LONG-TIME SERIES WITH LIBERTY CONTINUES

GAMES 37-38

VIRGINIA TECH

(17-19, 7-5 ACC)

vs.

LIBERTY

(15-25, 4-5 Big South)

April 16, 2009 • 2 p.m. (DH)

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty Softball Field

Series: VT lead 21-11

500th career win. He has a current record of 500-327 in his 14th year at the helm.

226 and Counting

Senior Charisse Mariconda has started all 229 games played in her three-plus seasons at Tech and could end up being the first player in Tech softball history to start every game in a four-year span. The closest any player has come to accomplishing the feat was Michelle Meadows, who started 250 games out of 252 games played during her career. Mariconda has started 194 games at third base and 35 games at shortstop.

About Liberty

Liberty currently sits at 15-25 overall and 4-5 in the Big South, but sports a 6-1 home record. Beth Bennett hits .271 with seven home runs to lead the way for an offense that hits just .221.

In the circle, sophomore Tiffani Smith is 7-8, but has a 1.92 ERA with 106 strikeouts. Sarah Ellis is 8-17 with a 2.88 ERA and 101 punchouts and splits time with Smith for a majority of action in the circle.

The Series

The two schools have met 32 previous times with the Hokies winning 21 of those contests. Liberty won the first five contests in the series which began in 1996, but Tech at one point won 14 of 15 to take a sizeable lead. Tech is 9-5 against the Flames in Lynchburg. Last year, the squads played on April 16 as part of the campus "Day of Remembrance" with the Hokies winning 7-2 and 9-1 in six innings.

200-100-100

Senior Charisse Mariconda joined an elite club of softball players at Virginia Tech last weekend when she scored in the first game against Boston College. She became just the fifth player in program history to record 200 career hits, 100 career RBI and 100 career runs. Mariconda currently has 213 hits, 122 RBI and 102 runs scored.

Only four other Tech players have reached the 200-100-100 club in the 14-year history of the program and arguably they are among the top position players in the program's history. They are: Michelle Meadows (254-131-122), Kara Krumhardt (235-115-129), Megan Evans (212-161-117) and Clarisa Crowell (200-103-104).

500 for Thomas

Tech head coach Scot Thomas reached another coaching milestone last Saturday when the Hokies beat Boston College 9-1 to pick up his

What a Weekend!

Senior Jenna Rhodes was named ACC Player of the Week after going 10-for-12 against Boston College last weekend for an .833 average. But she wasn't the only Hokie to break out the big bat. The six returning starters from the Women's College World Series — Jessica Everhart (.714), Beth Walker (.667), Erin Ota (.600), Charisse Mariconda (.500) and Whitney Davis (.444) — helped pace an offense that hit .482 and scored 32 runs with 41 hits and 11 stolen bases in the three-game sweep.

It'll take a strong finish, but Rhodes could finish with the school's highest career batting average. She currently has a career average of .366, just a few points ahead of Meadows, who batted .347 for her career.

A Different Team

After a miserable start to the season, the Hokies have turned it around over the past 13 games. Tech batted just .255 and went 8-15 in the first 23 games, with 55 runs scored. But since the win over Georgia Tech to end the first ACC series on March 22, it's been a different team. Tech is 9-4 in this stretch hitting .320 with 110 hits, 71 runs scored and 57 RBI.

Jenna Rhodes is hitting .556 in this stretch while Erin Ota (.415) and Charisse Mariconda (.395) have also been hot. In the circle, Kenzie Roark is 6-1 with a 2.62 ERA over the last 13 games.

Go in!

Between Jenna Rhodes (91-for-109), Charisse Mariconda (41-for-44) and Erin Ota (34-for-41), the Hokies have three veterans on the base paths who have combined for an 86 percent success rate (166-for-194) for their careers.

This year, the Hokies are a combined 59-for-66 on the basepaths a year after stealing a school-record 102 base.

Did You Know?: Senior Charisse Mariconda does not have a middle name ... Senior Jessica Everhart has a twin sister, Jennifer, who plays softball at Radford ... Head coach Scot Thomas was in the same fraternity as country music star Kenny Chesney at ETSU ... Assistant coach Al Brauns served in the Vietnam War ... Marra Hvozdovic is a fourth-generation Hokie as her great grandfather, grandfather and both parents attended Virginia Tech ... Richelle McGarva used to work in construction with her dad ... At seven letters, Erin Ota has the shortest name of anyone in the history of Tech softball, while at 17 letters, Charisse Mariconda's name is tied with Christine Trunnell as the longest in Tech softball history ... Kenzie Roark was an aunt before she was even born and recently became a great aunt ... Kim Jalm's family lives across from Burt Reynolds' ranch in Florida ... Erin Ota donated 10 inches of her hair to "Locks for Love" in January ... Kristen Froehlich went to Italy over the summer and brought back some ash from Pompeii ... Beth Walker and Amber Walker used to be battery mates at Galax High when Beth pitched ... Whitney Davis went to the same high school as former MLB great Billy Wagner ... Jenna Rhodes was raised on a chicken farm ... Erin Ota's sister, Melissa, played softball at Brown ... Jessica Everhart is engaged to Stevie Ray Lloyd, a former Hokie football player who finished his career at Liberty University ... Beth Walker is President of Virginia Tech's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) ... Abbie Rexrode went to Europe this past summer with her family visiting seven countries over a two-week span ... Alicia Field has a severe case of Ophidiophobia (fear of snakes).

A Second Home: Trainer Katie Baer has had her hands full this season already as several key players are making the Eddie Ferrell Memorial Training Room a second home. Kristin Graham's arm troubles prevented her from pitching early in the season. Graham was able to hit and play first base and shortstop, at least, and finally made her debut in the circle on March 21 against Georgia Tech. Another setback came on Feb. 10 when starting centerfielder Richelle McGarva suffered a lateral dislocation of her left ankle in a routine base running drill in practice. She had emergency surgery that night at Montgomery Regional Hospital and is likely out for the rest of the season. Marra Hvozdovic, who was the fourth outfielder, was injured at Florida State and will be imited after having thumb surgery. That leaves Tech with three outfielders for the time being. Tech also lost shortstop/catcher Misty Hall for the season when she was dismissed from school for a violation of university policy and Kenzie Roark hurt her knee in a training session over Spring Break and but returned for the Georgia Tech series. Tech is down to just 14 healthy players for the time being with six of those being current or former true or invited walk-ons.

Double Duty: Assistant coach Barb Sherwood will pull double duty this summer as she was recently named the field manager (head coach) of the Akron Racers of the NPF. She will continue her duties with the Hokies while coaching the Racers. Sherwood will get to work with former Hokie and 2008 All-NPF selection Angela Tincher in the league.

Tracking Tinch: After being named the National Player of the Year by USA Softball in 2008, former Hokie pitcher Angela Tincher has kept things rolling. Last summer, she was a standout for the Akron Racers and this spring, she is in Japan for another adventure. She signed with LeoPalace 21 of the Japan Pro Softball League and is competing there for three months before returning to the NPF this summer. She will head back to Japan after the NPF season is complete to finish her stint across the seas.

WHAT'S A HOKIE?

That's the most often-asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

Following is the "Old Hokie" yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

TLC AT THE TSP

Tech Softball Park, home of Virginia Tech softball since 1998, has been a tough place for opposing teams to play of the years. Tech finished in 21st in the nation in 2007, averaging 547 fans per home date, a year after finishing 17th in the country with an average of 551 fans per home date. Last year, Tech went way up in average attendance, averaging 699 fans per date.

Nearly 800 permanent seats have been added, along with lights, two more press boxes and a new sound system, making the facility a fine one for the Hokies to play.

Over the years, Tech has posted a 155-55 record at home, a winning percentage of .738.

SCOT THOMAS

VIRGINIA TECH HEAD COACH

14TH SEASON

EAST TENNESSEE STATE (1981)

RECORD: 500-326

- 2007 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year •
- 2007, 2008 NFCA Northeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year •
- 1999 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year •
- 1999, 2000, 2002, 2005 & 2008 VaSID State Coach of the Year •

• Picked up his 500th career win this year after leading Tech to the Women's College World Series last year, a first for the program. The Hokies also finished a program-best eighth in both final polls in 2008.

• Led the Hokies to a 1-0 upset win over the USA National Team in an exhibition game on March 26, 2008 at Oklahoma City, snapping the team's 185-game pre-Olympic exhibition tour winning streak.

• Guided Tech to its fourth straight NCAA Regional in 2008, a program first. Tech was seed 16th nationally and No. 1 at the Columbus Regional in 2007 and advanced to the NCAA Women's College World Series for the first time in program history in 2008.

• Led the Hokies to Atlantic Coast Conference tournament titles in both 2007 and 2008. Also led the Hokies to the regular-season title in 2007, a program first.

• Has had 10 winning seasons in 13 seasons, building the program from the ground up starting in 1996.

• Was named the 2007 ACC Coach of the Year and he and his staff were named the Northeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year by the NFCA in both 2007 and 2008.

• In 2006, won 39 games and were a No. 2 seed at the Knoxville Regional, despite starting seven sophomores or freshmen down the stretch. Helped coach Tech's first softball All-American, as well as five all-region, four all-conference and seven all-state selections.

• In 2005, Tech picked up 44 wins and was selected to the NCAA Tournament, a first in the program's history. After finishing seventh in the regular season, the Hokies made a dramatic run to the championship game to secure the bid. Three players earned all-region honors and over two dozen school records were broken by either the team or individuals.

• In 2004, led Tech to its sixth winning season while picking up his 300th win. Three players earned All-BIG EAST honors while two took home all-region accolades as Tech posted a 36-23 record.

• Became Tech's first head softball coach when he was hired on July 7, 1995. Since then, he has recorded 483 wins, averaged 37 wins per season and made the conference tournament championship game seven times.

• The Hokies finished a spectacular 1999 season ranked 25th in the nation with a 54-16 record. In just its fourth year as a varsity sport, the team placed second at the A-10 Tournament, falling to Massachusetts for the second year in a row. For his team's play, Thomas was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year.

• In 13 previous seasons, has had four players earn Academic All-America honors. Michelle Johnson made the 1998 second-team squad while Michelle Meadows was a three-time selection, the last two being on the first team. Following the 2002 season, Ashlee Dobbe earned first-team honors and Angela Tincher was a three-time Academic All-American, to go along with three NFCA/Louisville Slugger All-America honors.

• Has been named the Virginia State Coach of the Year by the Virginia Sports Information Directors (VaSID) a record five times (1999, 2000, 2002, 2005 and 2008).

• He has had over 23 different players named to the all-state team 44 different times, including at least three on every team in 10 of the last 11 seasons.

• Graduated from East Tennessee State University in 1991 with a bachelor's in physical education.

• Was also selected to be the head coach of a group of local collegiate all-stars who took on the U.S. Olympic Softball Team in Salem, Va., in the summer of 2004 and will do so again in the summer of 2008.

• A native of Blacksburg, Va., he graduated from Blacksburg High where he was a member of the football and baseball teams.

• Is married to the former Carolyn Croy, a Virginia Tech graduate from Blacksburg. The couple has a son, Andrew Scot, who is 11, and a daughter, Eliza Leigh, who turned 7 in November.
