BIG ACC SERIES LOOMS ON SENIOR WEEKEND

GAMES 46-48

VIRGINIA TECH

(22-23, 7-8 ACC)

vs.

MARYLAND

(23-22, 7-8 ACC)

April 25, 2009 • Noon (DH)

April 26, 2009 • 1 PM

Blacksburg, Va.

Tech Softball Park

This is Tech's last ACC series while Maryland hosts Georgia Tech next weekend.

Records Watch

It'll take a strong finish, but Jenna Rhodes could finish with the school's highest career batting average. She currently has a career average of .375, well ahead of Michelle Meadows, who batted .347 for her career.

Senior Charisse Mariconda needs three more doubles to break the school's career doubles mark. Meadows had 48 two-baggers from 1997-2000. Mariconda picked up a double against North Carolina A&T and now has 46.

Home Sweet Home

Tech Softball Park, home of Tech softball since 1998, has been a tough place for opposing teams to play of the years. Last year, Tech averaged 699 fans per date, 13th-best in the country.

With the construction project completely finished, the Hokies now play in a park that can hold 1,024 fans. Over the years, Virginia Tech has posted a 156-56 record at home, a winning percentage of .736.

Record Crowds

The four largest crowds in Tech Softball Park history have come on the day the Spring Football Game has been held, like it will be held Saturday. In 2005, a record 1,977 fans crammed around the park to watch the NC State game on April 16. On April 15, 2006, 1,874 fans watched the Tech/UNC game. A crowd of 1,283 took in the April 21, 2007 game between Tech and Maryland and on April 19, 2008, 1,182 enthusiasts enjoyed the Tech and Florida State game. This will mark the fifth-straight year the Hokies have played at home on the same day as the Spring Football Game.

Senior Weekend and Spring Game

Virginia Tech's Spring Football Game will be held this Saturday, the day Tech softball hosts Maryland, at 2 o'clock. As always, it's open parking for both events, so fans are encouraged to arrive early and be patient with the parking situation.

On Sunday, Tech will honor its six seniors — Jessica Everhart, Kim Jalm, Charisse Mariconda, Erin Ota, Jenna Rhodes and Beth Walker — before the 1 o'clock game against the Terps.

Coverage of Maryland

As always, the sweet tones of Jerry Massey can be heard on the air for free on hokietv.com, for a fee on ACC Select (Sunday only) and live stats for the games will be available on hokiesports.com.

About Maryland

Maryland is 23-22 overall, 7-8 in the ACC. Tech and the Terps are tied for fourth in the conference standings. The Terrapins are led at the plate by Breanna Shaw, who is batting .331 while Nadine Blackie is hitting .316 with six home runs and 10 stolen bases. Vangie Gallindo (.313) is the only other player hitting over .300 for a team that hits .268 with 21 home runs and 46 stolen bases.

In the circle, Kerry Hickey is 10-8 with a 2.19 ERA and 143 strikeouts while Sarah Dooley is 12-18 with a 3.05 ERA.

The Series

The Hokies and Terps have met 18 previous times — Maryland leads 10-8 — in a series dating back to 1997. Last year, the Hokies won the series that was played in College Park, 2-1. Tech won the first game 8-1 and the third game 8-3. Maryland took the middle game, 2-1. The two met in the opening game of the ACC Tournament with the Hokies rallying for a 7-4 win en route to their second-straight ACC Tournament title. Tech is 3-3 against the Terrapins at Tech Softball Park.

What's at Stake

While it looks like these two teams will meet in the first round of the ACC Tournament regardless of what happens this weekend, there's a lot at stake with this series. That's because in each of the last three seasons, every ACC team to finish in the top four of the regular season standings with a winning overall record and at least a .500 mark in conference games has made the NCAA Tournament.

In both 2006 and 2007, the top five teams went to the Big Dance and last year, the top four ACC teams made it to the NCAA Tournament, including Georgia Tech which had a 31-30 record heading into the NCAAs. The last time the ACC didn't get at least four teams into postseason was in 2004, back when just six teams were in the league and three went to the NCAA Tourney that year.

Did You Know?: Senior Charisse Mariconda does not have a middle name ... Senior Jessica Everhart has a twin sister, Jennifer, who plays softball at Radford ... Head coach Scot Thomas was in the same fraternity as country music star Kenny Chesney at ETSU ... Assistant coach Al Brauns served in the Vietnam War ... Marra Hvozdovic is a fourth-generation Hokie as her great grandfather, grandfather and both parents attended Virginia Tech ... Richelle McGarva used to work in construction with her dad ... At seven letters, Erin Ota has the shortest name of anyone in the history of Tech softball, while at 17 letters, Charisse Mariconda's name is tied with Christine Trunnell as the longest in Tech softball history ... Kenzie Roark was an aunt before she was even born and recently became a great aunt ... Kim Jalm's family lives across from Burt Reynolds' ranch in Florida ... Erin Ota donated 10 inches of her hair to "Locks for Love" in January ... Kristen Froehlich went to Italy over the summer and brought back some ash from Pompeii ... Beth Walker and Amber Walker used to be battery mates at Galax High when Beth pitched ... Whitney Davis went to the same high school as former MLB great Billy Wagner ... Jenna Rhodes was raised on a chicken farm ... Erin Ota's sister, Melissa, played softball at Brown ... Jessica Everhart is engaged to Stevie Ray Lloyd, a former Hokie football player who finished his career at Liberty University ... Beth Walker is President of Virginia Tech's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) ... Abbie Rexrode went to Europe this past summer with her family visiting seven countries over a two-week span ... Alicia Field has a severe case of Ophidiophobia (fear of snakes).

A Second Home: Trainer Katie Baer has had her hands full this season already as several key players are making the Eddie Ferrell Memorial Training Room a second home. Kristin Graham's arm troubles prevented her from pitching early in the season. Graham was able to hit and play first base and shortstop, at least, and finally made her debut in the circle on March 21 against Georgia Tech. Another setback came on Feb. 10 when starting centerfielder Richelle McGarva suffered a lateral dislocation of her left ankle in a routine base running drill in practice. She had emergency surgery that night at Montgomery Regional Hospital and is likely out for the rest of the season. Marra Hvozdovic, who was the fourth outfielder, was injured at Florida State and will be imited after having thumb surgery. That leaves Tech with three outfielders for the time being. Tech also lost shortstop/catcher Misty Hall for the season when she was dismissed from school for a violation of university policy and Kenzie Roark hurt her knee in a training session over Spring Break and but returned for the Georgia Tech series. Tech is down to just 14 healthy players for the time being with six of those being current or former true or invited walk-ons.

Double Duty: Assistant coach Barb Sherwood will pull double duty this summer as she was recently named the field manager (head coach) of the Akron Racers of the NPF. She will continue her duties with the Hokies while coaching the Racers. Sherwood will get to work with former Hokie and 2008 All-NPF selection Angela Tincher in the league.

Tracking Tinch: After being named the National Player of the Year by USA Softball in 2008, former Hokie pitcher Angela Tincher has kept things rolling. Last summer, she was a standout for the Akron Racers and this spring, she is in Japan for another adventure. She signed with LeoPalace 21 of the Japan Pro Softball League and is competing there for three months before returning to the NPF this summer. She will head back to Japan after the NPF season is complete to finish her stint across the seas.

WHAT'S A HOKIE?

That's the most often-asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

Following is the "Old Hokie" yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

TLC AT THE TSP

Tech Softball Park, home of Virginia Tech softball since 1998, has been a tough place for opposing teams to play of the years. Tech finished in 21st in the nation in 2007, averaging 547 fans per home date, a year after finishing 17th in the country with an average of 551 fans per home date. Last year, Tech went way up in average attendance, averaging 699 fans per date.

Nearly 800 permanent seats have been added, along with lights, two more press boxes and a new sound system, making the facility a fine one for the Hokies to play.

Over the years, Tech has posted a 156-56 record at home, a winning percentage of .736.

SCOT THOMAS

VIRGINIA TECH HEAD COACH

14TH SEASON

EAST TENNESSEE STATE (1981)

RECORD: 505-330

- 2007 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year •
- 2007, 2008 NFCA Northeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year •
- 1999 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year •
- 1999, 2000, 2002, 2005 & 2008 VaSID State Coach of the Year •

• Picked up his 500th career win this year after leading Tech to the Women's College World Series last year, a first for the program. The Hokies also finished a program-best eighth in both final polls in 2008.

• Led the Hokies to a 1-0 upset win over the USA National Team in an exhibition game on March 26, 2008 at Oklahoma City, snapping the team's 185-game pre-Olympic exhibition tour winning streak.

• Guided Tech to its fourth straight NCAA Regional in 2008, a program first. Tech was seed 16th nationally and No. 1 at the Columbus Regional in 2007 and advanced to the NCAA Women's College World Series for the first time in program history in 2008.

• Led the Hokies to Atlantic Coast Conference tournament titles in both 2007 and 2008. Also led the Hokies to the regular-season title in 2007, a program first.

• Has had 10 winning seasons in 13 seasons, building the program from the ground up starting in 1996.

• Was named the 2007 ACC Coach of the Year and he and his staff were named the Northeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year by the NFCA in both 2007 and 2008.

• In 2006, won 39 games and were a No. 2 seed at the Knoxville Regional, despite starting seven sophomores or freshmen down the stretch. Helped coach Tech's first softball All-American, as well as five all-region, four all-conference and seven all-state selections.

• In 2005, Tech picked up 44 wins and was selected to the NCAA Tournament, a first in the program's history. After finishing seventh in the regular season, the Hokies made a dramatic run to the championship game to secure the bid. Three players earned all-region honors and over two dozen school records were broken by either the team or individuals.

• In 2004, led Tech to its sixth winning season while picking up his 300th win. Three players earned All-BIG EAST honors while two took home all-region accolades as Tech posted a 36-23 record.

• Became Tech's first head softball coach when he was hired on July 7, 1995. Since then, he has recorded 483 wins, averaged 37 wins per season and made the conference tournament championship game seven times.

• The Hokies finished a spectacular 1999 season ranked 25th in the nation with a 54-16 record. In just its fourth year as a varsity sport, the team placed second at the A-10 Tournament, falling to Massachusetts for the second year in a row. For his team's play, Thomas was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year.

• In 13 previous seasons, has had four players earn Academic All-America honors. Michelle Johnson made the 1998 second-team squad while Michelle Meadows was a three-time selection, the last two being on the first team. Following the 2002 season, Ashlee Dobbe earned first-team honors and Angela Tincher was a three-time Academic All-American, to go along with three NFCA/Louisville Slugger All-America honors.

• Has been named the Virginia State Coach of the Year by the Virginia Sports Information Directors (VaSID) a record five times (1999, 2000, 2002, 2005 and 2008).

• He has had over 23 different players named to the all-state team 44 different times, including at least three on every team in 10 of the last 11 seasons.

• Graduated from East Tennessee State University in 1991 with a bachelor's in physical education.

• Was also selected to be the head coach of a group of local collegiate all-stars who took on the U.S. Olympic Softball Team in Salem, Va., in the summer of 2004 and will do so again in the summer of 2008.

• A native of Blacksburg, Va., he graduated from Blacksburg High where he was a member of the football and baseball teams.

• Is married to the former Carolyn Croy, a Virginia Tech graduate from Blacksburg. The couple has a son, Andrew Scot, who is 11, and a daughter, Eliza Leigh, who turned 7 in November.
