PREVIEWING THE MEET

- After the pole vaulters and heptathletes opened up the 2012-13 indoor season at the end of November, the rest of the Hokies will get their season underway this weekend as 15 teams from four states will send athletes to Blacksburg for the VT Invitational.
- Teams with entries in the field are Charlotte, Coastal Carolina, Concord, Davidson, Duke, East Carolina, High Point, Liberty, North Carolina A&T, North Carolina Central, Radford, Richmond, Tennessee and Virginia Tech.
- Friday's action will start off at 5 p.m., with women's triple jump, unseeded pole vault, and the men's weight throw. Saturday will begin at 11 a.m., with the men's high jump and women's seeded pole vault.

LAST TIME OUT

- Hokie heptathletes and pole vaulters opened up the indoor season on Nov. 30 at the Liberty Kickoff at the Tolsma Indoor Track Center in Lynchburg, Va. Scott Campbell won the heptathlon with 4,959 points. Leigh Allin won the women's pole vault with a mark of 12-1 (3.70m) while Lyndsey Saunders and Grace Giampietro tied for third at 11-3.75 (3.45m). On the men's side, Chris Uhle and Brad Johnson each cleared marks of 15-9 (4.80m), the second best of the competition.

RETURNING ALL-AMERICANS

- Back this season are 2012 two-time All-Americans Martina Schultze (pole vault), Alexander Ziegler (weight throw/hammer throw) and Ronnie Black (high jump).
- After becoming a two-time national champion last spring in the hammer throw, Ziegler will finish up his eligibility during the indoor season as he seeks to earn his first national title in the weight throw after two second place finishes and a third at NAAs during the previous three seasons.
- Frances Dowd returns this winter after earning All-America honors in the 800m during the 2011 indoor season.
- Joining Black, Ziegler and Schultze during the indoor season after earning All-America honors last spring are Jeff Artis-Gray, Michael Hammond, Jonathan McCants and Darrell Wesh.
- After redshirting the indoor season in 2012, Hammond returns to the track this winter to complete his eligibility as a Hokie looking to pick up where he left off in 2011 after earning All-America honors in the mile.
- The last returning All-American is Matthias Treff who will finish up his Hokie career during the outdoor season in the javelin.

Hokie Notes

Bowerman watch

- After finishing last season as a semifinalist for the prestigious Bowerman Award, Tech thrower Alexander Ziegler was named to the Preseason Watch List prior to the 2013 season.
- The senior from Dischingen, Germany has been piling up accolades since setting foot on campus in 2010, earning All-America honors and medal-ing in all six seasons while becoming the second athlete in Tech history to win back-to-back NCAA titles in the hammer throw, and the fourth Tech athlete to earn multiple national championships.

Last hurrah

- Jason Cusack, Eric Hoepker, Michael Hammond, Will Mulherin and Alexander Ziegler's clocks are ticking on the collegiate careers. The quintet have just under two months remaining their eligibility up after the indoor season.

Separating from the pack

- Seniors Jeff Artis-Gray and Michael Hammond have the opportunity to separate themselves from all others in the Tech record book as both are currently tied with former Hokies Gary Cobb, Keith Ricks and Ryan Witt for holding the most records in the men's program.
- Hammond has only the indoor season to separate himself from the pack, while Artis-Gray has both indoors and outdoors.

Elite level

- Redshirt junior Frances Dowd won the NCAA Elite 89 Award last season, an honor presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA Championships. She finished 15th in the 800m (2:09.38) at the 2012 NCAA Indoor Championships.

German connection

- Currently, the Hokies have seven athletes from Germany competing in four different events. Matthias Treff and transfer Sabine Kopplin in the javelina, Alexander Ziegler and Annjulie Vester in the weight throw/hammer throw, Stephan Munz and Martina Schultze in the pole vault, and Benny Unger in the hurdles.

Back in Blacksburg

- After winning the pole vault at the 2011 ACC Indoor Championships in his first-ever event for the Hokies, Stephan Munz was back in Germany last year to complete his undergraduate degree. The Goeppingen native is now back at Tech as a graduate student this year while he continues his Hokie career.
- On a similar path, the women's team will be without the services of 2012 All-American Victoria Von Eynatten for 2013 as she has returned to Germany to finish her undergraduate studies before returning to Blacksburg next year.

High-flying German

- In her first year at Tech, pole vaulter Martina Schultze made an immediate impact as she earned All-America honors during both seasons and went one-two at the indoor and outdoor ACC Championships with teammate

Victoria von Eynatten. Schultze claimed gold at outdoors with Von Eynatten coming out on top at indoors.

A small world

- Associate head coach and throws coach Greg Jack is looking to strike gold for a second time in Nitra, a city 4,700 miles away from Blacksburg, this time in hammer thrower Tomas Kruzliak. The Slovakian hails from the same city as former Hokie and two-time national champion Marcel Lomnický.

Running into the record books

- Before the indoor season even kicks off, senior Will Mulherin has already supplanted himself as one of the top distance runners in Tech history. During the fall, he became the first two-time All-American cross country runner in Tech history while leading his team to the program's first ACC Championship as he won the individual crown.
- Last year, he became the first runner in ACC history to win three championships in the 5,000 meters at the ACC Outdoor Championships.

Summer success in Mexico

- Junior sprinter Darrell Wesh earned a gold medal last summer at the NA-CAC Under-23 Championships in Guanajuato, Mexico as he teamed with Charles Silmon, Marcus Rowland and Keenan Brock in the 4x100m relay. Wesh ran the lead leg for the group that ran a time of 38.94, besting teams from the Bahamas (39.65) and Jamaica (39.67).

Seeing double

- When you hear or see the name Degfae, know that it could be either Leoule or Tihut. Since Leoule joined his brother at Tech after transferring from Tennessee after one year, the two have competed together during only two seasons at Tech, once on the cross country team in 2011 and the other was the 2012 outdoor season.
- Leoule redshirted the entire 2011 season after joining the Hokies and Tihut redshirted the 2011 indoor season.

Two-sport Bahamian

- For the second year, Demitri Knowles will join the track team for the indoor season. The speedy sophomore from the Bahamas was a spark for the Hokie football team during the fall after redshirting a season ago.
- Knowles was raised in Freeport, Grand Bahama and grew up competing in track and swimming. After realizing he wanted to pursue a football career, he moved to Lynchburg, Va., where he was an all-state performer in football and track for two years at Liberty Christian Academy.

Sticking to the East

- With only two trips to the West Coast on their travel schedule this year, the makeup of this year's Hokies show that the team tends to remain east of the Mississippi. The furthest athlete west of Blacksburg is from Huntsville, Ala., and 59 of the team's 93 athletes are from the state of Virginia.

Entering his 12th year as Director of Virginia Tech Track & Field and Cross Country, Dave Cianelli has built the Hokie program into one of the elite programs in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the nation. Since Cianelli's arrival in the fall of 2001, Virginia Tech athletes have produced 12 NCAA individual titles, 125 NCAA All-America performances and 110 individual conference titles. In addition, Hokie teams have finished in the national top-10 seven times and the national top-20 18 times since 2005.

NCAA, REGIONAL AND ACC SUCCESS

The 2012 Hokies continued to demonstrate why they are one of the nation's elite track and field programs. The men's team finished fifth place at the 2012 NCAA Outdoor Championships equaling their program-best finish from 2011. The men also finished a program best tied for eighth at the NCAA Indoor Championships. In addition, the men won their first ever ACC Outdoor Team Championship in 2012 to go along with ACC Indoor Championship they won in 2011. Marcel Lomnický (35 lb. weight throw at indoors) and Alexander Ziegler (hammer throw at outdoors) both won NCAA National Championships in 2012. Other top finishes at the NCAA Championships included Hasheem Halim in the triple jump (3rd indoors, 4th outdoors), Darrell Wesh (4th in the 100 meters at outdoors), Matthias Treff (3rd in the javelin at outdoors), Michael Hammond (4th in the 1500 meters at outdoors) and Ziegler (3rd in the 35 lb. weight throw at indoors). The women finished a solid fourth at the ACC Outdoor Championship and the team produced five NCAA All-Americans with freshman Martina Schultze leading the way with All-American honors both indoor and outdoor in the pole vault.

USA AND INTERNATIONAL SUCCESS

2012 brought another outstanding year for the Hokies at the U.S. Olympic Trials and international competitions. Virginia Tech had three individuals at the U.S. Olympic Trials in Eugene, Ore. Darrell Wesh in the 100 meters, Keith Ricks in the 200 meters and Ronnie Black in the high jump. In addition, Wesh and Ricks were both selected to represent the USA at the North American, Central American and Caribbean Championships in Mexico. Wesh brought home the gold medal as a member of the 4x100 meter relay and Ricks won the bronze medal in the 200 meters. In the summer of 2011, the Hokies were well represented at the United States Senior and Junior Outdoor Track & Field National Championships. Michael Hammond qualified for the final of the senior 1,500-meter run and finished 13th, while teammates Taylor Crosson and Courtney Dobbs finished second and third, respectively in the 5,000-meters at the USA Junior Outdoor Track & Field Championships. In 2010, Jared Berman placed second in the 3,000-meter steeplechase at the USA Junior Championships and advanced to the IAAF World Junior Championships and where he made the final, placing ninth.

In 2008, Queen Harrison made history when she earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic team, by finishing second in the 400-meter hurdles at the U.S. Olympic Trials to qualify in the event. Harrison was the first Tech track and field athlete to represent any country in the Olympics and only the second Hokie to become an American Olympian in any sport, following Bimbo Coles who represented the United States in basketball in 1988.

COACH OF THE YEAR HONORS

Cianelli's illustrious career is proven by the awards he has collected throughout his career. For the 2012 season, he was awarded both the Men's Indoor and Outdoor Southeast Region Coach of the Year award by the USTFCCCA. Cianelli was also named the Men's ACC Outdoor Coach of the Year for leading the Hokies to their first-ever ACC Outdoor title. He has been selected as the ACC Coach of the Year seven times and the USTFCCCA Region Coach of the year 10 times.

Cianelli has assembled one of the most accomplished coaching staffs in America. Associate head men's and women's track & field coach Greg Jack has produced nine NCAA individual national championships with his throwers. Jack has multiple Men's Indoor and Outdoor Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year honors to his credit and was named National Throws Coach of the Year in 2006. Former Hokie and NAIA Region XII Coach of the Year Ben Thomas is the cross country coach and distance coach and has produced 14 All-Americans in cross country and track during his tenure at Tech. Thomas is assisted by former Hokie Natalie Hall. Long-time assistant Bob Phillips, a former All-American for the Hokies, coaches the pole vaulters. Phillips earned recognition in 2011 as the USTFCCCA's Men's Indoor Regional Assistant Coach of the Year. Tech introduced Charles Foster as the sprints, hurdles and jumps coach in the fall of 2009. Foster quickly made a reputation for himself, earning USTFCCCA Regional Coach of the Year honors for the women's sprints and hurdles. Foster is a former world record holder in the 110-meter hurdles and a U.S. Olympian in 1976. Under Foster's coaching, Queen Harrison won three NCAA national titles in the hurdles in 2010 and was selected by Track and Field News as the collegiate athlete of the year and received the 2010 Bowerman Award as the most outstanding female collegiate track and field athlete. Foster was honored in 2008 by the USTFCCCA as Men's National Coach of the Year for sprints and hurdles.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The Virginia Tech track & field and cross country programs continue to achieve at a high level in the classroom. Frances Dowd won the NCAA Elite 89 Award in 20012 for the indoor season, honoring the student-athlete with the highest GPA at the NCAA Championships. Kelly Phillips became a two-time Capital One Academic All-American in 2011 with her selection to the first team. She also won the NCAA Elite 88 Award, which recognizes the true essence of the student-athlete by honoring the individual who has reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level in his or her sport, while also achieving the highest academic standard among his or her peers. For the 2011 track season, 16 total individuals were named to the All-ACC Academic team. In addition, the women's cross country team earned USTFCCCA All-Academic accolades for the seventh season in a row. In 2010, both Matej Muza and Kristi Castlin were honored as the ACC scholar-athletes of the year for track and field.

PREVIOUS COACHING EXPERIENCE

Prior to Tech, Cianelli gained plenty of experience in 13 seasons as an assistant coach at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. With the Mustangs, Cianelli worked with 19 Olympic and World Championship competitors, 27 NCAA individual champions, 123 All-Americans and 95 individual conference champions. Cameron Taylor of New Zealand was a quarterfinalist in the 200m at the 1992 Olympics, and Tytti Reho won the 2000 NCAA championship in the 800m. In cross country, both the men's and women's teams captured the 1995 Southwest Conference titles and earned a spot in the NCAA Championships. During 13 years at SMU, the track & field teams finished in the top-10 nationally 15 separate times.

Cianelli served as the assistant women's track & field and cross country coach at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo from 1985-88, where he helped the cross country team to the NCAA Division II National Championship three consecutive seasons; and the outdoor track & field teams finished as the runner-up at the NCAA Division II Championships three years in a row. Individual honors during his four years included 13 All-Americans and one NCAA champion.

Cianelli started his coaching career at San Marcos High School in Santa Barbara, Calif., as the head track & field coach from 1982-84. In three seasons, he coached seven junior national qualifiers in the heptathlon and decathlon.
