STRONG START

Tech is off to one of its best starts in the ACC since joining the league in 2004. The Hokies are 4-1 which matches the 2006 start. Tech's best start in league play was in 2008 when the Hokies opened the ACC slate at 7-1.

BREAKING THE STREAK

The Hokies picked up a 3-0 sweep of Miami on Sept. 23. It marked the first win against the Hurricanes since the 2009 season as well as the first time Tech has swept Miami since 2002.

ON THE ATTACK

The Hokies are second in the ACC in attack percentage with .282 and rank 15th in the NCAA. Tech also has three individuals ranked in the top ten of the ACC and in the top-40 in the NCAA with Cara Baarendse leading the way, ranked fourth in the league and 12th in the country with a percent of .419. Kathryn Caine is fifth in the ACC and 13th in the NCAA at .419 and Victoria Hamsher rounds out the rankings at seventh in the league and 37th in the NCAA with a percentage of .385.

TOURNAMENT HONORS

Kathryn Caine earned All-Tournament honors at the High Point University Classic after recording 32 kills and hitting .490 on the weekend while adding six blocks. Junior Samantha Gostling was named the MVP at the Hilton Garden Inn Hokie Invitational after posting 42 kills, 16 digs and eight blocks on the weekend. Caine and Jordan Fish joined her on the All-Tournament team. Caine hit 54.5 percent and tallied 22 kills while Fish recorded 121 assists over the weekend. Cara Baarendse was named to the All-Tournament team at the Tiger Volleyball Invitational after recording 31 kills, three aces, 15 digs and eight blocks on the weekend. She hit for a percentage of .491.

MILESTONE MARKS

The Hokies honored Cara Baarendse and Morgan O'Neill for hitting career milestones prior to the match against Towson. Baarendse tallied her 1,000th career kill during the opening weekend of competition when she had 11 kills against Nicholls State. O'Neill recorded her 1,000th career dig in the final match of the 2011 season against Virginia.

CAREER DEBUT

Freshmen Kenedy McGrath and Kennedy Bryan made their collegiate debuts during the opening weekend. McGrath appeared in all 12 sets for the Hokies, recording 32 digs. Bryan came in for two sets.

RECEIVING RECOGNITION

Senior middle blocker Cara Baarendse earned a spot on the 2012 ACC Preseason All-Conference Team. She led the Hokies last season with 327 kills while adding 84 blocks. She secured her second consecutive spot on the All-ACC team in 2011 and her second nod to the AVCA All-American Honorable Mention team and earned AVCA All-East Region First Team honors.

PRESEASON POLL

The Hokies were picked to finish seventh in this year's ACC Preseason Poll. Tech tallied an 18-13 overall record in 2011 and was 11-9 in the league. Defending champion Florida State was picked to win the league again in 2012.

REPRESENTING THE RED, WHITE & BLUE

Senior outside hitter Jennifer Wiker helped the USA White team to the gold medal in the playoffs at the 2012 U.S. Women's National Volleyball A2 Tournament over the summer. The A2 Program features 48 collegiate volleyball players chosen from a field of over 200. Four separate teams trained together before squaring off in a round-robin style tournament followed by semifinal and final rounds. Senior libero Morgan O'Neill also competed over the summer, representing the USA in the Second Annual China/USA Challenge Invitational. She joined several other top juniors and seniors from around the country as the team traveled to China to compete against the Chinese Junior National Team as well as top collegiate and club teams.

BLOCK PARTY

Junior Victoria Hamsher wrapped up last season with 150 blocks to put her third on Tech's single season record list. She ranked sixth in the ACC and was 39th in the NCAA in total blocks. Hamsher also tallied 137 block assists to rank second in Tech's single season record book.

MEET THE NEWCOMERS

The Hokies welcome five newcomers this season with the addition of four freshmen and junior transfer Megan Beckwith from the University of Colorado. Beckwith, a libero, is a Virginia native, listing Leesburg as her hometown.

The freshmen class includes Kenedy McGrath, Kennedy Bryan, Sydnee Arnson and Alexa Swann. The new class is from across the United States as McGrath is from California and Arnson calls Arizona home. Bryan and Swann are from Georgia and Pennsylvania, respectively.

The four freshman also play different positions on the court with McGrath as a libero and Arnson in the setter spot. Bryan is an outside hitter while Swann plays middle blocker.

Just Virginia Tech, Please - While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech". Founded in 1872 as Virginia Agriculture and Mechanical College, the university changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896. Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech. The "State University" was added to bring the official title to what it is today. Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech". Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

What is a Hokie, Anyway? - That's the most often-asked question in Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute. With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body.

Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Hokie" yell which still is used today. Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the word was solely the product of his imagination and was used only as an attention-getter for his yell. It soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

The official school colors — Chicago maroon and burnt orange — also were introduced in 1896. They were chosen because they made a "unique combination" not worn elsewhere at the time.

Chris Riley is entering his seventh season as head coach of the Virginia Tech volleyball team.

Riley guided the Hokies to an 18-13, 11-9 record in 2011 to finish sixth in the ACC. Tech also went 15-4 in Cassell Coliseum, marking the most home wins since 2009. Cara Baarendse earned her second consecutive spot on the All-ACC Team as well as picking up AVCA All-American Honorable Mention honors and AVCA All-East Region.

In 2010, Riley led the Hokies to arguably their best season in program history. Under his direction, the Hokies defeated an AVCA top-25 opponent for the first time in school history (No. 25 Florida State, W 3-2, Oct. 29), and earned their first bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Hokies were 20-12, 10-10 in the ACC, and went undefeated (6-0) in neutral matches for the first time. The Hokies also secured their first NCAA Tournament win, defeating Delaware, 3-0, in the first round. Tech put up a strong fight against fourth-seeded Penn State in the second round, but fell to the eventual national champions. Additionally, he coached the first pair of Hokies to ever earn All-America honors in the same season, as Felicia Willoughby and Cara Baarendse both picked up honorable mentions.

Riley coached the Hokies to a 12-3 record in Cassell Coliseum in 2009, picking up the most home wins since 1998. Tech finished with a 19-12 overall record, going 9-11 in ACC play and finishing in a tie with Wake Forest for seventh. Under his direction, Felicia Willoughby once again took home several impressive awards, including AVCA First Team All-East Region and All-America Honorable Mention. Sophomores Justine Record and Erin Leaser both earned VaSID Second Team All-State honors. Senior libero Jill Gergen set a new Tech record for digs in a match, registering 37 against Clemson on October 19, and Cara Baarendse broke the record for freshman hitting percentage, going .354 on the season.

In 2008, Riley took a young squad and turned it into a strong ACC contender. The Hokies were 20-11, 11-9 in the ACC. Tech won 11 straight matches at one point in the season, matching the longest winning streak in school history. Sophomore Felicia Willoughby blossomed under Riley's direction, breaking the school record and leading the ACC in season hitting percentage (.402). Willoughby led the team in kills (326) and blocks (117), and captured honorable mention All-America, First Team All-AVCA East Region, First Team All-ACC and First Team All-State accolades. Riley also helped develop freshman setter Erin Leaser, who tallied 1,084 assists on the year, fifth-most among Tech freshmen all time. Leaser earned a spot on the ACC All-Freshman team, received Second Team All-State honors and was named the state's Rookie of the Year by the Virginia Sports Information Directors of America.

Riley guided a young Tech squad to a 14-18 record in 2007, and an 8-14 mark in the ACC, tying for eighth place in the conference. Riley led the group to the program's 550th victory, coming over Wake Forest on Oct. 20, and its second consecutive sweep of the Hawthorn Suites Hokie Invitational. The Hokies set Virginia Tech records with 611 block assists and 394.5 total blocks as a team in 2007. Willoughby flourished in her rookie campaign, having one of the best seasons ever for a Hokie freshman. The Pleasanton, Calif., native set a Tech record with 172 total blocks on the season, ranking first in the ACC and 11th in the nation. Willoughby also broke a Hokie record with 143 block assists.

In 2006, Riley led the team to its then-best finish since joining the ACC with a 17-14 overall record, their first winning season since 2002. Tech swept the 2005 Co-ACC Champions and NCAA Tournament participants Maryland and North Carolina, en route to a sixth-place finish in the league.

Prior to coming to Tech, Riley spent six seasons at Towson University, where he led the team to five straight 20-win seasons, three CAA regular season championships, the 2004 CAA tournament championship and the 2004 NCAA Tournament. He won the CAA Coach of the Year award in 2003, and the America East Coach of the Year in 2001. Riley had an overall record of 144-54 at Towson.

Before his stint at Towson, Riley spent six years at St. John's University. While serving as an assistant with the Red Storm, Riley helped lead the team in its inaugural year as a Division I program. He implemented off-season training programs, assisted with recruiting, and started the first volleyball camp at St. John's.

Riley also spent one season as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Jacksonville University.

A 1993 graduate of Jacksonville with a bachelor of arts in English, he played for the Dolphins' golf team and formed the men's volleyball club. He was the captain of the volleyball club as a senior.

Riley has competed in beach and USA Volleyball indoor leagues and tournaments. In addition to his college coaching experience, Riley also served as the head coach for the Long Island-Big Apple Volleyball Club, a nationally recognized junior team in Nassau, N.Y., from 1998-2000.

Riley and his wife, the former Tara Cahill, are the parents of sons, Aidan and Quinn, and a daughter, Kieran. They reside in Blacksburg, Va.
