school history.

Education

High School: McLean High School
College: James Madison University (B.A. in religion, 1999)

Brizendine's 2012 team earned the most wins in a season (seven) for the program since 2007. On Nov. 5, 2012, in College Park, Md., the Hokies scored three unanswered goals to top NC State in the first round of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament, capturing only the second victory for the team in the tournament since the school joined the conference in 2004.

The 2011 side played five top-25 opponents during the season, and the year was highlighted by a 1-0 double-overtime win over 2011 NCAA champion North Carolina. The victory was the program's first over a No. 1 ranked opponent since 2004.

Under Brizendine's guidance, the Hokies have also had a great deal of success in the classroom. His teams earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award five times (2010-14, 16). The award honors teams with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 or higher.

As an assistant under former coach Oliver Weiss, Brizendine played an integral role in helping the Hokies make it to the College Cup for the first time in the program's history. For his contributions, he was recognized as the NSCAA's Atlantic Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 2007.

Brizendine joined the Hokie staff after a successful stint with Bridgewater (Va.) College, a Division III program that participates in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference (ODAC). After assisting both the men's and women's programs at Bridgewater in 2000, he became the head men's coach from 2001 to 2003, guiding the team from non-competitive status to a full-fledged Division III program. Brizendine led Bridgewater to its two best single-season records – 12-6 in 2003 and 11-7 in 2002 – for a 23-13 mark over two seasons and a .639 winning percentage. For this significant turn-around, his peers named him ODAC Coach of the Year in 2003.

Prior to his time at Bridgewater College, he was an assistant coach at Ferrum College for the men's soccer team in 1999. He has also been active guiding and encouraging kids in youth soccer programs throughout his coaching career.

As a player, he lettered four seasons at James Madison University from 1995-98 and ended his career sixth in all-time scoring for the Dukes. He earned all-conference and all-region recognition during his four-year career. He also played professionally with the Roanoke Wrath (1999) and the Northern Virginia Royals (2000 and 2001) of the Division 3 league.

2017 VIRGINIA TECH MEN'S SOCCER GAME NOTES

THE HOME OF THE HOKIES: THOMPSON FIELD

Thompson Field serves as the home of the Virginia Tech men's and women's soccer teams as well as the lacrosse team. Located in the center of the Virginia Tech athletics complex, the facility ranks as one of the finest for both soccer and lacrosse in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Located across from Lane Stadium, the Hokies' football home, and adjacent to Tech Softball Park, Thompson Field was completed in the fall of 2003 and dedicated in 2008 in the name of Sandra D. Thompson, a longtime supporter of women's athletics at Virginia Tech.

The field is a bluegrass playing surface and measures approximately 75 by 120 yards. It is equipped with an underground irrigation system and a drainage system that allows for it to be ready for play quickly following rainstorms. The complex also features a wireless scoreboard, and a permanent Hubbell lighting system allows for night games.

The athletics department has made improvements gradually since the venue opened in 2003. In 2005, workers completed a new restroom facility for the field, and during the summer of 2008, a new game operations center was erected atop the stadium above the fans. The approximately 900-square foot facility includes two broadcast booths for both home team and visiting team radio broadcasts. The center also has two covered areas devoted to broadcasting and/or videographers' cameras, and there is a large working area for media members covering the Hokies.

The climate-controlled facility also contains a state-of-the-art sound system and Ethernet capability. The Internet-ready facility allows Tech's official athletics website, hokiesports.com, to originate live audio broadcasts and live stats of the Hokies' matches from the press box. Above the grandstand is a wired camera deck.

Between each team's bench area is the Sandy D. Thompson Press Box. Formerly the press operations center for the field, the facility is now used as a halftime room for game officials and as an auxiliary area for press and game operations.

Thompson Field, which has been expanded since it was opened, now features approximately 2,028 bench-back seats, where each fan has an unobstructed view of the playing surface. Spacious area around the field allows for nearly 1,500 more fans to watch games.
