• Coming off a 1-0 victory over then-No. 8 North Carolina on Sunday, the Virginia Tech women's soccer team will honor its seniors as it closes the regular season against No. 17 Florida State at Thompson Field.

SCOUTING THE SEMINOLES

• The No. 17 Florida State Seminoles have an overall record of 11-6-0, and are 4-5-0 in the ACC. The Seminoles are coming off a 4-2 win over Miami Sunday afternoon. Florida State scored three unanswered goals in the final 18 minutes of the second half to complete its first come-from-behind victory of the season.

• Florida State averages 2.29 goals per game and has outscored its opponents 39-22. The Seminoles are known to attack the goal averaging 15.0 shots per game, while sitting second in the conference in points with 122.

• Redshirt-junior Tiffany McCarty leads Florida State with 13 goals and has recorded three assists on the season. Tori Huster follows McCarty with five goals, while Jessica Price leads the squad in assists with six.

• In goal, Kelsey Wys has played in 14 games for the Seminoles, recording 39 saves and has allowed 16 goals this season. The redshirt-sophomore keeper holds a 9-5-0 record on the year.

SERIES INFO

• This will be the 11th overall meeting against the Hokies and Seminoles. Tech has never defeated Florida State, as the Seminoles hold a 9-0-1 all-time record. The series dates back to 2002 and the two teams have met every year since the Hokies joined the ACC in 2004, including twice in the 2008 and 2009 seasons. In 2008, Tech saw Florida State in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals with a double-overtime tie that resulted in a 4-2 penalty kick shoot out that the Hokies won.

• The Seminoles have been ranked in the top-10 during seven of the 10 meetings, including 2006 and 2009 where they were No. 3 in the country.

• Tech holds a 17-64-9 all-time record against ranked opponents.

Player Spotlight

Junior Kelly Conheeny has had an impressive 2011 season, recording 10 goals, six assists and 26 points. In addition, five of her goals were game-winners, including most recently against then-No. 8 North Carolina. The Ridgewood, N.J., native is the first female soccer player to notch over 20 career goals and assists at Tech. Conheeny overflows Tech's all-time record books, as she sits third or better in every category except two. She leads Tech in game-winning goals (12), multi-goal games (5) and points (69).

LAST TIME OUT

Hokies stun No. 8 North Carolina, 1-0

Kelly Conheeny connects on her 12th career game-winning goal

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Junior Kelly Conheeny lifts the Virginia Tech women's soccer team over the No. 8 North Carolina Tar Heels, 1-0, in the 49th minute with the game-winning goal. The victory marks the second defeat over the Tar Heels in Tech's program history. Oct. 4, 2009 was the first time the Hokies defeated North Carolina by the same score in Blacksburg.

Conheeny's game-winner was the first time this year she scored on an ACC opponent as well as her 12th career game-winning goal. As a junior, she sits first in Tech's all-time record books in game-winning goals, three higher than the runner-up, former-teammate Marika Gray, who was the first Hokie to score in a win over the Tar Heels two years ago.

North Carolina (11-3-1, 6-2-1 ACC) came out taking the first shot of the game by Courtney Jones but it went wide, while Tech (12-5-1, 4-4-1 ACC) responded with three back-to-back shots and a corner kick. The Hokies had numerous chances to find the back of the net but all went shy of the goal. Tech's keeper Dayle Colpitts made the only save of the half six minutes in when the Tar Heels fired a low shot from 15 yards out.

Tech took the shot advantage in the first half, shooting eight to the Tar Heel's five. Sophomore Jazmine Reeves led both teams going into the break, taking four shots but it was not enough to put a point on the board. The two teams would go into the break still scoreless.

The two teams came out in the second right where they left off, North Carolina recorded two corner kicks early at the start of play but Tech's defense was there to flush the ball out. North Carolina's Meg Morris took the first shot of the half in the 48th minute, before Conheeny was set up by a Reeves cross and fired one low in the far corner past the Tar Heels' new keeper, Anna Sieloff, to put the only point on the board at the 49:13 mark.

North Carolina turned the intensity up finishing the half with eight more shots and five on goal, but was not enough to tie the score. Tech had a chance to make the score 2-0 late in the game in the 84th minute when Reeves dribbled the ball down the field, juking the keeper and firing a hard shot that hit the post and Anne Lumpkin tried to rebound the ball, but shot went just wide of the goal.

As a team, the Hokies outshot the Tarheels 15-14, while North Carolina out cornered Tech 9-3. Reeves led both teams with six shots, while Conheeny and freshman Kelsey Loupee each recorded two. The Hokies' 15 shots marks the first time in six years that Tech has recorded double-figure shots against North Carolina.

Colpitts finished the day recording her 10th career shutout, including six on the season for the Hokies. The sophomore keeper charted six saves this afternoon, while improving to 7-4-1 on the year. Adelaide Gay and Anna Sieloff split time in the goal, while Sieloff tallied two saves and was charted for the loss bringing her to 3-3-1 on the season.

HOKIES SET NEW SCHOOL RECORD

- After defeating then-No. 8 North Carolina, 1-0, the Hokies notched a new school record with 10 shutouts during a single season. In 2008 Tech set a record with nine and then matched that record in 2009.

TECH SECURES SPOT IN ACC TOURNAMENT

- The Hokies secured a spot in the ACC Tournament after defeating the Tar Heels Sunday afternoon. The ACC Tournament brackets will be announced Friday morning.

THREE HOKIES NOTCH WEEKLY HONORS

- This week Dayle Colpitts notched her first Virginia Tech Hardee's Star of the Week honor this season as she remained perfect in the win against then-No. 8 North Carolina. The sophomore goalkeeper tallied six saves as she collected her 10th shutout of her career.

- Monday, Oct. 17, Kelly Conheeny was named Virginia Tech's Hardee's Star of the Week, while sophomore Jazmine Reeves was selected to the TopDrawerSoccer.com Team of the Week for their efforts over the weekend.

- Conheeny notched all three assists in the 3-0 win against Clemson on Thursday, Oct. 13. It allowed her to take sole possession over the Virginia Tech's career points category in the all-time record books as a junior with 67. Conheeny is the first female at Tech to have 20 goals and 20 assists (24g, 21a).

- Reeves led the team this past weekend with two goals, four points and five shots, including the game-winning goal against NC State.

HOKIES CALM THE HURRICANES FOR FIRST CONFERENCE WIN

• The Hokies struggled at the beginning of conference play, facing off with four NSCAA top-20 teams, including then-No. 4 Duke, then-No. 5 Wake Forest, then-No. 6 Maryland and then-No. 13 Boston College. Tech hosted Miami last Friday and recorded its first ACC win of the 2011 season. The Hokies dominated all game, downing the Hurricanes 2-1. Shannon Mayrose recorded the game-winning goal in the last minute to put Tech on top.

PARTY LIKE ITS 1994

• Before falling to Nebraska, 3-4, in double-overtime, the Hokies matched their best season start with six consecutive wins since 1994. The 1994 squad shutout five of the six opponents, while outscoring them 18-1. In the six victories this season, Tech shutout four of its six opponents, while outscoring them 19-3.

TECH DOMINATES WAKE FOREST TOURNAMENT

• Tech dominated the Wake Forest Tournament, recording wins over Campbell (3-2) and Connecticut (1-0). Four Hokies were named to the All-Tournament team, including Shannon Mayrose, Brittany Popko, Kelsey Loupee and Kelly Conheeny.

HOKIES HOST HILTON GARDEN INVITATIONAL

• The Hokies hosted the Hilton Garden Hokie Invitational, inviting ACC-opponent Wake Forest, Nebraska and Loyola (Md.). Tech did not see action against Wake Forest and fell to the Nebraska Cornhuskers in a thrilling double-overtime game Saturday. Tech closed the invitational with a shutout against Loyola, including four Hokies being selected to the Hilton Garden Hokie Invitational All-Tournament team. Ashley Manning, Kelly Conheeny, Brittany Popko and Anne Lumpkin all made the squad.

HOKIES RANKED NATIONALLY

• After receiving 48 votes the third week in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America poll, the Hokies entered week four at No. 25. In addition to the NSCAA Poll, Tech entered the Top-25 in the Soccer America rankings the previous week, sitting tied for 25 with Pepperdine. In week four Tech jumped up to No. 15, but fell to No. 20 in week five. Tech currently sits at the No. 24 spot in the TopDrawerSoccer.com poll and 25th in Soccer America.

FROM CORNERS TO HEADERS

- The Hokies are known to attack the goal and as a result, Tech has out cornered its opponents 100-49 this season and sits third in the conference in corner kicks. The Hokies have tallied at least two in each of the 18 games so far. On Sept. 4 against Connecticut, Tech recorded 14 corners, while the Huskies only tallied one. The Hokies also reached double-figure corners against Loyola (Md.) tallying 10, while the Greyhounds only notched one.
- Tech has really perfected its corner kicks, as the Hokies record a header shot off of nearly each play. Brittany Michels has recorded two goals this season off of headers after a corner, against App State and Loyola.
- In addition to one of Michels' diving headers off a corner against Loyola, senior Katie Cramp connected off a Kelsey Loupee corner on a diving header.
- The Hokies have recorded six goals off the corner kicks this season.
- Although it wasn't off a corner, Shannon Mayrose recorded her second game-winner off a header shot in the last minute against the Miami Hurricanes, while Jazmine Reeves recorded header goals against Clemson and NC State.

GOAL AFTER GOAL

- The Hokies are dominating their opponents on offense this season. Tech holds a 38-17 scoring record against its opponents in 18 games and is third in the conference in goals. Kelly Conheeny leads the team with an impressive 10 goals and six assists this season after she notched the game-winning goal against North Carolina. Shannon Mayrose follows Conheeny with eight goals and three assists on the season. Jazmine Reeves charted her fifth goal against NC State last Sunday, while Anne Lumpkin tallied her third goal off a penalty kick against Boston College. Three other Hokies have scored two goals and hold at least four points, including Kelsey Loupee (2g, 10pts), Julia Goldsworthy (2g, 4pts) and Brittany Michels (2g, 4pts).
- Reeves also leads the team and is tied for first in the ACC in assists with eight.

HOKIES LEAD ACC

- Several Hokies sit in the top-10 in all stat categories in the ACC as of Oct. 25, including Jazmine Reeves who is tied for first the conference in assists. Kelly Conheeneey is listed in seven categories, while Dayle Colpitts is listed in every goalie category and sits at sixth place or better. See column on the left for all the Hokies in the ACC Top-10.

DEFENSE SHUT NON-CONFERENCE DOWN

- The Hokie defense shut down its non-conference opponents this season by allowing only 7 goals. Tech shut out six of the nine teams and scored at least three goals in five of the six contests, including UNC Greensboro (4-0), High Point (3-0), Elon (5-0), Loyola (Md.) (3-0) and Appalachian State (4-0).
- Tech was able to limit the Appalachian State Mountaineers to zero shots, which marks the fewest shots taken since last year against American on Aug. 23, 2010.
- James Madison and Nebraska were the only two teams to be able to fire double-figure shots against the Hokies, while Elon, High Point and UNC Greensboro were limited to no more than four against Tech.
- Goalkeeper Anna Romeiser denied her first career penalty kick against Elon, while saving all three shots the Phoenix took.

SHOTS, SHOTS, SHOTS

- Tech has outshot its opponents 296-170 this season and sits third in the conference in shots, behind Duke (324) and Virginia (322). The Hokies average 16.4 shots per game and have tallied over 20 shots in the first six games, including a season-high 27 against Campbell.
- Wake Forest, NC State and Duke are the only two teams that have limited Tech to single-digit shots.

CONHEENEY HONORED BY COLLEGESOCCER360.COM

- For the opening weekend of the Division I women's college soccer season, junior Kelly Conheeneey was named a CollegeSoccer360.com Primetime Performer Honoree. Conheeneey helped lead the Hokies to a 2-0 start to the 2011 season. In the season opener against UNCG, Conheeneey took four shots and connected on two of them, including the game-winning goal for Tech. She has scored the game-winning goal in every season opener in her career.

2011 HOKIES OVERFLOW THE RECORD BOOKS

- Junior midfielder Kelly Conheeneey has reached the top-5 in every category except two in Tech's all-time record book. She recently took over first place in career points with 69 as she assisted all three goals against Clemson. Conheeneey is also first in game-winning goals with 12, after scoring the game-winner against Appalachian State. She is tied for first in multiple goal games (5), tied for third in assists (17), tied for third in goals (24) and third in shots (161).
- Sophomore keeper Dayle Colpitts has reached the top-10 in every goalie category except one in Tech's all-time record book. Colpitts sits third in goals against average with 1.34 and in wins with 17. She sits fifth in minutes (3,073), third in shutouts (10) and tied for sixth in saves (120).
- Senior Brittany Michels just took sole possession of third place in career games played with 85. Tonight she will become tied for first. She also sits tied for seventh in career starts with 70.
- In addition to Colpitts, redshirt-sophomore Anna Romeiser entered the Tech's all-time record books at the goal position. She currently sits tied for tenth in career shutouts (2) and tied for eleventh in career wins with five.

TOUGH COMPETITION

- Seven ACC women's soccer teams are included among the top-25 NSCAA rankings, including three teams among the top-10. Duke sits at the No. 4 spot in the poll, followed by Wake Forest at No. 7 and Virginia at No. 9. North Carolina follows the Cavaliers at No. 11. Maryland and Florida State are sitting at No. 16 and No. 17, respectively. Rounding out the conference in the polls is Boston College at No. 21.

SEASONED VETS

• The Hokies return five starters and four players who have played in at least 15 games from last year's squad. Sophomores Jazmine Reeves and Dayle Colpitts both received ACC All-Freshmen accolades last season, while Kelly Conheeneey was named to the 2010 VaSID All-State second team. Conheeneey led the team in four categories, including shots (46), game-winning goals (3), assists (12) and points (22).

NCAA HISTORY

• The Virginia Tech women's soccer program is coming off its third consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament and fourth all-time. In 2009, the Hokies advanced to the Sweet 16, which marked the first time in school history Tech advanced in the tournament.

NCAA APPEARANCES
Year	Opponent	Result
2004	William & Mary	L, 1-2
2009	Murray State	W, 2-0

HOKIES DOMINATE UNC GREENSBORO, 4-0, IN SEASON OPENERS

GREENSBORO, N.C. – The Hokie women's soccer squad opened the 2011 season with a 4-0 road victory over the UNC Greensboro Spartans Friday evening. Kelly Conheeneey, Anne Lumpkin and freshman Kelsey Loupee were the point-earners, including two goals from Conheeneey for Tech. This is the third year in a row that the Hokies have opened their season with a victory.

The Hokies dominated the ball from the start of the game, outshooting the Spartans (0-1) 7-2 in the first 45 minutes. After a UNCG defender got a hand on a Hokie cross in the box, Tech was awarded a penalty kick. Conheeneey buried it with no problem at the 43:05 mark to give the Hokies a 1-0 lead heading into the break.

After the half, the Hokies picked up right where they left off, attacking the goal. Freshman Katie Yensen had the first chance, firing the first two shots of the half, giving Conheeneey a chance for a corner kick. Lumpkin connected on the loose ball in the box from Conheeneey's corner to make the score 2-0 two minutes into the period.

At the 57:24 mark, Lumpkin set Conheeneey up for her second goal of the season as Conheeneey fired from the right wing to give the Hokies the 3-0 advantage. Conheeneey has scored a goal in every season opener in her career.

Making her first career start for the Hokies, Loupee secured the match with the final goal as she juked the keeper from eight yards back with 11 minutes to go.

Tech's defense shined throughout the match holding the UNC Greensboro to just four shots, while the Hokies fired 19. Sophomore Jazmine Reeves along with Conheeneey led the squad both recording four shots each.

Charting the win for the Hokies is sophomore Dayle Colpitts, as she tallied two saves to record her fifth career shutout. UNC Greensboro's Kelsey Kearny made six saves.

TECH TOPS JAMES MADISON, 3-1, FOR THE SECOND CONSECUTIVE WIN

HARRISONBURG, Va. – The Hokie women's soccer squad defeated the James Madison Dukes, 3-1, on Sunday evening. Katie Yensen, Shannon Mayrose and Jazmine Reeves were the point-earners, for Tech. This is the second consecutive win for the Hokies (2-0) as they opened their 2011 season with a road win over UNC Greensboro Friday night.

The Hokies' offense pushed the ball from the start of the game as it recorded four shots in the first 15 minutes of play. Yensen, a freshman, had five chances by the 21:09 mark, before she connected on a ball that Amanda Gerhard sent into the box that Yensen shot from 12-yards out into the left corner of the goal 27 minutes into the game to put Tech on the board, 1-0.

Ten minutes later, junior Kelly Conheeneey sent a free kick from middle of field into the box and Mayrose sprinted ahead of the Dukes' defense and beat the JMU goalkeeper Kate Courter with an 8-yard shot into the left corner to give the Hokies the 2-0 advantage at the end of the half.

After the break, the Dukes (0-1-1) responded with an early goal that was set up by Jessica Barndt, as she sent a long throw-in from the left side of the field and was headed into the far corner of the goal by Yolie Anderson-Golhor that put JMU on the board.

After Conheeneey had a chance with a penalty kick that the Duke keeper saved, Reeves was setup by Conheeneey at the 81:01 mark, when she sent a ball into the box from the left touchline and it deflected off a JMU player, where Reeves knocked the ball into the net from 10-yards out to secure the game for the Hokies.

Tech just out-shot JMU by only four shots as the Hokies tallied 15, while the Dukes charted 11. The Hokies started sophomore Dayle Colpitts in the goal, but left the game after a collision with a JMU player 37:06 into the game. Anna Romeiser replaced Colpitts for the final 52:54 minutes and she recorded two saves for Tech. JMU's redshirt-freshman goalkeeper Kate Courter made six saves.

GOLDSWORTHY SCORES TWO AS HOKIES BLANK HIGH POINT 3-0

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Junior defender Julia Goldsworthy recorded five points to lead the Virginia Tech women's soccer squad to a blanking of High Point, 3-0 in its home opener Friday night at Thompson Field.

The Hokie defense jumped out to a solid start by limiting the Panther offense to just one shot in the first half. Nine shots into the game, Tech put the first point on the board when Goldsworthy connected on a corner kick from Kelly Conheeneey, connecting from 19-yards out to go into the half up 1-0.

At the 52nd minute, Shannon Mayrose dribbled up the left sideline and placed the ball low into the net on a pass from Goldsworthy to record her second goal of the season. The final goal of the game came from Goldsworthy at the 69:22 mark as she took a long shot from 35-yards out, causing the High Point goalie to slip and the ball went right past her fingers to secure the game.

In goal for the Hokies was redshirt sophomore Anna Romeiser, who recorded three saves, including a phenomenal save at the 29:49 mark as she back-peddled to catch a long shot and just kept the ball from crossing the line as she recorded her first shutout. High Point's Andrea Ritchie took the loss, making eight saves for the Panthers.

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Junior Kelly Conheeneey led the Virginia Tech women's soccer team to a 5-0, victory over the Elon Phoenix Sunday evening at Thompson Field. Shannon Mayrose, Rachel Beaumont and Katie Cramp also connected on one goal each. The Hokies remain unbeaten as they improve to 4-0-0 on the season.

The first half started a little slow. The two teams traded shots 10-minutes into the game, before Brittany Michels recorded a foul in the box to reward Elon (1-1-1) with a penalty kick in the 17th minute. Jaclyn Wood took the penalty kick for the Phoenix before Hokie keeper, Anna Romeiser made the huge stop for Tech.

Tech came alive after the save, as it recorded two shots and a corner kick before Conheeneey connected on a header from Mayrose in front of the goal at the 25:30 mark, to give the Hokies the lead, 1-0.

Eight minutes later, Mayrose found the back of the net on a deflected shot from Jazmine Reeves to record her third goal of the season and put Tech up two. Shortly after, Mayrose shot a ball that hit the side of the post and Conheeneey sank the deflected ball to make it, 3-0 going into the break.

Beaumont recorded her first career goal in the 70th minute, as she head in a corner kick from freshman Kelsey Loupee. 10 minutes later, Loupee dished it to Cramp that shot from six-yards back to tally the last goal for the Hokies.

As a team, the Hokies took 25 shots and four corner kicks, while holding Elon to just three shots and one corner. Tech has held three of its four opponents to no more than four shots, while outscoring all of its opponents, 15-1, so far this season.

Romeiser recorded the shutout for Tech, while Elon's Shannon Cosgrove took the loss. Taylor Dawson and Kate Murphy saw time in goal for the Phoenix, charting two saves each. Redshirt-freshman Kimberley Anderson recorded the last 10-minutes for the Hokies.

HOKIES EXTEND WINNING STREAK TO FIVE EDGING CAMPBELL, 3-2

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – In a game that lasted about four hours due to weather delays, the Hokies extended their unbeaten streak to five in a 3-2 victory over Campbell at the Wake Forest Tournament Friday night. Kelly Conheeneey tallied her second multi-goal game this season, while charting her 10th game winner of her career. Shannon Mayrose recorded the other goal for Tech making this her fourth consecutive game scoring a goal.

The two teams traded corner kicks before Conheeneey had a chance to put the first point on the board with a header that shot wide. Two minutes later, Campbell's Pirjo Lepikangas broke away off a pass from Ashley Clark and found the back of the net from the right side to put the Camels on the board, 1-0, at the 20:50 mark.

The Hokies quickly responded when Jazmine Reeves sent a cross ball that deflected off a defender and Mayrose knocked it in the goal in the 24th minute. The two teams would go into the half tied 1-1.

Three minutes into the second period, freshman Kelsey Loupee took a corner kick for the Hokies that Mayrose dished to Conheeneey, who found the back of the net from seven yards back to put Tech up one.

The Camels responded with a goal at the 53:29 mark, when Annabelle Gibney connected on a ball from Line Berntsen ten yards out tying the game at two. The Hokies took eight shots, before Conheeneey recorded the game-winner with a diving header from Reeves.

The Tech defense continued to shine, holding Campbell to just eight shots, while the Hokies took 28. This is the third consecutive game that Tech's opponents were held under 10 shots.

Redshirt-sophomore Anna Romeiser recorded the win for the Hokies and charted three saves. In goal for the Camels was Ryann Torrero, who denied eight shots, while allowing three goals.

HOKIES MATCH BEST SEASON START AS THEY SHUT OUT CONNECTICUT, 1-0

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – The Hokies finished the Wake Forest Tournament undefeated as they shutout Connecticut 1-0 on Sunday afternoon. Freshman Kelsey Loupee recorded her second career goal in the 79th minute to secure the victory. Tech hasn't started a season 6-0-0 since 1994. The Huskies fell to 2-2-0 on the year.

The Hokies dominated the whole game out shooting the Huskies 20-2, while taking 14 corner kicks. Three minutes into the first half, the Tech had an opportunity to score off of its first corner kick by Loupee and Kelly Conheeneey took her first shot of the game. The Hokies would take six corners in the period, while limiting UConn to one.

Tech took 10 shots before Loupee found the back of the net from the top of the box at the 79:06 mark to give the Hokies the victory. Sophomore Jazmine Reeves recorded the assist.

Tech's defense played extremely well, holding the Huskies to only two shots the whole game that all came in the second half. Sophomore Dayle Colpitts was in goal for the Hokies as she tallied her 12th career victory. Keeper Jessica Dulski charted the loss for Connecticut and recorded six saves.

The Hokies had four players make the All-Tournament team, including Shannon Mayrose, Brittany Popko, Loupee and Conheeneey.

NEBRASKA EDGES WOMEN'S SOCCER 4-3 IN DOUBLE-OVERTIME

BLACKSBURG, Va. – The Virginia Tech women's soccer team fell to Nebraska, 4-3 in a thrilling double-overtime game on the first day of the Hilton Garden Hokie Invitational Friday night at Thompson Field. Kelly Conheeny, Anne Lumpkin and Ashley Manning all put the points on the board for the Hokies (6-1-0).

Tech started attacking the goal right when the clock started taking the first eight shots of the game, including a corner kick from freshman Kelsey Loupee a minute into the half. The Huskers would eventually take two shots before Conheeny put the first point on the board with a header off a cross ball from Kelsey Mitchell to give the Hokies the 1-0 lead.

Nebraska fired right back with a sneaky shot from Jordan Jackson 35 yards back that went over keeper Anna Romeiser's head and landed into the goal in the 33rd minute. The two teams went into the break tied 1-1.

Tech started the second period right were it left off, taking the next two shots and a corner before Jazmine Reeves dished a quick ball to Manning and Manning fired it over to Lumpkin where she found the back of the net from 12 yards back at the 51:59 mark to put the Hokies up, 2-1.

After Tech took two more corner kicks, Manning recorded her first goal of the season when Reeves fired a ball across the box and Manning ran in to tap the ball into the net to give the Hokies a two-point advantage in the 63rd minute.

The Huskers did not give up, as Jackson connected on a shot from the right side of the box from 12 yards back to close on the Hokie lead at the 78:51 mark. Seven minutes later, Morgan Marlborough dribbled down the field and fired a shot from the top of the box 20 yards back passed the hands of Romeiser to tie the game at three in the 82nd minute.

Nebraska out shot the Hokies six to four in the first overtime, but neither team could find the back of the net. Double-overtime lasted about three minutes when Jackson shot a ball that bounced off the crossbar and Stacy Bartels ran in and dished it in to end the game.

The Hokies out shot Nebraska 25-18 and took eight corner kicks, while limiting the Huskers to just one the entire game. Dayle Colpitts started the game for Tech, but left 28 minutes in due to injury. Romeiser recorded the loss for the Hokies, while Emma Stevens picked up her third win on the season.

TECH CLOSES HILTON GARDEN HOKIE INVITATIONAL WITH A 3-0 WIN OVER LOYOLA

BLACKSBURG, Va. – The Virginia Tech women's soccer team closed out the Hilton Garden Invitational with a 3-0 victory over the Loyola Greyhounds Sunday afternoon on Thompson Field. Brittany Michels, Katie Cramp and Kelly Conheeny each connected on one goal each for the Hokies.

Tech (7-1-0) set the tone for the game early in the first half as it dominated the Greyhounds (1-7-0) offensively and kept control of possession the entire half. Brittany Michels was very active on corner kicks as the Hokies tallied seven in the half, but she was unable to get a hold of anything.

Later in the half Katie Jensen received the ball up the field and fired a shot at the goal, but Loyola's keeper Didi Haracic came up with a big save. Tech nearly had another opportunity when Brittany Popko fired a header at the net but a Loyola defender was perfectly positioned at the post to deflect the ball away.

Towards the end of the half, Shannon Mayrose laid out as she dove at a ball in front of the goal and headed it in attempt to score but Haracic was there again for another big save.

Tech took the shooting edge in the first half 14-1, while it was a true team effort from the Greyhounds in the first half as they recorded three team saves.

The hard work finally paid off for Michels in front of the net as she was able to get a hold of a Kelsey Loupee corner kick and head it into the back of the net in the 49th minute.

On a broken play that saw the ball get served into the box, Kelly Conheeny got a hold of the loose ball in the box and brought it out a few steps to get a better look at the net. Despite the readjustment, Haracic stopped the attempt.

Remaining persistent, Conheeny continued to attack through the second half and eventually put the Hokies up 2-0 in the 67th minute. After Jazmine Reeves was taken down just inches outside the 18-yard box, Tech was awarded a free kick that was lifted over the Loyola wall and soared over the keeper's hands into the back of the net.

Tech tacked on another goal at the 78:14 mark when Anne Lumpkin served in a long ball from the right sideline that Katie Cramp was able to get a head on as she rose above the crowd and redirected the ball into the top left side of the net.

Anna Romeiser got the start in goal for the Hokies, who played nearly every player that dressed, and played the full 90 minutes and stopping Loyola's only shot. Haracic also lasted the full 90 minutes and made 12 of the team's 15 saves.

BIG FIRST HALF LIFTS TECH PAST MOUNTAINEERS, 4-0

BLACKSBURG, Va. – An impressive first-half effort lifted the Virginia Tech women's soccer team past the Appalachian State Mountaineers, 4-0, on Thursday night at Thompson Field. Shannon Mayrose led the way for the Hokies with two goals, while seven different Tech players earned a point in the game.

Tech (8-1-0) controlled the game from the start, rarely letting the Mountaineers (3-4-0) touch the ball. Subsequently, Tech was the first on the board after Jazmine Reeves brought the ball into the right corner and crossed it to the middle of the field, connecting with a diving Kelly Conheeny who redirected the ball into the goal for the 1-0 lead, 24 minutes into the match.

Less than five minutes later, the Hokies struck again, this time it was Mayrose with the diving header in the box. Kelsey Mitchell served the ball from just outside the 18-yard box and Mayrose had space to position herself and get a head on the ball to advance Tech's lead to two goals.

The rapid scoring continued for the Hokies in the 31st minute as Mayrose again found the back of the net. Kelsey Loupee was the set-up man as she received a ball from the right side of the field but was unable to turn for a shot so she kicked it back outside the 18 to Mayrose, who buried the strong shot in the 31st minute.

Ten minutes before halftime Tech tacked on another goal when Brittany Michels rose above the crowd and headed in a corner kick from Anne Lumpkin.

The Hokies took a 4-0 advantage, as well as the 10-0 shooting edge into the halftime break.

Possession remained in Tech's favor throughout the second half as it continued to power shots at the Appalachian State goal.

Though the score would not change in the second half, Tech never allowed the Mountaineers to take a single shot in the game, a season-first, and took 14 shots of its own by match's end. The closest Appalachian State came to a shot was the one corner kick it took in the second half, while the Hokies tallied seven in the game.

Tech's keeper Dayle Colpitts returned to action against the Mountaineers and saw 70 minutes of time in goal, though little came her way. Colpitts was replaced by Anna Romeiser, who finished out the final 20 minutes of the game. Appalachian State's Amy Kolowsky tallied three stops against the Hokies and played the full 90 minutes.

HOKIES FALL TO NO. 6 MARYLAND, 2-1, IN ACC OPENER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – The Virginia Tech women's soccer team fell to the No. 6 Maryland Terps, 2-1, in its ACC-opener at Ludwig Field Sunday evening. Sophomore Jazmine Reeves connected on her second goal of the season for the Hokies, as Kelsey Loupee recorded the assist.

The Terps attacked early in the first half, taking three shots in the first 10 minutes of the game. But the Hokies responded with a near goal off a the second corner kick of the game. After a corner kick and two shots, Loupee went back to take another corner. Reeves connected on the ball and shot it past the Maryland keeper, finishing it into the open net at the 28:44 mark. The two teams would go into the half with Tech up 1-0.

The Hokies had a chance to have a 2-0 advantage seven minutes into the second half as senior Katie Cramp took a header inside the box but gave it a little too much as the ball went over the goal.

The Terps responded three minutes later, as Olivia Wagner connected off a free kick from 24-yards out that went into the upper-left corner over Dayle Colpitts' head to tie the game at one at the 54:37 mark.

The two teams would trade corner kicks before Maryland would score the final goal of the game off a corner from Wagner as Cory Ryan headed it into the left side of the net past the Tech keeper at the 58:38 mark.

The Hokies tried to tie the game numerous times, taking six shots in the final 20 minutes of the game, including three corner kicks, but did not find the back of the net. Shannon Mayrose came so close as she took a header off a Anne Lumpkin corner that was deflected by the post.

Tech has not faced an opponent in the last three games to shoot in double-figures, as the Hokies out shot Maryland 11-7 and took six corner kicks, while limiting the Terps to just one.

In goal for the Hokies was Colpitts as she recorded two saves and allowed her first two goals of the season. Yewande Balogun recorded the win for Maryland, as she recorded three saves on the night.

2011 GAME RESULTS & SUMMARIES

Sept. 25, 2011 NO. 13 BOSTON COLLEGE RALLIES PAST WOMEN'S SOCCER 2-1 IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

BLACKSBURG, Va. – The No. 13 Boston College Eagles rallied past the Virginia Tech women's soccer team, 2-1, in double overtime on Sunday afternoon at Thompson Field. The Hokies fall to 8-3-0 overall and 0-2-0 in the ACC, while the Eagles remain undefeated with an 8-0-2 on the season and 3-0-0 in the conference. Junior Anne Lumpkin connected on the goal for Tech off a penalty kick in the second half.

The two teams battled from start of the game as they traded a number of shots in the first half. The Hokies had a number of chances to find the back of the net but the Boston College keeper, Jillian Mastroianni, played very well picking up six saves in the first. Sophomore Jazmine Reeves attacked the goal five times, including two back-to-back shots in the 25th minute.

The Eagles put the first point on the board when Kristen Mewis found the back of the net off a pass from Stephanie McCaffrey at the 39:54 mark that sneaked past Tech's keeper, Dayle Colpitts. The two teams went into the half with Boston College up 1-0.

The Hokies came out strong in the second taking four shots and four corner kicks, before the Eagles committed a foul inside the box to setup Lumpkin for penalty kick in the 64th minute. Lumpkin buried the goal with ease to tie the game at one apiece. Tech continued to attack as it took five more shots, including a shot from Ashley Manning at the last second but could not break the tie, as the game would go into the first overtime.

Tech continued to attack but couldn't connect on anything, as it took two corner kicks and two headers. Although, the defense stepped up to limited the Eagles to nothing in the first overtime.

Going into double-overtime, Manning broke away and had a chance to end the game firing a hard shot in the 103rd minute, but Mastroianni recorded a huge save to keep the game going. Minutes later, McCaffrey took control of a loose ball that Colpitts tried to snag as she came out of the box, but McCaffrey slid it to Alicia Blöse for the open goal to end the game at the 105:56 mark.

As a team, Tech once again outshot its opponent 20-15, while taking eight corner kicks. Mastroianni recorded the win for the Eagles as she played an impressive game, picking up 10 saves. Colpitts took the loss for the Hokies, as she tallied a season-high eight stops.

Sept. 29, 2011 THE HOKIES BATTLE TO A SCORELESS DRAW WITH NO. 5 WAKE FOREST

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – The Virginia Tech women's soccer team battled to a 0-0 draw with the No. 5 Wake Forest Deacons in ACC action Thursday night at Spry Stadium. Sophomore Dayle Colpitts earned a season-high 10 saves for the Hokies.

Wake Forest (10-1-1, 3-0-1) came out strong taking three shots and two corner kicks in the first nine minutes of the half. The Deacons continued to attack as they would take the next two corners and a shot before Katie Cramp fired the first shot for Tech (8-3-1 0-2-1) as the Wake Forest keeper, Aubrey Bledsoe, notched the first save of the night at the 16:39 mark.

The momentum shifted throughout the half as the two teams continued to trade shots. The best scoring opportunity of the period came in the 31st minute as Kelsey Loupee fired a low shot that appeared to be the first goal of the night but was deflected by the post. The two teams would go into the break with the score still 0-0.

Wake Forest took the shot advantage in the first, taking nine shots to Tech's five. Sophomore Dayle Colpitts recorded five saves for the Hokies.

The Deacons quickly had a chance to put the first point on the board seconds into the second half as Rachel Nuzzolese fired a hard shot but hit the far post. Wake Forest continued with the momentum taking a 7-1 shot advantage 13 minutes into the period.

In the 73rd minute a foul on Tech awarded the Deacons a free kick right outside the right corner of the box where Colpitts remained perfect making her ninth save of the night, stopping a high lob from Wake Forest's Kim Marshall.

Tech recorded its first corner kick of the half at the 88:22 mark. The Deacon defense quickly knocked the ball out of the box, but Katie Yenson was there to rebound and fired a shot that was blocked to reward the Hokies with another corner kick. The Wake Forest keeper caught Anne Lumpkin's corner and the two teams would still remain scoreless to send the game into overtime.

Shannon Mayrose took the first shot in overtime for the Hokies and went wide. The Deacons reacted with a shot and three corner kicks in the next six minutes, but could not connect on anything. Both goalies saw limited action as the game would go into double overtime.

At the 102:16 mark, Tech's Lumpkin went back to take a corner kick. Yenson looked to end the game but a Wake Forest defender blocked her shot. Four minutes later, Katie Stengel fired a shot but Colpitts was there to make the big save to keep the game going. The two teams battled to try to create chances but the time eventually ran out.

The Deacons are the first team to outshoot the Hokies this season as they took 23 to Tech's nine. Colpitts (3-2-1) remained perfect on the night notching a season-high 10 saves, while Bledsoe (10-1-1) recorded three.

Oct. 2, 2011 THE HOKIES FALL TO NO. 4 DUKE, 1-0

DURHAM, N.C. – The Virginia Tech women's soccer team fell to the No. 4 Duke Blue Devils, 1-0, in ACC action Sunday afternoon at Koskinen Stadium. Duke's Kaitlyn Kerr headed in the game-winner at the 30:38 mark to secure the victory.

Both teams came out a bit slow, as Duke (12-1-1, 4-0-1) took the first shot, while the Hokie keeper, Dayle Colpitts recorded the first save four minutes into the game. Tech (8-4-1 0-3-1) fired two shots and recorded the first corner kick all in the 6th minute. The Blue Devils started to pick up the momentum as they limited the Hokies to just one more shot in the half, that came at the 25:19 mark.

Duke recorded a corner kick and a shot that was blocked, before Kerr connected on a high ball that came from Kim DeCesare that was headed by Chelsea Canepa and landed at the feet of Kerr. The header brought Colpitts toward Canepa opening up the net for Kerr to give the Blue Devils the 1-0 advantage going into the break.

Duke took the shot advantage in the first taking six, while limiting Tech to four. Colpitts picked up three saves.

The Blue Devils' defense continued to play very well, limiting the Hokies to just two shots in the second period that was not enough to find the back of the net. The first came at the 52:50 mark by Jazmine Reeves, who made a run down the middle and dribbled to the right and fired a shot that went wide toward the left side. Shannon Mayrose fired the last shot later on in the 65th minute as she shot about 15 yards out from the middle of the field that ran wide.

Duke took eight shots in the second period to finish the game with 14, while Colpitts picked up three more saves to close out the game with six. Tara Campbell was in goal for the Blue Devils as she picked up the win and made two saves.

Oct. 7, 2011 HOKIES CAPTURE FIRST ACC VICTORY OVER MIAMI, 2-1

BLACKSBURG, Va. – The Virginia Tech women's soccer team captured its first conference victory in a 2-1 win over Miami Friday night at Thompson Field. Jazmine Reeves and Shannon Mayrose connected on goals for the Hokies, including a header by Mayrose in the last minute to secure the win.

Tech (9-4-1, 1-3-1 ACC) came out very aggressive in the first half, taking the first shot two minutes into the game, while Miami (7-5-1, 1-4-1 ACC) responded with a shot that went wide in the fifth minute. The Hurricanes had a chance to put the first point on the board, shooting a high ball that the Hokie keeper, Dayle Colpitts, punched over the goal to tally the big save for Tech at the 21:15 mark.

Kelly Conheeny responded five minutes later with a hard shot on goal that Vikki Alonzo had to make the diving save to keep the Hokies from taking the 1-0 lead. Tech would take two more shots and a corner kick before the two teams would go into the break still tied at zero. The Hokies took the shot advantage in the first, taking seven shots to Miami's five.

The two teams continued the aggressive play at the start of the second half. The Hurricanes tallied the first shot at the 46:50 mark, while Colpitts recorded her second save of the night. Reeves took two shots on goal, before dribbling down the middle of the field causing Alonzo to come out of the box and juked the keeper to easily find the back of the net on the open goal at the 69:37 mark.

With the Hokies up 1-0, a yellow card was given to Kelsey Loupee and the Hurricanes were awarded with the free kick. Shannon Caspar connected on the loose ball in the box that slipped by Colpitts to tie the game at one apiece in the 70th minute.

The Hokies took two more shots and a corner that wasn't enough to get by Alonzo, as she tallied two saves. The game looked like it was going to go into overtime, before Amanda Gerhard lobbed a high ball into the box that Mayrose connected on as she headed the ball over Alonzo's head to secure the win at the 89:05 mark.

Tech kept the shot advantage taking 16 total, while Miami took 10 shots in the second to tally 15 on the night. Reeves tallied four shots with four on goal. Conheeny followed with four shot that all went on frame. Colpitts recorded her fourth win of the season as she made five saves, while Alonzo took her fifth loss of the season and she collected eight saves.

TECH RECORDS ITS SECOND ACC WIN AS IT BLANKS THE TIGERS, 3-0

BLACKSBURG, Va. – The Virginia Tech women's soccer team blanked the Clemson Tigers, 3-0, as it records its second ACC win on Thursday night at Thompson Field. Katie Cramp, Jazmine Reeves and Shannon Mayrose all connect on goals, while Kelly Conheeny tallied three assists. Cramp's early goal at 2:22, marks the quickest goal a Hokie has scored since Nov. 4, 2007 when Ashley Kinser found the back of the net at the 2:13 mark in a 3-0 win over Boston College.

Tech (10-4-1, 2-3-1 ACC) came out strong taking the first shot 53 seconds into the game when Kelsey Loupee fired a hard ball but the Clemson keeper was there to make the first save of the night. The Hokies got the ball back and Conheeny sent a cross into the box where Cramp connected on her third goal of the season to put Tech on the board early.

Both teams continued to attack trading back-to-back shots, before Ashley Manning sent a hard ball but was blocked by a Tiger, which awarded Tech with a corner kick at the 40:23 mark. Conheeny went back to take the corner and sent a nice ball into the box where Mayrose headed the ball over the keeper's head for her eighth goal of the season. The two teams would go into the break with the Hokies up 2-0.

The shots were even at seven apiece at the end of the first half, while Clemson (5-9-0, 0-7-0 ACC) had the corner advantage at 2-1.

Early in the second half, Clemson's keeper Morgan Hert left the game due to injury and Lauren Arnold was sent into the game. Hert would leave the game with two saves.

The Hokies took three shots and a corner kick 10 minutes into the half, before Conheeny was awarded a free kick at the left side of the box and sent the ball to Reeves. The sophomore forward fired a high shot to the far post at the 66:54 mark to end the game at 3-0.

Tech outshot the Tigers 13-9, while taking two corners to Clemson's one. Sophomore Dayle Colpitts recorded the shutout for the Hokies, while picking up five saves on the night. Hert took the loss for the Tigers, while Arnold finished the night with two saves.

REEVES' SECOND-HALF GOAL LIFTS HOKIES OVER NC STATE, 1-0

RALEIGH, N.C. – Sophomore Jazmine Reeves recorded the game-winning goal to lift the Virginia Tech women's soccer team over the NC State Wolfpack, 1-0, in ACC action Sunday afternoon at Dail Soccer Field. The Hokies improved to 11-4-1 overall and 3-3-1 in the conference, while NC State fell to 9-6-2 on the season and 0-4-2 in the ACC.

The Hokies came out strong in the first, as Kelly Conheeny took the first shot a minute in, but hit the cross bar. Dayle Colpitts made the first save of the game when NC State's Kristina Argiroff took a hard shot on goal at the 15:36 mark. The two teams traded shots back and forth but could not find the back of the net and would go into the break still 0-0.

Tech took the shot advantage in the first half, taking five to the Wolfpack's four. Colpitts finished the half with three saves, while in goal for NC State Kim Kern stopped one. Argiroff took the first shot early in the second half for the Wolfpack in the 46th minute, but went wide. The Hokies responded 10 minutes later with a shot by Kelsey Loupee that went high and a corner kick taken by Anne Lumpkin at the 56:05 mark.

Senior Kelsey Mitchell sent a cross ball into the box and Reeves jumped up and headed the ball over Kern's head to put Tech on the board and to secure the game at the 67:22 mark.

The Wolfpack tried to tie the score a minute later with their only shot on goal in the half but Colpitts was there to record her fourth save, while earning her fifth shutout of the season. Kern recorded the loss for NC State as she tallied one save for the day.

The Wolfpack outshot Tech 9-7, while the Hokies outcornered NC State 3-1.

HOKIES FALL TO THE NO. 11 VIRGINIA CAVALIERS, 4-0

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. – The Virginia Tech women's soccer team fell to the No. 11 Virginia Cavaliers, 4-0, in ACC action Thursday night at Klockner Stadium. The Hokies fell to 11-5-1 overall and 3-4-1 in the conference, while the Cavaliers improved to 12-3-1 on the season and 6-2-1 in the ACC.

Virginia came out strong in the first half, taking the first shot of the game two minutes in, but Tech's keeper Dayle Colpitts was there to make the stop. The Hokies took the first corner kick of the game at the 5:41 mark and the strong Cavalier defense was there to flush the ball out of the box.

The Cavaliers continued to attack as Caroline Miller shot a high ball that ricocheted off the cross bar into the back of the goal over Colpitts' head. Morgan Brian and Erica Hollenberg recorded the assists to help put the first point on the board at the 12:33 mark.

Tech started to come alive taking two shots on goal and a corner kick in the 27th minute, but a foul on the Hokies rewarded Virginia with a free kick at the top of the box about 20 yards out. Julia Roberts fired a high ball over Colpitts' head to make it a 2-0 lead at 30:42. The Hokies recorded four more shots and a corner kick but was not enough to find the back of the net. The two teams would go into the intermission with the Cavaliers up 2-0.

Virginia took the shot advantage in the first half, taking seven to Tech's six, while the Hokies recorded three corners.

The Cavaliers continued the momentum at the start of the second half, as Brian headed a goal off a long cross from Amanda Fancher and Julia Roberts to put Virginia up 3-0 at the 53:11 mark.

Seven minutes later, the Cavaliers connected on the last goal of the game, when Miller found the back of the net off a Hollenberg cross from 12 yards out.

The Hokies had four chances in the second, along with three corners to find the back of the net but was not enough. Despite allowing four goals, Colpitts recorded four saves in goal throughout the night. Virginia's Chantel Jones recorded the win for the Cavaliers and tallied three saves.

The Cavaliers outshot the Hokies 13-10, while Tech out cornered the Cavaliers 6-2. Junior Kelly Conheeny led the Hokies with three shots on the night.

HOKIES STUN NO. 8 NORTH CAROLINA, 1-0

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Junior Kelly Conheeny lifts the Virginia Tech women's soccer team over the No. 8 North Carolina Tar Heels, 1-0, in the 49th minute with the game-winning goal. The victory marks the second defeat over the Tar Heels in Tech's program history. Oct. 4, 2009 was the first time the Hokies defeated North Carolina by the same score in Blacksburg.

Conheeny's game-winner was the first time this year she scored on an ACC opponent as well as her 12th career game-winning goal. As a junior, she sits first in Tech's all-time record books in game-winning goals, three higher than the runner-up, former-teammate Marika Gray, who was the first Hokie to score in a win over the Tar Heels two years ago.

North Carolina (11-3-1, 6-2-1 ACC) came out taking the first shot of the game by Courtney Jones but it went wide, while Tech (12-5-1, 4-4-1 ACC) responded with three back-to-back shots and a corner kick. The Hokies had numerous chances to find the back of the net but all went shy of the goal. Tech's keeper Dayle Colpitts made the only save of the half six minutes in when the Tar Heels fired a low shot from 15 yards out.

Tech took the shot advantage in the first half, shooting eight to the Tar Heel's five. Sophomore Jazmine Reeves led both teams going into the break, taking four shots but it was not enough to put a point on the board. The two teams would go into the break still scoreless.

The two teams came out in the second right where they left off, North Carolina recorded two corner kicks early at the start of play but Tech's defense was there to flush the ball out. North Carolina's Meg Morris took the first shot of the half in the 48th minute, before Conheeny was set up by a Reeves cross and fired one low in the far corner past the Tar Heels' new keeper, Anna Sieloff, to put the only point on the board at the 49:13 mark.

North Carolina turned the intensity up finishing the half with eight more shots and five on goal, but was not enough to tie the score. Tech had a chance to make the score 2-0 late in the game in the 84th minute when Reeves dribbled the ball down the field, juking the keeper and firing a hard shot that hit the post and Anne Lumpkin tried to rebound the ball, but shot went just wide of the goal.

As a team, the Hokies outshot the Tarheels 15-14, while North Carolina out cornered Tech 9-3. Reeves led both teams with six shots, while Conheeny and freshman Kelsey Loupee each recorded two. The Hokies' 15 shots marks the first time in six years that Tech has recorded double-figure shots against North Carolina.

Colpitts finished the day recording her 10th career shutout, including six on the season for the Hokies. The sophomore keeper charted six saves this afternoon, while improving to 7-4-1 on the year. Adelaide Gay and Anna Sieloff split time in the goal, while Sieloff tallied two saves and was charted for the loss bringing her to 3-3-1 on the season.
