THE HOKIES

The Tournament: Virginia Tech enters the NCAA Championship ranked 41st in the ITA standings. It marks the highest ranking for the Hokies this season. This is the Hokies seventh consecutive trip to the NCAA Championship.

The 2013 Season: Virginia Tech played 15 matches this season against ranked opponents, recording a 6-9 record. Tech has been ranked throughout duals. The Hokies had a 10 match stretch during the season where nine of their opponents were ranked and went 5-5 during that time.

Freshman of the Year: Amerigo Contini was named the ACC Freshman of the Year after a stellar rookie campaign. Contini has been ranked throughout the season in singles, including a season-high 51nd. He compiled a 16-5 duals record, playing primarily in the No. 1 and No. 2 including a 7-3 record against a tough ACC. The last Hokie to be named ACC Freshman of the Year was Luka Somen in 2009.

Single Representative: Amerigo Contini will represent Virginia Tech in the NCAA Singles Tournament. Contini joins a list of 13 former Hokies who have competed in the NCAA singles tournament. Most recently, Tech was represented by Luka Somen last year.

All-ACC: Amerigo Contini and Andreas Bjerrehus were named to the All-ACC team this season after strong first seasons with the Hokies. In addition to outstanding seasons in singles, the pair has been ranked all season in doubles and had a season-best eighth ranking in the ITA. The duo recorded a 13-6 mark in duals at the No. 1. This marks the first time since the 2010 season that two Hokies have earned All-ACC Accolades. Luka Somen and Yoann Re were the last pair recognized during the same season.

Freshmen: The Hokies have had two freshmen ranked throughout the season in singles and doubles. Andreas Bjerrehus and Amerigo Contini have held rankings in the singles poll all season. In doubles, the pair has been ranked as high as eighth. Hokie freshman Joao Monteiro has also been solid for Tech throughout the spring season, totalling an 11-5 record in duals.

Youthful Team: Tech has a young team with just two seniors and no juniors. Nine of the 11 team members are either freshmen or sophomores. Including three freshmen and a sophomore that have seen significant time in duals this season.

Wimbledon Ties: Virginia Tech assistant coach Stephen Huss joined the Hokies last summer. Prior to his arrival at Tech, Huss competed on the international stage for 11 years. In 2005, he claimed the Wimbledon Gentlemen's Doubles title as a qualifier, becoming the first to win the title after qualifying in to the tournament along with teammate Wesley Moodie.
